RECORD DAY AT KEENELAND The November Breeding Stock Sale established an all-time Keeneland and industry record for gross sales Sunday with five days still remaining in the 12-day Lexington, Kentucky auction. Through Sunday, Keeneland sold 1,953 horses for $197,867,300. This eclipsed the previous mark of $191,957,900 for 1,881 horses and 95 stallion shares at the 1983 November Sale. Prior to 1984, Keeneland sales totals included all horses who failed to reach their reserve bid. "The record gross is a testimonial to the quality of the horses offered by our consignors and demonstrates enthusiasm for the Thoroughbred industry worldwide," said Keeneland director of sales Rogers Beasley. Top price at yesterday's session was paid for hip number 2313, a weanling by Mr. Greeley--Country Queen, by Explodent. Consigned by Highclere (Jeffrey Morris), Agent V, the bay colt brought a final bid of $130,000 from Tik Tik Trinidad. Gentry Brothers paid top price of $102,000 for a broodmare, purchasing four-year-old Up Dip (Kerosene), in foal to Twining, from Craig Bandoroff's Denali Stud, as agent. Keeneland sold 289 horses Sunday for $8,330,200--up 18.3 percent from last year's aggregate of $7,040,300 for 275 horses. The average rose 12.6 percent from $25,601 last year to $28,824 in 1997. The sale concludes Friday.

LONESOME GLORY WINS COLONIAL CUP Kay Jeffords's Lonesome Glory (Transworld) took dead aim on his fourth Eclipse Award with a half-length win over Rowdy Irishman (Erins Isle {Ire}) in the $115,900 Colonial Cup Sunday at Springdale Race Course. Should the nine-year-old earn the 1997 title, he would join Flatterer (1983-86) as the only other four-time steeplechase Eclipse champion. The victory, with bonus awards, was worth $319,540 and boosted Lonesome Glory's lifetime earnings past the $1 million mark--an American steeplechasing record. Rallying powerfully around horses on the final turn, Lonesome Glory reached the last of 17 fences on even terms with Master McGrath (Compliance) and Rowdy Irishman. The winner gained a narrow advantage in the final sixteenth-of-a-mile and held off Rowdy Irishman with Master McGrath third. "This was a very tough race for him," said trainer Bruce Miller. "Rowdy Irishman ran a great race and I'm honored to beat him. He might have deserved to win, but Lonesome is a good horse. I know I'll never be associated with another horse this good." The National Steeplechase Association annual championships were decided over the weekend. Bill Lickie took the owner's title; Tom Voss won his first trainer championship and Arch Kingsley and Jonathan Kiser shared the jockeys title.

Mellow Roll came into this event with previous stakes wins in the Aug. 16 Aspirant S., the Sept. 1 New York Breeders' Futurity, both at Finger Lakes, and the Oct. 12 Sleepy Hollow S. at Belmont last time out, all against New York-bred competition. Looking for his fourth stakes win in his last five starts, the prohibitive favorite stalked front-running My Billy before storming passed that rival in mid-stretch for an easy score. "I had a great trip, and he did everything I asked him to do," winning jockey Frank Lovato, Jr. said. "The other horse (My Billy) put in a good challenge against us, but when I got into my horse he prevailed. He's a two-year-old colt that makes it difficult sometimes but today he got the job done."

Dancewiththebride finished fifth, beaten a length, in the Oct. 29 GIII Miss Grillo S. on the turf in her previous start and returned to the winner's circle for the first time since taking the July 13 Francis LaBelle Memorial S. at Delaware, six starts ago. Switching back to the main track, the favorite battled for the early lead prior to shaking loose around the far turn and drawing away in the drive. "She's really a nice little filly," winning jockey Cornelio Velasquez said. "She's really fast. She's run well against open company several times and once she took the lead today I didn't really have to use her too much. She won easily." Trainer Gary P. Gullo reported that the winner will be off until the spring.

Promiscuous was a 4 1/2-length victor in a Nov. 2 Woodbine maiden race in his previous trip to the post. Trying stakes company and going past seven furlongs for the first time, the favorite tracked the early pace before grabbing the lead in the drive and pulling away late. "Going into the race, I just hoped he would run back to his last race and get the added distance," winning trainer Macdonald Benson said. "I thought he could, he's certainly bred to. He's started to mature as you want a two-year-old to do at this time of year."

Same Old Wish closed to be fourth in the Oct. 18 GII Kelso H. at Belmont in his previous start and returned to the winner's circle here for the first time since taking this event one year ago. The winner raced from the back of the pack, moved up around the far turn and grabbed the lead inside the furlong-pole. "He broke and settled nicely," winning jockey Shane Sellers said. "He was his old self today. He tailed off from last year, but when he fires like today, he's something else." Trainer Robert Barbara offered up a reason for his charge's reversal of form. "We tied his tongue for the first time today, and I think it helped him a whole lot because we found a little something in his last start," Barbara said. "He has a lot of talent but he has just been hanging in his last couple of starts and I wasn't sure what it was, but I think this (getting his tongue tied) helped him a lot. He was very relaxed today."

Prepo (Chi) was making his fourth start in the United States off of a fifth-place showing in the Oct. 18 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup where he was eased to avoid a fallen horse. The dark bay gelding, second choice of the Hollywood bettors, was last early, moved up on the inside on the final turn, swung out six wide into the stretch and wore down Winter Quarters nearing the wire for the win. "The track has been helping closers today, the speed hasn't held up quite as well as it usually does," observed winning trainer Ron McAnally. "In his last race, (jockey) Mike Smith thought he hit (jockey John) Velazquez when his horse went down. So I threw that one out. He probably looked better going into this race than he did in his last race. The owner (Sultan Mohammed al Kabeer) wants to run in the (Dec. 26) Crown Prince Cup in Saudi Arabia next. It's a very important race to him and he's paying the bills."

PREPARE FOR TAKEOFF

There's a bonus for purchasing a mare in foal to Flying Chevron at Keeneland--the breeder of his first North American Grade I SW from his first crop will earn a $300,000 bonus! This bonus applies through the first crop's four-year-old season.

Look for hip numbers 2522, 3170, 3717, 3744, 3787, 3853, 3890.
