See You Soon, a Listed stakes winner in France, was the odds-on choice to pick up her third graded win in the U.S. here. The bay captured Del Mar's GI Ramona H. at 13-1 last August, but was 7-5 taking the Jan. 16 GII San Gorgonio H. in her first outing of '99. Given a couple of months off after that start, she had worked sharply for her return and ran back to those trials, saving ground on the first turn, angling to the outside to stalk the pace in fifth down the backstretch, then rallying three-wide into the lane to gain the lead in deep stretch and draw clear. "It was just really fun," winning jockey Kent Desormeaux said. "Going down the backside, they picked it up nicely and I was able to let her get comfortable. But from the three-eighths pole to the quarter pole she loomed up behind 'em and was saying, 'Jock, come on, please just turn me loose.' When I did, it was like, 'Yes, let's go get 'em.'" The French-bred goes next in the Apr. 17 GII Santa Barbara H., where she will meet last year's champion turf mare Fiji (GB).

Second sprinting in his first two appearances last November at Churchill, Etbauer broke his maiden in his three-year-old bow going 1 1/16 miles over this track Feb. 10 and came right back to take an Oaklawn allowance at a mile Mar. 3. The second choice in his stakes debut, the bay came away from the gate cleanly, dueled head-and-head through a half in :46.11, took a clear lead after six furlongs in 1:10.92, opened up by three lengths at the top of the lane and then was all out to hold off the late surge of favored Desert Demon for the victory. "I really haven't done a lot getting this horse up to this race," winning trainer Steve Wren admitted. "We have had a quarter crack problem with him. The patch was just put on yesterday." Said jockey Mike Smith, "Heading into the final turn I was feeling very confident and was only worried about (jockey Jule Krone aboard Desert Demon). I was looking around trying to see where she was, but I couldn't find her. Through the lane I had to stay busy because my horse started looking around." Krone added, "At the quarter pole I had to make a sudden and sharp move and...that cost my horse a lot of momentum and may have cost him the race. I could never make up the difference." The top two are likely to meet again in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 10.

MARQUETRY COLT TOPS OBS-MARCH

PREVIEW Selling as Hip #240, a colt by Marquetry out of Singin Up A Storm (Storm Cat) worked one furlong in :10 1/5 to post the fastest time at the distance in yesterday's Under Tack Preview for the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Annual March Selected Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training in Ocala, Florida. The chestnut is from the consignment of Ricky Leppala, agent, who also sent out a filly by Alydeed to top the quarter-mile works. Out of Play The Rumor (Spread The Rumor), she went in :21 2/5 and sells as Hip #161. Hip #93, a filly by Montbrook out of Medieval Tears (Medieval Man) consigned by Tony Bowling and Bobby Dodd, agent, stopped the timer in :35 for the fastest three-furlong move. The Preview continues with Hips #279-557 this morning at 9 a.m.

Lazy Lode (Lode) accounted for the GI Hollywood Turf Cup Dec. 12 before getting a break; he returned in the Feb. 15 Gil San Luis Obispo H., setting comfortable early fractions, but tiring late to finish third by 2 1/2 lengths in an effort that will certainly benefit him. He makes his first outing for new trainer Dick Mandella. Kessem Power (Kessem {NZ}), the defending champion in this event, came from last to first to take the San Luis Obispo by three-parts of a length. Trainer Mike Mitchell has been able to get a trio of workouts into the seven-year-old since and gets the services of top Irish rider Mick Kinane. Single Empire (Kris {GB}) has had only one run in the U.S., that a second-place finish in the Gil C. F. Burke H. last Oct. 25 at this track and trip. Freshened since, the chestnut has posted a long series of turf works and looms the upsetter.

The impressive front-running winner of his first two career starts, Apremont will try to lead this field of sophomores from flagfall to finish. Although trying eight furlongs for the first time, he will not need to negotiate two turns, has drawn favorably for his running style and blew out smartly before leaving Southern California, going a bullet six furlongs Mar. 11 in 1:11 3/5. He breezed three panels over the Aqueduct surface yesterday in :36 3/5. "He came out of the work in good order," said trainer Ron McAnally. Successful Appeal nearly won the GIII Nashua S. here last Nov. 8 after stalking, but unable to run down, the loose-on-the-lead Doneraile Court. He was most recently an even fifth after encountering a little traffic in the GI Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream Feb. 20 in his first start in three months and gets Lasix added for today's engagement. Perfect Score won the Horatius S. at Laurel Feb. 6 before finishing third in his first attempt at a route in the Herat S. Mar. 6.

 two in a row in an Aqueduct allowance. Making what would be, win or lose, the final start of her career, the chestnut broke sharply, shadowed favored Biogio's Rose for a half, stuck her nose in front after six fur-longes and kept it there in the long battle to the wire.
 "She's a game mare," said Seth Gregory, assistant to trainer Mark Hennig. "I told (jockey Jose Espinoza) to just let her run her race. She will now be sent to Mary-

Coming off a second-place finish in a Fair Grounds turf allowance Feb. 22, Steal a Heart had posted an eight-length allowance win over the Fair Grounds main track last December, but was ignored at the windows with a return to the dirt here. The longest shot on the board, she zipped right to the lead, set a fast pace and held off second choice Zuppardo Ardo for the narrow score. The 7-10 choice Enjoy the Moment (Slew's Royalty), coming off a front-running victory in the Gill Las Flores H. at Santa Anita Feb. 21, veered out at the start, hustled up to chase the pace for a half, but tired badly to finish sixth and last.

Trying turf in his three-year-old bow, the bay sat fourth to the final bend, then swept to the lead and galloped away to an eight-length victory as the 9-5 chalk. Lifetime Record: 6-2-1-1, $58,525.

Golden Missile broke his maiden over the Hialeah turf almost one year ago and later in the summer was a five-length winner of the Aug. 2 Cumberland S. over the Ellis Park grass course. Unraced since that effort, the chestnut returned to contest a Gulfstream turf allowance Feb. 27, where he finished a non-threatening fourth as the favorite. Back on the main track for his first try against graded-stakes company, he broke well under Pat Day, who won this race last year aboard Frisk Me Now, and attended a three-pronged battle on the front end, just outside of GSW Early Warning. Asked for his best run once into the stretch, Golden Missile wrestled a short lead from a game Early Warning just inside the eighth pole and bested that one to the wire. Odds-on favorite Sir Bear came five wide into the lane and loomed boldly at the stretch call, but could not sustain a winning move.

Reserved in the early going in this event, the appropriately named colt began to inch into contention nearing the half-mile pole, was roused to the front on the outside rounding the far turn, repulsed a challenge to his lead entering the lane and then was fully extended to hold off the late charge of Monkey Puzzle.

Big Jag Breezes at Santa Anita:

There were only 15 listed works at Santa Anita yesterday morning, all turned in over the training track. Big Jag (Kleven), a winner of seven of his last eight starts including the Jan. 30 GII Palos Verdes H. and Mar. 6 GII San Carlos H. in his two outings this year, breezed five furlongs in 1:00 3/5. "For such a big horse, he swung around those tight turns well," trainer Tim Pinfield said. "The only thing between him and the rail was the paint." The six-year-old goes next in the Apr. 3 GII Potrero Grande Breeders' Cup H., then will get a break until the Del Mar meet.

2--Lay Odds, 118, g, 3, Secret Odds--Moms Double, by Little Current. ($6,500 yrl '97 ARZNOV). $5,000.

3--Siyeh Bend, 112, g, 3, Defensive Play--Reasonable, by Far North. $2,500.

Margins: 2, HF, 3HF. Odds: 0.90, 6.80, 24.40.

Bristolville broke his maiden by three lengths Feb. 21 and added an allowance test by five lengths Mar. 8, both at Turf Paradise. The heavy favorite to go three-for-three, the dark bay was outrun early, but launched a five-wide bid as they headed into the stretch and kept on coming down the lane to take command late and win going away.

MITSUBISHI SHOGUN WINTER DERBY, $85,511, Lingfield, England, 3yo/up, 1 1/4m (AWT), time: n/a, std.

1--SUPREME SOUND (GB), 132, h, 5, Superlative (Ire)--Sing Softly (GB) (GSW-Eng), by Luthier (Fr). O-Mrs P Harris; B-Pendley Farm; T-P Harris; J-G Bardwell; $50,597.

2--Sick As A Parrot (GB), 132, c, 4, Casteddu (GB)--Sianiski (GB), by Niniski. $18,942.

3--Tallulah Belle (GB), 127, m, 6, Crowning Honors--Fine A Leau, by Youth. $9,269.

Margins: 2HF, 8, 2HF. Odds: 9-1, 25-1, 25-1.

Making his racing debut on the all-weather and having his first start since finishing third to Sick As A Parrot in a Newmarket handicap Oct. 3, Supreme Sound handled the surface in great style to gain his revenge here. Trainer Peter Harris, who also bred and owns the winner, said, "I thought he had a chance, but you never know when they run on the sand for the first time. He worked on the track earlier in the week and showed that he had no aversion to the surface. He came 'round fairly wide so didn't have much trouble with the kick-back."

PRIX ALTIPAN, $46,480, Saint-Cloud, France, 4yo/up, 1mT, 1:45.90, sf.

1--MASSIMO (FR), 123, h, 5, Lead On Time--Mi Longa (Fr) (SW-Fr), by Caro (Ire). O-J Gribomont; B-Haras du Bois Roussel; T-Jean-Claude Rouget; J-J Dubosc; $23,240.

*2--Milord Fontenaille (Fr), 123, g, 5, Nashamaa (Ire)--Miss Fontenailles (Fr), by Kautokeino (Fr). $7,968.

3--Mawasko (Fr), 127, h, 5, Lesotho--Santina (Fr), by Targowice. $5,976.

Margins: (NK), (3), 1. Odds: 11-1, 2-1, 15-1.

*Milord Fontenaille finished first, but was disqualified and placed second.

Making his second start of the season after running fourth to Milord Fontenailles in a Maisons-Laffitte handicap Mar. 3, Massimo turned the tables, but only courtesy of the stewards. Settled in sixth while Milord Fontenailles set a good pace, the 11-1 chance made progress early in the straight, came to challenge the front runner at the 300-meter mark and looked the probable winner. It was then that he was hampered by the leader, who went on to score by a neck. The stewards took little time to change the result, demoting Milord Fontenailles to second.

PRIX MAURICE CAILLAULT, $46,480, Saint-Cloud, France, 3yo, c/g, 1 5/16mT, 2:18.10, sf.

1--LORD BREX (FR), 121, c, 3, Saint Estephe (Fr)--Light Moon (Fr), by Mendez (Fr). ($7,437 wnl '96 AFDEC). O-Mrs Y Houyvet; B-Mrs N Carter, P Gay & M Hovelacque; T-Francois Doumen; J-G Mosse; $23,240.

2--Magic Whisper (Fr), 121, c, 3, Subotica (Fr)--Fabulous Noble (Fr), by Fabulous Dancer. $7,968.

3--Franc, 125, c, 3, Woodman--Adventurous Di, by Private Account. ($200,000 yrl '97 KEEJUL). $5,976. Margins: NK, SHD, 1HF. Odds: 6-1, 28-10.

Fresh from a run in the provinces at Argentan Mar. 7, and fitted with blinkers for the first time, Lord Brex was appearing in stakes company for the first time and also looking to break his maiden. Settled last of the seven while Franc set a decent pace, the colt was still in the rear as they swept wide into the straight, looking for better ground. With 400 meters to run, the field was spread across the track; Lord Brex found the perfect split and an extra gear to finish strongly, taking command in the final 25 meters to win well. Franc, who held well on third, will not be pointed for the May 1 Kentucky Derby. Trainer Criquelette Head said, "He ran a good race on his return and I don't think he needed the race, as he wasn't even blowing afterwards. But he does have a tendency to wait for horses when he's in front, so we might use different tactics next time and also fit him with blinkers. I have discussed things with the owner and we have decided to abandon the plan to send him for the Kentucky Derby."
