NTRA NAMES BOARD OF DIRECTORS The National Thoroughbred Racing Association took another significant step forward yesterday with the formation of a board of directors, the release of its business plan and the announcement that 34 NTRA membership agreements, representing 35 tracks, have been signed. Named to the NTRA Board, which consists of five race-track representatives, five owners and/or breeders and a to-be-named CEO, were racetrack executives Bill Bork (Penn National), Doug Donn (Gulfstream Park), R.D. Hubbard (Hollywood Park), Tom Meeker (Churchill Downs), Kenny Noe (New York Racing Association) and horsemen's representatives Robert Clay, Alan Foreman, Ed Friendly, Ogden Mills Phipps and Bill Walmsley. D.G. Van Clief Jr., current interim CEO and president of the NTRA, will continue to serve in that role until a permanent CEO is named. The NTRA will begin in 1998 with a projected $25 million in revenues and projected growth to $40-43 million by 2001. The funding will come from contributions (30-35%), handle-based fees (20-25%), simulcast outlets such as OTBs and from miscellaneous sources such as licensing. The NTRA business plan calls for more than $138 million to be spent for marketing and advertising Thoroughbred racing through a central national office over the next three years, following precedents set in other major North American sports. "I'm proud of U.S. racing today," Ogden Mills Phipps said. "We're always hearing that American racing is incapable of working together for the common cause. What has happened in the last few days, when all segments of our industry have rallied to the support of this worthy initiative, has proved otherwise." The NTRA Board of Directors holds its first meeting Monday.

MEADOWLANDS CANCELS AGAIN The second straight program at the Meadowlands was called off Friday due to unsafe track conditions, but officials are confident the New Jersey track will be back in action for its final 1997 card tonight. "We're optimistic," said Robert Kulina, vice president of Thoroughbred racing. "We'll make every effort to race. The weather looks better and the track should be able to dry out."

News cont.TRA AND JOCKEYS' GUILD EXTEND

AGREEMENT The Thoroughbred Racing Associations and the Jockeys' Guild concluded negotiations Thursday on a two-year extension of their agreement which assigns certain jockey media rights to the tracks. In return for those rights, the TRA will continue to provide accident insurance for the jockeys for $100,000 in medical benefits and $200 per week in disability payments for a maximum of two years. The agreement also specifies that tracks will increase their existing payments to the Guild by approximately $300,000 over the two-year period. Those payments are used by the Guild to help subsidize its members health plan.

DEAL AN ACE (c, 3, Eastern Echo--Anything for Love {GSP}, by Seattle Slew), fifth in a Sept. 6 Belmont allowance race in his latest outing, returned to the winner's circle for the first time since capturing a June 1 Monmouth allowance race five starts back. Carrying owner Frank Stronach's new silks, which sport the new Adena Springs logo, in their racetrack debut, the 15-1 longshot checked at the start but recovered to get the lead and pulled away in the stretch for a three-length victory. Lifetime Record: 11-3-4-1, $73,954.

O-Frank H Stronach. B-Peter M. Brant (KY). T-J Orseno.

Local News: Florida

Florida Thoroughbred Charities will hold its annual Silent Auction at George Steinbrenner's Ramada Yankee Inn in Ocala Sunday, January 18, and its Stallion Seasons Auction the following day at the Ocala Breeders' Sales Pavilion. Hosted by the Florida Thoroughbred Fillies, the Silent Auction and cocktail party will start at 6:30 p.m.; tickets, which include a buffet dinner and $10 towards bidding, are available for a $35 donation. A new addition to the Stallion Seasons Auction is the $25,000 Florida Thoroughbreds Charities S. Three-year-olds of 1998 by stallions whose seasons are donated to the auction will be eligible to compete in the race, which will be run March 23 in Ocala. Foals of 1999 by the same stallions will be eligible to race in the 2002 edition of the race. Since 1990, Florida Thoroughbred Charities Inc. has raised more than $600,000 for charitable contributions. Last year's events raised $128,000. For more information, call (352) 629-2160.
