SADLER'S WELLS FILLY TOPS TATTERSALLS

FRIDAY A weanling filly by Sadler's Wells out of Sequel (Ire) (Law Society) brought a final bid of $282,971 to top Friday's session of weanlings at the Tattersalls December Sales in Newmarket, England. Consigned by Raffin Stud, the full sister to MSW Family Tradition (Ire), second top-weighted two-year-old filly in Ireland in 1996, was purchased by C. Gordon-Watson Bloodstock. A colt by Theatrical (Ire) out of Moss (Woodman), also from the Raffin Stud consignment, brought the highest bid during Thursday's Foals session. The half-brother to MG1SW Committed (Hagley), European champion sprinter in 1984 and champion older mare in Ireland in 1985, as well as stakes winners Christiana Hundred (Hagley) and Wooing (Stage Door Johnny), was purchased for $145,023 by Peter Doyle Bloodstock. Thursday's session saw a total of 205 lots sell for $4,701,566, an average of $22,933. The gross was down 11.4 percent from last year's corresponding session when 207 weanlings brought $5,310,839, while the average dropped 10.6 percent from a figure of $25,655 last year. The numbers rebounded Friday, with 195 lots bringing $9,339,111, up 5.8 percent from the corresponding session in 1996 when 203 foals sold for $8,822,511. Friday's average of $47,893 was up 10.2 percent over the '96 average of $43,459. The final weanling session of the Tattersalls December Sales will be held today. The five-day Mares sale begins December 1 and runs through December 5. (Friday's Top 5, p4)

LONESOME GLORY FOR KEMPTON? The 1997 Colonial Cup hero Lonesome Glory (Transworld), three-time champion steeplechaser, has been entered in one of Britain's most prestigious races, the G1 Pertemps King George VI Chase at Kempton's Boxing Day meeting on December 26. Lonesome Glory is the first American-trained horse to be entered for the race. Trainer Bruce Miller said, "We have entered him in the King George because he has not much more to do in this country. We want to win the Cheltenham Gold Cup, but he needs more experience over British fences and Kempton would be ideal. No definite decisions about coming to Britain have been made yet. He has won races in Britain shortly after shipping so it would be no disadvantage to arrive close to Boxing Day." Sue Ellen, managing director of United Racecourses, said, "The King George has had French-trained and Irish-trained winners. It would be wonderful to see Lonesome Glory represent the United States in this year's renewal on Boxing Day."

Dixie Flag used her speed to her advantage when taking the Nov. 8 Gil First Flight H. at Aqueduct wire-to-wire by 5 3/4 lengths last time out. Looking to increase her career record at Aqueduct to five-for-five, the favorite forced the early pace, surged to the front at the quarter-pole, opened up a wide margin in the lane and held off the late bid of second-choice Aldiza under steady pressure. "She was just awesome today," winning jockey Mike Luzzi said. "She rated kindly and when I asked her to run, she responded. She was a little keen, but I think that was because of the added distance. She was sharp and she was really into the bridle." Trainer Allen Jerkens reported the winner will be sent to the farm for the winter and return to the races next year.

The winner of the GII A Phenomenon H. at Saratoga this summer, Royal Haven had run just twice since, finishing third in both the GII Forego H. at Saratoga and the GII Forest Hills H. at Belmont. Coming off a five-week layoff after that last start, the third choice rated off the pace, made a five-wide move on the turn to take the lead straightening for home and never looked back, giving trainer Gasper Moschera optimism for the Aqueduct meeting. "This seems like a preview of what to expect over the winter," said his trainer. "He's a good horse and he did it real easy out there."

The winner of the Gill Churchill Downs Distaff despite drifting out near the wire in her last start November 8, Feasibility Study entered this event five-for-nine on the year, with a win in the Gill Turfway Park Breeders' Cup and a near miss in the GI Spinster to her credit. The highweight sat just off the early pace, assumed command entering the stretch and increased her advantage through the lane. Stablemate Omi closed for second to give trainer Bill Mott the top two spots. "You get nervous when they are one-two coming into the stretch," said Ralph Nicks, Mott's assistant. "The race set up well for (Feasibility Study) today. She drew outside where she could stalk, unlike the Spinster where she had to be pressed the whole way. She'll now go to Florida and we'll evaluate from there." Nicks added that the five-year-old mare would likely race in January and February, and then a decision would be made on whether to continue her six-year-old campaign or retire her to the breeding shed.

A winner of his last start, a November 1 allowance at Churchill Downs, Valid Expectations was sent off the second choice here in Fair Grounds' opening day feature. Brushed at the break, he sat just off the leader through fast opening fractions of :21 3/5 and :44 3/5 down the backstretch, took the lead at the top of the lane and held off the late charge of favored Spiritbound. "He's shown an incredible amount of speed in his races before and today he was very sharp," said winning rider Frank Lovato Jr. "Turning for home, I had a fresh horse." Trainer Steve Asmussen said that Valid Expectations, a seven-time stakes winner with including victories in the Gill Derby Trial S. and Gill Sport Page. H., will now be retired to stud at owner Harry Mangurian Jr.'s Mockingbird Farm in Ocala, Florida.

Margins: 2, NK, 4. Odds: 1.20, 6.80, 12.70.

Originally campaigned in Europe where she won two of seven starts, Aerleon Jane was sent to trainer Jeremy Nosedo in California this spring and came away with one win in five starts. Shifted to Patrick Byrne's stable this fall, she won her debut for her new trainer October 18 at Keeneland, and put back-to-back wins together here to make it two-for-two under Byrne. Away last in the eight-horse field, the 6-5 choice was unhurried early, came eight-wide into the stretch and was all out to the finish.

Concerto, winner of the Mar. 29 Gill Jim Beam S., did not fare well in the Triple Crown races. Ninth in the Kentucky Derby and sixth in the Preakness S., he then took a five-month break and came back with a pair of seconds in Aqueduct stakes, the Oct. 22 Gill Discovery H. and the Nov. 15 Gill Stuyvesant H. last time out.

The second choice prompted the early pace, grabbed the lead around the far turn and fended off the late challenge of Terremoto in the final stages. "The horse ran super," winning jockey Jerry Bailey said. "When the other horse (Rod and Staff) didn't go by, I knew he was going to be tough to beat." The decision to ship Concerto to Churchill was made a few days ago, and it turned out to be a good one. "On Tuesday, it was finally decided to bring him here for this race," said Ralph Nicks, assistant to trainer Bill Mott.

Local News: Churchill Downs

A technical problem Wednesday resulted in $775 in wagers being placed on Churchill Downs' seventh race at a New York State off-track betting outlet for six full minutes after the race had started. The trouble was caused by a computer tote failure at the New York Racing Association, the hub from which the New York OTB wagers are transferred into the mutuel pools at Churchill. Due to the computer problem, the tote machines at New York Western Regional OTB outlets were not locked at post time for Churchill's seventh race, 4:03 p.m. Wednesday, and patrons continued to bet on the race until 4:09 p.m. A total of $412 of the wagers were on winning tickets. Because the error was not discovered until the wagers had been included in the commingled mutuel pools and the race had been declared official, there was an underpayment of $51,900 to on-track and simulcast bettors who held legal winning tickets. However, those bets made after the race had begun were not honored at Western Regional OTB. In accordance with the Administrative Regulations of the Kentucky Rules of Racing, the underpayment will be placed into wagering pools on today's seventh race at Churchill and distributed to winning bettors.

Jockey Larry Melancon made his comeback a winning one Wednesday, riding two-year-old Bubbly Lady (Chief's Crown) to victory in the sixth race at Churchill in his first mount since suffering multiple injuries in a spill at Ellis Park August 28. "It was a bad accident, but God brought me through it and it was a quick recovery," said the 42-year-old reinsman. "Getting back to riding was my goal. Winning a race is icing on the cake."

GSW Phantom On Tour (Tour d'Or), first or second in eight of nine career starts and runner-up in this year's Gil Arkansas Derby, worked five furlongs in 1:03 1/5 under jockey Larry Melancon Thursday. "He's accomplished everything we've asked him to do at this point and he's probably a little further along than I anticipated him being at this time," said trainer Lynn Whiting of the three-year-old, who underwent surgery to remove a chip from his ankle after finishing sixth in the Kentucky Derby. "Maybe he'll find himself in the entries in New Orleans one day at the end of December."

GI Moet Champagne S. runner-up Lil's Lad (Pine Bluff) breezed three furlongs in :37 2/5 Thursday.

Facing the boys as the 2-1 choice with a switch to the turf here, the bay sped away from the gate to take a clear lead early and had enough left to hold off the late charge of Latin Dancer for the victory. "Turning for home, she was just cruising," said jockey Kent Desormeaux. "She had her head up in the air and was looking around as if to say, 'Where did they all go?' I think she would have been tough in the Breeders' Cup Sprint, but that's a pill you have to swallow. You take the good with the bad and keep on going. We've got some good, so let's smile." As for the future, trainer Richard Mandella said, "There will be a five-year-old season, because we're just now learning how to train her. We can't stop now."

Two-for-six on the main track, Star's Proud Penny tried turf for the first time in the Ridgewood Pearl S. November 5 at Hollywood and finished fourth, beaten only 4 1/2 lengths by even-money COUNTRY GARDEN (GB) (Selkirk). Ignored at the windows despite the promising showing, the dark horse was reserved off the pace early, swung to the outside for the stretch run and outfinished Superlative to take a narrow decision. "I was really surprised about how soft the turf course was," said winning rider Garrett Gomez. "My filly handled it exceptionally well. Every time I asked her to pick it up, she would." The favorite pressed the pace and took the lead in the stretch, but couldn't quite hang on, finishing fourth. GI Oak Leaf S. winner VIVID ANGEL (Septieme Ciel), making her turf debut, showed brief speed but stopped and ended up eighth. "She wasn't handling the turf at all," said jockey Eddie Delahoussaye. "She just didn't like it. I don't know what she would have done on a dry surface, but she sure didn't like the wet stuff."

EMAILIT (c, 3, Timeless Native--Butterbean, by Buckaroo) was second Nov. 6 at Hollywood under similar conditions in his previous start; he picks up his first win since taking the Oct. 20, 1996 Leland Stanford S. The 2-1 second choice tracked the pacesetter and gained ground quickly in the final furlong, getting up for a 1 3/4-length victory despite having his rider lose the whip at the furlong-pole. Tenth in her last start, a nine-furlong turf allowance at Hollywood Nov. 3, Mignon came into this race looking for her first win since the Del Mar meeting and found it here after rains moved this race from the turf course to a wet-fast main track. The second choice took the lead away from the gate, lost that advantage to Lady Ling briefly in the stretch when rider Goncalino Almeida lost his whip nearing the sixteenth pole, but battled back gamely along the rail to get the win.
