The dark bay was switched back to the turf two starts ago, winning an Aug. 9 Saratoga allowance before running third in his last start, an Aug. 30 allowance at the Spa. Heavily favored here, Lucayan Prince was off slowly, raced wide throughout, took the lead at the top of the stretch and was all out to hold off the late-closing veteran Carterista.

BABINDA (GB) (g, 6, Old Vic {GB}--Babita {Ire} {GSP-Eng}, by Habitat) was a seven-length winner of his North American debut back in 1997, and then was off until running sixth in an October '98 allowance. The gelding won at Calder in November before running eighth in the GIII Canadian Turf H. Jan. 23 last time out. Sent off the 4-5 favorite, Babinda moved up down the backstretch, took the lead nearing the stretch and drew clear to win by 2 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 10-4-0-1, $74,745. All workouts will be videotaped and available for viewing at the sales grounds. The sale is scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 9 at Calder.

Soldier Field Euthanized:

According to the Daily Racing Form, MGSW Soldier Field (Dixie Brass) had to be put down Thursday because of laminitis. The four-year-old colt, winner of nine of his 18 races including the GIII Lamplighter H. and GIII Hollywood Turf Express H. in his final start Nov. 27, had fractured a pastern bone while turned out at Woodside Ranch in Ocala, Florida at the beginning of December, and contracted laminitis after undergoing surgery to repair the break. His condition worsened last week, and the decision to euthanize him was made Thursday morning.

Margins: 1 1/4, 3/4, 1 3/4. Odds: 5.90, 1.90, 5.30.

Holy Nola, a stakes winner at Turf Paradise as a two-year-old, started her three-year-old campaign with a Santa Anita allowance score in her turf debut last February, but was held winless in five subsequent starts. Off from May to November last season, she came back to be third in a Nov. 27 allowance on the Hollywood main track and was last seen setting quick early fractions before fading to fourth in the GI La Brea S. Dec. 27. Back on the grass for her first outing of the new year, the gray followed pacesetter La Madame through six furlongs in 1:12 3/5, came with her bid in the stretch and had enough left in the tank to hold off favored Isle de France to the wire. The runner-up, a Group 3 winner in France, was making her first U.S. appearance and her first start since running 10th in the Sept. 12 G1 Prix Vermeille.

4th-SAX, $54,000, Alw, 3yo, 6 1/2fT, 1:16, ft.

ADMIRE THE FLAG (g, 3, Avenue of Flags--Cruise Ticket {GB}, by Storm Bird) was six lengths the best when breaking his maiden in his debut at Hollywood in June, finished fourth behind the subsequent Godolphin purchase Worldly Manner in the GIII Best Pal S. in his second start at Del Mar in August, then went to the sidelines for more than five months. The dark bay set the pace before tiring to be third in his return at Santa Anita Jan. 22, but carried his speed from gate to wire this time, briefly losing the lead at the top of the stretch before taking control once again en route to a 1 1/2-length score as the 4-5 chalk. Cal Tracks to Offer Simulcasting Extravaganza:

California's Thoroughbred tracks and satellite wagering facilities have announced plans for an all-day "simulcast extravaganza" set for Wednesday, Feb. 17. The 62-race program will begin with the first from Aqueduct and include the cards from Gulfstream, Turfway, Turf Paradise and Australia, as well as six races from Hong Kong. Because they will have held live programs that Monday for President's Day, the California tracks will be dark Feb. 17. "This will provide us with a good test of how much interest racing fans have in seeing out-of-state simulcast races on dark days," the announcement, from Santa Anita's Clifford Goodrich and Bay Meadows' F. Jack Liebau, stated. Due to a local ordinance limiting Santa Anita's number of hours of operation on weekdays, the track will close following the last race from Turfway, and will not offer any racing from Australia and Hong Kong.

Bill Oppenheim Joins Forces With Swedes:

Bill Oppenheim, racing journalist and publisher of Racing Update from 1979-95, has been named part-time advisor to the Swedish Jockey Club for 1999. Bjorn Eklund, deputy secretary-general of the Jockey Club, said, "We've been very impressed with the breadth of (Oppenheim's) knowledge and international contacts, and we're very much looking forward to working with him on projects which we hope will improve our industry and enhance our stature in the international racing community." Oppenheim, who conducted seminars in Stockholm and Malmo last May, said, "On the whole, the racing program in Sweden and the rest of Scandinavia is pretty good. We feel there is a lot of scope for attracting good horses from outside Scandinavia to race in Sweden. But the breeding sector has lagged behind the racing, and we're looking at developing a series of sponsored races for fillies and mares to try and attract better mares to race and breed in Sweden."

South African Guineas Winner Takes on Elders:

Sixteen runners will line up for today's G1 J & B Met H. over a 1 1/4 miles at Kenilworth in The Cape, but all eyes will be on Harry and Bridget Oppenheimer's colt Horse Chestnut (SAf) (Fort Wood {Ire}), who will be attempting to become the first three-year-old since 1947 to win one of South Africa's most prestigious races. Trained by Mike De Kock and ridden by Weichong Mawing, Horse Chestnut, clear winner of last month's G1 Cape Argus Guineas, is the only member of his generation in the field. He faces some stiff opposition, which includes the 1997-98 Horse Of The Year Classic Flag (SAf) (Allied Flag), but the three-year-old has only 112 pounds to shoulder and has drawn a perfect post position of seven in the full field. Bookmakers are taking no chances with this outstanding colt, offering odds of only 7-10.
