CHURCHILL DOWNS TO PURCHASE CALDER?

Both the Miami Herald and the Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel speculated in their Sunday editions that Kawasaki Leasing Corporation, owner of Calder Race Course in Miami, Florida, would announce the sale of the track early this week to Churchill Downs. Kawasaki had hired CIBC Oppenheimer, New York, a large financial institution, to aid in the sale of the racetrack. Churchill Downs currently owns Ellis Park and Hoosier Park.

OBS WINTER MIXED SALE STARTS TODAY A

On offer are mares in foal to such stallions as last year's runaway freshman leader End Sweep, champions Cherokee Run, Fly So Free and Maria's Mon, Belmont S. winner Editor's Note, Kentucky Derby winner Grindstone, Derby and Belmont hero Thunder Gulch, Hennessy, Miswaki, Rahy and Torrential. The sale also features yearlings representing stallions which include Cherokee Run, Distant View, End Sweep, Lear Fan, Maria's Mon, Meadowlake, Silver Buck and Strodes Creek. The first two sessions of the auction are consignor preferred, followed by an open session Wednesday. Bidding begins at 10:30 a.m. each day.

TURFWAY, PHILLY CANCEL Both Turfway Park in Florence, Kentucky and Philadelphia Park in Bensalem, Pennsylvania cancelled their live racing cards Sunday. Philadelphia Park was forced to call off its card when winter weather conditions over the prior few days left the track in poor condition.

Manistique returned to the races in the Dec. 6 GII Bayakoa H. at Hollywood Park after a three month plus layoff precipitated by a displaced palate suffered in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga. None the worse for wear, the 17 hands filly set all the fractions that day en route to a solid two-length victory. Right from the start of the El Encino, there was doubt that Manistique, tons the best on paper, would be triumphant. Jockey Gary Stevens explained, "She broke so hard, the ground just broke out from under her." The dark bay was able to recover nicely from the stumbling start and took the field on a merry chase which saw the opening half mile run in a swift 46.52 seconds. It was just a quarter mile later that the race was joined by the Dec. 27 GI La Brea second Gourmet Girl, who came to the neck of Manistique, and the two raced inseparably through the final 5/16ths, with Manistique getting the better of the battle to score her fifth win in six lifetime tries and third graded stakes. Magical Allure was never comfortable in the three-horse race and trailed throughout. Winning trainer John Shirreffs admitted to a few nervous moments in the latter stages of the race. "I was a little concerned in the stretch, because Manistique isn't the kind of horse that has a big closing charge. They really made her dig in." Shirreffs indicated that his charge would participate in the next leg of the four-year-old filly series, the $200,000 GII La Canada at nine furlongs Feb. 7. "The extra sixteenth is to her advantage," said Shirreffs of his filly.

The four-year-old has worked three times since for his first American stakes appearance. Fragrant Mix (Linamix {Fr}) figures to improve off a lethargic fifth-place performance in the Dec. 28 GII San Gabriel H. in his first race since finishing a close-up sixth in the 1998 Arc de Triomphe. Brave Act (Persian Bold {Ire}) has won three straight, including the aforementioned San Gabriel, is two-for-two over the Santa Anita turf course and is only once unplaced in 15 lifetime turf tries.

Cowboy Cop closed out '97 with a victory in the D.R.C. Breeders' Cup Sprint, then proceeded to extend his winning streak to four in a row by taking his first three starts of '98, all Churchill Downs allowances. The Canadian-bred's only defeat in four starts last year came in his final performance, a seventh-place effort in the GIII Gravesend H. at Aqueduct Dec. 26. Let go at 7-1 odds here, Cowboy Cop reclaimed his winning ways with an off-the-pace score, his first against graded stakes company. "(Cowboy Cop) was one of Mr. Stronach's horses that was supposed to go to California, but when I reminded him that the Breeders' Cup is here (at Gulfstream Nov. 6), he let him stay," said winning trainer Patrick Byrne. "I hope to keep him here for the Gulfstream Park (Breeders' Cup) Sprint Championship (Feb. 13). Our main goal, if he stays healthy all year, would be the Breeders' Cup Sprint." The victory was jockey Pat Day's third straight in the Hallandale H.

Jazz Club, who began his career in England, had never raced on dirt until this off-the-turf event. The Kentucky-bred came to the U.S. in the summer of '98 and won his first two stateside starts, a pair of grass allowances at Delaware and Keeneland, before disappointing when sixth as the favorite in his most recent effort at Churchill Downs Nov. 15. Returning from a two-month hiatus here, Jazz Club took to the main track easily with a wire-to-wire score.

TANDOORI (h, 5, Olympio--Freezing Line {SP-Ire}, by It's Freezing) made a name for himself at last year's Gulfstream meet with two very impressive front-running tallies. Making his first start since finishing up the track in a Keeneland allowance last April 4, the lightly-raced five-year-old sped to the front, withstood a challenge to his lead at the quarter pole and held sway for a 3/4-length win as the even money choice. The chestnut hit the gate at the start in this event, but established an easy lead, taking the field through solid fractions, and drew off as she pleased to win by 13 1/4 lengths as the even money favorite. GI Champagne S. winner The Groom Is Red (Runaway Groom) breezed five furlongs in 1:00 2/5 at Hialeah Saturday morning. The highly-regarded three-year-old colt, unraced since his sixth-place effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Nov. 7, is one of the early favorites for the GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream March 13.

Best of the Rest (Skip Trial), winner of a trio of stakes at Calder this past fall, is pointing for the GI $500,000 Donn H. at Gulfstream Jan. 30. "Yes, that's my objective with him," said trainer Eddie Plesa Jr. "I worked him a mile (at Calder) Saturday and was pleased with the move. I thought he went in 1:41 and change, but the clockers said it was 1:43."

Favored to make amends here, the son of the 1991 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies' runner-up raced close to the lead for the opening half, came three deep into the lane and was up late for a half-length triumph as the 9-5 chalk. Strub Field Takes Shape:

The top three finishers in Saturday's GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup S. at Santa Anita--Dixie Dot Com (Dixie Brass), Event of the Year (Seattle Slew) and Old Topper (Gilded Time)--will all go on to the GII $500,000 Strub S. for four-year-olds Feb. 6, according to their connections. Event of the Year's trainer Richard Mandella also said Quake (Capote), winner of a seven furlong allowance race in 1:21 4/5 at Santa Anita Saturday, is likely to run in the 1 1/8-mile Strub. "I got 'Derby fever' with (Quake) last spring, and then he had an entrapped epiglottis and we had to give him some time," Mandella said. "But he's coming back as a nice, big older horse."

Santa Anita Backstretch Notes:

Multiple stakes winner Tomorrows Sunshine (Silver Deputy) worked five furlongs Sunday in 1:00 4/5 in preparation for the GI $200,000 Santa Monica H. over seven furlongs Saturday...Three-year-old Bright Valour (Wild Again) drilled seven-eighths in 1:27 4/5 yesterday and is possible for the GII $150,000 San Vicente S. at seven furlongs Feb. 6.

Multiple Grade I-winning mare I Ain't Bluffing (Pine Bluff), unraced since her victory in the GI Milady Breeders' Cup H. May 30, breezed a half-mile in :52 2/5 yesterday. The five-year-old begins her comeback in Santa Anita's GIII $125,000 Las Flores H. at six furlongs Feb. 21.

Trainer Richard Mandella said yesterday that graded stakes winner Brulay (Rubiano) has been turned out. "It's nothing physical," Mandella said of the four-year-old, who most recently finished fifth in the GI La Brea S. Dec. 27. "She's just a little sour and I decided to give her some time off at the farm."

Eagleton, second in the GII Norfolk S. at Santa Anita in October, won the Christmas Futurity at Turf Paradise in his most recent trip to the post Dec. 20. Making his three-year-old debut as the overwhelming 2-5 choice, the consistent gelding was away from the gate slowly, advanced between rivals turning for home and finished well for an easy tally.
