ESCENA TOPS POTENT KEENELAND

JANUARY SALE When owner Allen Paulson led a triumphant Escena (Strawberry Road {Aus}) into the winner's circle after her breathtaking victory in the Breeders' Cup Distaff, the duo seemed inseparable. But this week Escena will be led into a different sort of circle, headlining the performers at the five-day Keeneland January Horses of All Ages Sale in Lexington. The sale, boasting over 1,700 lots, begins today and runs through Friday, Jan. 15, with bidding set to start at 10 a.m. daily. Escena, consigned by Lane's End Farm, is scheduled to sell Tuesday. "It's been a long time since we've had as big a name mare in the January Sale as this one," said W.B. Rogers Beasley, Keeneland Director of Sales. "She was a tremendous race mare and she has a good pedigree to match. You have to think there will be a tremendous interest in her." Steve Johnson, who manages Margaux Stud near Midway, agrees. "A mare like Escena assures everyone that all the right buyers are going to be there," he said. Escena, just turned six, won nearly $3 million in her career. She captured the GII Fantasy S. and ran second in four Grade I events, including the Kentucky Oaks, at three. She picked up her first Grade I in the '97 Ramona H. and finished the year running third in the Breeders' Cup Distaff. But last year was her best. Escena won three Grade I stakes and saved her finest moment for her finale, holding off Banshee Breeze in a dramatic finish to win the $2 million Distaff. The January Sale also offers mares in foal to such stallions as A.P. Indy, Deputy Minister, Gulch, Sadler's Wells, Spinning World and Woodman, and for the first time will sell mares bred to stallions including Lure, Red Ransom and Grindstone who will foal on Southern Hemisphere time. "There are a lot of solid, strong families in the sale," said Beasley. "We expect it to be a very good sale." Optimism is strong that the upward trends of last season will continue. "I don't see any reason why the sales won't be strong again," said Johnson. "I think the economy is good and stable and I don't think we have hit the top by any stretch of the imagination. I think we've got two or three years to go on this run. January really gives people an opportunity to evaluate their stock. There was such a deluge in November that sometimes you can get overwhelmed and even shut out. Now we have a time to regroup and go after horses that fit our plan." News cont. page 2

With a little more than a half-mile to run in the San Pasqual H., the 20,708 fans who had come to see Silver Charm make his 1999 debut and who had bet him down to odds of 3-10 had to be getting a little bit concerned. After all, the five-year-old colt had finished last year with a grueling second in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 7 and been taken to the wire and barely beat the little known Littlebitlively in the GII Clark H. Nov. 27. Could the big gray, who found himself almost nine lengths behind the leaders after a half-mile, be a little bit off his game? Jockey Gary Stevens admitted he was worried. "That's when I thought this might be Del Mar all over again (when Silver Charm checked in last by 27 lengths in the GII San Diego H.)," said Stevens. With Crafty Friend and the ageless Dramatic Gold (Slew o' Gold) setting moderate fractions of :24 2/5 and :47 2/5 and looking quite strong, Silver Charm went into the second turn with more ground to make up than he was normally used to. The 3-10 favorite began his move on the second turn, came out three wide into the stretch where he was set down for the drive and rolled past the leaders as if they were standing still. "Man, I mean he just inhaled those horses," said Stevens. "That is actually as easy as he has ever won a race." Trainer Bob Baffert said, "What he did today was hopefully a sign of what he's going to do the rest of the year. He's a great horse and I just thank God he ended up in my barn." Silver Charm will make his next start in the GI Donn H. at Gulfstream Jan. 31. Malek (Chi), who was making his first start since the G1 Dubai World Cup in March, finished strongly to get second. "I was very pleased," said trainer Dick Mandella. "He made a big run and I thought he was very competitive. We'll look at the Feb. 7 GII San Antonio H."

News cont.*ZABEEL COLT TOPS MAGIC MILLIONS SALE

Bart Cummings paid AUS$475,000 ($291,411) for the only son of Zabeel (NZ) in the third session of the Magic Millions Premier Yearling Sale at the Gold Coast yesterday. Consigned by Ra Ora-Haunui Partnership on behalf of Marbella Lodge in Auckland, the colt is out of Papa's Beauty (Aus) (Hunka Papa), who is a half-sister to Australian Group 1 winner English Wonder (Aus). English Wonder is the dam of Australian Multiple Group 1-winner Dr. Grace (NZ) (Sir Tristram). This year's Magic Millions sale showed gross receipts of AUS$26.4 million for an average price of AUS$66,289 ($40,668), a 24.4 percent increase over the 1998 average. Sale Director Don Hancock said, "It was a good solid sale with the emphasis on quality and people are prepared to pay top dollar for that." Hancock added that strong performances by new stallions such as Dehere and Flying Spur, "show that Danehill doesn't have it on his own anymore."

Zito Sophomores Workout:

Trainer Nick Zito's leading Kentucky Derby candidates both worked over the fast main track at Hialeah yesterday. Celtic Pride Stable's The Groom Is Red (Runaway Groom) drilled five furlongs in 1:00 2/5. The GI Champagne S. winner most recently finished sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Tabor & Magnier's Doneraile Court (Seattle Slew), the winner of the Nov. 8 GIII Nashua S. at Aqueduct, went the same distance in a bullet :59. Most recently fifth in the GII Remsen at Aqueduct Nov. 28, he is a possible starter in Gulfstream's GIII Holy Bull S. on Saturday. Jockey Jerry Bailey was aboard for both works.

Broward H. Wrap-up:

Sir Bear (Sir Leon), the winner of Saturday's GIII Broward H., came out of the race in good shape, according to trainer Ralph Ziadie. "He's come a long ways since last year and keeps getting better with age," said Ziadie. "He'll definitely make his next start in the (GI) Donn H. at the end of the month."

Fourth-place finisher Unruled (Notebook) and Frisk Me Now, who checked in a disappointing seventh as the 3-1 second choice, remain on target for the Donn as well. "He needed the race more than anything," said trainer Bob Durso of Frisk Me Now. "He's a little heavy and we've had a problem getting him as trim as we want. He's been away quite a while and he really needed the race."

Panama City concluded what can only be described as a disappointing 1998 campaign with a fifth-place finish in the Dec. 19 GII W. L. McKnight H. at Calder, a race he accounted for in 1997, which was the last winning effort on the Mott trainee's ledger. Returned to his Payson Park base, he displayed some zip and readiness for this engagement in a four-furlong breeze over the deep surface getting the half-mile in a bullet :50. With blinkers off for this race, the bay was immediately taken back off the dueling front runners for the opening mile of this marathon event. As the field rounded the far turn for the final time, jockey Jerry Bailey sent Panama City three wide around the leaders, wrestled the lead from Notoriety at the furlong grounds, opened up an insurmountable margin and drew off to score the easy win by 4 1/4 lengths. "When I saw Musical Ghost (Silver Ghost) go out with Notoriety, I just laid off the pace and we ate them up," commented Bailey. Winning trainer Bill Mott is pleased with the progress his charge has made of late. "He's been training very well. We'll just continue to find spots like this one," said winning trainer Bill Mott. "The GII Pan American H. on March 6 is an option."

In her first race since being scratched from the Dec. 27 Chaposa Springs H. at Calder, the 1/2 to Tomisue's Delight (A.P. Indy), MGISW, $1,207,536, rated off the early pace, came three wide into the stretch and drew clear to win by 3 3/4 lengths under a hand ride as the 2-5 favorite. Adding Lasix for the first time for this effort, the chestnut relaxed nicely off solid early splits, was hard ridden to grab a short lead a sixteenth out and inched away to a 1 3/4-length victory as the 17-10 choice. The recent form of Able Red has been up and down, most recently experiencing one of the 'ups' Nov. 29 at Turfway Park where he employed pace pressing tactics to take a six-furlong allowance by 2 1/2 lengths. Trying Aqueduct for the first time, the bay was hustled for the lead and set a solid pace along the rail, established a clear lead turning for home and had enough left to hold off the charge of Esteemed Friend for the victory.

Five years ago, a Georgia-bred yearling filly brought a scant $7,700 at auction. Now that same racehorse can count herself among the racing elite who have eclipsed the million dollar mark in earnings. Vivace put herself in a position to topple that mark with her neck victory last time in the Dec. 19 San Felipe H. at Sam Houston. In defeating males in the Sprint H., Vivace set sail right from the gate, set solid fractions along the rail and had plenty left for the drive to score the victory.

HANCOCK'S LAW

The late 'Bull' Hancock of Claiborne Farm was one of the most successful of all stallion selectors; he laid down five criteria for selecting a stallion. Hancock insisted that a potential stallion should satisfy all criteria:

1. He must have shown good form as a 2-y-o.

Spinning World was an undefeated Group winning 2-year-old.

2. He must have the ability to stay 1 1/4 miles as a 3-y-o.

"Spinning World did all his racing at a mile with the exception of a win in the Prix Saint-Roman-Gr.3 (9f) on his final outing, at two and he'd almost certainly have stayed a mile and a quarter" TIMEFORM, RACEHORSES OF 1997.

3. He must be sound.

Spinning World had an uninterrupted racing career which spanned 3 seasons.

4. He must look masculine.

Come to Ashford Stud and see for yourself.

5. He must have the right kind of pedigree (meaning that he must not only be well-bred in a general sense but belong to a family with a history of producing good stallions).

Spinning World is by sire of sires Nureyev. He is from the exceptional 'Best in Show' family; responsible for El Gran Senor, Try My Best, Compliance, Northern Guest and Masterclass, all sires of Gr.1 winners.
