NOTHING UP HIS SLEEVE: FAVORITE TRICK MAKES MAGIC IN HOPEFUL He doesn't need smoke and mirrors to dazzle his rivals. Undefeated Favorite Trick (Phone Trick) is just better than the rest. Looking for his sixth straight win, the dark bay was bet down to 2-5 in yesterday's GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga Racecourse and moved one step closer to an Eclipse Award with a rallying 1 1/2-length victory. "He's a freak of a colt," said trainer Pat Byrne, who went 14-for-17 at Churchill Downs before shipping to Saratoga and taking five of the prestigious meet's six two-year-old stakes. "He's the best in the country, no doubts." Jockey Pat Day settled the Joseph LaCombe colorbearer in fourth through a half in :45.02, guided him four-wide around the leaders on the far turn and rode him out to the wire to easily outfinish runner-up K.O. Punch (Two Punch). "It looks like we had another easy trip," said Day. "I was looking around (in the stretch), because Favorite Trick has the tendency to throw his ears up. I didn't think anyone was going to catch us, but I just wanted to make sure. As you could see when we hit the wire, his ears were straight up." Favorite Trick adds the Hopeful to odds-on scores in the GIII Bashford Manor and GI Saratoga Special. As for his fall campaign, Byrne said, "His first two-turn race will be the Breeders' Futurity (Keeneland, October 18), then the Breeders' Cup at Hollywood (November 8)."

- Margins: 1HF, 5, 7HF. Odds: 0.45, 6.10, 43.50.
Also Ran: Coronado's Quest, Tomorrows Cat, Hitech, Fortunate Halo.

Making his Grade I debut off a handy victory over a muddy track in the GI Saratoga Special, Favorite Trick was the overwhelming choice and lived up to the odds with another impressive win. The Kentucky-bred stalked the pace to the final turn, swept past the front-runners to put a head in front as they straightened into the stretch and drew clear under a Pat Day hand ride. Day credited trainer Pat Byrne with the colt's success. "Pat is a tremendous horseman," said Day. "He communicates with his horses. He keeps his horses happy--he's the best going." Favorite Trick showed his appreciation by pocketing his sixth straight; it was his fifth win in stakes company and his third in a graded event. Runner-up K.O. Punch, unbeaten in three starts in California, was third after a rough start in the Saratoga Special. He pressed pacesetter HITECH (Technology) through the early fractions, tried to match strides with Favorite Trick as they moved into the stretch and ran on gamely to the wire to be easily second best. "My horse ran great and I'm real proud of his performance," said his jockey, Joe Bravo. "He exploded when I called on him, but being pressured the whole way was tough for him." Trainer D. Wayne Lukas agreed with Bravo's assessment. "He was pressured by Hitech, which compromised our chances of staying with the winner," he said. "At no point did he get a breather. I am very pleased." The top two will now ship to Belmont Park, with winner Favorite Trick pointing for the mile-and-a-sixteenth GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland October 18.

Margins: NO, 1, 8. Odds: 2.20, 2.10, 26.20.

Also Ran: Seaborg (Arg), Old Chapel, Cloud Forest, Mufattish, Perim (Fr).

A listed stakes winner in France, Rainbow Dancer (Fr) had won just once in his four U.S. starts but the victory came in his lone Grade I try, the Hollywood Turf H. May 26. Given two months off after that score, the six-year-old came back to be an even fifth in the GII Sunset H. last out July 20. Trying the Del Mar turf for the first time as the slight second choice, the bay was content to trail the field for six furlongs, but put it into overdrive to take the lead at the top of the stretch, then battled favored Dowty down the lane to prevail in a game effort. "We got some pace to run at today," said jockey Alex Solis. "He's such a good horse and he got a chance to show it here. He needs to have things his own way. I hit him once in the stretch and he didn't like it--he let me know it. It was like he was saying, 'Hey, I'm doing the best I can!' He was determined not to let (Dowty) get by." Added winning trainer Jenine Sahadi, "This is a very difficult horse. Alex is to be commended. He spent a lot of time with the horse, working with him and talking to him and trying to get comfortable with him. I really believe it makes a difference."

Basqueian, hero of the 1994 GIC Queen's Plate, had won his only other start at Monmouth, the off-the-turf May 26 Gill Red Bank H., and then was well-beaten in an eighth-place showing in the June 14 Gill Brooklyn H. at Belmont last time out. Turned back to a sprint off the two-month layoff, the Canadian champion raced just off the pace early, advanced inside on the turn to finish strongly and nailed pacesetting Cat Be Nimble at the wire. "I didn't think we'd be that close early but he was doing it all on his own," winning jockey Rick Wilson said. "I just let him run when it was time. He is an honest horse who dug in big time. He's the kind of horse who doesn't want to get beat."

Local News: Calder

Calder will host a benefit next Saturday, September 6, for The Buoniconti Fund, the national fundraising arm of The Miami Project to Cure Paralysis. The track contributed $25,000 last year and will double its donation when it presents this year's check to the fund on Saturday. Fans are also invited to make contributions; a minimum $5 donation also buys the chance to win an NFL football from the Miami Dolphins' perfect 1972 season signed by Bob Griese, a football signed by Don Shula, a baseball signed by Marlins pitcher Alex Fernandez, a hockey puck signed by Florida Panthers goalie John Vanbiesbrouck and an autographed Panthers jersey.

Four-for-five on the year coming into this race, Mr. Groush suffered his lone 1997 defeat when stepping into graded stakes company for the first time in the GII Ohio Derby. Third in that event, the chestnut came back to take back-to-back stakes over fellow New York-breds, including a 3 1/2-length score in the Albany H. at Saratoga last out August 14. The odds-on choice off the performance, he kept the early leaders in his sights while sitting third for three-quarters, kicked it into gear to take control on the final turn and cruised clear in the stretch for his third in a row. "Good horses make you look good, and that's about what happened today," said winning rider Shane Sellers. "He isn't a hard horse to ride, and it was up to me to press the button at the right time. It was a pretty easy race for him." Trainer Jim Bond said he would bring the colt, as well as stablemate and GI Travers runner-up Behrens, back to Louisiana Downs for the GI Super Derby September 28.

2--Yaqthan (Ire), 116, h, 7, Kris--Al Sylah (GB), by Nureyev. $20,000.

3--War Machine, 113, h, 7, Explodent--Billy Jane, by Wig Out. ($51,000 wlng '90 KEENOV). $11,000. Margins: 3 1/4, NK, 4 1/4. Odds: 1.70, 1.00, 12.00.

Burbank, winner of the Dallas Turf Cup H. at Lone Star Park in June, checked in second in the Aug. 9 Eddie J. DeBartolo Sr. Memorial H. on the Remington turf but had trailed in seventh behind Yaqthan (Ire) in the Remington Park Breeders' Cup H. two starts back. Looking to turn the tables, the second choice forced the pace set by the even-money favorite until snatching the lead at the furlong pole and driving away to a course record-setting victory. "We were moving along pretty good the first quarter and that had me concerned a bit," said winning rider Don Pettinger. "On the grass, they've got to be able to kick on to keep away the closers. But this horse is as game as they come."
