SKIP AWAY BREEZES FOR MASS 'CAP Last year's Champion Three-Year-Old Colt Skip Away (Skip Trial), still looking for his first victory of 1997, breezed five furlongs in :59 flat under jockey Carlos H. Marquez Jr. Monday at Monmouth Park. The work, over a muddy surface, was a full four seconds faster than the next best training move for the distance. "That's all I wanted, something easy," said trainer Sonny Hine. "Carlos looked like he put him to sleep the first part of it, but he picked it up nicely and he got the last eighth in :11 and change and galloped out three-quarters in 1:12 flat." The four-year-old gray is scheduled to van to Suffolk Downs Thursday morning for a start in the Gill Massachusetts H. May 31. In four starts this year, Skip Away has finished second three times and third once, his most recent effort being a runner-up performance in the GI Pimlico Special May 10. In other Mass 'Cap news, last year's Canadian Horse of the Year Mt. Sassafras (Mt. Livermore) has been declared from the race with a virus. However, another horse was added to the list of probables when Geri (Theatrical {Ire}) was scratched from Monday's Met Mile due to a muddy racetrack.

TOUCH GOLD HEADED FOR BELMONT

STAKES Encouraged by the progress made by Touch Gold (Deputy Minister) since grabbing his quarter at the start of the Preakness May 17, trainer David Hofmans declared yesterday that the three-year-old will make his next start in the June 7 Belmont S. Quarter crack specialist Ian McKinlay worked on Touch Gold yesterday and will apply a patch to the injured area tomorrow. "I'm growing more positive and all because of the foot," Hofmans said. "I wasn't as much concerned about his conditioning as I was the foot. I'm starting look forward to the race." The colt, fourth in the Preakness, will work Friday, going "at least six furlongs," according to the trainer. "I want him to go slow and easy," he said. "If he does that easy and isn't too tired, we'll know more. He's taking his gallops strong and good and is acting like he's okay."

Margins: NK, 3/4, NK. Odds: 4.90, 25.75, 2.75.
Also Ran: Richter Scale, Isitingood, Pacific Fleet, Ghostly Moves, Stalwart Member, Diligence, Alcaughtup. Scratched: Geri.

The champion sprinter in Canada last year, Langfuhr shipped down from his native land twice in '96, taking the Gil Forego H. at Saratoga and the GI Vosburgh at Belmont. Second in the GIC Vigil H. at Woodbine off a six-month layoff April 20, the bay was back on the road for his last start, shipping to Aqueduct to take the GI Carter H., and he earned his fourth straight New York stakes win here. Content to sit at the back of the pack through fractions of :22.29 and :44.45 set by STALWART MEMBER (Claramount), the crowd's third choice made his move around the far turn, joining longshot Western Winter in the stretch and proving narrowly best after a prolonged drive. "There was a lot of speed in the race and the track was favoring speed, but you can't rush this horse or else you lose control," said winning jockey Jorge Chavez. "We stayed back a little, but then we were behind horses and I was worried that I didn't bring enough goggles--I was down to my last ones. That's why we came out a little--so I could see." The 2-1 favorite ISITINGOOD (Crusader Sword), breaking from post 10, was uncharacteristically far back early, sitting sixth after a quarter and seventh after a half; five-wide on the turn, he had nothing left for the final furlong and finished fifth.

Margins: NK, NO, 2. Odds: 19.60, 3.00, 1.80.

Also Ran: Talloires, Shanawi (Ire), Sandpit (Brz).

In a six-horse field highlighted by such standouts as multiple Grade I winners SANDPIT (BRZ) (Baynoun {Ire}), Sunshack (GB) and Marlin, only one of the entrants had yet to add a graded stakes to his resume. Rainbow Dancer took care of that Monday, upsetting his five competitors and paying $41.20 for a $2 win bet. The six-year-old, a listed stakes-winner in France, came to the U.S. for his 1997 campaign and had been winless in two stateside starts, most recently finishing 10th and last behind Marlin in the GII San Luis Rey at Santa Anita March 23. Rested for two months following that effort, Rainbow Dancer displayed his sharpness with a bullet seven-furlong work over the Hollywood turf course May 18. Ridden for the first time here by Alex Solis, he threw his head slightly at the start after being a bit fractious in the gate, saved ground while fifth early, angled outside on the second turn, then closed gamely in the stretch to get up in the final strides. "I was very disappointed after his last race," said winning trainer Jenine Sahadi, who took the Westchester S. with two-year-old Majorbigtimesheet earlier on yesterday's card. "The chart line didn't show it, but he banged the rail pretty hard." Sahadi wore the same outfit yesterday that she had on when Grand Flotilla won the 1994 Hollywood Turf H., her first major stakes victory. The race's biggest surprise may have been the subpar performance of 3-2 favorite Sandpit, who was making his first start since finishing third in the April 3 Dubai World Cup. The eight-year-old led early through slow fractions of :25 3/5, :49 4/5 and 1:13 2/5 before giving way in the stretch to be sixth and last. "It's hard to believe Sandpit ran like that," said trainer Richard Mandella. "I'm afraid of what I might find tomorrow. But he looked fine walking off. The slow pace shouldn't have been any problem. Back to the drawing board."

News Continued.

MAJOR DICK HERN TO RETIRE After 40 years as a trainer, one of the great names on the British racing scene--Major Dick Hern--has decided to retire at the end of the current season. "The Major" first took out his licence in November, 1957 and since then has trained three Epsom Derby victors--Troy, Henbit and Nashwan. He also saddled three Epsom Oaks heroines--including Her Majesty The Queen's Dunfermline, seven winners of the Doncaster St. Leger, two winners of both the British 1000 and 2000 Guineas, five winners of the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. and Champion Sprinter Dayjur, voted 1990 Horse of the Year in England. For much of his career, he was No.1 trainer to The Queen, but in recent years he has trained mainly for Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum. For much of the past decade, The Major has been confined to a wheelchair after suffering severe injuries in a hunting accident, but this did not in any way diminish his enthusiasm or his skill in his career. "I've had a licence for 40 years," said Hern Monday. "I've been fortunate enough to train some very good horses for some very good owners and I've enjoyed every minute of it."

Riding a four-race winning streak into this race, the talented Avenue Of Gold had put together back-to-back Golden Gate stakes wins in her last two starts and made it three in a row here despite the presence of 2-5 EXOTIC WOOD (Rahy). Sent right to the front by jockey Russell Baze, the bay battled the favorite through a half in :43 2/5 and then opened up the lead as the crowd's choice faded; she held on gamely in the final yards for the victory. Exotic Wood, beaten only once in her nine prior starts and that a second to champion Serena's Song, was making her first start since capturing the GI Go For Wand S. at Saratoga last July 28. Tiring from her early efforts, she was not abused in the final drive and finished fourth in the four-horse field.

A first Group race win for Croft Pool and his trainer Jeremy Glover; the partnership will attempt another event at this level in the King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 20. At halfway in the Temple S., Croft Pool, making his first start of the season at odds of 20-1, was well back in the field. But, producing a great finish up the testing Sandown Hill, he split the two leaders Brave Edge and SYLVA PARADISE (IRE) (Dancing Dissident) and went on to win cleverly. Glover said, "I've always thought highly of this horse. This was his first start this year because he picked up an infection to one of his hind legs while I was getting him ready for the (G3) Palace House S. at Newmarket (May 3). We've always had to be patient with him because he had knee trouble as a youngster and basically we kept him for three years before asking him to do anything. But he's improving all the time with maturity and he's a genuine Group horse."

Both winner and runner-up are slated to meet again at level weights in the 2 1/2-mile G1 Ascot Gold Cup June 19. Persian Punch raced behind the leader KUTTA (GB) (Old Vic {GB}) until the final quarter mile, where he took command and held off a strong late challenge from Celeric for the victory. "We didn't know how to beat Celeric," said winning trainer David Elsworth, "but when he came to challenge, our horse found a bit more. I'd like to think he will progress further and I suppose he will stay the extra half mile of the Ascot Gold Cup."

The ultra-consistent Men's Exclusive, never out of the money in 10 career starts, was most recently second against California-breds in the Valiant Pete H. at Santa Anita April 21. Moving up to graded stakes company here, the dark bay posted a wire-to-wire victory for the first stakes win of his career. "Gene Reed has owned horses for 50 years and this is the best he's had," said winning trainer Wesley Ward. "I always wanted him. I bring horses to his farm and I saw this one when he was born. I think we're going to give the horse some time off."

Majorbigtimesheet broke his maiden at first asking by a neck at Hollywood May 1. Moving right up into the stakes ranks, the 5-2 second choice dueled outside pacesetter Swiss Echo early, put a head in front entering the drive and drew off in the stretch under a steady hand ride. "I look for great things out of him," said winning trainer Jenine Sahadi. "I don't know what we'll do next. He runs so hard. After his last race, he laid down in his stall for about five days afterward and just wouldn't get up. But he's a very, very laid-back horse. He's got a ton of class and, obviously, a lot of ability. Sent off the 2-1 bettors' choice, the chestnut colt settled in mid-pack early, swept to the front passing the quarter pole and drew clear for a two-length decision. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $33,079. O/B-Allen E. Paulson (KY). T-Bill Shoemaker.

Local News, Hollywood Park:

Jockey Kent Desormeaux sponsored a "crawfish boil" after Monday's races at the Hollywood Park backstretch. "I've got 500 pounds of crawfish coming in from Louisiana," said Desormeaux, a native of Maurice, La. "It's all in the spirit of Memorial Day. There'd better be some hungry people back here!" The event is Desormeaux's way of thanking the backside employees for all of their hard work.
