SKIP AWAY REPEATS IN GOLD CUP There was no Goliath in his path to the winner's circle this time, but Skip Away (Skip Trial), who gamely wore down Horse of the Year Cigar in the Belmont stretch last year, had to snap a three-race losing streak to earn his second straight victory in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup yesterday. Last year's three-year-old champion was second choice of the crowd, behind Californian invader Siphon (Brz) (Itajara {Brz}) and the pair vied for the early lead in the 1 1/4-mile race. Skip Away stuck his head in front after racing a mile and exploded down the stretch to win by 6 1/2 lengths as Siphon, winner of the GI Santa Anita H. earlier in the year, tired to fourth. The race was marred by an accident in which Coup d'Argent (Silver Buck) suffered a fractured sesamoid and had to be put down. With the win, Skip Away became the leading Florida-bred money earner, surpassing Kentucky Derby winner Unbridled. Trainer Sonny Hine said he is still uncertain if Skip Away will run in the Breeders' Cup. "We have to digest (the win) and think about it. I doubt he can be Horse of the Year. If I thought he had a chance of being Horse of the Year, I would run him in the Breeders' Cup." Hine did say he plans to race Skip Away as a five-year-old next year. "This horse is a gift from God," the conditioner added. "He has had to overcome a lot of things, including a trainer."

TATTERSALLS CONCLUDES RECORD SALE The 1997 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale concluded Saturday morning in Newmarket, England, toppling the records established last year. At the close of business, the tally showed 911 yearlings sold for a record $35,726,010--seven percent above last year's total. The average price of $39,215, also a record, rose five percent from 1996. The sale's median price remained stable at $27,200. The number of six-figure yearlings (100,000 guineas and up or $170,000 and up) increased by 46 percent, from 13 to 19. The session topper at yesterday's fifth and final session of the sale, was hip number 966, a filly by Selkirk--Miss Blitz (GB) (Formidable). Consigned by Deerfield Farm, the yearling brought a final bid of $83,118 from Mr. I. A. Balding. Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, "The general perception of last year's October sale was that it produced the most sustained show of strength and depth ever seen at a European yearling sale. In that context, we would have been delighted merely to consolidate on the 30 percent gains of last year. To have exceeded them is yet another tribute to the worldwide appeal of this yearling sale."

Margins: 6HF, 10, 3/4. Odds: 1.45, 41.25, 80.75. Also Ran: Siphon (Brz), Prepo (Chi), Golden Larch, Coup d' Argent.

Skip Away, looking for his second Gold Cup win, was coming off of a distant second-place finish behind Formal Gold in the Sept. 20 GI Woodward H. Last year's champion three-year-old colt set the pace while being pressured by 4-5 favorite SIPHON (BRZ) (Itajara {Brz}) and swept clear of that rival turning for home. Skip Away easily drew off to a 6 1/2-length win as Siphon tired to fourth. "I kind of wanted to go to the lead," explained winning rider Jerry Bailey.

"(Trainer) Sonny (Hine) at least wanted me to track him and make Siphon run. We broke so well and he held his position well. I had Siphon (measured) at every pole." Siphon's lackluster performance left trainer Richard Mandella a little perplexed. "He just didn't have any horse today, but he's had a great career," Mandella admitted. "This may have been his last race. He just didn't have the zeal he usually has." COUP D'ARGENT (Silver Buck) suffered a compound fracture of the sesamoid in his left foreleg during the running of the race and had to be euthanized. GOLDEN LARCH (Slew o' Gold) stumbled over the fallen horse, losing the rider, and PREPO (CHI) (Inchwood) was pulled up to avoid the spill.

A performance to grace "Champions Day" at Newmarket was the versatile 1996 Breeders Cup Turf champion Pilsudski (Ire), winner of the G1 Eclipse S. in July and runner-up in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe October 5, overcame traffic woes and survived a 10-minute stewards' inquiry. At the three-eighths pole Epsom Derby winner BENNY THE DIP (Silver Hawk) went for home along the rail, but he was soon challenged by Loup Sauvage, who had found the perfect split between horses to grab the lead. But Michael Kinane had timed his run to perfection on Pilsudski, switching him to go around Benny The Dip and then back to the rail. Inside the final furlong Lord Weinstock's five-year-old quickened brilliantly to catch Loup Sauvage and run out a comfortable winner. The stewards looked at Pilsudski's manoeuvre around Benny The Dip, who faded to sixth, but allowed the result to stand. Michael Stoute was thrilled: "This a champion and admirable horse, with a wonderful constitution to come back from his run in the Arc. Today's race did not really go according to plan, but he showed today what great acceleration he has. At the end of his three-year-old career I thought he would be a Group 3 horse last year--I was only two grades wrong! We want to go to the Japan Cup--we've got five weeks and, knowing him, I would be very hopeful that he would be on the plane."

Val's Prince came with a wide rally to finish second in the GI Man 'o War Sept. 21 in his last start. The chestnut gelding settled off the lead of DOWTY (Irish River {Fr}), who along with entymate Flag Down went off the even-money favorite. Val's Prince took the lead nearing the final turn and held sway to the wire for his first stakes win. Trainer Jimmy Picou earned his second straight Turf Classic win, following Diplomat Jet's score last year. "The other horses in this race we know like to make one, late run, so the horse we had to worry about was Dowty. I told (jockey) Mike (Smith) to be ready to go to the lead if he had to or to sit off it, depending on what happened when they opened the gate," Picou explained. "Mike rode a super race and this is a great horse. I'm just tickled to win this race again. We are going to go the Breeders' Cup (Turf)."

Grand Slam, an 11-length winner of his debut this past July, was coming off of a 6½-length romp in the Sept. 21 GI Futurity. Favored to take back-to-back Grade I wins, the dark bay colt settled off the pace as Lil's Lad opened a six-length advantage down the backstretch. Grand Slam issued his challenge turning for home and the pair duelled down the lane with Grand Slam eking out a hard-fought win. "I wasn't concerned (about Lil's Lad's big lead)," said winning jockey Gary Stevens. "But when I started to make my move and we hooked him, I got a bit of a scare because he (Lil's Lad) kicked in. I haven't been on too many two-year-olds as professional as Grand Slam. He was a much more focused horse today. Before he was a little lackadaisical." Winning trainer D. Wayne Lukas indicated Grand Slam will ship to Santa Anita Monday to prepare for the November 8 Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

A breathtakingly sensational performance here made G1 Prix de la Salamandre winner Xaar (GB) a very hot favorite for next year's English 2000 Guineas, with bookmakers already quoting him at odds ranging from even-money to 6-4. Settled in rear while the unbeaten Tamarisk (Ire) set the pace, Xaar appeared to have problems at the quarter-mile mark, but once jockey Olivier Peslier switched him to the outside, he pulverised this high-class field, quickening brilliantly to go right away from the opposition, thus emulating his freshman sire Zafonic, who won this event by four lengths in 1992. Andre Fabre reckoned this win was superior to Zafonic's: "I think it was more impressive. This colt is very laid back, he comes from nowhere.

You don't notice him and suddenly he is there in a few strides. He was never under pressure, just looking for a gap. He has a great attitude and is the easiest horse to train. I think he will come straight to the 2000 Guineas next year, as I want to leave plenty in the tank for the rest of the season." Previously unbeaten DAGGERS DRAWN (Diesis {GB})'s faded to sixth and rider Kieren Fallon said: "This was not his race. But he will be back."

Vivid Angel captured an Aug. 10 maiden event and the Aug. 24 GII Del Mar Debutante, both at Del Mar, in her first two starts and then finished fourth last time out in the Sept. 12 Kentucky Cup Juvenile Fillies. The winner set the pace on the inside and shook all challenges leaving the backstretch to kick clear under steady urging. "She went out there, relaxed real well," winning rider Eddie Delahoussaye said. "I waited until the head of the stretch to ask her, and she took off. She was goofing around in the stretch, so I just tapped her on the shoulder, and she picked it up a little bit. She is a nice filly. I just hope she continues improving." Winning trainer Bob Baffert said, "She's a one-dimensional filly. She just wants to be on the lead, so I told Eddie to just put her there in front and don't look back. That's why I put blinkers on her." The winner, Balisian Beauty, and sixth-place finisher EASTSIDE WESTSIDE (Eastern Echo) are headed for the Breeders' Cup. The 9-5 favorite Eastside Westside, a 12-length winner in a Sept. 4 Del Mar maiden race last time out, was bumped at the start, trailed the field early, and made a slight rally in the lane. "She was out of it from the first turn on," Bob Baffert, who also trains the winner, said. "I hadn't been cranking down on her the way I had with Vivid Angel. I was just prepping her for the Breeders' Cup."

Favorite Trick, the leading candidate for two-year-old champion, was undefeated in six starts and was coming off an authoritative win in the August 30 GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga. The prohibitive favorite was reserved in third early, rallied five wide turning for home to overtake Time Limit at midstretch and drew off to the wire. "This horse is unbelievable," an exuberant trainer Pat Byrne said after the race. "He did everything I expected him to do and more. Some people wondered if this horse could get two turns and that was a legitimate question. But I don't think there are any questions after today. I think we can win the (Kentucky) Derby. Why won't this horse go a mile-and-a-quarter?" Winning rider Pat Day added, "I tried to pepper him a couple of times to get his mind on his business and he just accelerated and took off. This is a very, very good horse."

Lucky Coin's lone loss in his last six starts came when he ventured into graded stakes company and finished fifth in the GII Bernard Baruch H. at Saratoga in August. Coming off of a 6½-length tally in an Oct. 3 overnight handicap at Belmont, the gelding was favored here and led from wire-to-wire for an easy score. "The last time he raced, they sent a "rabbit" out with him and he was still able to win convincingly," trainer Richard Nieminski said. "This time he was the main speed and he had everything his way and he did it easy once again." Lucky Coin may start in the Breeders' Cup.

Racecourse rumors had circulated that Kahal (GB) had been working brilliantly and the Godolphin three-year-old justified the betting support, beating a class field. At the quarter-mile pole, Kahal appeared to have no chance, but once switched to the wide outside, Frankie Dettori's mount flew home from Rebecca Sharp. Dettori said: "The horse is in great form and everything worked out well. I was a little anxious a furlong-and-a-half out when I appeared to have nowhere to go. I had to take him round the field and then he really took off." Rebecca Sharp's owner-breeder Anthony Oppenheimer hinted at his filly's retirement: "I am inclined to retire her. Her win in the (G1) Coronation is one of the highlights of my racing life. She is a real gem and has run a fine race in defeat today. She's tough and genuine and it's hard to imagine owning a better filly."

Winter Melody finished third in the Sept. 20 Prismatical S. at the Meadowlands last time out and picked up her first victory here since taking the June 15 Obeah H. at Delaware, five starts back. The third choice trailed the field of eight early before advancing on the outside in the lane to nip Omi at the wire. "She is a real game mare who ran a really game race," winning trainer Stephen Nocella said. "This was a tough race for her but she has been racing in tough before. This race set up well for us. Omi was the one to beat and we were lucky enough to go get her. She is an honest mare who tries her best every time. It is nice to get this black type under her belt."

Primally captured an Aug. 31 six furlong maiden race by 5 1/2 lengths in her third career start and then finished second last time out in the Sept. 28 1 1/16-mile GIC Mazarine S., both at Woodbine. The favorite tracked the early leaders and then accelerated to the front at the top of the lane for an easy victory in this race restricted to Canadian-breds. "She dropped in at the 3/8's pole," winning jockey Mickey Walls said. "She grabbed hold of the bit and just dragged me past those other two front horses. I just sat on her at the head of the stretch and picked her up and she just had another gear left. She was working well into this race and we expected her to run pretty well, which she did." Winning trainer Roger Attfield was unsure of future plans for Primally and indicated that a decision about running in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies will be made shortly.

◆ SO. CALIFORNIA ◆

Local News, Santa Anita:

Lakota Brave (Northern Prospect), whose racing career appeared in jeopardy after an injury suffered in last Saturday's Gill Ancient Title H., has made a rapid recovery and could start in the Breeders' Cup Sprint, after all. The eight-year-old gelding suffered what trainer Bruce Headley termed a "blood hemorrhage" on his right foreleg after being hit by second-place finisher Swiss Yodeler early in the six-furlong race. "I galloped him an easy mile-and-a-half and he pulled up real good," Headley said Saturday morning. "He's real smooth and the swelling's gone out of the leg. It's some kind of miracle. We got really lucky."

On the work tab yesterday: Breeders' Cup Classic contender Deputy Commander (Deputy Minister) worked five furlongs in :59 4/5 at Hollywood Park... Tuzla (Fr) (Panoramic {GB}), Breeders' Cup Distaff, breezed a half-mile in :52... Men's Exclusive (Exclusive Ribot), Breeders' Cup Sprint, worked five furlongs at Hollywood Park in 1:01 3/5 and Anet (Clever Trick), Breeders' Cup Mile, worked seven furlongs over the turf in 1:29 3/5... Le Triton (El Gran Senor), Breeders' Cup Sprint, worked six furlongs in 1:12 4/5... Argentine star Fregy's (Combsway) worked six furlongs in 1:14 3/5... MGSW Two-year-old filly Career Collection (General Meeting) worked seven furlongs in 1:25 4/5 and should start next in the Oct. 25 California Cup Juvenile Fillies.

Fantastic Fellow captured two of seven races in England and then came to America where he won a division of the July 23 restricted Oceanside S. and the Aug. 10 Gill La Jolla H. before finishing fourth in the Sept. 1 Gil Del Mar Derby last time out. Trying his elders for the first time, the third choice raced on the inside and came out on the second turn to make his bid which brought him to the front in mid-stretch and he then held off Magellan. "Everything came out really good for us," winning jockey Alex Solis said. "He relaxed really nicely today and he wasn't pulling. I had a good pace in front of me. I just tried to be patient and when I got to the three-sixteenths pole, I knew it was time to go. So I got him out in the clear and he finished really good." Richard Mulhall, agent for owner The Thoroughbred Corporation, indicated the winner will "probably go on to the Breeders' Cup (Mile)." Also thinking about running their horses in the Breeders' Cup are the connections of Magellan and Taiki Blizzard. Taiki Blizzard shipped in from Japan for this event and held on gamely in the stretch to nail down the show spot.

On this occasion, two fillies, FLAWLESS (GB) (Warning {GB}) and QILIN (IRE) (Second Set {Ire}), were left at the gate when their barriers failed to open. The rest of the field started but a false start was declared and the runners were brought back to the gate, with the real start delayed by some 10 minutes. At the quarter-mile pole, Name Of Love (Ire) was switched to the outside and, although stumbling slightly, took command at the eighth-pole and ran on well for the victory. Michael Tabor's Saratoga Springs has been racing in the shadow of his more famous juvenile stable-mates, King Of Kings and Second Empire, so far this season, but this easy four-length win means he will now head for next Saturday's G1 Racing Post Trophy over a mile at Doncaster. Although drifting in the betting from odds-on to 7-4, Saratoga Springs, without his visor this time, made short work of his rivals, drawing clear of the opposition in the final eighth-of-a-mile to win easily. Trainer Aidan O'Brien said: "He is very like his sire El Gran Senor and he is a Derby type of horse for next year. He is thriving physically and we treated today's race as a final workout for next weekend's race at Doncaster."
