WILL'S WAY PREVAILS IN WHITNEY Repeating the Saratoga successes of his champion sire, Will's Way (Easy Goer) earned a hard-fought victory over Formal Gold (Black Tie Affair {Ire}) in yesterday's GI Whitney H. at Saratoga Racecourse. Easy Goer, champion two-year-old of 1988, earned a Saratoga double in the 1989 GI Travers and GI Whitney and his son returned to the upstate New York track a year after taking the Travers to complete his own double. The Whitney marked the third straight meeting for Will's Way, Skip Away (Skip Trial) and Formal Gold. Skip Away, who had defeated his two rivals in the GIII Massachusetts H. and GII Suburban, was made the even-money choice, but never threatened the top two. Formal Gold, second in the MassCap and third in the Suburban, led from the start but Will's Way was never far back. At the top of the stretch, Formal Gold's advantage dwindled to a head and the fight was on. The pair was inseparable down the stretch, but Will's Way put a determined nose in front just at the wire for the second Grade I win of his career. The victory came as no surprise to winning trainer H. James Bond. "I can honestly say that I knew he was going to run this good. Coming into the race, he was doing outstanding and he was training well. He really loves Saratoga and he loves this track." The Whitney win gave jockey Jerry Bailey his fifth winner at Saratoga yesterday. "That is something that is always special, but is extra special here in Saratoga because you have so many fans and so many owners watching," Bailey said of the feat.

LAWMAKERS PROPOSE NYRA FRANCHISE

EXTENSION A bill was introduced into both houses of the New York legislature Friday night that, if passed, would extend NYRA's franchise to operate racing at Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga until Dec. 31, 2007. NYRA's franchise currently expires Dec. 31, 2000. The same bill will provide for a minor increase in purses and will give OTB the opportunity to simulcast more races from outside New York state. Under the provisions in the bill, there will be unlimited simulcasting from midnight until 1 p.m., at which time OTB could take races from countries such as Hong Kong, England and Australia. OTB will also be allowed to accept bets on two out-of-state tracks during the hours NYRA is operating. Currently, they are allowed to take only one.

Will's Way kicked off his 1997 campaign with a 3 1/2-length victory in a May 15 Belmont allowance race and then finished third in the May 31 GIII Massachusetts H. at Suffolk and second last time out in the July 4 GII Suburban H. at Belmont. The winner, who checked slightly while breaking outward a bit at the start, stalked the pace from just off the outside of pacesetter Formal Gold and challenged that rival on the far turn before battling heads apart down the stretch and prevailing at the wire. "When Formal Gold came out (around the first turn) he turned a six-horse race into a two-horse race," winning jockey Jerry Bailey said. "Skip Away got squeezed back and he had a lot to overcome, especially with 125 pounds on him. From that point on, all we had to do was to do whatever Formal Gold did. At the quarter-pole, I really felt we had the race won." Favored Skip Away tracked the leaders in third position before inching up on the far turn but lacked response in the stretch. "He was just a flat horse today," jockey Shane Sellers, aboard Skip Away, said. "I don't know if it was the track he didn't like or what." Trainer Sonny Hine indicated that Skip Away will run next in the Aug. 23 GII Iselin H. at Monmouth or Belmont's Sept. 20 GI Woodward S.

Coming off of a fifth-place finish in the GI Hempstead H. June 28, the bay filly pressed the pace before taking a short lead in upper stretch and held off Real Connection in the closing yards. "I thought when we hit the lane she'd fire big, and it turned out to be true," said winning jockey Pat Day. "I think she still had something in the tank. Grass might be good for her." Chris McCarron, riding the beaten favorite Different (Arg), said, "She just didn't seem to have her heart in it. I'm a bit flabbergasted that she didn't fire."

Wild Event came off of a 16-month layoff to finish third in a May 17 dirt allowance race but won June 12, his turf debut, and July 9 grass allowance races. The winner set a slow pace and then dug in gamely to hold Storm Trooper off in the stretch. "He relaxed better for me today than he has in his previous races," winning jockey Mark Guidry said. "That's what made all the difference in the world. Whenever they came up to him, it was like I was on a fresh horse. I give everybody who works with this horse all the credit because he is such a high-strung colt." Winning trainer Lou Goldfine indicated that the winner may be supplemented to the GI Arlington Million August 24.

Saturday, Goodwood, England:

3--Papering (Ire), 127, f, 4, Shaadi--Wrapping (GB), by Kris (GB). O-Sheikh Mohammed al Maktoum. $14,209.

Margins: 2 1/2, 2, 3.

Also ran: Grey Way, Last Second (Ire), Etoile (Fr), Maid Of Camelot (GB).

Completing a Group race "double" for her owner, Prince Khaled Abdullah, Ryafan, winner of the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac as a juvenile, proved the class filly of the race and comfortably justified 9-4 favoritism. Coming off a win in the G2 Amcor Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 9, the filly was always travelling sweetly while Papering (Ire) set the pace. Ryafan went to the front three-eighths of a mile from home and galloped on too strongly for Entice (Fr), who was the only one to come out of the pack to chase her. Trainer John Gosden said: "She was slow to come back to her best, but she's there now, as we said after she won at Newmarket. Fortunately she has a very experienced and patient owner, who told me to leave her alone for a while. It takes a remarkable horse to keep its form all season long. I've seen it done in America, but there they are not subject to the same climatic changes as we have here in Britain." Ryafan's long-term goal is the Oct. 5 G2 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp.

Now a perfect two-for-two, Xaar (GB) became the first Group winner for freshman sire and '93 2000 Guineas victor Zafonic (Gone West), with an authoritative victory. Coming off a win in his debut June 17, Xaar was always handily placed behind the leader and came to dispute the lead with Charge d'Affaires (GB) inside the final quarter mile. Those two drew away from the opposition, with Xaar taking command a sixteenth from the wire, and drawing away impressively. Prince Khaled Abdullah's racing manager Grant Pritchard-Gordon said: "We're very excited about this, as Xaar is Zafonic's first Group winner. The colt has a lovely attitude. Andre Fabre will not rush into making a decision about where to run him next as he improved very quickly before this race and we do not want to rush him. The (G1) Prix Morny (at Deauville August 24) is a possibility or we will wait for the (G1) Prix de la Salamandre (at Longchamp September 20)."
