BAFFERT THROWS DOWN DERBY

"CHALLENGE" AT SANTA ANITA With his sights firmly set on a third consecutive Kentucky Derby victory, trainer Bob Baffert yesterday came out with a one-two punch in the $750,000 GI Santa Anita Derby. The flashy General Challenge (General Meeting), bouncing back from his first loss--a fifth-place finish in the Mar. 14 GII Louisiana Derby--was pulling away at the wire as his slightly more favored stablemate Prime Timber (Sultry Song) closed to be second, beaten 3 1/2 lengths, to complete the combination. "I knew he could do that," Baffert said of the winner, who was wearing blinkers for the first time. "He's just learning how to run. (The blinkers) made the difference. He's a big goofy son-of-a-gun--he needed them." As for the runner-up, Baffert revealed, "(Friday), he was dead lame in the back. We saw there was a bruise there, so we soaked it. I was going to scratch him, but we waited until this morning and he was good on it. This is really going to set him up for the (Kentucky Derby). He ran the same race (here) that Real Quiet did last year." Looking ahead to the first Saturday in May, the trainer said, "If I can keep these two together, I'm armed really well." Desert Hero (Sea Hero), the second choice in tight betting in what was only his third start, lost his footing for a moment at the start, recovered to sit just off the pace, came with his run on the far turn and finished third while no match for the top two. "He broke so hard and the track was a little loose where we were," jockey Corey Nakatani said. "But he picked himself back up and put in a tremendous effort." But trainer Richard Mandella was less enthusiastic, saying, "I can't make any excuses. For his third start, I thought it was a good race. We just hope that he improves as he goes along." As for running for the roses, he said, "I have no idea yet." The winner's connections almost came to blows over who would ride in the Santa Anita Derby, but in the end it was decided that Gary Stevens would retain the mount, as Chris McCarron, who claimed to have the call, agreed to pilot High Wire Act (End Sweep). But the replacement mount tired badly after setting the pace and ran last, 18 lengths behind the next-to-last finisher. (SA Derby chart, p2)

What more can be said about Silverbulletday? The champion two-year-old filly of 1998 came into this test on a six-race winning streak, including a pair of facile victories so far in 1999, both in New Orleans, the Feb. 20 GIII Davona Dale and the Mar. 13 GIII Fair Grounds Oaks, a race in which the Bob Baffert trainee was asked to negotiate a wet track for the first time. She reported home a three-length winner that day and that experience in the goo served her well in this race. Marley Vale burst out of the gate and sprinted to a clear early lead, heading the field by 3 1/2 lengths down the backstretch, with jockey Jerry Bailey, aboard the champ, content to sit off the front-runners back in third. As the field reached the far turn, Bailey had the Eclipse winner in full stride as she went after the lead while three wide, collared the pacesetter entering the short stretch and drew off with authority for her second Grade I triumph. Her final time shaved a full second off the stakes record and was only four-fifths off the track record. Despite trailing by as many as seven lengths in the early stages, Bailey, deputizing for regular jockey Gary Stevens, was never concerned. "In the first turn, she threw her ears up and she really got herself into the race," he said. "She's as good a filly as I've ever ridden." Will we see the "Bullet" in the Derby? "If it was my decision, my answer right now would be no," said winning owner Mike Pegram.

General Challenge started his career a perfect three-for-three, including a victory in the Jan. 31 GII Santa Catalina S., but came up empty in his latest and finished fifth in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 14. Back on his home turf, the eye-catching chestnut prompted the pace from the outside early, came flying on those four white legs to take over the lead as they raced into the far turn and drew away down the lane in an impressive performance. "I was full of confidence from the time the gates opened," jockey Gary Stevens said. "You know, sometimes they need to be knocked around a little bit and have some dirt kicked in their faces, like he did in the race in Louisiana. They either move forward or they go in the other direction, and that's where you can separate the good ones from the mediocre ones. This was a big task for him today, a big hurdle to cross, and he did it with flying colors." Prime Timber, also from the Bob Baffert brigade, coming off a win in the GII San Felipe Mar. 13, was the slight choice. He bobbed a bit at the break, enjoyed a ground-saving trip, then came with his rally in the stretch, but could not threaten the top one. Jockey David Flores said, "I got him out in the middle of the turn and he gave me a great run through the last part. I'm pretty happy with the way he finished and he is going to get something out of this race. The extra distance is going to help this horse." The runner-up is in great shape as Baffert goes for the three-peat. His two previous Kentucky Derby winners have been second in this event. Honest Lady (Seattle Slew), the lone filly in the field, pressed the pace from the inside, but weakened to be seventh. "I definitely think something is amiss," jockey Kent Desormeaux said. "She just wasn't herself today."

With Bob Baffert declining the highweight of 122 pounds for Real Quiet, the public made Behrens the choice off his score in the GI Gulfstream Park H. Feb. 27. Jockey Jorge Chavez kept the five-year-old just off of the quick pace set by Littlebitlively, stablemate and rabbit for defending race champion Precocity. After hitting the three-quarters in 1:09 4/5 on the sloppy track, Chavez moved Behrens three-wide around the final turn to take on the pacesetter, but that one was not ready to quit and battled the winner, finally giving ground late while Precocity closed strongly from last to be third. "They told me, don't get in trouble," said Chavez. "The horse did everything. I never (rode) him on a sloppy track and I didn't know how he was going to handle it. But it was sloppy-fast and he just kind of skipped over it." Second choice Dr Fong (Kris S.), coming off two good starts on dirt, his only races on the surface, never seemed to get his footing and finished a non-threatening fourth. Behrens was one of 1997's better three-year-olds, but was a major disappointment last year; he was beaten a total of 49 lengths in his four starts, running a distant fifth in the Dubai World Cup and with only one third-place finish to show for the season. This year, he is a new horse, with two seconds and now a pair of Grade I wins. "This colt was outstanding as a three-year-old," said trainer H. James Bond. "After the (seventh in the 1997) Breeders' Cup (Classic), everybody kind of wrote this horse off. And 1998 was a disaster after Dubai. Now he has come back and we have something to build on." Bond said that Behrens' next start would likely be the May 29 GIII Massachusetts H. at Suffolk Downs.

*Early Pioneer (Rahy) finished second, but was disqualified and placed fourth.

This race had the potential to be a colossal clash of left coast sprint titans, but Kona Gold, runner-up to Big Jag in each of his last two starts, was not here, and the connections of Breeders' Cup Sprint champion Reraise chose to ship to Hot Springs for this Thursday's Count Fleet H. Big Jag for his part has turned into monster, winning seven of his eight starts prior to this race, including a pair of Grade II events, the Jan. 30 Palos Verdes H. and most recently the Mar. 6 San Carlos H. Winning jockey Jose Valdivia saw a speed duel develop in front of him and tucked comfortably in behind dueling front-runners Early Pioneer (Rahy) and Son Of A Pistol. The gelding made a threatening move for the lead rounding the far turn and was carried out by the drifting Early Pioneer at the head of the stretch, but gradually wore down that rival for the victory. The latter was the subject of a steward's inquiry for interfering with Son Of A Pistol and was subsequently placed fourth. Valdivia commented on the winner, "This horse feels like a machine to me. I've never been on one that can run the way he does. He's something else, that's for sure." Winning conditioner Tim Pinfield indicated Big Jag would get a two-to-three week rest before any decisions are made regarding his next start.

Ladies Din was the winner of a trio of graded stakes last summer, including the GII Oak Tree Derby over this trip, before closing his three-year-old campaign with a fourth-place finish in the GI Hollywood Derby. He returned to the races in the GII Arcadia H. at eight furlongs Mar. 6, fading late to report home third. The gelding should appreciate the added furlong of today's event. Majorien, 10th in the 1997 Breeders' Cup Turf and second in last year's G2 Prix D'Harcourt at Longchamp, took a one-mile allowance over this turf Feb. 18 and could be primed for a big effort. Kirkwall took the GIII Tanforan H. over a yielding turf course at Bay Meadows and was most recently fifth in the San Marino H. Feb. 20 at 10 furlongs.

Wood Hopefuls on Work Tab:

Robin Goodfellow (Robyn Dancer), third in the GIII Gotham S. last out, worked six furlongs in 1:12 over the Aqueduct main track yesterday. The colt makes his next start in the GII Wood Memorial S. at the Big A Apr. 10. Also prepping for the Wood Saturday morning was trainer John Kimmel's Wood candidate Swamp (Slew City Slew). The winner of the GIII Palm Beach S. and GIII Everglades S. on the grass in his last two, he makes his dirt debut in the 1 1/8-mile Wood after working three-quarters in 1:12 3/5 at Gulfstream. "He'll fly to New York Monday and just gallop up until the Wood," Kimmel said.

Lemon Drop Kid Sharp at Keeneland:

Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), winner of the GI Futurity last season and one-for-one this year after taking a 1 1/16-mile Gulfstream allowance Feb. 27, sped through five furlongs in :58 3/5 at Keeneland yesterday morning. With exercise rider George Martens, an Eclipse Award winner as an apprentice jockey, in the irons, the colt eased through fractions of :24, :36 and :47 before galloping out the six furlongs in an eye-catching 1:10 3/5. "He really loves this racetrack, or he did this morning," trainer Scotty Schulhofer. "He did it so easily. We didn't ask him, he did it all on his own. He's as good as I can get him right now. He's feeling awfully good. I'll tell you the truth, I think this colt is as good as any horse I've ever had. Maybe he hasn't won the big races or proven it yet, but I really think he is the best. He is so professional. He eats and he sleeps and he runs."

Given some time off since then, the dark bay prepped well for this, going a bullet three panels in the Churchill mud Apr. 1 in :36 1/5. GOAL FOR ADAM (c, 3, Strike the Gold--Crimlette, by Replant), coming off tepid fourth at a mile on Mar. 21, rebounded with the easiest of scores here. Going two turns for the first time, the chestnut was close along the rail early, took the lead after six furlongs and drew away to crush the field by 11 lengths at 5-2. The winner was a $15,000 KEENOV weanling, a $30,000 FTMSEP yearling and a $60,000 FTFEB two-year-old. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $27,360. O-Anstu Stables. B-T & P L Staley (FL). T-T A Pletcher.

Cowdin Winner to Return to Sprints:

Successful Appeal (Valid Appeal), winner of the Gill Cowdin S. at two, but off the board in both the 1 1/16-mile GI Fountain of Youth and one-mile Gill Gotham S. in his two outings this year, will drop back to a seven-furlong sprint for his next start. "He'll go in either the Bay Shore (Gill at Aqueduct Apr. 10) or the Lafayette (Gill at Keeneland, Apr. 7)," trainer John Kimmel said. The colt worked five furlongs in an easy 1:04 1/5 over the Belmont training track yesterday.

TNT Stud nearly won the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in 1995 when Cara Rafaela, a daughter of Quiet American, was caught in the shadow of the wire by My Flag. With the victory of First American in the Flamingo S., they can now start dreaming of the first Saturday in May. First American had a very solid campaign at Gulfstream this winter, finishing two lengths back of GII Gallery Furniture.com hero Stephen Got Even two back and most recently looming boldly at the top of the stretch of the Mar. 13 GI Florida Derby before finishing fifth, beaten only 2 1/2 lengths. Racing well in hand in the early stages of this event with blinkers once again added to his equipment, the colt settled nicely in midpack through the opening three-quarters in an honest 1:10 3/5. Jockey Jose Velez swept his mount into contention while four wide on the final turn, collared front-running Forty One Carats at the three-sixteenths pole and drew away despite taking the scenic route in the final eighth. Said trainer Eduard Caramori, "He showed too much speed when we put blinkers on his last fall...he learned to relax this year and ran well, but we thought this was the time to try (blinkers) again. He'll fly to Kentucky Monday and go to Churchill Downs to point for the Derby." Favored Prime Directive (Tactical Advantage) raced wide on the first turn, was in contention at the half-mile pole, but stopped abruptly and finished sixth, beaten 18 1/2 lengths. "I'm disappointed--he's better than that," trainer Pat Byrne said. "We'll go ahead and scope him and figure out why he stopped. The Derby is not possible."

Sky Heights led throughout to post a length victory from Arena. Jockey Glen Boss said: "When I got to the front he just got slower and slower and I couldn't believe how easily he was traveling. At the 800-meter mark I knew we wouldn't be beaten. I've won races like the Golden Slipper, but I can't describe how it feels to win a classic like this." The winner, who goes next in the 10-furlong Queen Elizabeth S. at Randwick Apr. 17, will be aimed at the Caulfield-Melbourne Cup double, according to trainer Col Alderson. "I'd like to be bold enough to say he is the new Might And Power (NZ), but that's a big call," Alderson said. "But you can't ask any horse to do more than he's done. I have said all along he will be at his best in the spring."

The winning jockey, South African Michael Roberts, riding his 1,200th winner in Britain, said, "This was Dehoush's first time round a bend, and he was bumped entering the straight which knocked him off balance, so I had to steady him back. But after I switched my whip, he really picked it up, only to then jump the path across the track 20 yards short of the line. Bionic out of English 1000 Guineas:

Trainer Henry Cecil revealed yesterday that Prince Khaled Abdullah's unbeaten filly Bionic (GB) (Zafonic), ante-post favorite for the G1 Sagitta 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 2, returned lame from a work on the gallops and will now miss the fillies' classic. He said, "The filly will be X-rayed over the weekend, but we believe she has sustained a hairline fracture of the pelvis. She could be out of action for the next three months, but we will wait until after the X-rays have been taken before we make a further announcement." Bionic established herself as winter favorite for the 1000 Guineas with an impressive four-length win in a Goodwood maiden last July.
