N.E.W.S TODAY

KRONE TO ANNOUNCE RETIREMENT Jockey Julie Krone will announce her retirement at a press conference today at Aqueduct, sources have told the Thoroughbred Daily News. Krone will likely ride for the last time Apr. 18 at Lone Star Park outside Dallas, Tx where she will be aboard Desert Demon for trainer Michael Stidham in the Lone Star Derby. Should Desert Demon graduate to any of the Triple Crown races, Krone will delay her retirement until after the three-race series is over. When reached yesterday, Krone would neither confirm nor deny that she was retiring, but hinted that the end is indeed near. "I couldn't be happier with the way I've been riding lately, but there's no doubt that I'm facing some tough decisions about my future," Krone said. "Mentally, I'm doing great, but, physically, all these years of riding and all the accidents have taken a toll on me." Despite missing the beginning of the meet while recovering from a broken knee, Krone is coming off a solid season at the Fair Grounds, where she won 76 races from 392 mounts. She became the only woman jockey to win a Triple Crown race after guiding Colonial Affair to victory in the 1993 Belmont S. and her 3,540 career victories easily make her the leading female rider of all time.

BROCCO COLT TOPS SECOND EASTER

SESSION The second session of the three-day Inglis Easter Yearling Sale at the Newmarket sale complex in Sydney, Australia concluded last night on a strong average of AUS$109,622 ($68,262) for 86 sold and 20 passed in, bringing the sale's overall average to AUS$121,653 ($75,754), up 12.6 percent from last year. But expectations of high prices--as has been the case during the glamour night session in previous years--were not fulfilled. The top price on the night was a relatively modest AUS$340,000 ($211,719) for a Brocco colt out of Stormy Hill (Aus) (Danehill), who won a Group 2 event while racing in South Africa. Randwick trainer Graeme Rogerson was the most active buyer with seven lots, bringing his tally to 10 for more than AUS$1.5 million ($934,057). The sale is expected to gather momentum again today with several highly regarded yearlings yet to go under the hammer.

PRIX EDMOND BLANC-G3 results

Gold Away, second to Almutawakel (GB) in the G1 Prix Jean Prat and to Desert Prince (Ire) in the G1 Prix du Moulin last year, returned to the winner's circle in no uncertain terms, beating a high-class field while giving weight all round for the in-form owner-breeder-trainer-jockey combination. The winner broke sharply and led for the first quarter mile, but would not settle for jockey Olivier Doleuze. Miss Berbere (Fr) (Bering {GB}) took over the running as Doleuze restrained his mount in third along the rail. Turning for home Miss Berbere was challenged briefly by Massimo (Fr) (Lead On Time), but Gold Away was pulled around horses and delivered a perfectly timed challenge at the eighth pole, quickened well and ran on for a comfortable success. A delighted winning trainer Criquelette Head enthused: "Gold Away is a true miler, even though he did win the (9f 55yd) G3 Prix de Guiche and was second in the (9f) G1 Prix Jean Prat. He should come on a lot for this race and will come back in the G2 Prix du Muguet, also at Saint-Cloud, on Apr. 24."

The bay colt, racing three wide, stalked the pacesetters, rallied in the stretch and got up late for a 3/4-length win. "I thought I was in the perfect spot at the half-mile pole--sitting just where I wanted to be," jockey Larry Melancon commented after the winning ride. "I went to the whip at the quarter pole because this is a big gangly type and I wasn't expecting a quick explosive move when I hit him, but more of a grinding effort through the stretch. He gave me 100 percent all the way down the lane and got the job done."

In his most recent, he recovered enough to close well and finish third Mar. 11. Off to a clean but slow start in this event, the 7-2 shot came six wide entering the stretch, collared the leaders at the eighth pole and won by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 12-4-0-2, $107,122.
