STEPHENS RETIRES Hall of Fame conditioner Woody Stephens has turned over the last two horses in his barn to former assistant Billy Badgett and is now officially retired. Stephens, 84, still owns the pair of horses he had been training, Validate and Staunch. In semi-retirement for the last several years while assistant Sandy Bruno tended to the day-to-day activities of the stable, Stephens recently decided that even his limited role was too demanding. "I'm 84-years-old, I've been around the track for 67 years and, of course, I've got emphysema," Stephens said. "It's been tough. I didn't even come out to see Validate (yesterday in his first start for Badgett). It got to the point where it became quite an effort for me."

CLASSIC CLICHE OUT TO PASTURE Following his last-place finish in Saturday's Jefferson Smurfit Irish St. Leger at The Curragh, Godolphin's five-year-old Classic Cliche (Ire) (Salse) has been retired. Named highweight three-year-old in England at over 14 furlongs in 1995, the bay won the 1995 G1 Doncaster Leger, the 1996 G1 Ascot Gold Cup and the G2 Prix Kerogolay at Deauville this past August 24. Classic Cliche was being aimed at Australia's Melbourne Cup in November, but Godolphin's racing manager Simon Crisford said Sunday: "There is nothing wrong but he is not enjoying his racing as he used to. He has been a magnificent servant and will now be retired to stud." During his European campaign, Classic Cliche earned over $1 million in 16 starts, recording six victories.

- 3--Awad, 126, h, 7, Caveat--Dancer's Candy, by Noble Dancer (GB). O/B-Ryehill Farm (MD); $44,000. Margins: 2, 3/4, NO. Odds: 1.90, 9.40, 5.60. Also Ran: Ops Smile, Annus Mirabilis (Fr), Flag Down, River Bay, Fahim (GB), Fortitude, Sentimental Moi.

Influent moved towards the top of the turf division with victories in the June 28 G1 Caesars International H. at Atlantic City and the July 13 G1 Bowling Green H. at Belmont but tired to finish fifth in the Aug. 9 G1 Sword Dancer H. at Saratoga last time out. The favorite set a moderate pace on the inside before extending his advantage in the lane. Winning trainer Howie Teshler was unable to be at Belmont since he was in Florida for the funeral of Influent's former co-owner Richard Kumble. "Fortunately everything worked out," Teshler said by phone. "I still say he doesn't need the lead to win, but I guess he runs best from there. Everybody was talking about Influent at the funeral, I was really choked up when he won." The winner connections also made a decision to switch riders to Jerry Bailey. "Jean-Luc (Influent's former jockey Samyn) was riding him well," Teshler said. "But we just thought we'd do something different, and got Jerry to ride him. Everybody was joking because at the time of the decision, Jerry was 0-for-the-meet, but we wanted the best, and that's what we got." Awad closed strongly to finish third. "We may run in the Turf Classic but the main goal is the Breeders' Cup," trainer David Donk said. The 5-2 second-choice ANNUS MIRABILIS (Warning {GB}) shipped in from England for this engagement but tired in the drive after tracking the winner early.

Also ran: Mowbray, Magical Minty (Ire), Takarian (Ire), Natalis (Ire), Sideman (Ire), Galahad (Ire).

Bookmakers showed no reaction to King Of Kings (Ire)'s workmanlike and brave victory, leaving him as 6-1 joint favorite with Daggers Drawn for next year's English 2000 Guineas. Aidan O'Brien's colt showed courage and determination rather than brilliance to land his first Group 1 success and his fourth win from five career starts. Racing in mid-field while Mountain Song (GB) led, the 4-9 favorite appeared to have nowhere to go at the quarter-mile mark while racing close to the rails. But his rider Christy Roche patiently waited for an opening to appear and it duly did inside the final eighth of a mile and King Of Kings split rivals, quickened well to take command. Aidan O'Brien was quick to praise Christy Roche for his patient ride: "Christy said before the race that he only wanted to drop King Of Kings in front on the line. We're in no panic with the colt and that's probably his last race this season."

Grand Slam established a new track record for 5 1/2 furlongs July 18 at Belmont with an 11-length victory and then finished second in an Aug. 15 Saratoga allowance race. The winner, trying a mile for the first time, settled just off the pace, gradually gained between horses on the far turn, surged to the front near the quarter-pole and drew away in the stretch. "I was in a tight spot on the turn," winning jockey Gary Stevens said. "I was inside Rodeo and K.O. Punch was in between. A good horse can handle that. Mediocre horses don't handle that." Trainer D. Wayne Lukas indicated that the winner may run next in the Oct. 18 GI Moet Champagne S. at Belmont and that runner-up K.O. Punch is slated to contest the Oct. 19 Gil Norfolk S. at Santa Anita.

Beautiful Prospect easily captured an Aug. 25 Saratoga 6 1/2-furlong maiden race by five lengths in her debut. Stretching out to a mile, the favorite rushed up to take the lead down the backside on the inside after breaking a bit slowly, and drew away in the stretch while being ridden out. "She was impressive first time out, but you really don't know until they come back and do it again," winning jockey Jerry Bailey said. "Especially with this coming in a stake, it's a big step up, but she handled it very easily. I let her run away from them early because I didn't want to end up any worse than third in the early going so when she ended up there on her own that was OK." Trainer John Ward said, "She'll go back to Kentucky to the (Gil) Alcibiades S. (Oct. 11 at Keeneland), and then go to California for the Breeders' Cup."

Local News, Rockingham Park:

Rockingham Park concluded its 1997 live racing season Sunday. "We had a good summer and a successful season," said Ed Callahan, Vice President and General Manager. "Our handle was off slightly and our attendance held about even. Our purses were up dramatically, due to help from the legislature, even though our tax rate is almost double the rate in Massachusetts. Our average daily purse distribution was $83,900, which is the highest amount ever seen in New England racing." The 1998 Thoroughbred season opens June 7 and will run through September 20.
