Suffolk To Run Morning Card on Dubai World Cup Day:

Suffolk Downs has scheduled a 10:00 a.m. post time to coincide with the Dubai World Cup card to be simulcast from Nad Al Sheba on Sunday, Mar. 28. "The early post will be a help to our simulcast partners who would otherwise have difficulty opening early for races from a foreign country that are spaced far apart," said Executive Vice President of Racing Lou Raffetto, Jr. Suffolk hopes to have a repeat performance of their 1996 World Cup card which, because it was the only morning card, resulted in a then-record handle.

Racecaller Withdraws Lawsuit:

Meadowlands announcer John Bothe and the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority announced the resolution of the dispute surrounding Bothe's duties at Meadowlands Racetrack. Bothe announced, "Any misunderstanding or miscommunication surrounding my employment duties has been resolved, and I look forward to continuing as chief announcer." Bothe, an admitted compulsive gambler, had filed a discrimination suit against the track claiming that he shouldn't be have to handicap the races for an in-house simulcasting program. As a result of the agreement, Bothe will remain the Meadowlands announcer, he won't have to handicap the races and his salary will not be cut.
