PUERTO MADERO OUT OF DUBAI WORLD CUP
Trainer Dick Mandella reported yesterday that GI Santa Anita H. fifth-place finisher Puerto Madero (Chi) (Gallantsky) was a "little stiff" yesterday morning and had filling in an ankle. The five-year-old will undergo X-rays at Santa Anita and is definitely out of the Mar. 28 G1 Dubai World Cup. In other Big 'Cap news, Free House (Smokester) came out of his wire-to-wire score in fine shape, trainer Paco Gonzalez reported yesterday. Runner-up Event of the Year (Seattle Slew) was in excellent condition Sunday morning and Mandella said he would meet with owner John Mabee to discuss a long term plan for the colt with the GI Breeders' Cup Classic as the ultimate goal. "It's nice to have one who's actually eligible," joked Mandella. Third-place finisher Silver Charm (Silver Buck) emerged from the race in good condition and is still being considered for Dubai, according to assistant trainer Eoin Harty.

REAL QUIET SECOND IN RETURN Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Real Quiet (Quiet American) finished second in yesterday's GIII New Orleans H. at the Fair Grounds. It was the four-year-old's first start since missing the Triple Crown by a whisker last June. Sent off the 1-2 choice, Real Quiet pressed the slow pace set by Take Note Of Me (Notebook), made a four-wide move on the far turn and was outfinished by second choice Precocity (Aferd). "Off a layoff like that, he's going to be a little rusty," said trainer Bob Baffert. "He showed up. That's all you can ask. I liked the way he fought back. It looked like he wasn't going to get anything, but he came back on." Jockey Kent Desormeaux said, "I don't think (Precocity) caught Real Quiet on his day. But, you have to be at your best to beat the likes of this horse. The winner is no slouch; he's a very good horse." Baffert and Pegram will be back in New Orleans next weekend to saddle Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) in the Mar. 13 GIII Fair Grounds Oaks. New Orleans H. chart page 3

Also Ran: Victory Stripes (Arg).

Manistique won the first three races of her career last summer by a whopping 31 lengths combined, the third of those victories coming by 10 lengths in the GII Hollywood Oaks. A disappointing third-place effort in her next outing, the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga, was later attributed to a displaced palate and the big filly went to the sidelines to recover. Her three victories in as many starts since her return this past December have been equally spectacular, as she has completely dominated the competition, including a powerful 2 1/2-length victory in the GII La Cañada S. here Feb. 7 in her last. The only thing missing from her resumé was a Grade I success, but she would need not wait long for that. Sent off the overwhelming favorite in the compact field of four, jockey Gary Stevens on Manistique was satisfied to allow an eager Magical Allure to cut the early fractions and, as the field reached the far turn, Magical Allure snuck away to a two-length advantage. Rounding into the stretch, it was clear that Stevens always had the measure of Magical Allure as he ranged up alongside her at the eighth pole and guided the winner home. Trainer John Shirreffs said, "She seemed really focused in her race. She cruised around there, stalked Magical Allure and, when Gary asked her to pick it up, she picked it up willingly. And that was it--she just toyed with them from their." Prospects for a match-up in the GI Apple Blossom against Eclipse winner Banshee Breeze are not likely, as Shireffs indicated that he will point the winner to the GI Milady May 31 or the GI Vanity June 26.

Coretta was nosed out of her stateside debut at Saratoga in August then went on a bit of a tear, winning four straight including the GII Long Island H. at Aqueduct by six lengths and the GII La Prevoyante H. at Calder by two lengths. She most recently went up against the boys in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. and put in a solid effort to finish fifth, beaten 4 1/2 lengths. The 8-5 favorite raced reserved on the inside early, came to the outside and advanced on the backstretch, gained command on the final turn and was all out to beat stablemate Delilah. The runner-up put in a solid effort after breaking slowly and enduring a four-wide trip. "I'm very happy. Both fillies ran great races," said trainer Christophe Clement. "I don't know if you saw, but Delilah was actually ahead after the wire. She's a true stayer. They both seem to like it here (at Gulfstream), so maybe we'll be back for the Breeders' Cup (Fillies and Mares Turf)."

Margins: NK, 3/4, HF. Odds: 33.60, 4.60, 2.30.

You have to go back to last April for Tansit's last win, an impressive 4 1/2-length conquest over the Keeneland turf course. When last seen on the race-track, the bay was a distant sixth in a Churchill Downs turf allowance Nov. 11. Dismissed completely at the windows, Tansit raced unhurriedly early, angled out for running room once in the stretch and was able to run down GSW Trail City in the waning yards for the victory.

PERFECT STING (f, 3, Red Ransom--Valid Victress, by Valid Appeal) broke her maiden at first asking on the main track last September and won her first start on the turf in her most recent effort, the Oct. 29 Green River S. at Keeneland by 3 1/2 lengths. Her connections passed on the recent Herecomesthebride S. in favor of this spot and Perfect Sting made good on a promise of 1-2, as the bay saved ground, slipped through along the rail in the stretch and buzzed through the final two furlongs in :23 to score a popular 2 1/4-length victory. When asked what he was most concerned about for Real Quiet's return race, trainer Bob Baffert said he thought Precocity, who he had trained two years earlier, would be tough. Already known as an amazing trainer, Baffert proved himself a pretty good handicapper as well. Precocity, who finished second in this event last year, came back to win the GI Oaklawn H. in his next start. He went without another win until Nov. 28, when he took a Churchill allowance. He was fifth in the GIII Fred Hooper H. at Calder three back and second in the Diplomat Way H. over this track Jan. 24. He regained top form in the Whirlaway H. at Fair Grounds Feb. 14, when he put in his patented closing run and won by 4 1/2 lengths. Racing in next to last position for the first six furlongs as Take Note of Me (Notebook) set a relaxed pace, the second choice was angled out five wide for the stretch run, collared the leaders by the eighth pole and proved a half-length the best.

Tranquility Lake vaulted into national prominence with a second-place finish in the GI Del Mar Oaks on the turf last August, a race in which she was demoted to third for causing interference in the stretch. She has recently been trying the heavy hitters of the four-year-old division on the main track and was most recently an even fourth in the GII La Cañada to Santa Margarita winner Manistique. Back on the grass for this effort, the bay dueled for the early lead, drew clear entering the stretch and won under a hand ride.
