SILVER CHARM PREPS FOR SAN PASQUAL

Silver Charm (Silver Buck) worked a mile in 1:37 1/5 at Santa Anita Friday morning. The five-year-old makes his first start of the new year in the GII San Pasqual H. Jan. 10. "He is Mr. Cool," said trainer Bob Baffert. "I think he's the most intelligent horse on the planet. He's fit and ready for 1999." Also getting ready for the San Pasqual, Malek (Chi) (Mocito Guapo {Arg}) went the same distance in 1:38 with jockey Alex Solis in the saddle. Winner of last year's Big 'Cap, the six-year-old will be making his first start since running fourth in the Dubai World Cup March 28. "He's always had a back problem and he still has a bit of a back problem. He just needed time," said trainer Richard Mandella.

GULFSTREAM OPENS TOMORROW Racing returns to Gulfstream Park for the 60th season this afternoon. The opening-day stakes is the GIII Spectacular Bid for three-year-olds, first step on the road to the $750,000 GI Florida Derby March 13 and ultimately the Triple Crown. Jockey Jerry Bailey will be shooting for his fourth straight riding title at the track, while Bill Mott goes for his eighth training title in a row. New at the Florida oval this season is the Gulfstream Gallery, a museum dedicated to Gulfstream racing history located behind the grandstand. Other improvements include new parking areas and a complete upgrade of the drainage system for both the main track and the turf course. Post time is 1 p.m. daily, with racing Wednesdays through Mondays. There will be a special post time of 11 a.m. on Super Bowl Sunday, Jan. 31; and noon on Donn H. Day, Jan. 30, and Florida Derby Day. Bimini Blues earned a pair of Woodbine stakes wins last year, including the GIIIC Ontario Fashion S. Nov. 1, but finished fifth in the Garland Of Roses H. in her first try over this track Dec. 5 and was let go at long odds this time. The Canadian-bred battled on the front end from the start, shook loose at the head of the stretch and had no trouble holding Torch safe to the wire. "This was her first start for me and I'm certainly impressed," said trainer Robert Reinacher Jr. "I think she needed her last race in order to get used to the inner track." Added winning jockey Rene Douglas, "I had no intention of going to the lead, but she surprised me. The wind has been blowing against the grain in the stretch, so I wanted to save some horse for the end. I gave her a little break between the three-eighths pole and the eighth pole, and I had plenty of horse at the end."

7th-AQU, $41,000, Alw, 3yo, f, 1 1/16m, 1:47 3/5, ft. PRIVATE DEPUTY (f, 3, Private Terms--Final Deputy, by Deputy Minster) ran away to win by 10 lengths in her debut Dec. 14 at Philadelphia Park and handled the step up in competition with aplomb. Sent off the 3-1 second choice, she was up close early and wore down the leaders to win by three-quarters of a length. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $34,200.

O-London Arlene. B-Stoneworth Farm (MD). T-D Lopez.

5th-AQU, $41,000, Alw, 4yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:47 2/5, ft.

TUNDRA BOUND (m, 5, Alaskan Frost--Desert Sis, by Medieval Man) didn't win a race in 13 starts in 1998, but must have resolved to try harder in the New Year. A troubled third in her latest appearance Dec. 17, the 4-1 third choice was far back early, but was up in time to get a nose in front at the finish. Lifetime Record: 30-6-5-4, $98,336.

O-Davis Barbara J. B-Ocala Stud Farm (FL). T-Gasper S Moschera.

9th-AQU, $41,000, Alw, 4yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:47 2/5, ft.

MISS VESUVIO (f, 4, Thirty Six Red--I'm a Fighter, by Fit to Fight) broke through with her maiden win in her last start of 1998, cruising to a 4 1/4-length score Dec. 17, and came right back in her '99 debut to make it two in a row. Rated off the early pace for a half, she came with her bid going into the far turn, came out of the turn on top and added to her advantage in the final drive to win by 3 1/2 lengths as a 16-1 longshot. Lifetime Record: 11-2-1-3, $71,230.

O-Gianca Stable. B-Evangelista Tony (KY). T-Paulino O Ortiz.

6th-AQU, $38,000, Msw, 3yo, f, 6f, 1:12 4/5, ft.

STRIKING MOVE (f, 3, Valid Appeal--Lori Gail, by Explosive Bid), a $100,000 '98 OBSAPR two-year-old, had led through the early stages of each of her first three starts before getting caught in the stretch. Most recently second Dec. 12 at Aqueduct, she battled for the lead here, dug in gamely in the stretch and hung on for a 1/2-length win as the even-money favorite. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-1, $41,850.

O-Farish William S & Bolton George Jr. B-Harry T Mangurian Jr (FL). T-John C Kimmel.

New York Signal a Hit on West Coast:

A total of $654,731 was wagered on the nine-race card from Aqueduct during yesterday's debut of full-card simulcasting in California. "Considering the New York Racing Association launch into California began the morning after a late New Year's Eve night, the numbers are very encouraging," said NYRA Director of Broadcast Communications and Promotions Bill Nader. "We hope to carry that momentum as California bettors become more familiar with the Aqueduct signal."

 The winner by a nose at first asking against Cal-breds Nov. 28, General Challenge was the heavy favorite stepping up to the stakes ranks in his second start, but did not disappoint. Never far from the lead, the chestnut came with his bid on the far turn and outfinished Cal Cup Juvenile runner-up Warm April, a $50,000 claim out of his maiden win, for a decisive victory. "He's still green," said trainer Bob Baffert. "He's just now figuring it all out. He's a big, long, lumbering type of horse. I've never really leaned on him in the morning. So now we'll stretch him out and develop him." The 1 1/16-mile GIII Santa Catalina S. Jan. 31 may be next.

A Grade 1 winner in her native country, Victory Stripes captured an allowance race on dirt at Hollywood and on turf at Del Mar this summer, and also ran a respectable second in the GII Lady's Secret Breeders' Cup H. Oct. 11 at Santa Anita, but failed to fire in the sloppy going last out and was fourth, beaten 31 lengths, in the Dec. 6 GII Bayakoa H. Catching a fast track this time, the South American import pressed the pace from the outset, moved to the front in the stretch and won going away.

Making his second stateside start off the 4 1/2-month layoff, the bay was off in a bit of a tangle and was rank while saving ground on the first turn, but closed from seventh to put a head in front as they straightened into the stretch and pulled away late for a 1 1/4-length score as the 15-10 favorite.
