GENTLEMEN PULLS OFF THE GLOVES IN PIMLICO SPECIAL

There was nothing courteous about the way Gentlemen (Arg) (Robin des Bois) fought off Skip Away (Skip Trial) at the finish of yesterday's GI $600,000 Pimlico Special. Making his first start since running third in the GI Santa Anita H. March 2, the five-year-old was as tough as they come despite the two-month layoff, turning back the challenge of last year's champion three-year-old to take a half-length victory as the crowd's 9-5 favorite. The South American sensation had put together five straight wins, four of them in graded stakes, before finishing behind stablemates Siphon (Brz) and Sandpit (Brz) in the Big 'Cap, but he rebounded after the short break, tracking pacesetter Isitingood (Crusader Sword) (fourth) through six furlongs in 1:10 before taking command, and then outgaming Skip Away to the wire under jockey Gary Stevens. "He really started giving me his all from the three-sixteenths pole," said Stevens. "My horse gave me a run today that he has not shown in his previous races. He's at the top of his game right now." Added trainer Richard Mandella, "I think this is one of the finest horses we've seen in a long time." Gentlemen will take on Skip Away once again in his next start, the GIII MassCap at Suffolk Downs May 31.

ARLINGTON INTERNATIONAL OPENS TODAY

Arlington International Race Course, which first opened in 1927, celebrates 70 years of racing when it opens for its 1997 meeting this afternoon. The Arlington Heights oval will feature a 24-race stakes program, highlighted by the International Festival Sunday, August 24, when the card will include the $400,000 GI Secretariat S., $500,000 GI Beverly D. and $1,000,000 GI Arlington Million. The track will also host seven Grade II and seven Grade III events, offering more than $4.2 million in stakes purses. New on the Arlington wagering menu this season will be the Pick Six and the Rolling Daily Double; the track also introduces "Two In The Money," where a bettor can pick any two horses to finish in the money in any order; "Match Rival," pitting any two horses, trainers or jockeys head-to-head; and "The Countdown," a Pick Four where you must select the fourth-place finisher in the first leg, the third-place finisher in the second, the runner-up in the third and the winner of the fourth race in the bet. First post is 1:05 p.m., CDT this afternoon. The Arlington meet runs through October 10.

Saturday, Pimlico

PIMLICO SPECIAL-GI, $600,000, PIM, 5-10, 4yo/up, 1 3/16m, 1:53, ft.

- 1--GENTLEMEN (ARG), 122, h, 5, Robin des Bois--Elegant Gance, by Loose Cannon. O-A E & R D Hubbard; B-Haras de la Pomme (Arg); T-R Mandella; J-G L Stevens; $360,000. Lifetime Record: Ch. 3yo Colt-Arg, MG1SW-Arg, 14-10-1-1, $1,283,598.
- 2--Skip Away, 119, c, 4, Skip Trial--Ingot Way, by Diplomat Way. ($30,000 2yo 1995 OBSFEB). O-Hine Carolyn H; B-Barnhart Anna Marie (FL); $120,000.
- 3--Tejano Run, 114, h, 5, Tejano--Royal Run, by Wavering Monarch. ($20,000 yrl '93 KESEF). O-Monroe Roy K; B-Runnymede Farm, Inc & Catesby W Clay (KY); $66,000.

Margins: HF, 6HF, 8. Odds: 1.80, 3.30, 4.20.

Also Ran: Isitingood, Mt. Sassafras, Key of Luck, Secreto de Estado, Dr. Banting.

Sixth in his U.S. bow last June, Gentlemen (Arg) then reeled off five consecutive victories, taking the GIII Bay Meadows H. and GII Citation H. on turf and the GIII Native Diver H. and GII San Antonio H. on dirt. High-weight at 123 pounds while trying 10 furlongs for the first time in the GI Santa Anita H. in his latest, the chestnut pressed the pace but weakened to be third to his Brazilian stablemates Siphon and Sandpit. Given a short vacation after the effort, Gentlemen had worked well for this start and ran back to those trials, pressing ISITINGOOD (Crusader Sword) through solid fractions before moving to the lead on the far turn and holding off the late charge of a rejuvenated Skip Away at the wire. "This horse was ready to run his race today," said trainer Richard Mandella. "He's been training very well. It's nice to see that he doesn't need to open up and be in front. We expect him to do great things." As for the runner-up, a lackluster third in the Texas Mile at Lone Star Park last out, jockey Shane Sellers said, "He's back to his old self. We were getting to (Gentlemen) some at the wire. We'll get him next time."

STAKES CLOSINGS

6a	Wavy Run (Ire)	Vienna	Blanc	5-1
7	Felon (Ire)	Hess Jr.	Lopez	8-1

Savinio (The Minstrel) makes his first start since finishing second in the GII San Pasqual H. on the dirt at Santa Anita January 12. The seven-year-old gelding just missed in this event last year, running second by a half-length. Via Lombardia (Ire) (Shardari {Ire}), winless since taking the GIII Cinema H. at Hollywood in July, 1995, has been on the board in three of four starts this year, including a solid third-place effort in a Hollywood allowance April 26 after a two-month break. The five-year-old finished just a half-length behind Isitingood in his then world-record performance at a mile in The Bart H. in February.

Victorian Style (GB) (Nashwan) made her U.S. debut after a six-month absence and promptly picked up back-to-back Santa Anita allowance scores at a mile in February and March. Stretching out to 10 furlongs for her third Stateside start, the four-year-old battled on the lead to the stretch before fading to sixth in the GII Santa Barbara H. April 19; she drops back in distance off the effort. Blending Element (Ire) (Great Commotion) owns a nearly identical record, taking two mile allowances before trying a mile and a half in a restricted stakes and running fourth after a troubled trip last out April 20.

Wild Rush won his debut in a Dec. 30 maiden race by 5 ½ lengths, then took a Jan. 31 allowance race by 6 ½ lengths, both at the Fair Grounds, before shipping to Santa Anita and joining the Richard Mandella stable. Seventh in the Gil San Rafael S. in his first West Coast start, he then tried turf and promptly won the Apr. 13 La Puente S. by a nose. Back on dirt here, the third choice set the pace by a length over favored Anet, winner of the Apr. 20 Lone Star Derby last time out, before opening up his advantage in the stretch to give his trainer a graded-stakes double on the day (see Pimlico Special, p1). "It was not my intention to get the lead," winning jockey Kent Desormeaux said. "He just broke so good. When you don't ride here regularly, the turns can kind of shock you a little, but this guy handled them like a hoop around a barrel. We were under a little pressure from Anet the whole way, but my horse was up to the challenge and had plenty left." Said Corey Nakatani, jockey aboard Anet, "The other horse just ran a tremendous race. We were in the right spot the whole way. I thought I could have had it at any time. We were second best today."

Starry Dreamer ran second in the Feb. 2 Tiffany Lass S. at the Fair Grounds in her 1997 debut on the main track but switched to the turf to run fourth in the Mar. 5 Herecomesthebride S. at Gulfstream, then second in the Apr. 4 Appalachian S. and first last time out in the Apr. 17 Palisades S., both at Keeneland. The favorite dueled for the early lead before shaking loose entering the stretch and holding off the late bid of Cozy Blues for a popular score.

Margins: 3, 2HF, 2. Odds: 1.70, 2.90, 5.20.

Briarcliff won a Nov. 13 allowance race and then ran eighth in the Nov. 28 Gill Falls City H. in her final start at three. Coming off of a four-month layoff to finish fourth last time out in an Apr. 12 Keeneland turf allowance event, the favorite found herself back on the dirt in her second start back; she raced off the pace on the inside before swinging out on the far turn and running down the early leaders in the stretch.

Local News: Churchill Downs

Richter Scale (*Habitony) breezed a half-mile in :49 at Churchill Saturday morning, but the three-year-old, winner of the Derby Trial in his last start, will skip the GI Preakness May 17. "With his lack of seasoning, it's the right thing to do," said trainer Patrick Byrne. No definite plans have been made for his next start, but Byrne said the GI Travers at Saratoga in August is the colt's ultimate goal.

Local News: Lone Star Park

Zarb's Magic (Zarbyev), winner of the 1996 GII Arkansas Derby, had disappointed in recent races and was slated for retirement after Friday night's start at Lone Star. But after a decisive 3 1/2-length score in the allowance feature, the four-year-old will remain in training for now, pointing for the $50,000 Bob Johnson Memorial S. at the Texas track May 24.

Influent won an Oct. 17 $70,000 Belmont claiming race and then the Nov. 3 GII C Bunty Lawless S. at Woodbine before getting second with a troubled trip in a Nov. 17 Aqueduct allowance race. The speedy gelding ended the campaign with a win in a Nov. 23 Aqueduct allowance event; he came off of a five-month layoff last time out and wired the field in the Apr. 11 GIII Maker's Mark Mile S. at Keeneland. The 5-2 favorite to make it two in a row, the dark bay set a contested pace and just held off the late bid of 10-1 longshot Slicious (GB), who was making his American and 1997 debut. "This horse can pretty much run on the lead or off it, but I was mainly concerned that he didn't get too tired too soon," winning trainer Howie Teshar said. "Then horses came to him and Jean-Luc (jockey Samyn) had to use him more than I would have liked. But the bottom line is that this horse just doesn't let other horses pass him."

Local News: Aqueduct

After racing on the California circuit since the fall of 1993, jockey Chris Antley returned to New York Saturday and won with two of his three mounts on the card at Aqueduct. The 31-year-old had been out of action completely for nearly five months before riding for a short time in Kentucky this spring; now reunited with agent Drew Mollica, Antley will remain in New York. Explaining his absence, the jockey said, "I was sour and I needed to get away. I went back home to South Carolina and I got to do a lot of things--I was around for my grandmother's 100th birthday, I got to ride in the Elloree Trials, which is where I got started. I was around for my sister's first baby and my brother's wedding. But you can't escape the publicity surrounding the three-year-olds this time of year. It started to grind on me, and I knew I had to get back."

Also ran: Papua (GB), Michael Venture (GB).

Bookmakers more than halved Silver Patriarch's odds from 20-1 down to 8-1 for the Vodafone Epsom Derby on June 7 after this impressive display. Rider Pat Eddery settled the 5-4 favourite, a fast-finishing third in the G3 Thresher Classic Trial at Sandown April 26, at the back of the field early, but he began to close on the leaders at the top of the hill and with a quarter of a mile to run swept through to take the lead and cruise away to win as he liked, being steadied down by his rider in the closing stages. Winning trainer John Dunlop joked: "I wonder if Entrepreneur (GB) will be sleepless in his box tonight! One should take the form of this race on face value. The runner-up had only won a maiden last month, so we shouldn't get too carried away. But Pat (Eddery) said he handled the course well for a big horse and he couldn't have done it better. He goes straight to Epsom and Pat will ride. Entrepreneur is very good and they say the Guineas is the best trial though."

Margins: 1, 7, 5.

Sheikh Mohammed's homebred filly Crown Of Light (GB) entered the Vodafone Oaks picture at Epsom on June 6 at odds of 14-1 with a brave effort here. She was held up in the rear early but when her rider, French champion jockey Olivier Peslier, tried for a very narrow gap up the rail three furlongs out, she had to be hard checked. She appeared beaten but battled back, finally found the opening and shot through it to win well. Winning trainer Michael Stoute said: "When she was beaten in last Sunday's Pretty Polly S. (fourth), her rider, Michael Kinane, said the ones who finished in front of her would never beat her again. I was very pleased with her today and I am very hopeful for the Oaks." Ukraine Venture (GB) had been joint 10-1 favourite for the Oaks before this disappointing effort, but she is now a 20-1 shot, while today's runner-up Book At Bedtime (Ire) is quoted at 33-1.
