TOUCH GOLD HEADED STRAIGHT TO BREEDERS' CUP

Despite a disappointing fourth-and-last place showing in the GII Buick Pegasus H. at the Meadowlands September 20, trainer David Hofmans said yesterday he will send star three-year-old Touch Gold (Deputy Minister) to the Breeders' Cup Classic. Hofmans will not, however, give the colt another race before the big event. "He had a horrible trip in the Pegasus, but I don't think he needs another race in him," he said. "He runs better fresh, so we're going to the Classic on works alone. He came out of the race very well. We pulled the patch off his foot and put on another one." Behrens (Pleasant Colony), winner of the Pegasus, is also expected to make his next start in the Classic at Hollywood Park November 8. The colt worked five furlongs in an easy 1:07 over Saratoga's Oklahoma training track Friday morning. "It was just a nice, light breeze for him," said trainer Jim Bond. "All I want to do is keep him happy. That's why he's staying up here in Saratoga where it is nice and quiet...I'll keep him here until a few days before the Breeders' Cup. I nominated to him to the Jockey Club Gold Cup (Oct. 18) just to cover my bases, but I think we will go right to the Breeders' Cup Classic."

(Smokester), sixth and last as the favorite in the GI Super Derby at Louisiana Downs September 28, has been turned out and will take the rest of the season off before getting ready for the Strub Series at Santa Anita this winter. The three-year-old, on the board in all three Triple Crown races and winner of the GI Santa Anita Derby and GII Swaps S., is enjoying his R & R at owners Trudy McCaffery and John Toffan's Bradbury, California ranch. "They wanted to give him a break," said trainer Paco Gonzalez. "He bled a little through the Lasix in the Super Derby, so he needs some time off. We'll get him back in training by the end of the month."

The first four from last year's race--Helissio (Fr) (Fairly King), Pilsudski (Ire) (Polish Precedent), Oscar Schindler (Ire) (Royal Academy) and Swain (Ire) (Nashwan)--renew their rivalry. On his last start, Helissio (Fr) chased home Spinning World in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp September 7 in what was his only career start over a mile. Pilsudski (Ire) trounced dual Irish Classic winner Desert King (Ire) in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown September 13. Oscar Schindler (Ire) captured the Jefferson Smurfit Irish St. Leger at Leopardstown September 20, while Swain (Ire), winner of the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 26, beating Pilsudski and Helissio, was himself beaten by Posidonas (GB) (Slip Anchor {GB}) in the Listed Doubleprint Arc Trial at Newbury September 18. Swain was also the subject of an injury scare yesterday. Simon Crisford, Godolphin's racing manager, said: "He came back from exercise with a bruised heel. He is slightly sensitive to it, but we do not expect it to be a problem. We do not anticipate that it will blow up but we will monitor it overnight. He has never been in better health and in better form, though." Peintre Celebre (Nureyev) took the Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 1 and the G1 Grand Prix de Paris here June 22, but then suffered a surprise defeat in the G2 Prix Niel here September 14. My Emma (GB) (Marju {Ire}) won the G1 Yorkshire Oaks August 20, but is reported to have suffered a setback in training.

While stablemate Ryafan was winning her American debut in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland, Yashmak made her first start since running second in the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh July 13 a winning one as well. A Group 2 winner in England in June, the filly proved fit after nearly three month's absence, closing from sixth to sweep wide into the stretch and outfinish second choice Maxzene for the victory. "The instructions from (trainer Henry Cecil) were not to be on the lead, but we were afraid that a slow pace would hurt us," said Juddmonte spokesman Garrett O'Rourke. "When we saw the quick fractions being set, we knew that she would be able to thread her way through. She showed a lot of class out there today." The slight favorite Memories Of Silver pressed the pace from the start and finished well but could not deny the top two. "You can't give a great filly like (Yashmak) all that weight," said jockey Jerry Bailey. "She took advantage of it."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Four-for-seven while racing in Europe, Ryafan captured the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at two and the G2 Falmouth S. and G2 Nassau S. in her last two starts across the Atlantic. Making her U.S. debut after a two-month break, the Juddmonte homebred tracked the early leaders to the top of the stretch, finally found room up the rail and came flying late to outfinish Auntie Mame and win going away. "I was sitting on so much horse," said jockey Alex Solis. "But I was stopped with nowhere to go. Finally I saw a little hole. When I turned her loose, she just went busting through there. There was no way she wanted to get beat." The filly will now ship to California, where she will be conditioned by trainer Bobby Frankel. The slight favorite Golden Arches (Fr), runner-up by a neck in the GI Del Mar Oaks in her U.S. bow, was rated midpack early, moved to join Auntie Mame on the front end at the head of the lane, but weakened late and had to settle for third.

Capturing his fourth graded stakes and his first outside Germany, Devil River Peek came from last to first to land his first Group 1 success. He gave his German trainer Bruno Schutz, who is due to retire at the end of the season due to ill health, his fifth Group 1 win in Europe this year. Devil River Peek is a half-brother to Godolphin's Tulipa (Alleged), who won yesterday's G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp in France.

Margins: NK, 3/4, 2. Odds: 12.40.

Also Ran: Always Earnest, Double Trigger (Ire), Leonard Quercus (Fr), Toba (Ire).

Attempting two-and-a-half miles for the first time, Chief Contender (Ire), third in the G3 Prix Gladiateur here September 7 on his previous start, showed great determination to fight back and land his first victory from four starts this year. Always travelling well behind the early leaders, Chief Contender came to join Persian Punch (Ire) in front at the head of the stretch and looked to have the race at his mercy. The late-running favorite Celeric (GB), winner of the G1 Ascot Gold in June, found the perfect split between the two leaders and quickened well to grab the lead, but Chief Contender would not be denied and fought back on the outside to become the 31st individual Group 1 winner for his sire Sadler's Wells. Trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam said: "This horse likes France. He does well here. I told Olivier (Doleuze) to hold him and he did the job perfectly, taking a pull when necessary. They went a good pace, which suited us. I was always confident that he could win, but when Celeric came through I thought he had us beaten. But Chief Contender battled back so well. I love him." Celeric's trainer David Morley was "thrilled," saying: "He'll stay in training next year, with much the same programme as this year, including the Ascot Gold Cup again."

Margins: NK, 3 1/2, 3.

Also Ran: Fatefully, Mrs. Miniver, Ukraine Venture (GB), Dust Dancer (GB), Sarayir.

Taking her unbeaten record to three, One So Wonderful (GB) followed an eight-length victory in the Listed Atalanta S. at Sandown August 30 with a wire-to-wire score here. Swift into her stride from the gate, she led early with Epsom Oaks winner Reams Of Verse at the rear of the field. Inside the final quarter mile Kool Kat Katie (Ire) threw down a serious challenge, but One So Wonderful ran on well to prevail by a neck. Winning trainer Luca Cumani and jockey John Reid had not planned for their filly to make the pace, "but the pace was too slow and she had jumped so well that I settled her in front," said Reid. "She really picked up at the quarter-mile pole and found another gear. Kool Kat Katie came to challenge, but my filly would not give in. She's a really good filly." Cumani has no further plans this season for his winner, despite having only two runs under her belt. "She's a tall, lanky filly and still rather immature and needs more time to fill out," he said. "The owner has promised to keep her in training next year. She did it really well today. Kool Kat Katie stuck out her head and made One So Wonderful work for her victory."

Retirement to the breeding shed looks the next stop for Godolphin's Tulipa, who went wire-to-wire for a brave score, her second Group 2 victory of the year following the Premio Legnano in Italy June 15. Fast from the gate, Tulipa quickened well early in the straight and looked set for an easy win, but Dame Kiri (Fr) came out of the pack and threw down a challenge which Tulipa just managed to resist. Kassana (Ire) finished well for third, while ANNABA (IRE) (In The Wings {GB}) ran bravely for fourth, having sustained a nasty leg cut after being struck into early in the race. Godolphin's racing manager Simon Crisford said: "Unless there is another opportunity for Tulipa later this season, she will probably be retired. She owes us nothing."

Margins: 1, 2 1/2, 1/2.

Also Ran: Astarabad, Desert Story (Ire), Handsome Ridge (GB), Mannenberg (Ire), Bello (Arg).

Second winner of the day for the Godolphin team as Alhaarth (Ire) landed his second Group 2 victory at Longchamp, having won the Prix du Rond-Point over a mile at this meeting last year. He set a good pace from the gate, quickening at the quarter-mile pole to win comfortably from the strong-finishing Lord Cromby (Ire). Godolphin's racing manager Simon Crisford said: "It's another nice win here at Longchamp for Alhaarth. He didn't give his true running when beaten a long way by Pilsudski (Ire) and Desert King (Ire) at Leopardstown in the Irish Champion S. (September 13). But he's good off an increasing pace, as he showed today. There are many opportunities for him still this season and the decision as to where he will run next will be left to Sheikh Hamdan." Jockey Frankie Dettori added: "Alhaarth's very lazy, but the blinkers allow me to rest and make him concentrate."

Tobin) broke his maiden in his sixth start July 31 at Saratoga and has not been beaten since. A winner over allowance foes at Belmont last out September 14, the homebred was 2-1 to make it three straight; he made his run from midfield to take the lead late and post a widening three-length victory. The winner is a 1/2 to Gervazy (Miswaki), SW & MGISP, $399,688. Lifetime Record: 8-3-3-0, $86,859. O/B-Buckram Oak Farm (KY). T-Mohammed Moubarak.

The bay sat second to the top of the lane, moved to challenge pacesetter CAUTION FLAG (A.P. Indy) as they straightened for home and once again proved to be more grizzly than teddy with a gutsy neck victory. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $43,800. O-Roger King. B-Edward C. Conner (KY). Showing the benefits of that tightener, the bay took the lead after a half and galloped away to win by 5 3/4 lengths as the 4-5 favorite. The winner is a 1/2 to For All Seasons (Crafty Prospector), MSW & GISP, $341,348; and Dial A Song (Mining), SW, $148,855. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $46,494. O-E P Evans. B-Wramble Stables (KY). Local News: Belmont Park

MGISW Will's Way (Easy Goer), who underwent surgery to repair a condylar fracture of his left front cannon bone, is recovering at Belmont Park and is expected to be back in action next year. Winner of the GI Travers at three and this year's GI Whitney H. at four, he was injured when finishing third in the GI Woodward at Belmont September 20. "We're very pleased with how he is coming along," said trainer Jim Bond. "We will bring him to Saratoga, then to Payson Park. I'm optimistic we will race him next year."

GISW Capote Belle (Capote), third against colts in the GII Frank J. DeFrancis Memorial Dash at Laurel Park last out July 19, worked a half-mile in :49 4/5 over the Belmont training track Friday morning. The four-year-old filly has been sidelined by an abscessed foot. "She cooled out good and she seems happy," said trainer Danny Peitz. "We're going to give her one work at a time and she'll let us know when she's ready. We may try to get her into the First Flight (GII, at Aqueduct November 8), but we have to take things slow."

Second by a neck in her career opener on the dirt at Churchill Downs in June, Stoneleigh is undefeated since switching to turf for her second start. Winning a maiden and allowance race in two starts at Saratoga, the dark bay made her graded-stakes debut after a one-month break. Last after a quarter, the crowd's second choice made up ground to reach contention at the top of the stretch and kept on closing to catch pacesetter Majestic Sunlight in the final yards. "The last five-sixteenths, she really picked it up good and by the eighth pole she was in full gear," said jockey Jose Santos. "She did everything right and has a good future."

Never off the board in five turf starts, Victory Chime tried her luck in the GII Reeve Schley Jr. S. at Monmouth last out and finished second by less than a length. The 8-5 favorite off the effort, the Maryland-bred settled in the middle of the field for a half, launched her bid from between horses as they headed around the far turn and just got up to take the photo from longshot Miss Pop Carn. "(Trainer Shug McGaughey) has been pointing her for this since mid-summer," said assistant trainer Buzzy Tenney. "The race shaped up good for her. She likes to lay back and finish. I was afraid we'd have the best horse and finish second, because it got tight around the turn, but she kept digging in to the wire."

Nancy's Glitter swept the Florida Stallion S. for fillies after taking the Aug. 9 Desert Vixen and Sept. 6 Susan's Girl divisions at Calder. Looking for her fifth consecutive win, the second choice set the early pace and drew off in the lane to win going away. "I had a lot of confidence in my horse," winning jockey Pedro Rodriguez said. "I knew she would be 100 percent for this race--she gave me everything she had, and I knew she could go long. I'm so excited--I never get to win the big ones, and this year I won three." The winner may next try for an Eclipse championship. "If I am ever going to take a shot at the big one (Breeders' Cup), this is the one I want to go with," winning owner Ray Dixon said. Excellent Luck has sandwiched his three wins between losses, finishing fourth in his second start and second last time out on the Sport Of Kings Futurity at Louisiana Downs. Looking to rebound as an 11-1 outsider in his first two-turn try, the bay was last in the 12-horse field after a half but made steady progress to join the leaders as they headed into the stretch; he drove home to best Halos and Horns at the wire. "The race set up well for him," said trainer Bobby Barnett. "Now we'll take him back to Louisiana Downs and decide where to go next. The Breeders' Cup is one possibility."

The third choice raced in the middle of the pack before making a late rally six-wide to win driving in the final stages. "She's a worrier," winning jockey Randy Romero said. "I knew they were coming back. I was following Pat Day, the horse to beat (Ashboro). They were going pretty quick up front. This is how my filly runs--when they're going fast early, she comes running at them." Winning trainer Cam Gambolati indicated that plans for the winner are uncertain, but he did not rule out going to the Breeders' Cup Sprint.

Lenta scored in the Sept. 1 Noble Royalty H. at Calder on the turf in her previous start. The winner, part of the favored entry, raced off the pace before rolling past the early leaders in the stretch to win going away. "Touch down!," winning jockey Marland Suckie said. "That was nice. I had a great trip. She got a little anxious on the turn and when it up opened up she exploded. Now I know what it's like to ride a good horse. She loves any kind of going, she is a race horse."

"I was going to go inside two horses, but I had so much horse I just went outside." As for what's next, trainer Jacqueline Brittain said, "He doesn't have any Breeders' Cup (Mile) points, but we will definitely discuss the possibility if there's a chance to get in."

The Kentucky-bred shad-owed the leaders from the inside to the top of the stretch, moved to the outside for the drive and prevailed over 3-5 Frisk Me Now for a narrow victory. His efforts began to pay off on the turn into the straight as his mount made ground on the outside and, under strong pressure from the saddle, went clear. Winning trainer John Gosden said: "If you look at his race record, you will see that Three Cheers was beaten on his first start by more than 40 lengths, so we took him home and had him gelded. He didn't improve much for that, so we decided to train him as a stayer and that has worked. But the jockey has to be even fitter than the horse! He almost stopped a couple of times during the race and Frankie persevered. I doubt if the horse is up to Group 1 class, so he probably won't come back for the Prix Royal Oak (October 26)."

Winning for the second time from three starts, Thief Of Hearts (Ire), fourth in the G3 Prix des Chenes here September 14, raced in rear while Special Quest (Fr) set the pace. At the three-sixteenths pole, Thief Of Hearts gained ground on the leaders, grabbing the lead at the eighth pole and running out a comfortable winner at the wire. Sheikh Mohammed's racing manager Anthony Stroud said: "On his last start in the Prix des Chenes, the pace was too fast for him and he was also inexperienced, having only his second start. The extra furlong helped him here and he would also have been better with more give in the ground. He comes from a late maturing family, being a half-brother to Swain (Ire), so he can only improve. He might come back to France for the (Group 1) Criterium de Saint-Cloud over a mile and a quarter (November 1)."

2--Double Eclipse (Ire), 129, h, 5, Ela-Mana-Mou (Ire)--Solac (Fr), by Gay Lussac. O-The Middleham Partnership; $11,577.

3--Further Flight (GB), 126, g, 11, Pharly (Fr)--Flying Nelly (GB), by Nelcius (Fr). O-S W Digby; $5,550.

Margins: 2, 7, 1 1/4.

Also Ran: Jiyush (GB), The Faraway Tree (GB), Georgia Venture (GB), Old Rouvel.

Great disappointment for the huge Newmarket crowd, many of whom had come to watch the 11-year-old gelding Further Flight (GB) attempt to win this event for the sixth time. Racing in mid-division for much of the race, the gallant grey made his move at the quarter mile, but another grey gelding, Grey Shot (GB), who had led from the gate, quickened well at that point and ran on too strongly to beat the G3 Lonsdale S. winner Double Eclipse (Ire). The crowd's favourite trailed in a well-beaten third. Good news for the public, however, as it was announced that Further Flight will stay in training again next year and have another attempt at the race which has become his personal property. Grey Shot ran fifth in last year's Melbourne Cup, but will not be sent to Australia this year.

Winning for the second time from four starts, Alborada (GB) gave her trainer Sir Mark Prescott a valuable international "double" as he also landed the famous Tote Cambridgeshire H. at Newmarket with his four-year-old colt Pasternak. Disputing the lead after five-sixteenths of a mile, Alborada quickened well at the quarter mile and ran on too strongly for her rivals. She will be put away until next season.
