SATURDAY RACING CANCELLATIONS The winter storm which has dropped more than a foot of snow across the Midwest caused the cancellation of yesterday's live racing card at Turfway Park in Florence, Kentucky. The track remained open for simulcasting. Nominations for the feature race on Saturday's program at Turfway, the $50,000 Cincinnati Trophy for three-year-old fillies going 6 1/2 furlongs, have been reopened and will now close Wednesday, January 6. The race will be run Sunday, January 10. Live racing is scheduled to resume this afternoon with first post time at 1:10 p.m. Racing was also called off at Suffolk Downs in East Boston, Massachusetts Saturday after the jockeys refused to ride because of the freezing temperatures. The track was open for simulcasting and is expected to be back in action today, with first post time set for 12:45 p.m.

TROPICAL AT CALDER MEET ENDS While yesterday's GIII Tropical Park Derby marked the beginning of a New Year for sophomore Thoroughbreds, it also marked the end of the 51-day Tropical at Calder meeting in Miami, Florida. Total on-track attendance at the 1998-99 Tropical at Calder meet (not including the six simulcast-only days) was 271,120, down slightly from 274,607 during the 1997-98 meet. Total on-track handle, including the Calder program only (no full-card simulcasting), was $29,753,838, down 6.7 percent from $31,874,529 last year. Final simulcast figures are not yet in and will be released Monday. Eibar Coa took his third consecutive Tropical at Calder jockey title with 71 victories, while leading trainer honors went to Bill White with 34 wins. James Lewis Jr. topped the owner standings with 10 victories.

Today, Gulfstream Park:

APPLETON H.-GII, $100,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/16mT, post time 5:04 p.m. EST

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Adcat	Hennig	Velazquez	10-1
2	Notoriety	Jerkens	Toribio	20-1
3	Foolish Pole	Croll Jr.	Bravo	6-1
4	Donthelumbertrader	Plesa Jr.	Davis	10-1
5	N B Forrest	Parisella	Bailey	5-2

9	Unite's Big Red	Mills	Nunez	4-1
10	Legs Galore	Combest	Jurado	15-1
11	Goodnight Run	Irwin	Fires	20-1

Missionary (Deputy Minister) has been beaten only twice in seven turf tries and is a perfect one-for-one at this distance. Fifth in the Oct. 18 GII Jamaica H. after four straight turf stakes wins, the Neil Howard trainee bounced back with a victory in the Nov. 14 Pete Axthelm H. at Calder last time out. Donthelumbertrader (John Casey) has never been off the board in nine starts over the Gulfstream turf, running first or second eight times. The six-year-old pressed the pace, but weakened to be fourth behind 8-1 Unite's Big Red (Unite) in the GIII Tropical Turf H. going nine furlongs at Calder Nov. 28. N B Forrest (Lomond) will have to give up his role as the bridesmaid after running second in four of his last five appearances. The seven-year-old was most recently runner-up in the Dec. 19 GII W.L. McKnight H.; he missed by a nose in the Tropical Turf.

Today, Gulfstream Park:

SPECTACULAR BID S.-GIII, $75,000, 3yo, 6f, post time 4:09 p.m. EST

The field, in post position order, will be: Texas Glitter (Glitterman), Velazquez, 117; Valid Trefaire (Valid Appeal), Bailey, 114; Erlton (Buckaroo), Day, 117; Expatriot (Carson City), Migliore, 114; Steppin Lightly (Sunny's Halo), Chavez, 112; Stroll On (Strolling Along), Davis, 112; Positively (Clever Trick), Coa, 114; and Lifesawhirl (Island Whirl), Garcia, 114.

Scratched: C's Chocolate, Swamp, Marquette.

Valid Reprized's racing career started on a promising note, with the colt breaking his maiden at first asking at Hialeah in April then upping his record to two-for-two with a score in the Hialeah Juvenile S. in May, with both races run on dirt. The bay was then off for four months with shin problems, resurfacing in September to finish ninth in the Foolish Pleasure S. over Calder's main track. Valid Reprized was moved to the Calder turf for his next two starts, where he registered a second-place showing in an allowance Nov. 1 and, in his most recent effort, a fourth-place finish in the $100,000 Mecke S. Nov. 21. Sent off at 9-1 odds in his first graded stakes try, the Florida-bred raced in mid-pack early, took command in midstretch and drew clear for his first victory in over seven months. "I bought this horse for $15,000 privately from the breeders as a two-year-old (early last year)," said winning trainer Tim Ritvo. "I own a third of him myself. This is great; it's my first graded stakes win. His sire is a full brother to Prized, so I always thought he would go long on turf. I think we'll keep him on the turf for the immediate future and look at races like the Palm Beach at Gulfstream (Feb. 15)."

2--Jolly Punch, 115, g, 8, Two Punch--Jolly Peg, by Jolly Johu. $11,045.

3--Wise Dusty, 115, h, 8, Bishop Northcraft--Ubenice, by Gala Harry. $6,076.

Margins: 3 3/4, HF, 7 1/4. Odds: 0.70, 6.90, 4.00.

Wire Me Collect started 1998 with a victory in the Hoover S. over this track Jan. 25, then was held winless in his eight subsequent outings. Runner-up by a neck in his seasonal finale, the Dec. 12 Bowie S. at Laurel, the dark bay was the overwhelming choice to get back to the winner's circle in his first start of the New Year. He pressed the pace to the stretch, took command as they straightened for home and pulled away under mild urging.

- Margins: 2HF, 3 3/4, 8 3/4. Odds: 0.85, 11.80, 8.50.

Seeking the Sky ran away from a field of maidens Nov. 29, winning by 5 1/2 lengths, and handled the jump right into stakes company as the odds-on choice. Always close, the bay filly put a head in front after a half and drew away in the drive for another decisive score. "This was pretty much what we expected," said trainer Mike Hushion. "She ran back to her maiden win. She was between horses and may have been squeezed a little, but she showed her maturity and won. I would like to stretch her out. She'll probably get her next start in a two-turn stakes for three-year-old fillies at Aqueduct. After that, we'll look for a graded stakes out of town." Winning owner Barry Schwartz picked up where he left off in 1998: Schwartz edged Barbara Davis, 43 wins to 42, to take last year's New York owner's title.

- Margins: 1, 1, 2 1/4. Odds: 1.65, 1.70, 8.90.

Winless since being claimed for $16,500 at the Meadowlands Nov. 3, Island Queen had twice finished second at this level at the Jersey track under new colors, but ran a troubled fifth against similar over this oval in her latest outing Dec. 19. Favored to bounce back from that effort, the chestnut mare set all the pace and had enough left to hold second choice Effervescence safe to the wire.

Monrovia Handicap, Continued.

Also Ran: Desert Drama (Ire), Plus (Ch), Statua (Ire), Morgan J.

The consistent Desert Lady, out of the money only once in 10 lifetime outings, began her career in England, where she placed in three listed stakes from May through July of 1998. The bay filly then shipped to the U.S., where she raced only once before yesterday's Monrovia appearance, finishing third by a neck in an optional claimer over the Hollywood Park turf Nov. 27. Trying for her first stakes victory here against graded company, the Irish-bred was never far back, came four wide into the stretch, gained command nearing midstretch and proved best when it counted. "I love her," gushed winning trainer Wally Dollase. "She's got such a great mind. She's very special, quick, smart--really a nice filly. I ran her in this stakes over her conditions because I have a lot of confidence in her. She's no doubt fast, but she'll get a mile because she's so smart." Desert Lady's jockey, Corey Nakatani, had been 0-for-23 at the current Santa Anita meet prior to his Monrovia victory. He recently missed three days with a leg injury which occurred, ironically, in a mishap while working Desert Lady.

3--Classic Sham, 120, g, 4, Sky Classic--Sham Street, by Sham.

Margins: HD, 1 3/4, HF. Odds: 24.20, 3.80, 6.50.

Butler On Duty took a pair of allowance races on the turf at Del Mar in August, but had been off the board in three of his four starts since and was ignored at the windows after finishing fifth at this level at Hollywood Park Dec. 16. Showing good speed while three wide early, the Cal-bred moved to the lead on the final bend, was headed briefly in the stretch, but came back to take the photo in a game performance.

Margins: NO, 1, 1 1/4. Odds: 11.50, 3.70, 5.20.

Lord Smith won his last five starts in England in Spring and Summer, 1997 before embarking on a U.S. campaign which saw him win the Pinjara S. at Santa Anita Oct. 17, 1997 in his first stateside start. Winless in six tries since then, five of them against graded stakes company, Lord Smith was most recently sixth in the GIII Bay Meadows Breeders' Cup Derby H. Oct. 10. Returning from a three-month layoff here and dropping down into the allowance ranks, the four-year-old started the year off on the right hoof with an off-the-pace, narrow win over his seven rivals.

Margins: 1 3/4, 2HF, 1. Odds: 9.40, 7.60, 15.90.

Mellow Fellow was claimed for $20,000 out of his career debut, a maiden victory at Bay Meadows October 18. The bay gelding went on to win his first start for his new connections--a Hollywood Park allowance Nov. 13--before finishing second in his most recent effort, another Hollywood allowance event Nov. 29. Dismissed at 9-1 odds in this 12-horse field, the talented bay rallied from last to first to return to his winning ways.

NO CAL BREAD (g, 3, Flying Continental--Encinitas, by Theatrical {Ire}), seventh after jumping a shadow in the California Cup Juvenile Oct. 31, went on to finish second in a maiden special weight at Hollywood in his latest outing Nov. 29. Sent off the 3-1 second choice here off that effort, the Cal-bred pressed the pace early, made a bid for the lead outside in the stretch and prevailed by a neck. He was a $85,000 Cal Aug yearling. WRITERS UP

A WHOLE NEW BALL GAME

By Chris Esslinger

Trainer Vladimir Cerin, who will saddle Musical Gambler against the likes of Silver Charm and Malek (Chi) in next Sunday's $200,000 Gil San Pasqual H., has one of the more unusual backgrounds found among Santa Anita's colony of Thoroughbred trainers.

Cerin's first career was as an exercise physiologist; he graduated from UCLA with a degree in kinesiology.

"I worked with athletes from several different sports," Cerin said. "I ended up gravitating to NBA (National Basketball Association) players. I'd help them with rehabilitation of injuries and conditioning. I'd look for ways to improve performance through different methods of training. I seem to have had some success. I had quite a following for a while--at one point, I trained about two dozen NBA players. Maybe I was one of the pioneers in the personal training field."

Bill Walton, Kiki Vandeweghe, Jamaal Wilkes, Sidney Wickes, Bob McAdoo and tennis pro Tracy Austin were among those Cerin worked with during his tenure.

He pointed out there are similarities as well as differences in conditioning human and equine athletes.

"You can't train a horse as hard as you train a human being," Cerin said. "They don't respond to the stress as well. But when it comes to the different modalities we use in treating injuries, we use the same methods at the track.

"Something that you can do much differently with the equine athlete is nutrition," he continued. "Because what you set in front of the horse to eat is all he can eat. Horses can't sneak away to McDonald's in the middle of the night."

Cerin said his background definitely helps him train horses.

"I think when I trained athletes, I developed a power of observation to be able to tell--figuratively speaking--what a person had for breakfast just by looking at the way he moved," he said. "I think that's what really helps with horses, to observe little nuances and little differences in their behavior patterns or the way they move to indicate a particular type of injury that might be coming on, so you can prevent it.

"I think horses have a lot more desire to win than people have an understanding for. They truly are athletes and they love to compete. There are horses that just give a little extra to win, and you find that with humans, too. That's really what separates the elite one percent of athletes in a particular sport. The ones on top, it's not a matter of ability, it's a matter of how hard they work--the desire to be a champion."

Racing is a game of uncertainty, but one thing is certain when it comes to Cerin: he's having a ball training Thoroughbreds.

"I always liked being around animals," Cerin said, "and playing with them. A lot of my best friends are animals. I enjoy their company and here I have the opportunity to be with a bunch of four-legged friends every day. It's a lot of fun for me and, hopefully, a lot of fun for them as well."
