SILVER CHARM SHARP IN FINAL DONN PREP
Silver Charm (Silver Buck), the probable favorite in Saturday's GI Donn H., worked seven furlongs in company in 1:25 4/5 over a fast track at Santa Anita yesterday. Regular exercise rider Dana Barnes was up. Both Silver Charm and Puerto Madero (Chi) (Gallantsky), who worked seven furlongs Saturday in 1:27 1/5, will fly to Florida on Tuesday. In other Donn news, 1998 Louisiana and Arkansas Derby hero Crypto Star (Cryptoclearance) went five furlongs in 1:02 handily at Hialeah yesterday morning. "We're on the fence right now but we're definitely leaning toward running him in the Donn," said trainer Larry Kelly. "It was an excellent move and the last time I will work him before the race." If he does start, Crypto Star will be ridden by Robbie Davis, who rode him to a Gulfstream allowance victory in his most recent start.

BARRETT'S WINTER MIXED SET TO START The two-day Barretts Winter Mixed Sale, with 447 hips catalogued, begins today at the Hinds Pavilion in Pomona, California. The first session will offer broodmares, stallions and stallion shares, with mares in foal to stallions such as Avenue Of Flags, General Meeting, In Excess (Ire), Pembroke, Pine Bluff and Urgent Request (Ire). Tuesday's second session will include yearlings, two-year-olds and horses of racing age. Bidding will begin at 11 a.m. each day.

DIXIE DOT COM SURGERY SUCCESSFUL
Trainer William Morey, Jr. reported yesterday that GII San Fernando S. winner Dixie Dot Com (Dixie Brass) had successful surgery at Santa Anita Saturday. The operation, performed by Dr. Greg Ferraro at Santa Anita, was to speed the healing process of the colt's left front cannon bone. "Dr. Ferraro was happy with how the surgery went," said Morey. "We can walk the colt. On May 1, we'll x-ray him again and if everything's OK, he'll start jogging. Hopefully, he'll be back racing in September." This was the second time Dixie Dot Com suffered a hairline fracture of the left front cannon bone.

Honest Lady gave an honest assesment of her talent in her Nov. 27 debut when she defeated the very fast filly Olympic Charmer by a length at Hollywood Park. Following that race, trainer Bobby Frankel said, "She got sick on me," and was give a brief rest to recover. Despite the time on the sidelines, she had been training well for this event. Sent off the second choice in a field of four, the bay filly bobbled a bit coming out of the gate, recovered quickly and joined favorite Controlled on the front end. Those two jogged through a moderate opening quarter, but began to exceleerate on the turn. As the favorite began to give way, the winner was simply getting started, and drew off powerfully in the stretch to win by 4 1/2 lengths. "I'll tell ya', it takes Derbies and races like that now to raise the hair on my back," said jockey Kent Desormeaux. "She is obviously very, very special. (Controlled) really took off at the three-eighths pole and this filly, without being asked, she just loomed up boldly and blew past." Obviously pleased with the result, trainer Bobby Frankel looked toward the future, saying, "She's so talented, it's unreal. I think she's a superstar. She's the best filly I've trained by far. I hope to win the Kentucky Derby. She'll run all day long." Honest Lady will make her next start in the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 13.

Third in the GIII Delaware H. last July 28, Timely Broad went to the shelf for a brief respite after a last of eight finish in the GIII Falls City H. at Churchill Downs Nov. 26. The bay resurfaced in a three-other-than allowance spot here Jan. 14 and rewarded her supporters with a hard fought neck victory. In against much tougher competition in the Sabin H., the Petros, jockey Nick and trainer Mike, were praying for rain. And rain they got. Timely Broad was pinched back a bit at the start, which allowed jockey Petro to secure a position towards the rear as the pacesetters splashed through solid early fractions. As the field moved for the top of the stretch, the bay rallied three wide on the turn and raced down the middle of the racetrack through the lane to catch Highfalutin in the final jump for her first graded stakes triumph. Winning trainer Mike Petro said, "The muddy track didn't hurt her today. She won pretty easily on a muddy track at Calder a year ago last November." The winning connections gave no indication as to where their mare may run next.

Jennys Badboy made a favorable debut against fellow Jersey-breds in his debut Dec. 11 at The Meadowlands, finishing third by five lengths after disputing the early action. Under urging from the start, the gelding raced wide down the backstretch, while Saraston, second for a $35,000 tag Dec. 31, did not appear to relish the sloppy going and raced towards the rear. Jennys Badboy came wide into the stretch and finished courageously to finish on even terms with Saraston, who split rivals in the lane to earn his share of the win. Western Trader rebounded from a disappointing sixth-place effort in the Dec. 6 Tenacious H. at the Fair Grounds with a 1/2-length defeat to Baytown in the Jan. 2 Col. E.R. Bradley H. at the New Orleans oval. Back in against that rival, as well as millionaires Vivace and Scott's Scoundrel (L'Enjoleur), jockey Carlos Gonzalez sent the homebred right to the front, setting solid fractions, with Baytown and Vivace just off his flank. Leaving the three-eighths pole, Baytown went up to put pressure on the front-runner, but could never get by, as Western trader responded to the pressure and inched away late to exact revenge on Baytown.
