RUPTURED ARTERY CLAIMS HARLAN Ten-year-old Harlan (Storm Cat--Country Romance {Halo}) died Saturday of a ruptured aorta while in the breeding shed, according to a release from Stone Farm in Paris, Kentucky. The possession of W.T. Young and Stone Farm owner Arthur Hancock, the Kentucky-bred earned $403,174 and recorded the most important of his eight lifetime victories in the 1994 GI Vosburgh S., upsetting that year's Breeders' Cup Sprint champion Cherokee Run in the process. Harlan entered stud at Stone Farm in 1995. He had eight two-year-old winners from his first crop to race in 1998, including the promising Menifee, who was undefeated in two starts and bested Fountain of Youth runner-up Cat Thief and subsequent GI Futurity winner Lemon Drop Kid in his second appearance, an Aug. 21 Saratoga allowance. With progeny earnings of $289,098 to date, Harlan will be represented by 17 two-year-olds of 1999. He is to be buried on the grounds of the farm where he stood. Hancock said, "We are all saddened by this loss."

FIRST KENTUCKY DERBY FUTURE WAGER POOL CLOSES The first of three wagering pools for the inaugural Kentucky Derby Future Wager closed Sunday with total handle reaching $267,748. After betting closed, the mutual field was the 4-1 favorite, with Exploit (Storm Cat) next at 6-1, General Challenge (General Meeting) at 11-1 and Fountain of Youth runner-up Cat Thief (Storm Cat) at 12-1. Fountain of Youth winner Vicar (Wild Again) is at 18-1. More than half of the betting occurred during the final hours before the pool closed at 4:30 p.m. yesterday. Two additional pools will be offered prior to the Derby, with Pool Two set for Mar. 11-14 and Pool Three running from Apr. 8-11. "We didn't know what to expect...but it's safe to say the results have surpassed anything we might have anticipated," Churchill Downs Senior Vice President and General Manager Alex Waldrop said.

Three Ring dominated the final two distaff legs of the Florida Stallion S. series last year, including the My Dear Girl division at a mile and a sixteenth Oct. 17, and gave a good account of herself in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in a third-place finish to Eclipse champion Silverbulletday. The chestnut returned to the races in the Jan. 27 Gill Forward Gal S. and rallied late to finish second, beaten just a head. Trainer Eddie Plesa decided to add blinkers for this effort and his charge responded well to the equipment change. Jockey John Velazquez put Three Ring on the engine right from the start and was able to control the pace from the rail, accelerating away from the field after six furlongs and having as much fun through the stretch as a kid at the circus for the impressive victory. Velazquez commented of his trip, "Today she broke out of there and she grabbed the bit. We expected (Jerry Bailey and) Gold From The West and I to be on the lead, but then he took back and it made it easier for my horse." Plesa indicated that the Gil Bonnie Miss S. Mar. 16 is a strong possibility for a next start and added that Three Ring is nominated to the Apr. 3 GI Ashland at Keeneland and will be nominated to the Apr. 30 GI Kentucky Oaks. With the heavy favorite finishing first and 8-5 Gold From The West running third, there was a minus show pool of $6,477.70 for the race.

FASIG-TIPTON CALDER UNDER TACK SHOW RESULTS A filly by Cherokee Run and a colt by Valid Appeal both stopped the timer in :21 1/5 for the quarter mile to top the workouts during yesterday's Under Tack Show for the Fasig-Tipton Calder Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale, to be held at the Florida track Mar. 1-2. Hip #130, the filly who is out of Song of Syria (Damasus), and Hip #156, a colt named Tempered Appeal out of Temperalles (Temperence Hill), are both consigned by Mark Casse, agent. There were four two-year-olds who posted the fastest of the one-furlong workouts, getting the eighth in :10 1/5. The quartet were Hip #18, a filly by Belong to Me out of SW Makin Faces (Premiership), consigned by Sequel Bloodstock, agent; Hip #91, a half-brother to MSW Rhythninjava (Java Gold) by Silver Ghost out of MSW Rambling Rhythm (Delta Oil), from the consignment of Jesse and Stacy Longoria; Hip #93, a half-brother to MGSW Ifyoucouldseemenow (Tunerup) and MSW Doyouseewhatisee (Barachois) by Storm Cat out of Real Jenny (Valid Appeal), consigned by Hartley-DeRenzo Thoroughbreds, agent; and Hip #205, a filly named Hekeeps mesinging by Dixieland Band out GISW Andestine (Native Prospector), consigned by McKathan Bros., agent. The second Under Tack Show is scheduled for Sunday, Feb. 28 beginning at 10 a.m.

It is not often that a three-year-old filly is entered against older horses in the month of January, but such was the case with Synchronized, who brought a two-race winning streak into her first stakes engagement, including a pace-pressing one-length win over her elders Jan. 30. The chestnut broke alertly in this race and attended the pace from second, took a short lead with five-sixteenths to run and dug in determinedly in the stretch to collect top honors. Winning jockey Jose Espinoza, who swept the Big A weekend stakes, was impressed. "This filly can run all day," he said. "I was happy with my position and I knew that I had a lot of horse in the stretch." Synchronized represents the first-ever stakes winner for trainer Martin Wansborough, who may point his charge towards a race at Laurel.

Ecton Park finished strongly in his last, a Jan. 16 allowance going this distance at Gulfstream Park, and was the second choice taking on the '98 two-year-old champ Answer Lively in his stakes debut. The chestnut saved ground while sitting seventh early, began his rally around the far turn and kept on coming up the rail in the lane to nail the Eclipse Award winner on the wire. "He did a lot to get clear through the lane and he gave me everything he had to just get up," winning jockey Shane Sellers said. "He did it on his own, he's got a special kind of heart." As for Answer Lively, who improved off a seventh-place finish in his three-year-old bow, the Lecomte H. Jan. 30, jockey Pat Day said, "At the three-sixteenths pole, he really responded gamely. He got on past the leaders and I don't think he was even aware of (Ecton Park) down on the inside. It was a good effort."

Enjoy the Moment reeled off four straight allowance victories before getting tested against graded foes in her latest. She came up a bit short in the Jan. 23 GI Santa Monica H., her first try at seven furlongs, setting the opening fractions before tiring to be sixth. The third choice behind Santa Monica heroine Stop Traffic (Cure the Blues) this time, the Cal-bred came out a bit at the start from her inside post position, was pushed to the lead, set the pace through torrid splits of :43 3/5 and :55 3/5 while alone in front and was never threatened, winning comfortably. "I was surprised at the fractions because she was just galloping out there," winning jockey Laffit Pincay Jr. said. "But she fools you because she's unbelievably fast. She was back to her best race today." Added trainer Bill Spawr, "She had a lung infection that we discovered after (the Santa Monica). She has had some lung damage--that's why she didn't run as a two-year-old. She bled on me during a work. I told (breeder and former owner) Mr. Jacody that she was a very good filly and we should turn her out and get her lungs healed. Laffit said she was flat (for the Santa Monica). But she was a different filly today. She was really confident in herself. I don't know what's next." The even-money favorite Stop Traffic pressed the pace, but faded in the drive and finished last. "She usually just flies out of the gate, but she didn't today because she bobbed a bit," jockey Corey Black said. "Then (Enjoy the Moment) took a right-hand turn and slammed us all. It just wasn't her day."
