MAYBE JACK ROMPS IN SUFFOLK MATCH

RACE Maybe Jack (Classic Account) wrested command from Pro on Ice (Distinctive Pro) at the top of the stretch and drew off to take the "Suffolk Showdown" by 9½ lengths, confirming his status as the nation's winningest horse of 1997. With 2½ weeks left in the year, the two horses had been deadlocked at 12 wins apiece. "We wanted to pressure him (Pro on Ice) right from the start and that's how it worked out," said winning jockey Rudy Baez. "I was hoping Maybe Jack had something left turning for home because I had asked him a lot already." The winner paid $3.00 to win. The Maybe Jack-Pro On Ice perfecta, which was essentially a second win pool in the two-horse race, paid $2.40. The pair dueled side by side to the far turn, but Maybe Jack, racing over his home track and at his best distance, wore down the gray Finger Lakes sprinter for his 13th win of the year.

REMINGTON PARK ENDS '97 MEET Remington Park concluded its 1997 season yesterday. Exactly 900 races were contested during the season, highlighted by the ninth running of the $300,000 Remington Park Derby. Frank Stronach's Wild Rush (Wild Again) invaded from California to capture the Aug. 10 cornerstone event of the meet. Total attendance at the 107-day meeting was 338,410 for a daily on-track average of 3,163. Jockey Tim Dooey secured his fourth title as leading rider with 127 victories, 48 more than runner-up Don Pettinger. Kenny Smith posted his second straight trainer's title at the Oklahoma track. Leading owner honors went to Champ Hinton, Jr.

River Bay, a multiple graded stakes winner in France, was seventh in his North American debut in the GI Man o' War at Belmont Park. Off since that Sept. 21 effort, the chestnut colt was last of the twelve runners early but shot to the lead with a six-wide move turning for home. "I had a great trip," said winning jockey Alex Solis after the race. "When I got him around the three-eighths pole, there's only one way to describe what I was feeling: that was awesome! When I got him out, he flew home." MGISW SANDPIT (BRZ) (Baynoun {Ire}), making the final start of his distinguished career, took a short lead nearing the stretch, but faded to fourth. "He gave it a big try," said the eight-year-old's trainer Richard Mandella. "The last year or so, with the mile-and-a-half, he hasn't run as well. He's always favored the mile-and-a-quarter. I'm very proud of him. It would have been icing on the cake to go out a winner, but it's a very big cake, so we're not worried about it."

Real Quiet was already stakes placed when he graduated from the maiden ranks in his seventh start Oct. 18 He most recently finished third in the Nov. 29 GIII Brown & Williamson Kentucky Jockey Club S. The bay colt stalked the early leaders, began challenging for control turning for home, took over at midstretch and scored by one length. "Yesterday I thought about not bringing him over the way the track's been playing...speed, speed, speed," admitted winning trainer Bob Baffert. "I thought maybe just (stablemate) JOHNBILL (Slew City Slew) (7th) in there, but he's been training so good this week. I mean really good, he was really training great, so I had to take a shot with him. When a horse is doing that good, I hate to just keep him in the barn."

Golden Arches (Fr) ran third in the GI Del Mar Oaks and second in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup before a sixth-place effort in the Nov. 2 GI Yellow Ribbon S. in three U.S. starts. Heavily favored here, the bay filly raced just off the early leaders, was forced to steady at midstretch but rallied gamely to earn the victory. "She's a genuine filly," commented Chris McCarron after the winning ride. "She's no world-beater, but she's a very nice filly. I guess we'll have to go celebrate at McDonald's now." Winning trainer Ron McAnally said the Jan. 17 GII San Gorgonio will probably be next for Golden Arches.

Best Friend Stro won a Nov. 2 maiden race against state-breds and finished fourth last time out in the Nov. 29 GII Demoiselle S., both at Aqueduct. Dropping back to New York-bred competition, the second choice stalked the early pace before surging to the front in mid-stretch and pulling away in the final furlong. "It just seems like everything's going my way today," winning rider Aaron Gryder said. "The race was set up just right and Mike (winning trainer Hushion) told me to do whatever came easy with her. This was her second time with blinkers, and she was very responsive. She was very handy out there, she just waited on every one of my calls." Trainer Mike Hushion indicated that the winner will race against open company next.
