HOUSE ARRESTS BIG 'CAP, BECOMES CO-LEADER OF FOX SERIES A small but strong field was assembled for the second leg of the NTRA Championships on FOX series, the 62nd running of the GI Santa Anita H. It included FOX point leader and GI Donn H. winner Puerto Madero (Chi) (Gallantsky), Donn third Silver Charm (Silver Buck) and the up and coming four-year-old Event of the Year (Seattle Slew). In the end, though, it was the oft-overlooked Free House (Smokester) who was left wearing the blanket of flowers as the winner of the Big 'Cap. Chris McCarron, aboard Free House, took advantage of what turned out to be a jockey's race, as he set a fairly comfortable pace along the rail and had enough left for the drive to hold off Event of the Year and Silver Charm. McCarron said of his trip, "He broke a bit in the air and settled into a canter as we went by the sixteenth pole for the first time. We went :23 and :47, but it felt like :50." The 20 points earned by Free House for his victory tied Puerto Madero for the lead in the Champions series. Silver Charm is in second with a total of 16 points and Event of the Year gained 12 points for his second-place finish to claim third in the series. The Apr. 3 GI Oaklawn H. is next up in the 10-race series, with the June 27 GI Hollywood Gold Cup the next "Champions" race.

REAL QUIET SET TO MAKE SOME NOISE

TODAY Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Real Quiet (Quiet American) will make his first start since last year's GI Belmont S. when he runs in the GIII New Orleans H. at Fair Grounds today. The four-year-old is best remembered for his courageous stretch run in the Belmont, where he missed winning the Triple Crown by a nose to Victory Gallop. Owner Mike Pegram told Daily Racing Form, "I'm just happy he's back on track. Now we just have to make back some of that $5 million we missed." Pegram was referring to the $5 million bonus his horse would have received if he had won the Triple Crown. If all goes well here, Real Quiet could earn himself a ticket to Dubai for the G1 World Cup.

Free House returned from a four-month rest to take the GII San Antonio H. over this track Feb. 7, his only prep for this event. Taking advantage of moderate fractions, jockey Chris McCarron put Free House on the lead and nursed the pace as Event of the Year followed three wide with Silver Charm tucked in fourth. As they entered the stretch, Free House was on cruise control along the rail with challengers coming on the outside. However, the San Antonio winner was always in front and able to hang on to the wire. Winning trainer Paco Gonzalez said, "The horse was going easy. I was a little worried when Event of the Year made that move. But he was so relaxed out there. He is really tough in the lane." Gonzalez indicated that he would see how Free House came out of the race before making a decision on a next start. Silver Charm's trainer Bob Baffert said, "He had no place to go. Every time he tried to get out, they'd close it up on him. That happens. We'll see how he comes out of it before we decide what's next." Of Silver Charm's performance, jockey Gary Stevens said, "(Chris McCarron) dictated the pace and played cat and mouse with us throughout the race. He ran his race...I mean, he was still coming at the end and he's got a great will to win. We just couldn't get there soon enough." GI Donn H. winner Puerto Madero put in a puzzlingly poor effort, running fifth. "He broke, ran for 40 yards, got into a canter and stayed in one," reported jockey Kent Desormeaux. Trainer Dick Mandella added, "It didn't look like he had his mind on his job early in the race."

Unite's Big Red is one of those horses that is always hanging around versus top company and sometimes, when things go right, he pulls off an upset. Such was the case when he took the GIII Tropical Turf H. by a nose at Calder three starts back Nov. 28. He came back to run third in both the GIII Canadian Turf H. Jan. 23 and the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. Feb. 6. Racing in perfect position behind the fast pace being set by Deep Dive (Manila) and African Dancer, the chestnut gelding angled three wide at the top of the stretch, closed gamely in the lane and edged away to Eclipse Buck's Boy's track record time. "(Trainer) Randy Mills told me he hadn't had him any better," said jockey Mike Smith. "He told me after that last race that he's really training good." Jerry Bailey, rider of the runner-up, said, "My horse was going along comfortably, but I couldn't let a quality horse like Deep Dive go off alone on the lead. I had to go with him."

The first major turf mile event of the year on the left coast drew a solid field, including 1998 GI Breeders' Cup Mile runner-up Hawksley Hill and California's top grass Three-Year-Old of last year Ladies Din. Lord Smith, on the other hand, was something of an unknown commodity. The winner of six of eight starts in Europe for Martin Pipe, the four-year-old has really come to hand in his two 1999 outings, taking a Jan. 2 down-the-hill event by a nose and following that effort with a hard-fought, wire-to-wire victory at this trip Jan. 29. As the gates opened, jockey Garrett Gomez was able to secure a spot on the rail, some six lengths behind dueling front-runners for the opening four furlongs. As the field reached the top of the stretch, Lord Smith loomed into contention with Hawksley Hill breathing down his neck. The two ran on to the wire, with Hawksley Hill putting a head in front, but Lord Smith responded courageously and ended up a head better. "When I asked this gelding to dig, it took a lot for him to dig, get his momentum and get by that other horse. He really gave me 100 percent," said winning jockey Garrett Gomez. Neil Drysdale, trainer of the runner-up, said, "(Hawksley Hill) ran super. He got a little tired in the last few jumps, but this will help him for his next race. We'll run in the (Mar. 28, GIII) Explosive Bid at the Fair Grounds."

For those who are keeping score at home, it is now Big Jag: 2, Kona Gold: 1. The two California sprint rivals finished one-two for the third consecutive time this year, and both appear set to meet again in the Apr. 3 GII Potrero Grande H. Big Jag finished second to Kona Gold in their first start of the year, the El Conejo H. Jan. 3, then came back to get a head win last time in the GII Palos Verdes H. Jan. 30. With Kona Gold and Dramatic Gold setting a slow pace early, Big Jag assumed a stalking position on the outside. The six-year-old gelding bid three deep and got bumped coming out of the turn, gained a short lead in midstretch, bumped lightly with Kona Gold late and prevailed by a half length. Following an inquiry, it was determined that Dramatic Gold caused the bumping on the turn and the incident in deep stretch was deemed insignificant. "This horse, he actually could probably be on the lead if I let him, but that would take something away from his run at the end," said jockey Jose Valdivia, Jr. "I'm still in awe of what he does."

Manistique (Unbridled) has done little wrong in her career, winning six times from seven starts, including a 2 1/2-length victory in the GII La Cañada S. Feb. 7. She looks to score her first Grade I victory today and set up a potential clash of the titans with another four-year-old by Unbridled, Champion Three-Year-Old filly Banshee Breeze in the GI Apple Blossom Apr. 9. India Divina (Roy) has run well in her last three main track outings, with a pair of runner-up finishes and most recently an off the pace score in the Grade I in the Santa Maria H. on Valentine's Day. Magical Allure (General Meeting) bounced back from a sub-par third in the GII El Encino to run a much-improved second to the top pick in the La Cañada.

It's St. Patrick's Day about 10 days early, as Irish eyes are smiling upon this year's edition of the Orchid H. Coretta (Caerleon) won four of her first five attempts in the U.S., including the GII Long Island H. at Aqueduct last fall and the GII La Prevoyante H. at Calder Dec. 26. Looking for new challenges, Christophe Clement tried his mare against males in the Feb. 6 GII Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. and she acquitted herself well, finishing fifth by 4 3/4 lengths to turf tiger Yagli (Jade Hunter). Delilah (Bluebird) made an auspicious American debut, scoring victory in the GIII The Very One H. over this turf Feb. 7. She figures to appreciate the added furlong of today's race. Winfama (Wild Again) always tries her level best and comes into today's event in sharp form, having accounted for the GIII Suwannee River H. on the front end in her most recent outing Feb. 14.

Today, Fair Grounds, post time 3:41 p.m. CST:

Sires and Weights: Take Note Of Me (Notebook), 113; Littlebitlively (Lively One), 113; Frisk Me Now (Mister Frisky), 116; Prory (Procida), 113; Allen's Oop (Nines Wild), 108; Precocity (Aferd), 118; Real Quiet (Quiet American), 122.

The Big Easy's big race for older horses became a little easier with the defection of rival four-year-old Victory Gallop, who chose to run in a Gulfstream allowance earlier this week. However, Real Quiet still faces some tough company for his first start since missing the Triple Crown when second by a whisker in the June 6 Belmont S. The Mike Pegram-owned colt has been sizzling in the mornings at Santa Anita with a formidable workmate: Silver Charm. The two went a mile in 1:37 1/5 in company Feb. 24 and Real Quiet came back to drill five furlongs in :58 1/5 Mar. 2. Take Note Of Me appears to be the commanding speed in this event. The winner of the Louisiana H. and the Diplomat Way H. over this track, he finished third to Precocity in the Feb. 14 Whirlaway H. after dueling for the lead. Precocity, the winner of last year's GI Oaklawn H., won the 8 1/2-furlong Whirlaway by four lengths and should appreciate today's longer distance.

Carta de Amor was claimed for a mere $50,000 out of a second-place finish going a one-turn mile over the Aqueduct main track. Save for a dull effort in the Gill Ladies H. Dec. 19, the mare has been simply spectacular winning four times in five outs since the claim and amassing earnings of $140,000, including a long-awaited graded stakes victory in her last effort, a front-running, 6 1/2 length victory against her own sex in the Gill Rare Treat H. Feb. 15. Leading trainer Juan Serey had no problems entering his mare in the Grey Lag, despite having to face males, a test the dark bay would pass with flying colors. Carta de Amor acted up in the gate, but was sent for the lead and allowed to set very ordinary fractions while in hand. Jockey Vladimir Diaz asked his mount for her best run rounding the far turn and she responded beautifully to open a 2 1/2-length advantage at the stretch call and was a clear winner to run her seasonal record to a perfect four-for-four.

Red Cat had made four of her last five starts on the grass, including a wire-to-wire victory in the Jan. 3 Furl Sail H. Most recently, the chestnut was tried back on the main track in the six furlong Pan Zareta S. in which she finished second, beaten 3 1/2 lengths. Back on the turf for this effort, jockey Ron Ardoin aboard Red Cat was able to establish a very leisurely pace under little pressure, spurted away to a three-length lead at the eighth pole and drew off to the impressive victory. Said winning trainer Dallas Stewart, "She's a real versatile filly. She can run on the dirt and the turf." Ardoin added, "Everything worked out perfect. Dallas had her ready and sharp. We just controlled the pace."

After a short time away, he came back to win the President's S. at Turfway by six lengths Feb. 13. Bumped after the start, the odds-on favorite was hard ridden to get position while three wide on the first turn. He took a clear lead on the backstretch then opened daylight between himself and the others en route to a nine-length score. "He really won pretty easily," said trainer Akiko Gothard. She added that the colt's next race would be the Gil Galleryfurniture.com S. at Turfway Mar. 27.

Cliquot was unveiled at Hollywood Park last Nov. 28 and ran a very game race to finish second to subsequent stakes winner General Challenge (General Meeting). Given a two month rest, the gelding returned to the races at Santa Anita Feb. 6 to break his maiden going short by two lengths. Getting his first try at two turns in his first stakes effort, the dark bay rated kindly off a lone pacesetter after breaking a bit awkwardly, responded when asked to assume command at the three-sixteenths pole and was all out to hold off the late challenge of the D. Wayne Lukas trainee Charismatic. Winning rider David Flores was impressed by Cliquot's effort. "The instructions were to just lay where he was comfortable. At the quarter pole I was very confident. He switched leads real well and responded into the stretch." It was not immediately known where the Cal-bred would make his next start.
