TEAM EUROPE TAKES INTERNATIONAL

JOCKEY CHALLENGE Kieren Fallon's two wins led Team Europe to a decisive 49-35 victory over Team USA in the second annual British Airways International Jockey Challenge, held yesterday at Santa Anita Park. Olivier Peslier got Team Europe off to a flying start, taking the first leg of the four-race series with a front-running score aboard 7-1 Sir Dennis. Fallon then won with 3-1 Dixieland Sham and 19-1 A King's Presence, giving Team Europe an insurmountable 44-19 lead after three races. Kent Desormeaux saved the home team from a whitewash with a victory in the final race aboard 6-1 Twilight Affair. "I was fortunate to have some good rides today," said Fallon. "I credit my coming over here four or five years ago to (the late trainer) Rodney Rash. He taught me everything I know. He's probably the main reason why I'm here." Fallon (22 points) was the individual winner, followed by Desormeaux (18), Peslier (15), Alex Solis (9), Cash Asmussen (7), Michael Kinane and Julie Krone (5) and Russell Baze (3). Team USA won last year's competition, 48.5-35.5, after sweeping the top four spots in the final race.

OBS MARCH UNDER TACK PREVIEW RESULTS

During Sunday's second session of the Under Tack Preview for the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Annual March Selected Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training, Hips 229-557 took to the track. Fast times were at a premium, as the two-year-olds were forced to buck strong headwinds down the stretch gusting to 25 miles per hour. With a quarter mile in :21 3/5 into that stiff headwind, Exciting Story, a colt by Diablo--Appealing Storm (Valid Appeal), posted the fastest work at the distance. The full brother to stakes winner Diablo's Story sells next Wednesday, March 31, as part of the Mark Casse consignment. A pair of youngsters shared honors for the session's fastest eighth mile work. The Devil's Bag filly Purgatory, consigned by Southern Cross Farm as Hip 413, and a Saint Ballado filly to be sold by Gold Crest Farm as Hip 450, both sped the distance in :10 2/5. The day's fastest 3/8-mile work was recorded by another Mark Casse consignee, as Rich Timber, a chestnut colt by Rizzi--Timber Ghost (Great Above) selling as Hip 305, drilled in :35 1/5. The regular Under Tack Show is set for March 27-28, with the March Sale scheduled for March 30-31.

Single Empire had been winless in five starts since taking the G1 Derby Italiano in May, 1997. The chestnut had started only once before in the U.S. in his most recent outing, a second-place finish in the Gill Carleton F. Burke H. over the Santa Anita turf Oct. 25. Off five months since that effort, he returned here to track the pacesetters early before swinging four wide into the stretch, where he rallied gamely to just get up by a nose. Winning trainer Neil Drysdale said of Single Empire, "He had been working very well. He was a little fresh today because he hadn't run since October. This was the plan all along. We ran him off the plane at Oak Tree (in the Carleton F. Burke), then we wanted to give him a little time and bring him back here. Kessem Power got the jump on us, but we won't pick up any weight for the (April 18, Grade I) San Juan Capistrano, will we? I like to look on the bright side." Trainer Mike Mitchell said Kessem Power will show up for a rematch with Single Empire in the San Juan Capistrano.

WORLDLY MANNER TAKES GODOLPHIN

DERBY TRIAL A private trial race was held yesterday at Dubai's Nad Al Sheba racecourse for Godolphin's Kentucky Derby hopefuls, involving Triple Crown nominees Aljabr (Storm Cat), Always Believe (Carr de Naskra), Breathtaking View (Country Pine), Charmes (Personal Hope), Festive Bid (Festive), Prado's Landing (El Prado {Ire}) and Worldly Manner (Riverman), plus three others. Last year's GII Del Mar Futurity hero Worldly Manner, ridden by Jerry Bailey, won the trial race by just over a length from Aljabr, ridden by John Velasquez, with the pair comfortably ahead of the others. The nine-furlong trial on dirt was run in 1:46.59. Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented afterwards, "Worldly Manner had the superior finish over Aljabr and we thought it was an impressive performance. Both of them are on schedule for the (May 1) Kentucky Derby. This was the first of two prep races they are going to have, with the other one being at Nad Al Sheba in April. We have not decided on the jockeys for the Kentucky Derby yet--it is way too early and we obviously have to see what commitments they have." Comeonmom (Jolie's Halo), the eighth and final Godolphin Triple Crown nominee, did not take part in Sunday's trial but will be involved in the next one in April.

Also Ran: Perfect Score, Mr. Katowice, Holmdel, Successful Appeal, Takingthehardline, Philabusta, Shadow Caster, Country Deed. Scratched: Aristotle.

Badge has really come to hand over the course of his last four starts, all on Aqueduct's winterized surface, three of which resulted in victories. The handsome chestnut made his stakes debut in the Feb. 27 Best Turn S. and ran a very professional race coming from off the pace and storming four wide down the lane for a 1 1/2-length victory over fellow competitor Robin Goodfellow. Over a surface dampened by a steady rain yesterday, heavily-favored Apremont dueled on the lead right from the start, blasting through the opening four furlongs in :44 3/5, with Badge biding his time towards the rear. As the field left the three-eighths pole, Mr. Katowice (Katowice) came in on second choice Successful Appeal (Valid Appeal), causing that one to take up sharply, while Badge, bumped soundly in the traffic, split rivals on the turn and moved towards the lead. Into the lane, Apremont was very wide and drifted out through the stretch, but Badge continued to eat up ground along the inside and rolled on by under a hand ride for a very impressive win. Badge may not be "Big Red," but don't tell that to owner James Vena, who said, "We bought this horse down in Florida, and I know this sounds silly, but to us he looked like Secretariat." Of the runner-up, trainer Ron McAnally said, "He is still running green and is having trouble changing leads." West Coast shipper Aristotle (Two Punch), second by a neck to Exploit in the Feb. 6 GII San Vicente S., was scratched due to an abscess in his foot. Winning conditioner Joe Aquilino indicated his charge would return for the GII Wood Memorial April 9.

Rampant Lion dropped in to be a close second against state-bred competition off a couple of stakes tries two back and in his most recent effort could not handle the slop in a fifth-place effort over the inner Feb. 28. Reserved off solid fractions early in this heat, the gray launched his bid along the inside once in the stretch and ran down front-running Mr. Buffum in the shadow of the wire for his first victory in almost six months.

"This is the biggest win and the first graded stakes win in my 43 years in the business," said Crown Jewel's owner, 72-year-old Don Murray. The fourth choice in the field of six was content to run at the rear through the opening six furlongs, advanced strongly along the rail on the far turn, angled out for clear running in the stretch and was able to run down the previously undefeated Menifee in the waning yards for the victory. The latter rated kindly while four wide, engaged the leader at the eighth pole, but was outfinished. Jockey Dies in Hong Kong:

Apprentice jockey Wai "Willy" Kan, the first female to ride in the Hong Kong Derby, died in Prince of Wales Hospital yesterday from injuries suffered in a spill during a race at Hong Kong's Sha Tin Racecourse earlier in the day, according to the Associated Press. The 20-year-old Kan was aboard Happy King, who clipped heels with another horse and stumbled, throwing Kan to the track, where she was struck by several trailing horses. Racing, which took place in intermittent heavy rain, was called off after the jockey's death. Kan had ridden in Britain last year, winning a race at Haydock Park for David Nicholls.

Sister Act began her career on a four-race winning skein, including the Gill La Troienne S. in only her third start. She had fallen on leaner times of late, with four consecutive defeats, two of those very narrow losses against Grade II company, but got back into the win column in her first start off a layoff here Feb. 26, a wire-to-wire victory by 11 lengths. In an effort even Whoopi Goldberg would be proud of, the gray shot right to the front under regular rider Calvin Borel, repulsed a challenge from Glitter Woman with 2 1/2 furlongs to run and maintained a clear margin to the wire. On the his pace filly was setting, winning trainer Jeff Jacobs said, "I really didn't think they were going as fast as they were," and continued, "The (GI) Apple Blossom (April 9)? We'll see how she comes out of this one. Really she needs another week between now and that race." But Borel may have summed it up the best. "This filly is just awesome!"

6th-SAX, $54,810, Alw, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:37, fm. 1--A KING'S PRESENCE, 120, h, 5, Red Ransom--Bebopping Babe, by Taylor's Falls. O-Kieren R & R King Stable; B-G Butler & Carl & Julie Sturgeon (KY); T-Steven Young. Lifetime Record: 9-2-2-1, $62,190. 2--Central Lobby (Ire), 120, c, 4, Kenmare (Fr)--Style of Life, by The Minstrel. 3--Musgrave, 120, c, 4, Kris S.--She's Pleased, by Storm Bird. Margins: 1HF, 2, 1. Odds: 19.50, 0.90, 3.90.

A King's Presence had only a maiden win to show for eight previous starts, but had not been out since a sixth-place finish for Sonny Hine last May 24 at Belmont. Getting first-time Lasix for his return, the bay was reserved early, advance into contention with a three-deep move on the second turn, took over with less than a furlong to go and proved best. Favored Central Lobby stumbled at the start and could not make up lost ground late.
