JULIE KRONE CALLS IT A CAREER She went out kicking and screaming. You could hear jockey Julie Krone hollering all the way down the Lone Star Park stretch as she drove Desert Demon to the wire in what would be the final race of her storied career, giving it her all as she has done since the beginning. And it all ended just as it began. Krone finished second with her very first mount back in January of 1981 and she was second with her very last, missing by 1 1/4 lengths in yesterday's Lone Star Derby. "It started and ended on the same note," she said, "and there were a whole lot of wins in between. I've had it in mind to retire for a while, but if I had stepped down during all the adversity, it would have been quitting. It's nice to leave while I still enjoy what I'm doing. Like Wayne Gretzky, I got to go out on my own terms and there is a lot of life out there for me." Krone rode three winners on the card at Lone Star yesterday and went out with a total of 3,546 career victories, including the 1993 Belmont S.

OBS SPRING SALE STARTS TODAY The Ocala Breeders' Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training, which last year produced GI Spinaway S. winner Things Change (Stalwart), GSW Premier Property (Out of Place) and GSW Certain (Out of Place), gets underway at the OBS Sales Complex in Ocala, Florida this morning. Certain, third in the GI Fountain of Youth S., was second in the GI Arkansas Derby and is a candidate for the Kentucky Derby; he sold for $45,000 at two. This year's catalogue includes juveniles by such top stallions as Alleged, A.P. Indy, End Sweep, Mt. Livermore, Pine Bluff, Silver Deputy, Storm Bird, and Woodman. French Deputy, Mr. Greeley, Pembroke and Tabasco Cat are among the promising freshman sires represented. A colt by freshman Rizzi, named Rich Celebration, clocked the fastest time for three furlongs during the final session of the Under Tack Show Sunday, going in :34 2/5. Consigned by Mark Casse, agent, the dark bay sells as Hip #956 Thursday. A pair of Pentelicus colts from the Ocala Stud Farm consignment tied for quickest quarter, with Hip #931 and Hip #984 each going in :21 4/5. Turning in the fastest furlong was a colt by Kipper Kelly, who went in :10 2/5. Consigned by Southern Chase Farm, Inc., he sells as Hip #1150, the final offering at the auction. A total of 1150 two-year-olds have been catalogued for the four-day affair, which runs through Thursday. Bidding starts at 10:30 a.m. daily.

Charismatic was making his 14th start, but seems to be improving with the experience. After being promoted to victory four starts back, the colt ran second in a Feb. 19 allowance and was a fast-closing second in the GIII El Camino Real Derby Mar. 6. Thrown to the wolves in the GI Santa Anita Derby 15 days ago, the chestnut did not disgrace himself, finishing fourth. Texas Glitter (Glitterman), experimenting at two turns, led through sprint-like fractions, with Yankee Victor up with the pace and Charismatic within striking distance. As the field rounded the far turn, jockey Jerry Bailey sent his mount three wide after Yankee Victor, who led two furlongs out, collared that rival at the eighth pole and pulled away. Said Bailey, "We were going really easy down the backside. I was just sitting there and waiting for my spot." Winning trainer D. Wayne Lukas said, "He keeps getting better and better. I've trained him harder than I have any other horse coming up to the Derby." Lukas had said prior to the race that the May 1 Kentucky Derby was next, "win, lose or draw."

Single Empire, winner of the G1 Italian Derby at three, was unsuccessful in three European starts last year, then finished second in the GII Carleton F. Burke H. in his U.S. bow last October. He came back after a five-month vacation to take the 1 1/2-mile GII San Luis Rey S. by a nose Mar. 21 in his second Stateside attempt and put them back-to-back here. The crowd's choice stalked steady splits, swept to the front on the final bend and had enough left to hold off the late charge of Le Paillard for the victory. "What a marathoner," jockey Kent Desormeaux said. "Mr. Drysdale is very good at getting those that are a little over-anxious to settle down and we needed that today. This horse was the consummate gentleman all the way around there. When I called on him, he really took off." As for what's next, trainer Neil Drysdale said, "These marathon horses do need time between their races, so I don't know when we'll see him again. Maybe the (Gill Golden Gate H., June 19)."

French challenger Jim and Tonic sat well back early and then came on with a rush to win going away in course-record time. The four-year-old captured the seven-furlong G2 Hong Kong International Bowl last December. "After he won the Bowl I was thinking of coming back," said trainer François Doumen. "I have never had any real doubt that he would run 10 furlongs, but I maintain that his best distance is a mile. It was a most exciting win for us and now he will probably go for a race in England."

A winner on her last start in the Listed Premio Seregno at Milan Apr. 4, Shenck won her first group race in Europe's first Classic of the season with Sylvain Guillot aboard. The filly capped a marvelous race for winning trainer Bruno Grizzetti, who also saddled third-placed Lady Storm, ridden by Olivier Peslier, vindicating his policy of using French jockeys. Always up with the pace as Rosy Girl (GB) (Common Grounds {GB}) set out to make all, Shenck was positioned down the center of the home straight in a search of the best going on the unforgiving ground. Rosy Girl tried to quicken away from her opponents upon entering the straight, but was overtaken by Lady Storm and Southern House at the three-eighths marker and those two continued the battle until the winner's long and telling run paid dividends. She quickened at the eighth pole and ran on for a well-earned success.

- Margins: 1 1/4, 1 3/4, 7. Odds: 31.80, 1.70, 27.60.

T.B. Track Star was claimed for a scant $20,000 out of his second lifetime start at the Fair Grounds Jan. 28, a race in which he broke his maiden by two lengths. Kept exclusively in allowance company since then, the gray had been held winless in those four outings, although he was disqualified from a victory in his most recent outing in New Orleans Mar. 29, but was understandably overlooked here. Congratulate blasted from the gate and set torrid fractions on the front end, while Eddie Martin aboard T.B. Track Star settled some eight lengths off that front-runner. The eventual winner began to cut into the lead as the field rounded the far turn, overtook a tiring pacesetter at the eighth pole and withstood the late run of second choice Desert Demon for a comfortable score. Said Martin, "This horse ran a great race. He was in the bridle the whole way. When we got around the turn, my horse took after (Congratulate) and caught him pretty easy."

"Bullet" Fires Bullet at Churchill

Eclipse Award champ Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy), impressive winner of the GI Ashland S. Apr. 3, registered a bullet five furlongs yesterday morning in :59 over the Churchill Downs main track, a clocking more than two seconds faster than any other drill. Despite the filly's affinity for the Downs, trainer Bob Baffert is still not inclined to take on the boys. "She's quick and she loves this track, but I'm still thinking Oaks," said Baffert. "I know what it takes for the Derby and maybe something could change, but the field would have to change a lot. It's a large field and she's a little filly, she's light." Baffert also reported that GII Fantasy S. winner Excellent Meeting (General Meeting) will work this morning.

Derby Work Tab:

A pair of Derby hopefuls were out for work yesterday morning. Forty One Carats (Tactical Advantage), most recently second in the GIII Flamingo S. Apr. 3, broke off at the 5 1/2-furlong pole and worked past the wire, getting his six furlongs in 1:15 with jockey Jorge Chavez aboard. Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), a disappointing fifth behind Menifee in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 10, had a "maintenance work" according to trainer Scotty Schulhofer, going an easy half mile in :49 2/5. On tap for today is a one-mile work for GII Gallery Furniture.com runner-up K One King (Apalachee), with his Derby rider Alex Solis in the saddle.

Future Plans for Lexington Scratches:

Both Lethal Instrument (Gulch) and Doneraile Court (Seattle Slew) were scratched from yesterday's GII Coolmore Lexington S. after drawing outside post positions. Lethal Instrument will head back to California after working five furlongs in a bullet :59 3/5 at Keeneland yesterday. "I really looked hard at (the Lexington)," trainer John Shirreffs said. "I was wondering if there was any way that we could take back and drop over to the rail and save some ground. But I didn't think there was any way but to be fanned very wide going into the first turn. There was just no way we could really compete from out there. I did what was best for the horse." The colt's next start has not yet been decided. Doneraile Court will be pointed for the Apr. 24 GIII Derby Trial at Churchill Downs.

Littlebitlively was defending his title after taking this race last year and was coming off a fine runner-up finish with blinkers added in the Apr. 3 GI Oaklawn H. Last year's Kentucky Derby and Preakness hero Real Quiet, named champion three-year-old of 1998, was off for nine months after falling a nose short in the '98 Belmont S. in his bid for the Triple Crown, returning to be second in the Mar. 7 Gill New Orleans H.; he was making his second start after the extended absence. The champ was made the favorite, but he chased Littlebitlively as that one cut out easy early fractions, drove past to take a short lead after six furlongs, but couldn't hold on as the pacesetter came back to post a game photo-finish win. "I was surprised that they let me make the lead so easily," winning jockey Carlos Gonzalez said. "He really wanted to go early, but I got him to relax. He was running easy. I just waited for someone to come to me." The top two could go next in the May 8 GI Pimlico Special.

Shut Out Time closed out his two-year-old campaign with a bang, breaking his maiden by 10 lengths Oct. 11 and pairing up stakes victories against fellow Empire-breds, including the New York Stallion S. at six furlongs Nov. 15. Tried against open company in two starts this year, the Triple Crown nominee was sixth in the grassy The Vid S. and most recently fifth in the GIII Flamingo S. at Hialeah. The obvious class back in against New York-breds, he was on the engine to lead past every pole in a dominating performance. Winning trainer Michael Gorham indicated that the May 1 GII Withers at one mile could mark the next start for his trainee.

Divide and Conquer had a productive winter at Gulfstream, with a win and a second-place finish against allowance company, and was most recently fourth, beaten 5 1/2 lengths in the Gill Fort Lauderdale H. Favored after the drop into easier company, the bay was rated midpack but in close contention to the far turn, came wide into the drive and ran down Officialpermission in the waning yards for the victory.

Steak Scam started the year with a second-place allowance finish on the main track at Gulfstream Jan. 16, but had been off the board in his three starts since, all on turf, and recently ran seventh for an $80,000 tag at Gulfstream Mar. 15. Back on the dirt, but overlooked at the windows, the bay rallied from near the back of the pack to get to the front in deep stretch and inch clear.

DAD STRIKES GOLD (c, 3, Strike the Gold--Affirmity, by Affirmed) was winless in three starts at two, his best performance coming in a second-place finish at Belmont last Oct. 18. Making his first start since a last of nine finish here Nov. 5, the $50,000 OBSMAR 2yo purchase lingered at the back of the pack for the opening half mile, circled widest of all in to the lane, hit the front at the eighth pole and was 1 1/4 lengths the best at odds of 5-1. WHISTLE CALL (f, 3, Phone Trick--Find Happiness {MSW, $197,608}, by Buckfinder) showed brief speed, but tired to be ninth in her debut at Gulfstream Mar. 7. The 2-1 second choice in her second start, she was with the leaders from the outset, took over on the far turn and pulled away to a 3 1/4-length score. Desert Lady placed in three Listed stakes in England, but picked up her first stakes victory in her second U.S. appearance, the Jan. 2 Gill Monrovia H. She added an optional claimer in her latest Mar. 12 for trainer Wally Dollase and was even-money to make it two in a row in her first try for trainer Richard Mandella. Rated just off a rapid pace while four wide, the bay was caught in tight quarters at the five-sixteenths pole and bumped while rallying in deep stretch, but kept on coming to get up for a head victory. "She's a game filly, she really runs hard," winning jockey Corey Nakatani said. "I think she's going to get better with age. Right now she's doing everything right sprinting. I think down the road, we can try to get her to go longer." As for the future, Mandella said, "I'm not quite sure where she'll go next. We'll get her over (to Hollywood Park) and settle her down and then look at the schedule."

Think about the possibilities.

Second in his second start of the season, the bay stretched out to a mile and quarter in his latest, but could do no better than eighth. Shortening up off that effort, he was sent off the 7-5 favorite, pressed the pace early, opened up by eight lengths at the top of the stretch and held on for a four-length victory. Second in the G3 Killavullan S. at Leopardstown last October, Saffron Walden broke his maiden in average style at The Curragh in March and was the odds-on favorite here. The second favorite, she was settled off the pace, sixth of seven, until making progress on the inside rounding the turn, but ran out of running room at the furlong pole, was checked and had to be switched around two or three horses. Bumped around in traffic, she finished well once in the clear and is now likely to go for the G1 Hibernia Foods Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh May 23, although the G1 Dubai Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp May 16 is an alternative.
