LABEEB BACK ON TRACK GISW Labeeb (GB) (Lear Fan), who was four-for-five in the U.S. with one second before dropping his rider in the GI Manhattan H. last out June 7, is back at trainer Neil Drysdale's barn after spending several days schooling with trainer Karl Webster. The lightly raced five-year-old, who has on occasion refused to work in the mornings, had behaved perfectly in the afternoon prior to the Manhattan, winning the GI Hollywood Derby in 1995, going two-for-two in 1996 and then taking the GI El Rincon H. and finishing second in the GI Early Times Turf Classic in his two prior outings this year. But in his first start at Belmont Park, the talented but temperamental turf star took a right-hand turn while making his run at the top of the stretch and unseated jockey John Velazquez. "We've been kind of starting over with him," said Drysdale. "We're getting his confidence back. We only kept him at Karl's barn for three days. We thought a change of scenery would do him some good." Added Webster, "We had a little trouble with him on the turf course, but I got after him and he's been going along well." The bay, who started his career in France and is now five-for-14 lifetime with earnings of $507,039, worked three furlongs in :39 3/5 over the Hollywood turf July 3. He is expected to make his next start in the GI Eddie Read H. at Del Mar August 3.

SUCCESSFUL SURGERY FOR SAVINIO Savinio (The Minstrel), a MGSW of $1,115,899, underwent surgery on his left eye Wednesday after suffering an injury when second in the GIII Golden Gate H. last out June 8, but the seven-year-old is expected to make a full recovery. "It was a recurrence of an old injury he suffered in the 1995 American H.," said trainer Walter Greenman. "He got a whip in the eye by another jockey in the race. We'll remove the stitches in two weeks. He'll be fine."

Sharp Cat had earned a pair of Grade I wins at a mile and another at a mile and a sixteenth but was looking to carry her speed an extra sixteenth of a mile here as the even-money chalk. Second in the GI Mother Goose S. in her best showing yet at the distance last out, the free-running chestnut once again set serious fractions but this time was unthreatened in the drive to the wire, coasting home under new rider Alex Solis. "She's one of those horses that runs as fast as she can without feeling the whip," said Solis. "It's as if she's thinking, 'I'm running my fastest--just let me do my thing.' She felt like she was just floating around there." Insisted trainer D. Wayne Lukas, "She's still a very immature filly. We're counting on her to get stronger. I don't see any reason why this filly can't go a mile and an eighth, but I would like to see her mature." As for the immediate future, Lukas said, "We wanted to get one over a mile and an eighth if we could over the Breeders' Cup surface. She has been going pretty strong. There's a natural break for us now. We can give her a little rest." Second choice STAR OF GOSHEN (Lord At War {Arg}) pressed the pace early but tired badly in her first try beyond a mile and was eased late. "Something has to be bothering her," said trainer Mike Puype. "She looked like she was in total distress when she was coming back, so something internally has to be bothering her. We were planning to give her a little time after this race, regardless. She'll take a couple of months off and we'll regroup."

Diligence emerged as a top sprinter with a victory in the May 3 GIII Churchill Downs H. but encountered traffic problems when finishing a disappointing ninth in his latest start, the May 26 GI Metropolitan H. Given a short break after the Met and dropping back in distance here, the winner stalked pacesetter favorite Elusive Quality in second before surging to the front a furlong out and then holding off Royal Haven late to preserve the victory. "Everything went the way Nick (trainer Zito) told me it would," winning jockey Jose Santos said. "He said to stay close and be near Elusive Quality because he was the only speed, and then just to ride (Diligence) hard to the end. He felt that we had the best horse going in, and he was right. It was a pretty good day for me and (owner) Mr. Steinbrenner. I rode two winners for him, and now I want my Yankee tickets." Also Ran: See You Soon (Fr), Regal Approval, Leo's Gypsy Dancer, Mystery Code, Tassa.

Witchful Thinking proved her versatility by winning the Apr. 4 Appalachian S. at Keeneland on the turf and then wiring the field in the Apr. 27 National Jockey Club Oaks at Sportsman's by five lengths on the dirt, but she found the competition too tough when registering a sixth-place finish in the May 31 GI Acorn S. at Belmont last time out. The second choice went straight to the front to gain a clear lead down the backside and then prevailed under a drive in the stretch. Favored SEE YOU SOON (FR) (Kaldoun {Fr}), making her American debut in this spot, trailed the field of eight early and staged a mild rally in the stretch to finish fourth. "She seemed a little intimidated, so I kept her covered up early," said Corey Nakatani, rider aboard the beaten favorite. "She just ran like a horse that's green. She'll get better."

Facing a less-imposing field here, the bay was made the 5-2 favorite but won it like she was 2-5, dueling on the lead for three furlongs before opening it up on the far turn and cruising down the lane to an impressive victory. Midwest Report cont.*Local News: Arlington International

The unhappiness at Arlington International Racecourse over the prospect of returning to a six-day racing week did not manifest itself when entries were drawn for today's card. Dark on Mondays during the first eight weeks of the meet, the track saw 80 horses entered and all nine races filled for the first Monday program of the season. Last week, the Illinois Horsemen's Association held a meeting at which most members spoke in favor of maintaining the five-day racing week; Arlington officials also endorsed the status quo--with Mondays and Tuesdays dark--but the Illinois Racing Board, which set the schedule last fall, called for the resumption of Monday racing, starting this week and continuing through September 1.
