SECOND TIME'S NOT THE CHARM Unheralded Almutawakel (GB) (Machiavellian), from the vast barn of trainer Saeed bin Suroor, sprung a 44-1 surprise in the $5 million G1 Dubai World Cup at Nad-al-Sheba yesterday, defeating American-based Malek (Chi) (Mocito Guapo {Arg}) by three parts of a length. Last year's Belmont S. winner Victory Gallop (Cryptoclearance) was another 3/4 of a length back in third. The biggest disappointment of the day was the lackluster performance of defending champion Silver Charm (Silver Buck), who recovered quickly from a stumbling start and was in striking position with three furlongs to run, but flattened out and finished a distant sixth. Jockey Gary Stevens said of Silver Charm, "He didn't jump well and I knew I was in trouble after an eighth of a mile. He was moving soundly under me, but never gave me a good feel. I tried to make headway at the half-mile, but nothing happened, so I just took care of him as he's been such a good servant to us." The victory capped a career day for jockey Richard Hills who also had the winning mount aboard Altibr (Diesis {GB}) in the $500,000 Dubai Duty Free some 45 minutes before the big race. Almutawakel took up a stalking position from the outside behind front-running Central Park (Ire) (In The Wings {GB}) for the opening five furlongs. The eventual winner made steady progress while still on the outside, hit the front with a quarter mile to run and withstood all challenges in a determined victory. Of his winning trip, Hills said, "We were very content to stay slightly on the outside. He really tried hard for me in the last furlong." The Englishman added, "It doesn't get any better than this. This is a dream come true for me." The victory was the second World Cup title for the Godolphin "home team" which sent out Singspiel (Ire) to win the 1997 World Cup. "It was a great performance by horse and jockey," said Sheikh Mohammed al Maktoum, hosting his fourth World Cup. "That the winner was trained by Godolphin makes it even better. I thought High-Rise (Ire) (High Estate {Ire}) and Daylami (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}) would improve from the trial, but maybe they don't like the sand." Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum, owner and breeder of the winner, added, "That was a very long final quarter-mile. I always told them to keep this horse in training as a four-year-old. I knew he needed time and didn't want him to be over-raced as a three-year-old. It's a great thrill to win this race and I must congratulate my brother Sheikh Mohammed for all the work he has put into the race."

Lightly raced Almutawakel, homebred by Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum and carrying his colors, gave the Maktoum family its second World Cup win under a perfectly time ride by Richard Hills. Seventh in the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket last May, Almutawakel captured the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly and was second in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris. Shipped to Dubai for the winter, he had impressed in workouts leading up to this event, winning the trial for local horses. Settled in fourth while Central Park (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) set a strong pace from Malek, Silver Charm (Silver Buck) and Daylami (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}), Almutawakel closed on the leaders at the five-eighths pole and pursued Central Park into the stretch, grabbing the lead at the quarter-pole. Victory Gallop made good progress from the rear and made a strong move to challenge the leader while Malek came again. Almutawakel battled on and had enough left in reserve to withstand Malek while Victory Gallop's run petered out. Winning jockey Richard Hills said, "Everything went right, we got into the right positions at the right time. He was always traveling well and dug deep when it mattered." Malek represents the third runner-up finish for trainer Dick Mandella in the four-year history of the race, but he was not disappointed with his trainee's effort. "I am extremely pleased with the way he ran," said Mandella and jested of his "bad luck." "If I keep writing it on the board, I might get it right," he said.

SAINT BALLADO FILLY SWIFTEST AT OBS

PREVIEW A bay filly by Saint Ballado--Cope With a Lady (Copelan) turned in the fastest quarter-mile work at yesterday's final Under Tack Show for the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's March Selected Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training in Ocala, Florida. Selling Wednesday as hip number 450 and consigned by Gold Crest Farm, agent, she covered the distance in :21 1/5. The filly worked an eighth-mile in :10 2/5 in last week's Preview, the co-fastest work at the distance that day. Hip number 305, Rich Timber (Rizzi--Timber Ghost {Great Above}) posted the fastest three-furlong work of yesterday's session, stopping the timer in :34 1/5. Consigned by Mark Casse, agent, the colt worked the same distance last Sunday in a bullet :35 1/5. Nine youngsters tied for the fastest eighth-mile work of :10 2/5. They were: Hip number 302, a Sultry Song colt; hip 330, a Phone Trick colt; hip 382, a colt by Honor Grades; hip 393, a Two Punch colt; hip 442, a colt by Devil His Due; hip 481, a colt by Fly So Free; hip 485, a colt by Sultry Song; hip 486, a Lines of Power colt; and hip 489, a filly by Rubiano. The March Sale is set for Tuesday and Wednesday, Mar. 30-31, with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Stravinsky Defeated in '99 Bow:

Stravinsky (Nureyev), early favorite for the Sagitta 2,000 Guineas at Newmarket, suffered a quick fall from grace with the bookmakers after a narrow loss to Tarfaa (Ire) (Nigh Shift) in his 1999 debut in a conditions race yesterday at The Curragh in Ireland. According to trainer Aidan O'Brien, Stravinsky, third in last year's G1 Dewhurst S., did not take to the soft ground. Bookmakers Coral dropped the former Guineas favorite from 5-1 to 12-1, with Mujahid (Danzig) now the 7-2 choice. The Tote has removed Stravinsky from its book altogether.

Altibr and Spindrift competed in all three legs of this winter's Al Maktoum Challenge over this surface, the latter defeating Altibr in the first and last legs. Altibr was an 11-length victor of the nine-furlong middle leg Feb. 11, with Spindrift just missing the place spot in third. Act IV proved to be another two-horse event, with Altibr showing the way right from the starting gate and setting strong fractions of 1:10 1/5 for six furlongs and 1:34 2/5 for the mile before cruising home to an easy and unchallenged victory. Spindrift, forwardly placed throughout, was well clear of Lord Of Men for the runner-up spot.

Fruits Of Love won last summer's G2 Princess of Wales S. at Newmarket at this trip, his only victory in 1998. The bay was last seen on the turf at Sha Tin in Hong Kong when finishing fifth, beaten 4 1/4 lengths in the G2 International Vase Dec. 13. Caitano made most of the early running here, with the undefeated G1 St Leger winner and favored Nedawi saving ground three lengths back in third and Fruits Of Love towards midpack. As the field reached the quarter pole, Nedawi overtook Caitano and looked the winner, when on the grandstand side came the fresh and persistent challenge of Fruits Of Love. The two rivals battled side-by-side down to the line, with Fruits Of Love getting the better of the battle to tally the victory.

On the Triple Crown trail for the first half of 1998, Parade Ground took beautifully to the grass for the summer's graded stakes, including the Gil National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. at Saratoga Aug. 10 and closed out his three-year-old campaign with a strong third-place effort in the GI Canadian International at Woodbine Oct. 18. The colt was off since as trainer Neil Howard shopped around for spots to run his charge. The other 11 starters in the Bougainvillea were none too pleased that this is where the imposing bay ended up. Under Pat Day, Parade Ground was tenth early and had only two rivals beaten at the three-eighths marker, but once into the stretch, Day cut his mount loose and the colt stormed powerfully down the center of the racetrack to lead inside the final 100 yards and win going away under a hand ride.

What a difference a year makes. Lord Smith would sooner forget his 1998 campaign, which saw him go winless in five starts, with only a minor placing in the GIII Cinema H. at Hollypark to show for his efforts. Since hitting the track in 1999, the gelding was a perfect three-for-three, including a pair of allowance victories, and his first graded stakes triumph in his most recent effort, a very game performance in the GII Arcadia H. at one mile over the Santa Anita turf Mar. 6. The rival he outgamed in that event was the turf star Hawksley Hill, who was back to challenge again, this time without blinkers. Jockey Garrett Gomez took advantage of what appeared to be a paceless field and put Lord Smith on the front, leading his 11 rivals through three-quarters in a pedestrian 1:15 2/5. Hawksley Hill for his part was saving ground, waiting for just the right time to launch his assault on the lead. By the eighth pole, it was still Lord Smith by two, with Hawksley Hill, now in the clear, gobbling up ground with every stride, and though he got to the neck of his rival in deep stretch, he could not get by that one and Lord Smith recorded his fourth consecutive victory. Gomez said of his mount, "The other colt (Hawksley Hill) came up to us like he did the other day, but when it comes down to fighting, my colt's a pretty good fighter." Next up, Lord Smith vs. Lennox Lewis?

Forestry, a $1.5 million yearling, was caught late to finish second in his Jan. 2 debut and returned to win a Jan. 24 seven-furlong maiden race before finishing third in a Feb. 19 allowance test last time out. Facing stakes company for the first time and making his inaugural trip with David Flores in the irons, the bay colt raced just behind the early pacesetters, snuck through along the rail at midstretch, brushing Sea Twister, and drew clear late. "I knew I was sitting on a lot of horse the whole way and I was just patient," explained Flores. "The other horse (Sea Twister) made it tight on us in the stretch, but my horse has a lot of heart and wasn't scared to go up inside there."

Good Lady Luck returned from a six-month hiatus to win while sprinting over the Bay Meadows main track Jan. 29, but disappointed as the favorite over the same track and distance in her last start Feb. 11. Back on the turf here, the filly jumped out to set the early pace and led by as much as 4 1/2 lengths before gamely holding off Housekeeper for a narrow win.

Scoop of Ice came into this event in peak form, coming from off the pace to win a Feb. 15 allowance at this trip going away at the wire by two lengths and earning a triple-digit Beyer Speed Figure (101). Backed down to favoritism off that effort, the Cal-bred was in tight early but recovered and raced four wide on the turn, bid for the lead three deep in the stretch and drew away late.

FIBONACCI (IRE) (c, 4, Alzao--Kate Marie {SP-Fr}, by Bering {GB}) had been badly beaten in three of his four U.S. starts since arriving from France late last year, but scored a 37-1 wire-to-wire victory in an optional claimer Feb. 3 at this course and distance. The longest shot in this five-horse field at 7.70-1, Fibonacci sat behind a moderate pace, came up the rail and ran down the pacesetter to win by three-quarters of a length. CHASETHERAGINGWIND (f, 4, Dayjur--Race the Wild Wind {GISW, $458,250}, by Sunny's Halo) was second by 3/4 of a length in a turf sprint at Hollywood Park Dec. 18 off a six-month hiatus, and got yet another rest before returning to the races in her last at this trip Feb. 19, setting the pace down the hill and into the stretch before faltering to finish third by 2 1/4 lengths. The 17-10 favorite to make amends in this spot stalked the pace from second, took over in upper stretch and drew clear to win it by two. Lifetime Record: 8-1-1-3, $46,790.
