KIPPER KELLY COLT TOPS OBS FINALE A colt by Kipper Kelly out of Gunni Gal (What a Pleasure), the final offering of the four-day sale, brought a bid of $270,000 to top yesterday's final session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training in Florida. Named Gunni Kelly, the dark bay breezed a quarter mile in :10 2/5, co-fastest time during the Under Tack Show. Consigned by Southern Chase Farm, Inc., he was purchased by Kaaren and Hays Biggs. The Biggs were the sale's leading buyers, taking home seven juveniles, including the sales-topping $300,000 Silver Deputy colt, for a total of $995,000. A colt by Pentelicus--Contradanza (Meadowlake), named Busy Wire, attracted the second-highest price Thursday. Consigned by Ocala Stud Farms, the bay was bought by Harry Aleo for $125,000. "We have to be pleased with how the week went," said OBS Director of Sales Tom Ventura. "The market was strong right down to the last horse through the ring and the consignors who brought the best athletes to the ring were well rewarded."

NTRA CONFIRMS WINNER ACQUISITION The National Thoroughbred Racing Association has reached an agreement in principle to acquire Winner Communications' horse racing business. Winner Communications, based in Tulsa, Oklahoma, produces all of ESPN's racing coverage. The accord stipulates that current agreements with ESPN and espn2 for approximately 125 hours per year of racing programming would be extended for five years. Winner, which owns the industry's largest archives and holds access rights to extensive programming time on ESPN and affiliated networks, will perform production and related services for a newly formed in-house television production and archival resource, NTRA Productions, "for a multi-year period," according to an NTRA press release. "The formation of NTRA Productions enables the NTRA to be directly involved in shaping the way in which our sport is presented to the public," said NTRA Commissioner Tim Smith. "This is an excellent opportunity for us to strengthen our horse-racing programming through production enhancements and links to interactive media such as the Internet. Our member tracks will gain added national exposure through programs produced by NTRA Productions, and will further benefit as the industry's media archives are expanded and improved." The NTRA Board of Directors also yesterday approved the creation of NTRA Services, a new subsidiary designed to facilitate interactive wagering in connection with the Television Games Network (TVG). "While some important details of the TVG relationship are still to be finalized, the Board concluded that full NTRA support and assistance should be given to help assure TVG's initial deployment and ultimate success," said Smith.

ATTENDANCE INCREASES AT SANTA ANITA

For the third year running, Santa Anita Park has reported an increase in overall attendance for the winter-spring meet which ended this past Monday. Over two million racegoers passed through the gates during the 84-day race meet, an average of 25,928, up three percent against the 1997-98 figures. Attendance overall improved by .55 percent. "We are especially proud of this accomplishment, in light of the challenges facing Thoroughbred racing today," said vice president of marketing Craig Dado. "Although the increases are modest, the trend continues in the right direction," he added. The daily average handle from all sources, also saw an increase as compared to last season, up over 1.5 percent at $11,830,250. An all-time California record (excluding Breeders' Cup events) was achieved on Santa Anita H. day Mar. 6 when $24,749,107 was handled. That threshold was crossed again four weeks later when General Challenge took the Santa Anita Derby. California-bred Free House was the champion of the Big 'Cap en route to Horse of the Meet honors, as voted by the media. General Challenge was named Three-Year-Old of the meet. Racing returns to Santa Anita for the Oak Tree meeting in October.

Bursting Forth, winner of the Gill All Along at Colonial Downs last October, began the year with a third-place finish in a Feb. 19 Gulfstream allowance before running fifth in the Mar. 14 Gill De La Rose H. last time out. The bay mare bid three wide around the final bend and battled down the stretch for a narrow win. "I thought I could get up," said triumphant jockey Jorge Chavez. "In the last 50 yards, I saw the wire coming and my filly was trying really hard. I saw the filly on the inside coming (Moments Of Magic) and I was worried about the filly on the outside (Pinafore Park). I kept looking at one and then the other, but I knew I could get there."

Prime Challenge? To Beat Baffert:

Trainer Bob Baffert gave two of his Derby contenders serious work yesterday morning, with Prime Timber (Sultry Song) drilling six furlongs in company with an older stablemate in 1:12 3/5 just before the morning renovation break. General Challenge (General Meeting) was out just after the break, going a similar distance in 1:12 and out seven furlongs in 1:25. It was the second local work for both, who also worked five furlongs last Saturday. "I had him (General Challenge) up in 1:38 and change and he didn't want to pull up," said Baffert. "That's the way he (General Challenge) is. He is the better work horse. They showed me that they love the track, they haven't regressed and they are training unbelievable," he added.

Trainer Elliott Walden sent out his two Derby hopefuls, Blue Grass winner Menifee (Harlan) and Gll Arkansas Derby fourth Ecton Park (Forty Niner) for one-mile gallops. Walden has tabbed Robbie Davis to ride the latter, should he draw into the field. "If he doesn't get in, we'll probably go in the (Gll) Illinois Derby (May 8)," Walden said.

Godolphin's Derby entries, Worldly Manner (Riverman) and Aljabr (Storm Cat), having cleared quarantine, got their first feel for the Churchill surface, each galloping a mile and a quarter. Tom Albertrani, assistant trainer to Saeed bin Suroor, said, "They both went very well. They all went out a little bit on their toes, but better than expected for the first day. I'm sure tomorrow they will be more relaxed."

Chris Antley, who piloted Strike the Gold to victory in the 1991 Derby, has been named by trainer D. Wayne Lukas to ride Gll Coolmore Lexington S. winner Charismatic (Summer Squall) in the Derby.
