SANTA ANITA SETS STAKES SCHEDULE Santa Anita Park's 1997-98 winter/spring stakes schedule will be worth $11,025,000 and include 10 Grade I races, 21 Grade IIs and eight Grade IIIs. Two of the marquis events on the 60-stakes program have been shortened. The February 7 GI $500,000 Strub S., finale in the three-race Strub Series for four-year-olds, will be run at a mile and an eighth rather than a mile and a quarter; the January 17 GII San Fernando S. has been shortened a sixteenth and will be run now at a mile and a sixteenth. "Both races can now serve as more of a progression to our championship race, the Santa Anita H. (March 7)," said Thomas Robbins, Santa Anita's vice president of racing. "In the case of the Strub, it was asking a lot of good horses to go a mile and a quarter so early in the year, particularly just three months after the Breeders' Cup." The GI $750,000 Santa Anita Derby is set for April 4. Purses for the GI Santa Monica, GI Santa Maria and GI Las Virgenes have been raised $50,000 to $200,000; the GI Santa Anita Oaks has been raised $50,000 to $250,000; and the GI La Brea has been upped $25,000 to $150,000. In accordance with recent legislation, the Santa Anita stakes schedule will also include 10 Cal-bred races worth $1.1 million. The winter/spring meet runs December 26-April 20.

DATE CHANGE FOR CALDER TWO-YEAR-OLD SALE The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company yesterday announced it will conduct its 1998 Calder Sale of Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training on Tuesday, February 3, 1998, instead of February 10 as originally scheduled. The change was made to avoid a conflict between the OBS-Calder Sale and the Eclipse Award Dinner, which will be held February 10 in Los Angeles.

Second in her debut, Karate Miss was bet down to 4-5 looking for her eighth straight score and did not disappoint. Five-length winner in her first try at two turns in her latest, the Michigan Juvenile Fillies S. November 8, the dark bay wheeled right back; she battled Starlit City for six furlongs before gaining a clear lead and pulling away late for yet another victory.

Local News: Illinois

For the second time in three years, Arlington International Racecourse is closing an off-track betting parlor. The latest casualty is the parlor in Richmond, Illinois, on the Wisconsin border, which saw its handle fall off dramatically after full-card horse racing simulcasting from out of state was legalized at two nearby Wisconsin dog tracks. Arlington will not offer live racing in 1998, but the track will continue to conduct inter-track wagering in-house; at its sister track, Quad City Downs, which went out of the live-racing business in 1993; and at its three remaining OTB franchises.

Local News: Kentucky

Known Ranger (GB) (Known Fact), who equaled the world record of 1:32 2/5 for a mile on the turf at Belmont Park and earned $384,087 but ended his career for a $3,000 tag at Mountaineer Park, has arrived at the ReRun horse placement facility near Paris, Kentucky. The 11-year-old's road to retirement began when Tom Bartzsch, a long-time racing fan turned new horse owner, stumbled across his past performances while researching horses to purchase, and wondered why he had not yet earned an easier life. Carol Sinclair, a horse owner since 1992 and president of the Thoroughbred United Retirement Fund, saw the horse's P.P.s posted on the Internet and agreed. TURF, a group of Internet users who share a love of horse racing, was established so fans could help provide retirement homes for race horses. With the help of Karla Iannucci, herself a horse owner, Sinclair located the owner of Known Ranger and raised $1,500 through the Internet to buy the veteran campaigner. Bartzsch donated $400 to the effort. Known Ranger was then given to ReRun, Kentucky's race horse adoption program, where he awaits his new home. For more information on TURF, call (215) 547-6181, or e-mail at carols@terrelia.coat.com. For information on the ReRun program, call (606) 289-7555 or e-mail at rerunhorse@aol.com. The TURF website can be accessed at www.crt-stable.com/turf/; the ReRun website is at <http://equinenet.org/rerun/>.

Local News: Dueling Grounds

BC Racing Group, LLC, the new owner of Dueling Grounds in Franklin, Kentucky, will hold a press conference Thursday to announce a new name for their track.

"This colt broke like a bullet, his clearest break so far," said winning jockey Norihiko Yokoyama. "When we took the lead, I knew the others were right behind us, so I kept pushing him. I think he is a wonderful colt and he gave a great performance." Favored SPEED WORLD (Woodman) finished a dull 12th.

Jockey Yukihiko Dohi said, "He couldn't show his best turn of foot because of the track condition. I had some difficulty because we were second favorite and the others raced with us in their sights."
