SILVER CHARM SHARP AT SANTA ANITA

ANITA Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Silver Charm (Silver Buck), who missed a few days of training after shipping to California from Churchill Downs and coming down with a slight fever, proved himself back on track with a solid work at Santa Anita yesterday morning. The grey zipped five furlongs in :59 3/5 as he prepares for his next start in the GI Buick Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Park August 3. "He worked great," said jockey Gary Stevens, who was aboard for the breeze. "He was blowing a bit. (Trainer Bob Baffert) really hasn't done a lot with him the last couple of weeks, so this was a pretty serious work. He handled it well, went great and his attitude was great--he enjoyed it." Added Baffert, "I had to stop on him, but he's fine now. He was pretty eager today. I caught him galloping out in 1:13 1/5. We'll set him down good in his next work." Stevens, himself recovering from knee surgery, is expected to ride at Hollywood Wednesday. "The knee feels good," he said. "(Friday) was my first day working horses--just one. I had some stiffness (Friday) night, and this morning it was a little stiff early on, but I felt great when I was riding."

"BUSINESS" AS USUAL Business is Boomin

(Businessisbusiness), an eight-year-old who returned to action after exactly five years off to win a $15,000 claiming race at Garden State May 8, made it two-for-two on the comeback trail with a dramatic win at Monmouth Park yesterday afternoon. Sent off at 2-1 in the $23,000 turf allowance event, sixth race on the card, the chestnut sat fourth while in traffic to deep stretch, then found a seam to run through and just got up to best 8-5 favorite Ray's Approval (With Approval) by a nose. The Kentucky-bred, owned and trained by Michael Dickinson, was making his eighth career start Saturday; he has been first or second in all four turf tries.

Prince Khaled Abdullah is set to end a remarkable week by even his high standards, hoping for another Classic success with Yashmak (Danzig), fourth to the same owner's Reams Of Verse in the Epsom Oaks June 6 and then runaway winner of the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Ascot June 19. Main dangers appear to be the French filly Brilliance (Fr) (Priolo) and Aidan O'Brien's Strawberry Roan (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). The latter finished a disappointing eighth in the Budweiser Irish Derby at this track June 29, but was an unlucky runner-up in Irish 1000 Guineas May 24, while Brilliance won the G1 Prix Saint-Alary May 18, then finished third in the French Oaks (Prix de Diane Hermes) at Chantilly June 8.

She came back to win the June 1 GII Sheepshead Bay H. and added to the new skein here. The second choice rated off the pace on the inside before swinging out for the stretch drive and running down favored Memories of Silver in the final 70 yards. "I rode her with a lot of confidence," said jockey Mike Smith. "I just wanted to give her a chance to prove what she can do. She was having fun out there. When I asked her to lay it down, she ran for me. She ran the way she was supposed to run." Beboppin Baby, winner of the Dec. 21 Demetris Boy H. at Sportsman's for Illinois-breds in his three-year-old finale, picked up his first win at four with an impressive speed figure in a June 1 Arlington allowance victory in his fifth start of the campaign last out. The third choice tracked the early pace before angling out for the stretch drive and running down the leaders late. "I was happy when the two favorites went out to cut out the fractions," winning jockey Garrett Gomez said. "I was just hoping he'd be able to finish good. He did exactly what I wanted to." The favorite City By Night stalked the early pace set by Stephanotis and then took the lead in the stretch, but could not hold on. "I couldn't believe anybody ran us down," said his jockey, Shane Sellers. "My horse ran a great race, and all you could do is take your hat off to the winner."

Crafty Friend, winner of the GIII Broward H. at Gulfstream in January, finished eighth taking on Grade I company in the Donn H. in February and then went to the sidelines for four months. Resurfacing at Hollywood under new management, the chestnut set the pace and held well to be second in a 7 1/2-furlong allowance June 11 and was favored here off that effort. The speedy colt once again broke sharply, dueled with Hesabull to the top of the stretch and then drove clear to equal the track record. "This horse really is something special," said jockey Alex Solis. "When (Hesabull) came to him at the three-eighths pole, he started fighting and fighting, really hard. This son-of-a-gun, he rebroke and really gave me a good kick the last part." As for what's next, trainer Wally Dollase said, "We might go in the Pacific Classic (August 9 at Del Mar) against the big boys. This is a pretty damn good horse."

Fresa won a June 13 dirt allowance and then captured the June 28 Irving Distaff H. sprinting on the grass, both at Lone Star. Going for her third straight at the new Texas track, the second choice raced on the inside just off the pace before angling out at the top of the stretch and running down From Time to Time in the final stages. "I was a little worried about whether she could get the distance," said trainer William Stice, "but I knew if she could ever get 1 1/8 miles, it would be on this turf course. She is sharper now than she has ever been. She's definitely at her peak."
