U.S. SIRES HIGHLIGHT TATTERSALLS HOUGHTON YEARLING SALE

Thirty-five American-based stallions will be represented in the upcoming Tattersalls Houghton Yearling Sale in Newmarket, England, set for September 30-October 2. Among the 351 hips catalogued are yearlings by such top sires as Danzig, Gulch, Mr. Prospector, Nureyev, Rahy, Riverman, Seeking the Gold, Silver Hawk and Woodman. Europe's leading sires will also have a strong contingent, with 20 by five-time champion Sadler's Wells, nine by Caerleon, eight by both Danehill and Fairy King, 11 by Rainbow Quest and nine by leading European freshman sire Zafonic. The three-day auction also features the first Sunday Silence yearling to be offered outside of Japan. "This must be amongst the most international Houghton catalogues ever compiled," said Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony. "The sires' index reads like a 'Who's Who' of world racing, combining the very best from Europe and North America, and of course the particularly exciting colt by Sunday Silence."

ISELIN HOPEFULS WORK Eclipse Award-winner Skip Away (Skip Trial) and GISW Formal Gold (Black Tie Affair {Ire}), the favorites for the GII Philip J. Iselin H. at Monmouth Park this Saturday, had their final preps for the 1 1/16-mile test yesterday morning. Skip Away, a distant third in the GI Whitney S. last out August 2, went a half in :46 4/5 at Monmouth. "It's what we wanted," said trainer Sonny Hine. "I'm going to get him sharp for Saturday's race." As for his effort in the Whitney, Hine commented, "Skippy throws in a flop race every now and again and I didn't even count that race in the Whitney. He made a little run at the leaders, but the track was real deep and they were running real race horse time and my horse just couldn't catch them." Formal Gold, runner-up to Will's Way by a nose in the Whitney, also breezed a half Sunday morning. "The clockers caught him in :47 flat," said trainer Bill Perry. "He galloped out in 1:01 and change, which was just fine." Skip Away has been assigned top weight of 124 pounds for the Iselin, while Formal Gold is in with 121. The two have met four times this year, with Skip Away winning the GIII Massachusetts H. and GII Suburban, and Formal Gold winning the GI Donn H. and finishing in front of his rival once again in the Whitney.

2--Daylami (Ire), 123, c, 3, Doyoun (Ire)--Daltawa (Ire), by Miswaki. O-Khalid Abdullah; B-His Royal Highness The Aga Khan (Ire); $64,605.

3--Neuilly, 123, c, 3, Trempolino--Haleallah, by *Hawaii. O-Mrs. Paul De Moussac; B-Maylands Stud (Ky); $32,302.

Margins: 2, 6, 3.

Also ran: Starborough (GB), Zamindar, Piperi (Ire).

Spinning Wheel, winner of this event last year, made it the seventh victory in the last decade for the Niarchos family, his owners and the sponsors of the race via their Haras de Fresnay-Le-Buffard stud. The winner's pace-maker PIPERI (IRE) (Machiavellian) went to the lead at a strong gallop with Spinning Wheel always in striking position. At the quarter-pole, Spinning Wheel and Daylami (Ire) came cruising up on the outside and soon drew away to battle down the stretch; Spinning Wheel proved to be the best in the last 100 yards, going on to a course-record setting score. Fourth in the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury May 16 in his last outing, the winner seemed to have been freshened by the break, and trainer Jonathan Pease was well satisfied before the race that all his preparation had gone smoothly. Alain Cooper, the Niarchos family's racing manager, said, "This victory is really a big relief. After the bad race that he ran at Newbury, we were not sure if he would come back to his best for this race, but he showed us that he has freshened up since then and was back to his best form. He will probably follow the same plan as last year, which will include a run in the Prix du Moulin de Longchamp at Longchamp September 7 and then head for the Breeders' Cup Mile at Hollywood Park (November 8)." Winning Jockey Cash Asmussen was estatic after the race. "I don't understand why he ran such a bad race at Newbury," he said. "Today he felt like one of the best horses that I have ever ridden. I was just cruising on him all the time and the only real danger ever in the race was Daylami. I am hopeful that he will be the first horse to give me a success in a Breeders' Cup race."

Margins: NK, HD, 2. Odds: 1.10, 4.20, 4.80. Also ran: Swearingen, Green Jewel (GB), Lets Get Cozy, Numero Uno, Sagasious, Merry Krisoke. DNF: Cozy Blues.

Famous Digger, an astute $40,000 claim from trainer Richard Mandella in January, had won five-of-seven since breaking her maiden for a $50,000 tag at Santa Anita February 26 and had put together three consecutive stakes scores coming into her first Grade I attempt. Having passed the Grade II test with a two-length victory in the San Clemente H. last out July 26, the bay was even-money to take her fourth straight and did so with a hard-fought decision. On the lead from the start, the crowd's choice was joined by import See You Soon (Fr) at the top of the stretch but turned back that challenge and had enough left to hold off the late surge of another from France, Golden Arches (Fr), for a narrow score. "I didn't want to go to the front with her, but she was so sharp I just had to let her go," said jockey Brice Blanc, who earned his first Grade I win here. "But it was okay--when she straightened out on the backstretch she took a deep breath and relaxed. When (See You Soon) came to me, I knew my filly still had something left. I knew she'd find more. Believe me, she's a nice one." Trainer Barry Abrams also picked up his first Grade I victory with his former claimer. "I just told (Blanc) to ride her--don't worry about anybody," he said. "Ride her like she's the best horse. I knew she was better than these...I said let her go to the front and if they beat us, they beat us. She's a helluva horse."

Margins: 1, 3, 5. Odds: 4.80, 2.80, 7.70. Also Ran: Flat Fleet Feet, Nappelon.

Pearl City reeled off three straight, including the June 22 GI Prioress S. at Belmont, but could only manage to take the show spot last time out in the July 26 GI Test S. The third choice taking on older fillies here, the chestnut battled three-deep into the lane before surging to the front in midstretch and edging clear under a left-handed whip. "I knew going around the track that I had the best horse," winning jockey Joe Bravo said. "She just exploded at the top of the lane. When Wayne (winning trainer D. W. Lukas) has them ready like that, all you've got to do is stay on." The 3-5 favorite, FLAT FLEET FLEET (Afleet) was in striking position early but came up empty when roused around the far turn and finished fourth.

With three contenders in the race, Bruno Schutz gained yet another Group 1 victory in his last season training when his Caitano (GB) took this event in impressive style. Winner of the G2 Oppenheim-Colonia-Union Rennen at Cologne June 15, the three-year-old was the beaten favorite when fourth in the Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 6 last time out. Luso (GB), defending his title in this race, led the field along at a strong pace and seemed to enjoy the surface; he was still in command at the half-way stage, with Que Belle now moving closer and Caitano also making progress. Turning for home, Luso increased the pace but was soon challenged by Caitano and the two colts drew away from the filly, with Caitano drawing clear late. Que Belle suffered her first defeat after taking her first four career starts.

John the Magician tried turf for the first time in his previous start and responded with a runner-up showing in the Aug. 3 GIC Toronto Cup at Woodbine. Stretching out for the final leg of Canada's Triple Crown, the bay raced from off the pace before pulling a powerful stretch drive out of his hat to best the filly One Emotion near the wire. "I started to ride him after we straightened for home," said winning jockey Steve Bahen. "One Emotion came back and it looked for a minute it was going to be tight. But John just kept digging in; he just kept going." Added trainer John Ross, "I was riding the horse, too. My throat's still sore. I'm just overwhelmed." PRIOR APPROVAL (With Approval) was scratched the morning of the race. "His right front ankle was warm when we checked him," said trainer Roger Attfield. "I'm thinking he banged it in his stall when the storm hit last night."

NEW CAREER FOR WILLIE CARSON Former champion jockey turned BBC television commentator Willie Carson has been appointed European racing manager to HRH Prince Ahmed bin Salman, according to the British Racing Centre. Salman has approximately 20 horses in training in England with Henry Cecil, Roger Charlton, David Loder, Clive Brittain and Paul Cole. The stable races under the Thoroughbred Corporation umbrella, but is expected to run in the Prince's name next season. "I am very much looking forward to my new role; it came from out of the blue as I was only told about it on Friday," said Carson. "My full title will be European Racing Manager and I will be reporting to Dick Mulhall, who used to train in the United States, as he is in charge of the Prince's American side of the operation," he added. Carson's first outing in his new role will be at the Keeneland September Sales with the Prince to look at potential yearling purchases to race in England.

Garve, winless in four dirt tries, has improved greatly on turf where he boasts a two-for-three record. The public choice, winner of a maiden race on the grass at Aqueduct Nov. 24 and then a Saratoga turf allowance July 24 off the eight-month vacation, stalked the early pace and took over effortlessly in the lane to make it three in a row as the 1-2 chalk.

A possible for the Travers, Frisk Me Now (Mister Frisky) worked Saturday at Monmouth Park, going five-eighths in a sharp :58 1/5. "It was a fantastic workout for him," said trainer Robert Durso, who termed the GII Ohio Derby winner as "50-50" for the race.
