ARLINGTON INTERNATIONAL CLOSES

Many feel that, after next year's hiatus, Arlington International Racecourse will be back in action for 1999. But if Chairman Dick Duchossois is true to his word, and the state of the Illinois racing industry does not improve, it is possible that the state-of-the-art track which rose from the ashes of a 1985 fire has run its last race. Fresh from his stunning sweep of the Triple Crown, Secretariat tore up the track taking the Arlington Invitational S. in 1973; the gritty John Henry held The Bart at bay by the barest of noses in the inaugural Arlington Million in 1981; the great Cigar captured the 16th and final race in his historic streak in the Arlington Citation Challenge in 1996. But the 1997 Arlington meet ended as first-time starter Kark's Ark (Defensive Play), owned and bred by Emil Kark, trained by Alex Hassinger Jr. and ridden by Mark Guidry, won the 10th and final race, a state-bred maiden special weight event, on yesterday's card. Commenting on the closing, Chicago Daily Herald turf writer Ray Hallett said, "I never thought I would see today. I thought the track would go on forever. I'm heartbroken...I feel like I've lost a member of my family. I understand the decision, but that doesn't lessen the hurt and I hope that one day in the future the track will be back. I'll keep my head up by remembering only the good memories that the last 23 years have brought. I might also make one last bet." Added John McEvoy of the Daily Racing Form, "Arlington's closing is not, of course, 'the end of civilization as we know it,' but it's too damn close for me."

ENTREPRENEUR TO STUD Entrepreneur (GB)

(Sadler's Wells), winner of the 1997 English 2000 Guineas, has been retired and will join his sire on the stallion roster at Coolmore Stud in County Tipperary, Ireland. Purchased for a co-sales topping 600,000 guineas ($936,000) at the 1995 Tattersalls Houghton Sale, the colt went on to win three of his six career starts, including the 2000 Guineas; he was subsequently fourth in the G1 Epsom Derby and, in his last start, seventh in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot September 27. His career earnings came to $307,930. "Unfortunately, we weren't able to get Entrepreneur back to his best after his setback in the Derby," said trainer Michael Stoute. "I have no doubt, though, that he was an exceptionally good colt. From the first time we worked him as a two-year-old, he exuded class and he excited me like very few others have done."

VALID APPEAL PENSIONED The all-time leading Florida stallion Valid Appeal (In Reality), 25, has been retired from stud duties due to the infirmities of advanced age and a reduction in fertility. He will be pensioned at Mockingbird Farm in Ocala. A graded-stakes winner of $201,733, he has sired the winners of more than $30 million as well as a Florida-record 71 stakes winners. He is currently the leading Florida broodmare sire with earnings of more than $21 million to date.

KEENELAND NOVEMBER CATALOGUES 4,162

A total of 4,126 horses will be offered during this year's 12-day Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale, to be held November 10-21. Included in the catalogue are 2,113 broodmares in foal to such top-class stallions as A. P. Indy, Danzig, Deputy Minister, Gilded Time, Gone West, Gulch, Sadler's Wells, Seattle Slew, Seeking the Gold, Storm Cat and Woodman. The 1,794 weanlings include a filly by Mr. Prospector, as well as those by Deputy Minister, Gone West, Nureyev, Phone Trick, Sadler's Wells, Seeking the Gold and Storm Cat. In addition, there will be two major dispersals, with Lane's End acting as agent for the Buckland Farm consignment which numbers more than 120 horses, and Walmac International serving as agent for the complete dispersal of the estate of R. E. Hibbert.

YASHMAK RETIRED Juddmonte Farm's homebred Yashmak (Danzig), winner of the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot and the GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. at Belmont Park in what would be her final career start October 4, is headed to the breeding shed, according to yesterday's Racing Post. A half-sister to European champions Warning (GB) (Known Fact) and Commander In Chief (GB) (Dancing Brave), the three-year-old filly won four of her nine lifetime appearances, with three seconds, for earnings of $528,595. Dr. John Chandler, president of Juddmonte Farms in America, told the Racing Post, "We feel that she's got nothing left to prove, so we're going to go ahead and retire her. Obviously, we feel she is a top broodmare prospect."

Local News: New York

The New York State Racing and Wagering Board has proposed a new rule which would limit a jockey to using the whip on a horse's shoulders or hindquarters, and only when that horse is responding and has a chance to win. Using the whip before or after a race, unless to guide the horse, would be prohibited and any jockey raising welts or breaking the horse's skin would be subject to punishment. The rule is based on one already in effect in California.

Local News: Calder Race Course

The annual Oriental Park Hall of Fame ceremony will take place Sunday, October 12 at Calder. This year's inductee is jockey Jose Olivares, who rode from 1957-70. Olivares, a native of Cuba, was leading rider at Calder in 1959, then moved his tack to Finger Lakes, where he led the standings from 1963 until he was paralyzed in a spill at that track in 1970. Now 56, he lives in Tampa with his wife, Gladys, where he teaches young riders and is an active member of the Jockeys' Guild. There will be a winner's circle presentation in Olivares' honor after Calder's fifth race Sunday.

Sky Blue Pink reeled off victories May 2, May 24 and June 22 facing allowance foes at Churchill, then returned from a four-month layoff and picked up another in her stakes debut. Looking to remain undefeated, the favorite broke straight to the lead, was headed in the lane by Bluffing Girl, but came back gamely to prevail over that rival at the wire. "It was an incredible effort," winning jockey Pat Day said. "Anytime you go five-for-five, you have to have some talent. Margins: 4 3/4, NK, 1 3/4. Odds: 3.50, 2.70, 7.00.

Rodman easily bested a field of Illinois-breds Sept. 25 on the dirt at Arlington, breaking his maiden by four lengths in his debut; he jumped up the ladder and handled open company and the switch to turf here. The third choice raced close up on the inside, steadied while lacking room in the stretch, but angled out late to roll to the front with ease.

Rare Rock came off a 10-month layoff to win an Aug. 13 $50,000 Saratoga claimer, and followed that with a five-length score in a Sept. 13 Turfway allowance event last time out. Looking for his third straight, the favorite battled for the early lead before taking command with a half-mile to go and holding off Prosong late.

Margins: 3HF, HD, 1HF. Odds: 1.10, 6.80, 3.10.

He's A Tough Cat finished second in an Aug. 2 Saratoga allowance event in his first grass try, then ran fifth in an Aug. 28 Saratoga allowance event that was taken off the turf. Back on his preferred surface, the favorite tracked the pace on the inside, moved up around the far turn to gain command and drew clear late.

Margins: NK, HF, 10. Odds: 5.50, 0.60, 2.70.

Cape Town broke his maiden May 18 in his second career start before stepping up to finish sixth last time out in the June 28 Gill Bashford Manor S., both at Churchill. Coming off a four-month layoff, the third choice pressed front-running Hitech early, moved up to take the lead at the furlong pole and won the battle to the wire despite brushing with Comic Strip several times in the stretch.

3rd-KEE, $37,000, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f, 1:24 3/5, ft.

RAVE (f, 2, Houston--Pat Copelan {GSW, $202,654}, by Copelan) tired to finish sixth in a Sept. 14 Belmont maiden race in her debut, but romped here by eight lengths. The 2-1 favorite sprinted to the lead at the start and was never threatened, drawing off in the stretch under a hand ride. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $23,192. O/B-Overbrook Farm (KY). T-D Wayne Lukas.

Local News: Santa Anita

MGISW Twice The Vice (Vice Regent), winner of the GI Vanity H. at Hollywood last out July 20, drilled six furlongs in 1:12 on the turf at Santa Anita Friday morning. The six-year-old will prep for the Breeders' Cup Distaff in the GI Lady's Secret Breeders' Cup H. October 19. "It was a great work around the dogs," said trainer Ron Ellis. "She was just loafing out there. I was playing it safe by working her on the turf. We did it last time and she liked it. I had a little ankle trouble with her and the turf is a little bit softer on her." Stablemate Exotic Wood (Rahy), who came back after a 3 1/2-month layoff to take a Santa Anita allowance race going six furlongs October 8, will point for the Breeders' Cup Sprint. "The only thing we're worried about is that she might not get in," said Ellis. "I would have to think she's going to be invited, though."

Siphon (Brz) (Itajara {Brz}), prepping for the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park October 18, worked seven furlongs in 1:28 2/5 Friday morning. He galloped out the mile in 1:42. "He sure did it easy," said trainer Richard Mandella...Johnbill (Slew City Slew), a maiden winner at Santa Anita last out October 1 who heads straight for the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, worked a half-mile in :48 Friday.

Actor/director Christopher Reeve and Hall of Famer Bill Shoemaker will be honored at this year's Breeders' Cup Charity Gala, to be held Friday, November 7 at the Century Plaza Hotel in Century City, California. Entertainment will be provided by Grammy winner Reba McEntire, and Golden Globe and Emmy Award-winning actress Jane Seymour will host a celebrity auction. All proceeds from the Gala will benefit the Reeve-Irvine Research Center and the Shoemaker Foundation. For ticket information, contact Monica Maldonado at (310) 370-0433.

CORONA LAKE (f, 3, Storm Cat--Aziyah, by Alleged), beaten only once in her short career, was coming off a decisive allowance win on the main track at Del Mar August 30. Let go at 3-1 in her turf bow, the bay shadowed the leaders to the far turn, moved to challenge a quarter-mile from home and finished strongly to post a two-length tally. The even-money chalk, import GRIEGA (IRE) (Danehill), who came back after a year's absence to win her American debut at Del Mar August 30, closed ground through the stretch but had to settle for second.
