SILVERBULLETDAY TO TAKE ON BOYS IN SAN RAFAEL

Likely Two-Year-Old Filly Champion Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) will kick off her three-year-old campaign against males in the Feb. 28 GII San Rafael, but trainer Bob Baffert said yesterday he still intends to point the filly towards the Kentucky Oaks and not the Kentucky Derby. "I just wanted to give her a run at a mile and I didn't want to put her on the road to run her there. I want to get a race into her and then get her ready for filly races like the Ashland and Kentucky Oaks. Right now, I'm not thinking Derby with her. I'm not ready to make that call, but it will be nice to see what she can do against a horse like Prime Timber (Sultry Song)." Prime Timber, one of at least four Baffert colts being aimed for the Derby, will also start in the San Rafael. Exploit (Storm Cat), considered Baffert's top Triple Crown threat, will wait for the Mar. 14 GII San Felipe.

LIL'S LAD BACK IN TRAINING

Lil's Lad (Pine Bluff), winner of last year's GII Fountain of Youth S., arrived back in trainer Neil Howard's barn at Gulfstream Tuesday morning. The four-year-old had been training in Aiken, South Carolina. "He shipped in well," Howard commented. "We have no firm plans for him at this time." Lil's Lad finished first in last year's GI Florida Derby, but was disqualified and placed second for interference. Knocked off the Triple Crown trail by injury after a second-place finish in the GII Toyota Blue Grass S., the bay colt returned after a five-month layoff and was unable to hit the board in two New York allowance races last September.

REMINGTON PARK ANNOUNCES '99 STAKES

Remington Park has released a 1999 stakes schedule worth over $2.1 million. The highlight of the 82-day meeting, which gets underway Aug. 13, is the $300,000 GII Remington Park Derby. The 11th renewal of the recently graded event will be run Sept. 5. The Remington Park Derby will once again be the second leg of the $1 million DeBartolo Challenge. The series consists of the $300,000 GII Ohio Derby at Thistledown on July 24 and the $500,000 GI Super Derby at Louisiana Downs on Oct. 2. Other highlights of the 35-race stakes schedule are the Dec. 5 running of the $150,000 Remington Park Futurity, the Sept. 11 $150,000 DeBartolo Memorial Breeders' Cup, the $125,000 Aug. 21 Edmond H. and the Nov. 7 $100,000 Remington Green H. On Oct. 17, Oklahoma Classics Day returns for its seventh year and will feature seven stakes worth approximately $380,000 for accredited Oklahoma-bred horses.

He's still a ways from a race. The (Gill, Mar. 13) Swale S. may be a possibility. He was a late foal, so there's no need to rush him."
