HECTOR PROTECTOR RETURNS TO EUROPE

England's National Stud at Newmarket has leased Hector Protector (Woodman) from Teruya Yoshida's Shadai Stallion station in Hokkaido, Japan, for the 1998 Northern Hemisphere season. The deal was handled jointly by the British Bloodstock Agency and The National Stud. Nine-year-old Hector Protector, a full-brother to the 1996 European champion three-year-old filly Bosra Sham, raced for his breeder, Stavros Niarchos, and was the unbeaten champion juvenile in Europe in 1991. As a three-year-old, he won the French 2000 Guineas and the G1 Prix du Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard Jacques Le Marois before being sold to Shadai Farm. Hector Protector was leading Freshman Sire in Japan in 1995 with eight winners of 14 races and leading second-season sire in 1996 producing 31 winners of 40 races. He has produced four stakes winners from his first crop of runners, and is currently fifth on the Japanese two-year-old sires list and 11th on the overall sires list. At The National Stud, Hector Protector will be limited to 75 mares; the nomination fee and closing date for applications will be announced at a later date.

FASIG-TIPTON PREFERRED YEARLING SALE SHOWS GAINS

The 1997 Fasig-Tipton Preferred Yearling Sale, held Sunday at the Humphrey S. Finney Pavilion in Saratoga Springs, New York, saw 49 horses sell for a total of $1,423,000, up 87 percent from last year's auction, when 38 hips grossed $761,800. The 1997 average, $29,041, showed an increase of 45 percent over last year's figure of $20,047. The sales topper was a colt by Salt Lake--Dissa Six (Saratoga Six); consigned by Jeffrey T. Minton, agent for Ivy League Farm, the chestnut was purchased for $100,000 by Sugar Maple Farm. The highest-priced filly, a daughter of Dr. Blum out of Playgirl Princess (Princely Native), was consigned by Kathleen Feron and attracted a bid of $82,000 from Carl Lizza Jr.

AMERICA'S DAY WAGER CHRISTENED Organizers of America's Day At The Races have released the name of their inaugural pick-3 wager. The "Coast-to-Coast Triple" features a 10-percent takeout, the lowest ever for an exotic bet; the three legs of the pick-3 will be the Miss Woodford S. from Monmouth, the Springfield S. from Arlington International and the Del Mar Derby from Del Mar. All three races will be televised live Monday, September 1, on espn2 from 5-5:30 p.m. EDT.

Salty Perfume dominated in her first start over this track, breaking her maiden by 16 lengths in front-running fashion July 24. Even-money to run back to that effort, the bay once again popped out of the gate on top, set a solid pace and strode away at the top of the lane. "It was an easy ride," said jockey Shane Sellers. "I was just a passenger today. I didn't see anyone until the final turn, and when I called on her she took off." It was the fifth Adirondack victory for trainer D. Wayne Lukas, who sent out four straight winners from 1985-88. He had purchased this one privately for a reported $650,000 from trainer Elliott Walden after her maiden win. "A lot of credit for this race has to go to Elliott Walden," said Lukas. "He got her ready for this race--we just gave her a breeze and she was ready." As for what's next, he remarked, "Right now, we're going to the Spinaway (August 29). She's the real deal."

Wild Wonder (Wild Again), third in the Gill Riva Ridge S. June 7 at Belmont Park in his most recent outing, has made a full recovery from a near-fatal attack of botulism and is expected to return to training this fall. The three-year-old had been shipped to Delaware Park after his latest effort, where he fell ill, but is doing well since arriving at Oakwind Farm in Lexington, Kentucky. "He looks great and he doesn't show any outward signs of the problem," said trainer Greg Gilchrist. "We're looking forward to his return." The colt will travel to Keith Asmussen's training center in Texas in September, and move to Gilchrist's barn in November.
