FLORIDA'S SON TAKES KING'S CUP There was snow on the way to the desert, but all worked out well for jockey Gary Stevens as he partnered Prince Ahmed Salman's Florida's Son (Arg) (Stroke {Arg}) to win Saudi Arabia's most prestigious race, the King's Cup, by two lengths yesterday in Riyadh. "There were three horses setting a reasonable pace and I was laying fifth," said Stevens. "I took the lead with three-quarters to go, he just pulled me to the lead." Florida's Son opened up on the field, but former French distance champion Affidavit (Affirmed), ridden by leading Italian rider Mirco Demuro, came alongside. "He (Affidavit) opened up a half-length on me with two furlongs to go," said Stevens. "But my horse dug back in and drew clear. He was like Silver Charm." Affidavit was second, followed by Ballarat (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Michael Kinane in third, Aavelord (Lord Avie) with Alex Solis fourth and last year's GI Belmont S. third-place finisher Thomas Jo (Strong Performance) and Lanfranco Dettori fifth. Salman had to send a plane for Stevens and fellow California jockey Corey Nakatani, who were delayed in Zurich due to heavy snow. Florida's Son, a winner of five graded races in his native country, was recently purchased by Salman's The Thoroughbred Corporation and was sent from Argentina to Salman's California base and then on to Riyadh, where he was put under the care of trainer Mike Orman. He was a troubled fourth in the Crown Prince Cup, but won his final prep for the 2 1/4-mile King's Cup.

FULL RECOVERY FOR SUBORDINATION Subordination (Mt. Livermore), who underwent surgery after injuring his ankle while getting ready for last year's Breeders' Cup Mile, has made a complete recovery and was bred to his first mare Thursday at Gainesway in Lexington, Kentucky. "Dr. Larry Bramlage at Rood & Riddle performed the surgery and told us he is delighted with Subordination's recovery," Gainesway's resident veterinarian, Tom Little, said. "We bred him, then turned him out in his paddock and he is doing fine." Winner of the '97 GI Hollywood Derby, '98 GI Eddie Read H. and more than $1.2 million, the five-year-old will stand the 1999 breeding season at Gainesway for a fee of $10,000, live foal.

5	Here's to You	Magnier	Delahoussaye	5-1

Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies runner-up Excellent Meeting (General Meeting) makes her seasonal debut off a two-month layoff. She was most recently an eight-length winner of the GI Hollywood Starlet S. Dec. 13. Here's To You (Bertrando) finished second in two Cal-bred stakes on the main track before winning the GIII Miesque S. on the turf at Hollywood Nov. 27. She shows good early speed and could get a head start on the late-running favorite. Hollywood Picture (Holy Bull) is a winner of her last two, including the GIII Santa Ysabel S. over this track Jan. 9.

Catinca (Storm Cat) comes into this race off a four-race win streak. She took the GIII Gallant Bloom by a nose at Belmont Oct. 11, the GII First Flight H. by 4½ lengths at Aqueduct Nov. 7 and the GII Top Flight H. by 6 3/4 lengths at Aqueduct Nov. 27. Biding Time (Seeking the Gold) won the GII Turfway Breeders' Cup H. Sept. 26, but finished out of the money in her next two starts. She was third in a Nov. 26 Churchill Downs allowance two back and most recently won a foggy renewal of the GIII Affectionately H. at Aqueduct Jan. 23. Tuzia (Blushing John) finished second in the GI Personal Ensign H. at Saratoga this summer, then went to the shelf for two months. She was out of the money in the Oct. 31 Turnback the Alarm H. at Aqueduct, but regained her form last time with a second-place finish in the Carousel H. at Laurel Nov. 27.

LUCKY ROBERTO SIXTH IN RETURN Three-year-old Lucky Roberto (Belong to Me), winner of the Sept. 5 GI Hopeful at Saratoga in his most recent outing, came back after the extended absence in the ninth race at Gulfstream yesterday afternoon. The 4-5 favorite in the seven-furlong allowance event, the dark bay settled off the pace while wide early and had no late response, finishing sixth, some 17 1/2 lengths behind winner Valid Trefaire (Valid Appeal). "I got to the turn and he started to let go of me and he just continued to fall further back from there," jockey Mike Smith said. "I don't know what to say. I can't give any excuse." Added trainer Frank Alexander, "I'm very disappointed. All we can think of is that he does things so easily in the morning that he hasn't been getting enough out of his works. I don't know where he'll race next. The Swale S. (Gill, Mar. 13) is not out of the question."

PRAIRIE MEADOWS STAKES SCHEDULE

RELEASED The 1999 stakes program at Iowa's Prairie Meadows includes 43 races for Thoroughbreds worth more than $2.5 million in purses. Highlighting the schedule are the July 2 $125,000 Iowa Oaks at 1 1/16 miles, July 3 $125,000 Iowa Sprint H. for three-year-olds and up going six furlongs, July 4 $200,000 Iowa Derby at 1 1/16 miles and July 5 $300,000 Gill Prairie Meadows Cornhusker Breeders' Cup H. for three-year-olds and up at 1 1/8 miles. The Thoroughbred meet runs Apr. 17-July 6, while the mixed meet for Thoroughbreds and Quarter Horses is set for July 20-Oct. 2.

6	Young At Heart	Whittingham	Bailey	15-1
7	Cowboy Cop	Byrne	Day	7-5

Thrillin Discovery (Alaskan Frost) dominated local sprinters with a 10-length win in the Kenny Noe Jr. H. going today's distance at Calder Dec. 20. He was most recently last of six in the Gill Hallandale H. Jan. 17, but trainer Luis Olivares reported, "He bled in that last stakes and that's why he didn't run his race." In a field void of early speed and with the addition of Lasix, the four-year-old could steal this event.

Woodbine Purses to Rise:

The Ontario Jockey Club and the Horsemen's Benevolent & Protective Association yesterday announced purses for the upcoming Thoroughbred meet at Woodbine will increase an average of 10 percent. In addition, the purse for the GIC Woodbine Mile has been raised from CAN$750,000 to CAN$1 million, the E.P. Taylor S. will be run for CAN$500,000, an increase of CAN$100,000, and the Canadian Oaks purse has been boosted CAN$50,000 to CAN$350,000. "Given the current level of the Canadian dollar and other market forces, we are pleased to be able to increase purses to this extent," John Whitson, OJC vice president of Thoroughbred racing, said. "We hope to attract horses from both sides of the border and it is imperative that our purses remain competitive with those offered at racetracks in the United States."
