ALJABR TOPS SECOND DUBAI DERBY TRIAL

Aljabr (Storm Cat) won the second private Kentucky Derby trial held by Godolphin yesterday in Dubai over nine furlongs at Nad Al Sheba Racecourse. Aljabr beat Michigan (Ire) (Mujadil) by a neck, with 15 lengths back to the third horse. Seven horses ran in the trial which took place at 6 p.m. local time. The winning time was 1:48.37. Michigan, unbeaten in two runs in Europe last year, has been working very well on sand and it was said to be no surprise to Godolphin that he ran so well yesterday. He is not entered in the Triple Crown races. Aljabr, ridden by Frankie Dettori, and Michigan were together for the last two furlongs before the former asserted his superiority. Simon Crisford, the Godolphin racing manager, said afterwards, "We were very pleased with Aljabr and the way he went about his business. He will have benefited a lot from this second trial as he needed more experience of racing on sand. We were very happy with the way he finished and the next stepping-stone will be the Kentucky Derby." Another Dubai-based Godolphin challenger for the Kentucky Derby, Worldly Manner (Riverman), won the first trial by a length over Aljabr Sunday, Mar. 21. Godolphin also sends Prado's Landing (El Prado {Ire}) in Saturday's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland, after which Godolphin will finalize its Kentucky Derby plans. Up to a dozen horses will fly from Dubai to the U.S. Apr. 19, taking off from Dubai in a chartered plane at 2 a.m. local time and touching down in Lexington before midday local time. The plane will make a brief stop at Shannon in Ireland. The horses will spend 48 hours in quarantine at Keeneland and then be stabled at Churchill Downs.

BATTLE FOR 'UNBRIDLED' SUPREMACY AT OAKLAWN

Two daughters of Unbridled, Banshee Breeze and Manistique will clash at Oaklawn Park today in the GI Apple Blossom S. looking to gain an early advantage in the race for older female divisional honors. Banshee Breeze won the Eclipse Award for top three-year-old filly last year after registering victories in the GI Alabama S., the GI Spinster S. and finishing second in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. She comes into this off an easy score in the GII Rampart H. at Gulfstream Feb. 28. Manistique began last year with three 10-length romps, including a win in the GII Hollywood Oaks. She was the 1-2 favorite when these two first met in the Alabama, but suffered a displaced palate and could only finish third. She has reeled off four consecutive graded wins, all in California, since suffering her lone defeat. Surprisingly, the trainers of both fillies seem to be most concerned about the hot local entry Sister Act (Saint Ballado), who wired the field by two lengths in the Oaklawn Breeders' Cup H. three weeks ago. "The weights are completely unfair," Banshee Breeze's trainer Carl Nafzger told Daily Racing Form. "We're being asked to give eight pounds to a top filly over her racetrack and her distance. Believe me, if there was somewhere else to go with my filly, I'd go." Days earlier Manistique's conditioner John Shirreffs told DRF, "If Sister Act is as good as everyone says she is, I don't understand how she gets 114 pounds. That looks like a little home cooking to me." Pace appears to be the most important factor in today's race. The presence of California speedster Belle's Flag (Avenue of Flags), Sister Act and Manistique should produce lively early fractions which could set things up for Banshee Breeze's late run. However, Manistique has proven in her last two starts that she can relax off hot fractions as well, and she may get first run entering the stretch.

DERBY PREPS DOMINATE WEEKEND RACING

Trainer Bob Baffert showed his hand for the 125th running of the Kentucky Derby by running one-two in last weekend's GI Santa Anita Derby. On Saturday, the other guys get to show their stuff in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland, the GII Wood Memorial at Aqueduct and the GII Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn. In the Blue Grass, GI Florida Derby runner-up Wondertross (Chief's Crown), from the stable of Nick Zito, was made the 5-2 morning-line favorite, but some prominent horsemen agree that it's a wide open race. "It certainly appears to be a very, very strong field," said Zito. Scotty Schulhofer, trainer of 9-2 shot Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), said, "Without question this is going to be the best of the prep races." Many observers will be watching Godolphin's 30-1 shot Prado's Landing (El Prado {Ire}), whose performance may offer a way to gauge the chances of Godolphin's top Derby hopefuls Aljabr and Worldly Manner. "We're looking for some answers from him, to see if he is of the caliber to go on to the Triple Crown races," said Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford. In Arkansas, Champion Two-Year-Old Answer Lively (Lively One), most recently second in the GIII Louisiana Derby, was installed as the 2-1 morning line favorite. Closing rapidly to run third in Louisiana, however, was 9-2 shot Ecton Park (Forty Niner), who will be ridden for the first time by Gary Stevens. "This horse is doing very well," reported assistant trainer David Fortner. "In the Louisiana Derby we were very, very pleased with his effort. He reminds me a little bit of Victory Gallop because he's a stretch runner." The Wood doesn't have any established superstars in it's 11-horse field, but 5-2 choice Badge (Air Forbes Won) is looking to prove his eight-length romp in the GIII Gotham S. was no fluke. "If you saw the Gotham, you have to believe that Badge won't have any problem getting two turns," said trainer Joe Aquilino. The three Triple Crown Preps also make up the Big Three Pick Three, a $1 wager available nationwide.

KRONE MAKES RETIREMENT OFFICIAL Julie Krone, the winningest female jockey of all-time, officially announced her retirement from racing yesterday in the press box at Aqueduct. Her last scheduled ride will be aboard Desert Demon in the Apr. 18 Lone Star Derby. She will ride beyond that date if Desert Demon goes on to any of the Triple Crown races or she picks up another Kentucky Derby mount. Although she cited a variety of reasons for her decision, it was the thought of another major injury that made her hang up her tack for good. Krone was hospitalized several times from race-related injuries throughout her career and most recently came back from a broken knee. "I'd rather go out on top both emotionally and physically," said Krone who finished third in the recently concluded Fair Grounds meet standings with 76 wins from 392 mounts. "I enjoy riding full-time," said Krone. "Working horses in the morning and riding in the afternoon. But it has become a little too much for my ankles and knees." At age 35, Krone is looking to move towards television and follow in the footsteps of fellow female rider Donna Barton, who retired last year and now works for ESPN covering horse racing. "I'm going to try and enjoy life and do things I never had the time for," said Krone. While she waits for television work and to complete her degree in psychology, Krone made it clear she has no intentions of ever coming back. "There is no chance of me riding again after the 18th," said Krone. Her biggest victory came when she won the 1993 Belmont S. aboard Colonial Affair, becoming the only female rider to win a Triple Crown race. She also noted winning five races in a day at Saratoga on Aug. 20, 1993 as one of her best accomplishments. But outside of racing, Krone was also happy to help make a change in the lives of young, female athletes who know of her story. "There have been hundreds of times when some girl would come up to me and say I'm the best player on my soccer team because of you," said Krone. Krone retires with 3,541 victories from 20,467 starts and earnings of over $81 million.

SYDNEY EASTER SALE COMES OF AGE Fueled by a strong international buying bench, the three-day Inglis Easter Yearling Sale concluded on an astonishing note last night in Sydney, Australia with a AUS$1.2 million ($747,245) filly and AUS$1 million ($622,704) colt contributing to the highest average, AUS$128,282 ($79,882), ever recorded at the sale. Inglis Managing Director Reg Inglis estimated foreign buyers accounted for about 40 percent of the sale gross. The third session average hit AUS$141,006 ($87,805) for 163 sold. Philippine-based Eduardo Cojuangco, who owns Gooree Stud in western New South Wales, came close to eclipsing the Australian record of AUS$1.25 million ($778,380) for a filly when his representative Tic Tic Trinidad outstayed Coolmore's Demi O'Byrne to purchase a daughter of Thunder Gulch out of Dancing Show (Nijinsky II) for AUS$1.2 million ($747,245). The filly, consigned by Cambridge Stud, is a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Hurricane Sky (Aus) (Star Watch {Aus}). The filly will go to Melbourne trainer Lee Freedman. "Mr Cojuangco had his heart set on her and I loved her, she has a brilliant pedigree and she has a lot of scope and upside," said Freedman. Former international jockey and self-described "rookie" trainer Gary Moore will prepare a AUS$1 million ($622,704) colt purchased by Patrick Biancone for Dr. Thomas Liang. The Danehill colt consigned by Coolmore Stud is out of All Grace (NZ) (Sir Tristram {Ire}), the dam of outstanding stayer Saintly (Aus). The yearling was bred by trainer Bart Cummings. Despite the sale's success, Reg Inglis criticized vendors who set reserves higher than the sale average, as 99 of 525 offered lots were passed in. "The number of horses passed in was ridiculous and I don't know why people bother bringing their horses to the sale," he said. "People come to buy and they bid substantial money, but it is one of the elements of a bouyant market--in 1989 a yearling was passed in at $500,000. But we have surpassed all expectations and it is a great credit to breeders in Australia that there was such a strong international bench with Gooree, Hong Kong and Sabina Plattner active." Among stallions, Danehill eclipsed his rivals with an average of AUS$318,404 ($198,271) for 47 lots sold. Thunder Gulch averaged AUS$169,767 ($105,715) for 28 lots sold and Dehere averaged AUS$113,281 ($70,541) for 16 sold.

Reraise had not started since capping his championship season with a win in last year's Breeders' Cup Sprint in November. The lightly raced gelding went up immediately to vie for the lead, took a 3 1/2-length advantage into the stretch and was never threatened in an easy victory. "We came here because the timing was right, the money and he is a good shipper," explained trainer Craig Dollase. "We had looked at another race briefly, but our horse isn't Breeders' Cup eligible, so we would have run for less money."

Pleasant Temper took a two-race win streak into this affair after daylight victories in a Feb. 19 Gulfstream allowance and in Tampa Bay's Mar. 21 Hillsborough S. Seeking her fourth win in five starts, the dark bay mare raced last early, rallied four wide with three furlongs to run, took charge at midstretch and continued to extend her advantage to the wire. "She settled in very nicely," commented winning rider Jerry Bailey. "I had a great spot to run and when I asked her, she accelerated very nicely. She just went right on with it. I was impressed." Witchful Thinking (Lord Avie), favored at 9-5, pressed the pace before tiring to fifth. "There might have been a couple of things that caught up with her today," explained Robby Albarado, who rode the beaten favorite. "A) she kind of got caught up on the lead today and that might have taken more out of her than we would have hoped for and B) it was her first race of the year and it might have caught her fitness-wise."

Vet's Lawyer Sues NYRA for $10 Million:

The court action between the New York Racing Association and veterinarian Michael Galvin took a turn for the worse yesterday after Galvin's attorney Karen A. Murphy also filed suit against the association and its Board of Trustees. Murphy claims her civil rights were violated and is seeking $10 million plus compensatory damages. She charged in her suit that she was deprived of rights by the NYRA, that NYRA conspired to retaliate against her and punish her, violating her First and 14th Amendment rights. In one instance, she claims she was arrested and escorted off the NYRA grounds, despite having a legitimate credential. Galvin is suing NYRA for $30 million for failure of due process after he was allegedly caught illegally "tubing" a horse on raceday. Murphy refused to comment on the suit.

Garden State Announces Purse Increase:

Purses at Garden State Park in Cherry Hill, New Jersey, will be increased an average of $3,000 per program, track president Richard Orbann announced yesterday. "We'll basically be going with a $500 across the board increase on all races, exclusive of those for Jersey-bred horses. Since our purses already are at their highest level in more than 10 years, it really is gratifying to be raising them at this time," said Orbann. "Our horsemen deserve them."

Tattersalls to Stage New Sale:

Tattersalls will establish a new breeding stock sale to be held Feb. 3 and 4, 2000, the sales company announced yesterday. The February Sale will be comprised of broodmares, horses and fillies in training and yearlings. Said Chairman Edward Mahony, "We are looking forward to ushering in the new millennium with a completely new sale. The February Sale is not only a response to popular demand from British and Irish breeders, but also reflects our conviction that breeders need a viable alternative to the Tattersalls December Sale. Owing to its size, the December Sale has a relatively early closing date. The new February Sale will not close until the first week of January, giving anyone who misses the December Sale a further opportunity to sell at Tattersalls."
