SANTA ANITA DERBY FOLLOW-UP Aside from the usual bumps and scratches, all equine participants in Saturday's Santa Anita Derby came out of the race in good order. Of the human connections, Bob Baffert, trainer of the winner General Challenge (General Meeting) and the runner-up Prime Timber (Sultry Song), has once again come out of the West Coast's premier Derby Prep looking rosier than anyone. "They're two really good horses," said Baffert, who will be attempting to win his third Kentucky Derby in a row. "They're the kind of horses you want to go to the Derby with." Prime Timber's second-place finish looks even better today when it was revealed that the colt lost his right hind shoe on the first turn. Third-place finisher Desert Hero (Sea Hero) came out of the race in good shape, according to trainer Richard Mandella, who added, "We have no plan right now. Anything's possible. We'll watch him for a week and see. The (Apr. 24, GIII) Derby Trial is a possibility." Fourth-place finisher Charismatic (Summer Squall) has already arrived in Kentucky and will go in either the GII Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland Apr. 18 or head straight to the Kentucky Derby. Juddmonte Farm's Honest Lady (Seattle Slew) emerged from her seventh-place finish in good order and may try the Senorita S. at a mile on turf at Hollywood Apr. 24. High Wire Act (End Sweep), who set the pace to the far turn before fading to last, had his saddle slip during the race. No plans for the colt were announced.

'EXCELLENT' TO OAKS, SILVERBULLETDAY'S DERBY HOPES STILL ALIVE Bob Baffert said Golden Eagle Farm's GII Fantasy S. winner Excellent Meeting (General Meeting) will run against her female counterparts in the GI Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Apr. 30. However, he still hasn't ruled out running GI Ashland S. winner Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) versus the boys in the Kentucky Derby. "If we went with a filly in the Derby, it would be Silverbulletday," said Baffert. Should the filly run in the Derby, her owner Mike Pegram would have a chance at becoming the first back-to-back Derby-winning owner since Meadow Stable won with Riva Ridge in 1972 and Secretariat in 1973.

3--Ladies Din, 119, g, 4, Din's Dancer--Ladies Double, by Kris S.. O-Lanni J Terrence, Schiappa Bernard & Sloan Mike; B-Meadowbrook Farms, Inc (FL); $18,000.

Margins: 1 1/4, 1 1/4, NK. Odds: 3.10, 2.00, 1.50.

Also Ran: Night Player (Ire), Martiniquais (Ire), Kirkwall (GB), Opine. Scratched: Almond Rock (GB).

Laid off since finishing fourth behind Ladies Din in the GIII La Jolla H. at Del Mar Aug. 16, Commitisize put in a respectable effort against top older horses such as Lord Smith and Hawksley Hill in the Mar. 6 GII Arcadia H. where he finished fourth after setting the early pace. On paper, it was clear that Commitisize would make an easy lead in this event. The question that had to be answered was how long will the lead last? Breaking from the far outside, the chestnut sped to an early 1 1/2-length advantage, jogged around the first turn and down the backstretch, then dug in courageously to fend off his challengers at the top of the stretch and held over a fast-closing Majorien to score the win. "There wasn't a lot of speed in the race," said trainer Bob Baffert. "They let us walk the walk, and we got to talk the talk." Jockey David Flores added, "This horse is a pro and he knows what he's doing, especially when he's on the lead like he was today. When I picked up the reins in the last part of the race, he really picked it up and finished so well." Of the runner-up's performance, jockey Kent Desormeaux said, "I'm just frustrated in running out of ground, that's all. It was a pacesetter race and it cost me a victory today. When you're full of run under the wire, that's frustrating."

Sunday, Longchamp:

3--Sayarshan (Fr), 127, c, 4, Darshaan (GB)--Sayyara (GB), by Kris (GB). O-Jean-Luc Lagardere; B-SNC Lagardere Elevage; $9,960.

Margins: 1HF, NK, 3/4. Odds: 36-10, Even.

Also ran: Epistolaire (Ire).

Winner of three of his six starts in 1998, including the G3 Perpetual St Simon S. at Newmarket at the end of October, Dark Moondancer was sold privately during the winter and joined the stable of Alain de Royer-Dupre at Chantilly. On his first start for his new trainer, he finished well to be fourth to Barbola in the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 13 in his most recent effort. Sent straight to the lead from the stalls here, he led setting a steady pace, but always traveling well within himself. He continued to lead into the straight from Sayarshan and always had plenty in hand to comfortably withstand the late finish of Barbola. The G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp May 2 is the next target for the winner. Barbola could also go for the Prix Ganay or wait for a Group 1 race in Italy later in May, according to trainer Jean de Roualle.

A pair of GI Toyota Blue Grass probables were out for work over the muddy strip at Churchill Downs yesterday morning. The winner of the Tampa Bay Derby in his last start, Pineaff (Pine Bluff) stopped the timer in 1:00 1/5 for his five furlong work. Trainer Kenny McPeck has given jockey Jose Santos a return call for the Blue Grass. GII Louisiana Derby victor Kimberlite Pipe (Take Me Out) splashed through his five panels in a snappy :59 1/5 and will retain the services of the Fair Grounds' leading rider Robby Albarado for Saturday's race.

Millions (Dehere), seventh as the odds-on favorite in the Mar. 27 Private Terms S., will make his next start in the Apr. 17 Federico Tesio S. at Pimlico, bypassing this weekend's Wood Memorial. Trainer Leon Blusiewicz indicated that the GII Remsen runner-up came out of the race with a lung infection and is officially off the Derby trail.

Margins: 4, 5 1/4, HF. Odds: 1.75, 1.05, 40.35.

Sir Lloyd may have stamped himself a leading contender for the Canadian summer classics with his first stakes victory in only his second start. The chestnut was unveiled late in his two-year-old campaign to dismantle a field of maidens Dec. 5 in front-running style by five lengths going five-eighths of a mile. Employing similar tactics in this spot, Sir Lloyd established a comfortable pace under a snug hold, shook loose at the quarter pole and waltzed home an easy winner, getting the final quarter in :23 4/5. "It'll be a tough road to the Plate," said trainer Reade Baker. "It's a matter of slowing him down a little bit in the morning if we are going to get a mile and a quarter. We'll go back in the Queenston S. (May 8)."

Normally a good guide for horses with classic intentions, this race turned out to be inconclusive with 1 1/2 lengths covering the first six home. Sargari (Indian Ridge {Ire}) led the field at a steady pace with Valiramix racing close-up in second with a keen Fils De Viane in third. The running order was the same until the field reached the home straight, where the race turned into a sprint. Valiramix finally got the better of Sargari at the furlong marker, but Fils De Viane got the perfect split between horses 100 yards from the wire and ran on well for a head success. The favorite, Vanishing World, ran on strongly to grab third on the line. Fils De Viane will now point to the G2 Prix Greffulhe at Longchamp, Apr. 25.
