Also ran: Yalaïetanee (GB), Fantastic Fellow, Bahamian Bounty (GB). Scratched: Keos.

The Aga Khan's colt Daylami (Ire) had appeared to be fortunate to beat Loup Sauvage in the Prix de Fontainebleau last time out, but here there was no question about his French 2000 Guineas win. BAHAMIAN BOUNTY (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) and YALAIETANEE (GB) (Sadler's Wells) disputed the lead from the start, with Daylami settled at the rear. On the final turn Yalaïetanee tried to quicken, but he was soon headed by Loup Sauvage and Visionary (Fr); Daylami was only biding his time and he soon came to take command and storm clear for an easy win. Winning trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre said: "That was really nice. He is undoubtedly my best three-year-old. He always races too keen when he is amongst a group of horses, so we get him to relax in behind. He can really quicken well, as he showed today." The Aga Khan was present and said: "Daylami is a pretty useful horse. When there is a strong pace, it helps him to settle. Our only worry today was how he would handle the soft ground. When he disappointed in the Criterium de Saint-Cloud last year the ground was soft and he hung badly. But he is stronger this year. I am sure he can get a mile and a quarter. No doubt there will be pressure to run him in the Epsom Derby, but it is a big step to ask him to go from a mile straight to a mile and a half, so it is more likely he will stay at a mile and go for the St. James' Palace S. at Royal Ascot, or the (10-furlong) Eclipse S. in July."

A sixth win for French trainer Criquette Head and a seventh for her brother, jockey Freddie Head, in this French Classic as Always Loyal, winner last time of the G3 Prix de la Grotte and still unbeaten in her three career starts, battled hard for her victory. Red Camellia (GB) set a good pace and quickened on the final turn, but she was soon challenged by Seebe and Always Loyal on the outside. In a close finish, Always Loyal, who had seemed beaten a furlong out, came back to get up and take the photo from head Seebe. Her trainer said: "This filly is really brave. She fought hard to win--she wouldn't give in. This is very encouraging, as this was only her third start. Her last race did her a lot of good, as it taught her how to battle. I think she might stay more than a mile, so perhaps she will go for the Prix de Diane (French Oaks, at a mile and a quarter) or stay at a mile for the Coronation S. at Royal Ascot (June 18)." Winning owner Sheikh Maktoum al Maktoum, eldest brother of the Maktoum family and ruler of Dubai, donated the winner's prize money to charity. Ian Balding, trainer of Seebe, said: "She ran a smashing race. She surprised me by handling the very soft ground so well. She may go for the Irish 1000 Guineas next or for the Coronation S." Jean Lesbordes, trainer of disappointing favourite MOUSSE GLACEE (FR) (Mtoto {GB}), who had been a fast-finishing runner-up in the Prix de la Grotte, was inclined to blame apprentice jockey Vincent Vion for his filly's poor run, saying: "He lacks experience in big races like this. He had her on the outside for too long and she never relaxed. She will have a different jockey when she goes for the Prix de Diane."

Margins: NK, 3, 3/4. Odds: 9-10, 18-1.

Also ran: Astarabad, Eleos (GB).

A very moderate contest, with not a single Group race winner in the field, and it was Cloudings (Ire) who came through strongly inside the final furlong to prove best. Anthony Stroud, racing manager to Cloudings' owner Sheikh Mohammed al Maktoum, said: "This is a nice horse. He is entered in both the Epsom Derby and the French Derby, but we will wait and see what happens. After all, the form of this race has to be questioned." Zenith Rose (Fr) ran well on the soft ground, but he will miss the French Derby and will instead point for the 10-furlong Grand Prix de Paris at the end of June.

Wavy Run (Ire) earned his first American victory here in his sixth attempt. The winner, who was shipped to the U.S. after taking the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc in April, 1996 at Saint-Cloud, was beaten a length in a May 1 Hollywood allowance in his American debut by champion Northern Spur and then was placed in three of four stakes attempts. His last start came in the Dec. 8 G2 Hong Kong International Bowl at Sha Tin where he finished 10th, beaten five lengths. Making his seasonal debut, the international traveler raced just off the pace set by Romarin (Brz) before overtaking that rival in the stretch and holding off Savinio in the final furlong.

Blushing Heiress started the campaign with a pair of allowance victories at Santa Anita, then tried her luck in the six-and-a-half furlong GIII Las Cienagas H. April 19 and finished fourth with a wide trip. Sent off the second choice going long this time, the chestnut mare popped out of the gate on top, opened up a three-length advantage at the top of the stretch, and then was all out to the wire to best the late-running Real Connection by a nose. "Turning for home, she sailed out when I first asked her to run. I really thought she was going to win by herself," said jockey Chris McCarron, who won both Hollywood stakes this weekend on his return from a shoulder injury. "Then I could hear a couple coming, so I started saying 'Come on, wire,'--and there was the wire. I thought I finished second, though. I looked over and Goncalino (Almeida, aboard the runner-up) was in front of me, and I heard him celebrating. So I congratulated him. Happily, we were both wrong."

Fourth in her debut after breaking slowly, Unreal Squeal was sharp for her next start and led nearly every step in a quarter-mile dash at Santa Anita to win by three-quarters of a length April 19. Trying to stretch her speed a little farther in her stakes debut, the bay filly sprinted to a clear lead right out of the gate and never looked back, cruising under the wire an easy winner.

AERLEON JANE (GB) (f, 4, Caerleon--An Empress {MGSW & MGISP, $428,895}, by Affirmed), twice a winner in England, made her U.S. debut off a six-month vacation, running second in a Santa Anita allowance test April 12. Stretching out off that six-and-a-half furlong affair, the 1/2 to Alto Jane (GB) (The Minstrel), Horse of the Year-Barbados, closed from fourth to take the lead late and pull away to one-length win at 5-1. Lifetime Record: 9-3-2-0, $60,169. O-Locke Paul H. B-P Locke (GB). T-Jeremy Nosedá.

10th-HOL, $34,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:15 3/5, ft. UNCAGED (c, 3, Wild Again--Lone Flight, by Nodouble), fifth in his debut last December, was then second going a mile in January but had been on the sidelines since. Bet down to 9-2 in his return, the bay rated midpack to the far turn, then launched his bid to take the lead inside the final furlong and stride out to a 1 1/2-length tally. Off as the 2-1 favorite in his first start, ANOTHER STAR (Cozzene) closed ground late to get second. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $28,975.
