CAPTAIN BODGIT MAY SKIP PREAKNESS Kentucky Derby winner Silver Charm is considered a definite starter, but the Captain Bodgit camp was wavering on its next step. Though many expect that Team Valor, the syndicate that owns the colt, won't be able to resist the temptation of the Preakness, syndicate head Barry Irwin said yesterday that the Derby runner-up might pass the second leg of the Triple Crown in order to be better prepared for the June 7 Belmont S. "We're not sure we're going there (the Preakness)," Irwin said. "We'll take a good look at it and I know the trainer (Gary Capuano) will be under severe pressure to run there. We think he'll be unbelievable in the Belmont, so we have to think about that, whether we run in the Preakness or not. We want to have him around for a while, so we don't want to beat him up for the sake of some action." Irwin said his decision would be made by the beginning of next week, which will give him enough time to monitor the colt's condition. Free House (Smokester), third in Saturday's race is probable for the Preakness, while fellow Derby starters Pulpit (A.P. Indy) (4th), Crypto Star (Cryptoclearance) (5th) and Jack Flash (Sovereign Dancer) (7th) are considered possible starters in the second leg of the Triple Crown. Non-Derby starters listed as probables for the Preakness are Frisk Me Now (Mister Frisky), GII Lexington S. winner Touch Gold (Deputy Minister), GII Gotham runner-up Ordway (Salt Lake) and GI Futurity winner Traitor (Cryptoclearance).

RECORD SIMULCAST WAGERING ON DERBY Preliminary simulcast wagering reports on the 123rd Kentucky Derby show the race established a record of $51,237,397 at 1,020 sites throughout North America and the Caribbean. Common pool wagering was $46,642,784, with separate pool accounting for $4,594,613. The number of outlets was also a record, up from 966 sites that took part in the 1996 Kentucky Derby. Simulcast wagering on the '96 Derby was $47,387,442.

 Living up to the great promise which she had shown as a juvenile and putting her disappointing last effort firmly behind her, Sleepytime gave trainer Henry Cecil his fifth 1000 Guineas victory and new stable jockey Kieren Fallon his first Classic success with an outstanding victory Sunday. Settled towards the rear of the field while Oh Nellie cut out the early running, Sleepytime began to make up ground along the rail at halfway and, with Fallon getting a perfect run through the field, came through to grab the lead a furlong out, splitting Oh Nellie and Dazzle and going on to an easy success. Cecil, who had won the fillies' Classic with One In A Million, Fairy Footsteps, Oh So Sharp and last year with Bosra Sham, said: "She won like a good filly. We might try her at a mile and a quarter, but I think it is very doubtful she'll go for the Oaks. She's a very good miler at the moment. She always works like a very good filly, but she needs a strong pace and a nice clear run, which she didn't look like she was going to get today." Fallon, a 32-year-old Irishman said: "Sleepytime did a fantastic piece of work after her disappointing run in the Fred Darling S. at Newbury. It is brilliant to win a Classic. There will be celebrations tonight." The 50-1 outsider Oh Nellie gave owner Michael Tabor a weekend to remember after his Entrepreneur won Saturday's 2000 Guineas. Freddie Head said of his mount, favored PAS DE REPONSE (Danzig) (4th): "I'm obviously disappointed as she was going so well. She hadn't settled early on, but then came back on the bridle really well. When she hit the rising ground, she just went to a walk."

Scratched: Royal Haven.

Langfuhr won the Sept. 21 GI Vosburgh S. at Belmont and then ran eighth in the Oct. 26 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. The winner finished second last time out in the Apr. 20 GIC Vigil H. at Woodbine in his 1997 debut. The second choice was reserved early before advancing four-wide on the outside around the far turn and just ran down pacesetting Stalwart Member in the final strides. "He was real sharp today and he handled the track very well," winning jockey Jorge Chavez said. "He usually doesn't break well from the gate but today he broke out good. Late in the race, I wasn't too sure that he had enough to win, but when I saw the leader starting to tire out I felt that I had some run left, and I really got into him." Assistant trainer Robert Martin indicated that the winner may start next in the GI Metropolitan H. at Belmont on May 26. The 4-5 favorite Elusive Quality tracked the early leaders and showed no response in the stretch. "Today, he never took hold and showed no enthusiasm," jockey Pat Day said of the favorite. "I encouraged him, and I wasn't able to get anything out of him. He got over the track OK, he just didn't extend himself. There really was no plausible excuse that I could think of."

3--Mongol Warrior, 130, c, 4, Deputy Minister--Surely Georgie's, by Alleged. O-H de Kwiatkowski. $8,464.

Margins: 1 3/4, NK, NS.

Also ran: Try Again (Ger), Protektor (Ger), Bon Jovi (Ger), Leconte (Ger), Narrabeth (Ire), Pacajas (Ger), Ocean Sea, Humbel.

Trainer Harro Remmert's filly Wurftaube had been touted as the best of her generation at the end of last year, especially after taking the German St Leger by 11 lengths in September. She won here for the sixth time in seven career starts and beat Surako, one of the best three-year-old colts of last year. "She was not even fully wound up," said her jockey Kevin Woodburn.

Margins: 3/4, SHD, 5.

Giving Dubian trainer Saeed Bin Suroor his first stakes success of the year in Europe, Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum's filly put herself firmly in the spotlight for the Epsom Oaks next month with her hard-fought three-quarter length victory in only her third start. Simon Crisford, representing Sheikh Hamdan, said: "She'll be aimed at the Oaks now, but whether she'll have another run beforehand is hard to say. She looks very much as though she'll stay a mile and a half on this effort. She was a maiden, but we decided to saddle her for a Listed race to give her a test. We needed to know whether she was up to Oaks quality." Frankie Dettori rode Siyadah, his third straight winner at today's meeting, said: "She will relish the Oaks trip at Epsom. She needed this experience and she dug deep when I asked her. She can only improve."

Alcaughtup was claimed for $35,000 when running sixth in a Feb. 28 claimer but came back to finish second in a Mar. 13 allowance race and won a Mar. 29 allowance event by 8½ lengths last time out. The winner, the longest price in the field of four, sat just off the pace but moved up along the rail to gain a short lead at the quarter-pole and drew off in the stretch. Last year's GI Oaklawn H. winner Geri, unraced since finishing tenth in the Oct. 4 GI Meadowlands Cup H., advanced three-wide to the lead at the quarter-pole but tired in the stretch and was passed by Second Childhood.

Local News, Florida:

In response to criticism that the Florida Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering's Tallahassee drug testing lab employed lax lab techniques, used outdated test kits and had an average 45-day turn around on tests, the state's legislators directed the University of Florida's College of Veterinary Medicine to take over the lab's $2 million budget. The university will take over day-to-day activities when the budget goes into effect July 1. It's expected the drug lab will be relocated to Gainesville, the home of the university.
