BREEDERS' CUP TO CHURCHILL IN

1998 D. G. Van Clief, Jr., president of Breeders' Cup Limited, announced yesterday that Churchill Downs has been selected to host the 1998 Breeders' Cup. The 15th running of the $11 million-dollar event will be held Saturday, November 7 and will be televised live on NBC Sports from 1-5:30 p.m. "We are very pleased to select Churchill Downs for the fourth time as host of the Breeders' Cup, the most ever for a host track," said Van Clief. "On three previous occasions, the track has showcased outstanding presentations of the Breeders' Cup Championship. We look forward to another first-rate performance next year." The Breeders' Cup was also held at Churchill in 1988, 1991 and 1994.

MARGAUX FARM BUYS INTEREST IN

CAPTAIN BODGIT Team Valor's Captain Bodgit (Saint Ballado) will enter stud at Margaux Farm in Midway, Kentucky next season. Operated by Steve Johnson and Rick Trontz, Margaux Farm has also purchased a half-interest in the colt for $2.5 million. A winner of seven of his 12 starts and $1,014,819, Captain Bodgit captured the GI Florida Derby and Gil Wood Memorial on his way to this year's Kentucky Derby. Sent off the favorite in the "Run for the Roses," he finished second, just a head behind Silver Charm. He made the final start of his career in the Preakness and finished third in a three-way photo for the win; he suffered a bowed tendon in the race and was retired. Captain Bodgit will stand as the property of a partnership for a fee of $10,000, live foal. President Barry Irwin said Team Valor would form syndicates to buy mares to breed to the stallion, with the intention of racing the offspring.

Royal Applause (GB) gained his fourth win from five starts this season with a comprehensive all-the-way victory at Haydock Park. The favorite, he set the pace and with three furlongs to run had all his rivals toiling, coasting to a comfortable success. Danetime (Ire) ran on to take second place and Tomba (GB) finished strongly to grab third. Danetime's jockey, Michael Kinane, received a two-day ban for careless riding when trying to gain a favorable position early in the race. Winning trainer Barry Hills was delighted with Royal Applause, who made up for his defeat in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 10. "He got a very clean break from the start, which was a big help, and he had all his rivals in trouble at halfway," said Hills. "Unfortunately at Newmarket he didn't get away quickly and came out of the stalls skew-whiff, which meant he was never able to get properly balanced. He is certainly the best sprinter around." The winner's main target will be the Nov. 8 Breeders' Cup Sprint at Hollywood Park, but he may take in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp at Longchamp October 5.

"It turned out to be easier than I thought, because I thought a couple of them might go with me," winning jockey John Velazquez said. "When we got away with a decent quarter and half-mile, and they let me go, I knew they'd have to run hard to come and get me. I didn't have to hit him. He got a little tired in the last sixteenth, but he was still moving fast." Winning trainer Howie Teshler indicated the winner may start next in the restricted Hudson H. at Belmont October 12.

- 1--#@MAYLANE (GB), 117, g, 3, Mtoto (GB)--Possessive Dancer (GB) (G1SW-Ire & lty, $204,679-Ire), by Shareef Dancer. O/B-Sheikh Ahmed al Maktoum; T-Alec Stewart; J-M Roberts; $30,594.
- 2--Dushyantor, 131, c, 4, Sadler's Wells--Slightly Dangerous, by Roberto. O-K Abdullah; $11,577.
- 3--Posidonas (GB), 131, h, 5, Slip Anchor (GB)--Tamassos (GB), by Dance In Time. O-Athos Christodoulou; $5,667.

Margins: 1 3/4, 1 1/2, 2 1/2.

Also ran: Nabhaan (Ire), Basman (Ire), Bahamian Knight.

Maylane (GB) overcame his customary tardy start to grab this event from Dushyantor and Posidonas (GB). BAHAMIAN KNIGHT (Ascot Knight) led at a slow pace and was still in front as the field rounded Tattenham Corner, but he was overtaken at the three-eighths pole by Posidonas (GB). Dushyantor then came to take the lead with three-sixteenths to run, but Maylane powered down the outside and stayed on too strongly for Dushyantor and Posidonas. Winning jockey Michael Roberts, who was nearly unseated as he left the stalls, commented, "At least I'm ready for it. He came straight out of the gate and tried to plant himself. He's got a lot of ability and I always thought he would beat the favorite Dushyantor." Maylane will now be aimed at the G3 Cumberland Lodge S. at Ascot September 27.
