SILVER CHARM SIZZLES AT CHURCHILL

Breezing for the first time since his second-place finish in the GI Belmont S. June 7, Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Silver Charm (Silver Buck) zipped three furlongs in :33 4/5 between the fifth and sixth races at Churchill yesterday afternoon. With jockey Joe Steiner in the irons, the colt went the quarter in :22 2/5 and galloped out the half in :47. "How about that :33 and 4...could we run that Belmont again?" quipped owner Bob Lewis after the move. Silver Charm returned to the winner's circle after the work, where he was presented with a silver basket filled with apples, carrots and peppermints. The colt will make his next start in the GI Buick Haskell Invitational at Monmouth August 3.

DUBAI WORLD CUP EARNS GROUP 1 STATUS

According to yesterday's Sporting Life, the Dubai World Cup will be run as a Group 1 event next year. Nad Al Sheba's $4 million mile-and-a-quarter test was awarded the top grading by the International Cataloguing Standards Committee after only two runnings. It is the first Group race for the United Arab Emirates, which also holds six Listed stakes. "Following the promotion of the principal races of the United Arab Emirates to Listed-race status in 1996, the granting of Group 1 status to the Dubai World Cup from 1998 is confirming the successful development of racing in that country," Louis Romanet, chairman of the ICSC, told Sporting Life.

BENNY THE DIP TO TAKE ON BOSRA SHAM

Epsom Derby winner Benny The Dip (Silver Hawk), who had been expected to aim for next Sunday's Budweiser Irish Derby and a much-anticipated rematch with the colt he beat at Epsom, Silver Patriarch (Ire) (Saddlers' Hall {Ire}), is now likely to skip the race. The three-year-old will instead clash with Europe's champion filly Bosra Sham (Woodman), brilliant winner of the G2 Prince Of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot, in the G1 Coral-Eclipse S. at Sandown Park on July 5. Benny The Dip's trainer John Gosden said Saturday: "The colt's owner-breeder, Landon Knight, takes the view that his best trip is a mile and a quarter. The horse will love Sandown. It's a great front-runner's track and he will be able to kick off the bend. Obviously I would prefer it if Bosra Sham missed the Eclipse and went straight to the King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 26, but Benny The Dip will be receiving weight from her."

Margins: 1 1/4, 1HF, 11HF. Odds: 18.00, 0.85, 1.65. Also Ran: Salt It, Kris' Pine Sticks, Chargitorose.

Ajina ended her two-year-old campaign with a dominant seven-length tally in the GII Demoiselle S. at Aqueduct in November but had been unable to reproduce that form in her first four starts at three. A well-beaten third behind Sharp Cat in the GI Acorn S. last time she ran May 31, the dark bay homebred was ignored at 18-1 but came to life, stalking the Acorn winner through rapid early fractions before putting a head in front as they straightened for home and then edging clear in the final furlong. "This is such a big surprise, especially in a tough race like this," said trainer Bill Mott. "Going into the race, I wasn't too sure if (Ajina) was going to be able to outrun Sharp Cat, but we really weren't left with many options. I guess we'll have to chalk this one up to luck. What a pleasant surprise." Mott added the Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont July 19 could be next for the filly. The runner-up, now 0-for-three at a mile and an eighth, set the pace but could not hold on. "I thought we got away with realistic fractions, so I thought we were in good shape," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "But (Ajina) tracked us in a good spot and had a better day than us." Sharp Cat is also possible for Coaching Club.

Local News: Arlington International

Showing their appreciation of their fans, Arlington International Racecourse officials announced yesterday they will drop the takeout on trifectas Friday, June 27, by 40 percent. The track will add extra trifectas to the wagering menu that day, and payouts on all winning trifecta tickets will reflect a takeout of just 15 percent, compared to the State of Illinois' normal 25-percent takeout. "We want to give something back to our regular players, particularly those who have supported us throughout the first part of our meet," said Arlington CEO Scott Mordell. The 40-percent takeout reduction applies to trifecta wagering on Arlington races and will be available not only on-track but also throughout the track's simulcast network, including out-of-state locations. "We have loyal customers throughout the country, and we want everyone to have the opportunity to participate in this special event," said Mordell.

Pulpit (A.P. Indy), recovering from surgery to remove a chip from his left knee, is back under tack at Churchill. Fourth in the Kentucky Derby in his last start, the colt will walk under tack in trainer Frank Brothers' shedrow for two-to-three weeks before returning to the track to jog. As for his return to racing, Brothers said, "The game plan if he's good, which we expect him to be, is to try and get a race, or possibly two, in him this fall," but added, "The Breeders' Cup is not on the agenda. It's just too much, too soon."

Vivace, who beat males last year in the GIII Alabama Derby, won a May 2 Lone Star allowance race in her 1997 debut and then finished second in a May 30 Calder allowance event in her previous start. Overlooked by the bettors here, the winner raced off the pace before moving up leaving the backstretch and taking the lead in the lane to beat the boys once again. "I knew she didn't have to be in front, so we just sat back and let the others go," winning jockey Randy Romero said. "I sat chilly, saved the ground and when I called on her she came running. She's got the class to beat these. I really think she is one of the top 10 fillies in the country."

K.O. Punch broke his maiden with an eye-catching nine-length uppercut in his first start May 25, but landed the telling blow in his stakes debut. Bet down to 1-2, the bay stalked BILLY MOUSSE (Personal Hope) (fifth) for a quarter, gained the lead as they headed into the far turn and outclassed the field with a first-round knockout. "That was a no-brainer," said winning jockey Chris McCarron. "He's got a lot of talent, and he's a good-looking horse. He sure looks the part of a good one, and he doesn't feel like a sprinter...he feels like he wants to go on, and that's very encouraging." The colt is likely to make his next start in the GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship July 20.

Off at 3-1, the chestnut miss sat second for a mile, then hooked pacesetter BUTTERFIELD EIGHT (Charlie Barley) and the pair battled to the wire in a bumpy finish. Trainer Richard Mandella sent out a trio of Hollywood Gold Cup hopefuls to breeze yesterday morning. Defending Gold Cup champ Siphon (Brz) (Itajara {Brz}), getting ready for his first start since running second in the Dubai World Cup April 3, flashed through seven furlongs in a bullet 1:24, while stablemates Sandpit (Brz) (Baynoun {Ire}), third in Dubai, and Gentlemen (Arg) (Robin des Bois), winner of the GI Pimlico Special in his latest, went the same distance in 1:25 2/5 while working in company. "It was a real good work," said jockey Corey Nakatani, rider of Sandpit. "He seems back to his old self...he sure made my morning with this work."

Also on the work tab, Real Connection (Vigors), second by a nose in her last two, breezed three-quarters in 1:13 for next Sunday's GI Beverly Hills H.

Southern California sports talk show hosts Steve Mason and John Ireland held a contest to name the two-year-old Phone Trick filly which they co-own, and the winning name, worth a pair of tickets to the 1997 Breeders' Cup at Hollywood November 8, was Phone Abroad, suggested by Joel Federbush of New Jersey.
