MEADOW MONSTER TO STAND AT HILL 'N'

DALE GSW Meadow Monster (Meadowlake), a winner of 11 of his 24 career starts and $496,916, will stand at Hill 'n' Dale Farm in Lexington, Kentucky for the 1998 breeding season. The six-year-old, who was second in the Suffolk Downs Breeders' Cup H. May 31 in his lone start this year, has been bothered by foot problems but is being pointed to the Breeders' Cup. "He has been troubled by a quarter crack for half the year, but I think we're on track for the Breeders' Cup Sprint," said his trainer, Ben Perkins, Sr. The Kentucky-bred won four of his six starts in 1996, including the GII General George H. at Laurel.

FANS SPEAK OUT AT KENTUCKY FORUM

Kentucky Thoroughbred Media, in conjunction with the United Thoroughbred Trainers of America's The Backstretch magazine, will give racing fans a chance to have their say at a public forum to discuss the pros and cons of offering alternative forms of gaming at Kentucky racetracks. The forum is scheduled for Saturday, September 6, from 4-6 p.m. in the Sales Pavilion at Keeneland Race Course in Lexington. A panel including handicapper and author Steve Davidowitz, Keeneland President and CEO William Greely, Churchill President and CEO Thomas Meeker and Ellis Park Executive Vice President and General Manager Richard Schnaars will offer insight and answer questions, but the focus of the discussion will be the opinions of the fans.

This is the best all-age contest of the European season to date, with Epsom Derby winner Benny The Dip and dual Irish Classic winner Desert King taking on champion older filly Bosra Sham and the leading European all-time money-earner Singspiel. Both older horses reappear after defeats. Singspiel, first in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 6, finished only fourth in the King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 26 last time he ran. Bosra Sham, winner of the G2 Prince Of Wales S. at Ascot June 17, was third in the controversial G1 Coral-Eclipse S. at Sandown July 5, but her rider Kieren Fallon was blamed for that defeat and subsequently lost the mount to Pat Eddery. Benny The Dip won the G2 Dante S. over this track and distance prior to his Epsom Derby score, then ran what may have been the best race of his life when runner-up to Pilsudski (Ire) in the Coral-Eclipse. Desert King, winner of both the Irish 2000 Guineas May 25 and Budweiser Irish Derby June 29, may be a bad traveller. He failed to fire on both previous visits to England, finishing fourth in the G1 St. James's Palace S. at Ascot June 17. Bookmakers Ladbrokes have Bosra Sham at even-money, Singspiel at 2-1, Benny The Dip at 5-1 and Desert King at 6-1.

Silver Patriarch, winner of the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial in May and then short-headed by Benny The Dip in the Vodafone Epsom Derby June 7, is on a recovery mission after his poor showing behind Desert King (Ire) in the Budweiser Irish Derby June 29. Normally a late closer, the colt disputed the pace at The Curragh and had nothing left for the finish. His stable this time runs a pace-maker in Garuda. The improving Stowaway was an 11th-hour absentee from the Epsom Derby due to injury and was off the track until winning the G3 Gordon S. at Goodwood July 29.

Travers hopeful Affirmed Success (Affirmed), third after setting the pace in the GII Jim Dandy August 3, breezed a sharp half in :46 2/5 under exercise rider Tony Garamone yesterday morning. Also prepping for the Travers, Affairwithpeaches (Black Tie Affair {Ire}) went five furlongs in 1:02 3/5 yesterday.

GII Peter Pan S. winner Banker's Gold (Forty Niner), fifth in the Jim Dandy in his most recent start, is out of training. "He started to get a little bit of an ankle problem, so we stopped on him," said his trainer, Allen Jerkens. "I don't know when we'll start on him again."

Also temporarily on the sidelines is GISW Flat Fleet Feet (Afleet), fourth as the favorite in Sunday's GI Balle-rina H. "She had some mucus and blood in her trachea," said trainer John Kimmel after the race. "She couldn't breathe well." Plans had called for the four-year-old to make her next start in the GI Ruffian H. September 20.
