VALHOL CONNECTIONS PLAN TO FILE SUIT

With the Arkansas Racing Commission delaying the Valhol (Diaz) hearing until May 5, which is four days after the Kentucky Derby, owner James Jackson and trainer Dallas Keen are prepared to file suit in order to get their disputed GII Arkansas Derby winner into the field. The hearing to investigate whether or not jockey Billy Patin carried an illegal electrical device in the Arkansas Derby was delayed at the request of Patin's attorney. Meanwhile, Jackson made it all but official yesterday that Patin has been dropped from the team. With no resolution coming out of Arkansas before the Kentucky Derby, Jackson's attorneys are expected to file suit tomorrow to force Churchill Downs to recognize the $300,000 in purse money from the Arkansas Derby, which the colt may need to get into the field. Attorneys for Keen and Jackson will contend that there is no stipulation in Arkansas racing regulations for withholding payment of a purse unless a drug positive is involved. As for Patin, he galloped Valhol yesterday at Churchill Downs, but might not be seen there for a while. "I doubt very seriously Bill Patin will ride," Jackson said. "Mr. Patin left (Louisville) and went back to Louisiana. I guess he's not planning on coming back." In still another twist to this strange case, Keen went on the offensive yesterday and his target was Oaklawn Jockey Club President Charles Cella. "I think (the investigation) is something personal with Cella," he said. "From what I've heard, Mr. Cella lost the grading on some of his races. The Arkansas Derby is down to a Grade II. He feels threatened that a maiden came in and won his race. This isn't a normal maiden, though."

Churchill Worktab:

Preparing for an attempt to become the first Champion Two-Year-Old to win the Derby since Spectacular Bid, Answer Lively (Lively One) drilled five furlongs yesterday in 1:01 2/5 under jockey Craig Perret. Perret, who will have the mount in the Derby as well, said, "He worked real good and got over the surface well. It was more of a maintenance work. He moved fine. Now it will be up to him when the bell rings."

The Thoroughbred Corp.'s Desert Hero (Sea Hero) went six furlongs in 1:14. "It was a good move," said trainer Richard Mandella. "I don't know if I'll do anything else with him coming up to the race. I'll just play it by ear."

After a highly consistent but somewhat frustrating season last year when runner-up in the G1 Prix Jean Prat, G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp and G2 Prix du Rond-Point, Gold Away began this season with a comfortable win in the G3 Prix Exbury here Mar. 13. Assisted from the front by pacesetting stable companion Special Discount (Nureyev), the colt raced in second until well into the straight, quickened well at the 400-meter point and was soon clear. He won eased down from Lone Bid, who finished well, but without being any danger. Winning trainer Criquette Head said, "This is a tough, consistent horse with a powerful physique. He had a hard season last year and did very well. He's also a very genuine, hard-working horse and he pleased me very much today. We may send him to England now for the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. over a mile at Newbury May 15, although he may stay here in France for the G1 Prix D'Ispahan at Longchamp May 23. But that's over a longer trip and he's really a miler, as he's proved again today."

GIII Rebel S. winner Etbaur (Silver Deputy), in a move that jockey Francisco Torres called "awesome," went six furlongs in 1:14 2/5. "It was just what I wanted," commented trainer Steve Wren. "He finished strong. I just wanted to put some gas in him."

Although it's looking more and more like she will bypass the Derby in favor of Friday's Kentucky Oaks, Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) looked like she could handle the boys when she worked an impressive six furlongs in 1:12 2/5.

GIII Louisiana Derby winner Kimberlite Pipe (Take Me Out) zipped five panels in 1:00 under exercise rider Diane Powlin. "He worked awesome," said trainer Dallas Stewart. "It was a nice, solid move, and that is what we're looking for. It's a good move over this surface."

GII Gallery Furniture.com S. winner Stephen Got Even (A.P. Indy) drilled five furlongs in company in 1:02 2/5. "I was impressed," said jockey Chris McCarron, who will have the Derby mount. "Obviously we weren't looking for fast today. This was a get-acquainted move."

Barry K. Schwartz's Three Ring (Notebook), the only filly who is a definite starter, worked five furlongs in 1:01 2/5. Wearing blinkers, the filly went in splits of :24 and :49. "She handled the track well and I couldn't be more pleased with the way she's coming up to the race. I wanted to come here with a fresh horse, not one all beaten up. I wouldn't trade her for any horse in the race," said trainer Ed Plesa.

Lord Smith (Greensmith {GB}), who was six-for-eight without winning a stakes at two in England, was only one-for-seven to start his U.S. career, but has found his best stride this season. The four-year-old is a perfect four-for-four on the year, earning his first graded-stakes win in the Mar. 6 GII Arcadia H. and coming back Mar. 28 at the Fair Grounds to take the GIII Explosive Bid H. Commitisize (Explodent), a five-time stakes winner, made his second start after spending nearly seven months out of action in the Apr. 4 GII El Rincon H. and was 1 1/4 lengths the best. Tuzla (Panoramic {GB}) ended 1998 with a win in the Dec. 13 GII Dahlia H. and came back in '99 to take the Feb. 27 GII Buena Vista H. The five-year-old mare goes up against the boys in her second start of the season.

Keeper Hill (Deputy Minister), winner of last year's GI Kentucky Oaks and third behind a pair of champions in her final start of the season, the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, makes her '99 debut. Never worse than third, she has been training sharply over this track for Bobby Frankel. Magical Allure (General Meeting) is another who has hit the board in every career outing. Winner of the GI La Brea S. in December, she has run into the California terror Manistique in her three starts this year, finishing as the runner-up in the Feb. 7 GII La Canada and Mar. 7 GI Santa Margarita H. last time out. Gourmet Girl (Cee's Tizzy), three-for-four at Hollywood, finished out of the money for the only time in her life when she tried the turf. Second in the La Brea and third in the La Canada, she turned the tables on Magical Allure and nearly beat Manistique in the Jan. 17 GII El Encino, missing by a head, with Magical Allure another 5 1/2 lengths back in third.

For the first time in recent memory, there is only one English-trained runner challenging the locals for Italy's second Classic of the season, despite their good record in the race. The race itself looks a wide-open affair, as the home-trained contingent doesn't appear to have a star in their midst. Peter Chapple-Hyam transports World Alert, still a maiden after three starts but a promising second in a conditions event at Newmarket Apr. 13. The probable favorite will be Strawberry Fields, ridden by Frankie Dettori, winner of the Listed Premio Rumon at Rome Oct. 4 and the G2 Premio Guido Berardelli at the same course Nov. 15. After a disappointing seasonal reappearance, he won the Listed Premio Daumier, a traditional Parioli trial, at Rome April 11. He needs to have soft or heavy going to be seen at his best. Tendor, winner of the Listed Criterium Partenopeo and third behind Strawberry Fields in the Premio Rumon, was a fast-closing third in the Premio Daumier on heavy going, but has shown all his best form on good going. With the going currently described as good, he would have a chance of reversing the form with Strawberry Fields. Timboroa, a dual-course winner, is held in high regard by his trainer Roberto Brogi. Luigi Camici, trainer of the second and fourth finishers in last week's fillies' equivalent, saddles Max Ruocco and Ugolino Di Nerio; the latter, who also has a liking for good ground, would seem to be the stable's number one choice.

This is a competitive renewal of another recognized trial for the Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby). Montjeu, unbeaten in two starts and a recent supplemental entry in the G1 Vodafone Derby, is the likely favorite. He won easily on his debut in a conditions event at Chantilly Sept. 18, then created a highly favorable impression when defeating Spadoun by three-parts of a length in the Listed Prix Isonomy at Longchamp Oct. 18. Spadoun gained ample compensation on his next run when winning the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud by six lengths at Saint-Cloud Oct. 31, but was somewhat disappointing when trying to make all, finishing fifth in his seasonal debut at Longchamp Apr. 11; he may have been in need of the run. Sendawar would have gone for the English 2000 Guineas had there been a supplementary stage, but comes here instead off of a clever success in a conditions race at Longchamp Apr. 4. Fils De Viane, who won the Listed Prix de Courcelles at Longchamp Apr. 4, is a lively outsider.

A reliable trial for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas), where all eyes will be on French champion two-year-old colt Way Of Light on his seasonal bow. Having broken his maiden at first asking, the colt was surprisingly beaten by Grazalema in the G3 Prix des Chenes at Longchamp Sept. 13, but returned to winning ways in the G1 Grand Criterium at Longchamp Oct. 11, defeating a very strong field and turning the form around with Grazalema, who was fifth. He has been working very well in recent weeks and has been reported to have wintered extremely well. Indian Danehill, a highly impressive debut winner at Longchamp last September, was supplemented for the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket Oct. 17, but he ran his race on the way to the post and had nothing left for the race itself, trailing in last of seven. If he gets to the gate without any problems, he will give the favorite the most to do. Iridanos enters calculations based on his win in the Listed Prix Omnium II at Saint-Cloud Mar. 13.

Another trial, this time for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulaches (French 1000 Guineas), where game G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Juvenia makes her reappearance. She will dispute favoritism with Comillas, a dual winner who was highly impressive in the G3 Prix des Reservoirs on heavy going at Deauville Oct. 20. There will be reservations about Comillas unless she has managed to overcome an alarming tendency to hang. Jean de Roualle, her trainer, has indicated she will not be subjected to the hardest of races, given that her primary target is the Poulaches. Sallivera will be acting as Juvenia's pacemaker. Visionnaire, representing the Jean-Luc Lagardere/Andre Fabre combination, is an interesting contender who won her only start to date, a conditions race at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 2. Stella Berine was the model of consistency last season, winning or placing in six stakes over a variety of trips and track conditions. Her most notable performance came when winning the G3 Prix Eclipse over 6 1/2 furlongs at Saint-Cloud Oct. 7.

Andreas Schutz will have four runners in this event and his stable jockey, Andrasch Starke, has chosen to ride Fastaghano, who took the Listed Orakel der Dreijahrigen on his seasonal debut at Mulheim Apr. 3 by a short head. Maestoso was victorious in the Apr. 5 G3 Jean Harzheim-Rennen at Cologne after breaking his maiden on his first run of the season at Frankfurt Mar. 14. Schutz's other two runners, Hibiscus, an impressive winner at Gelsenkirchen Apr. 11, and Draploy, an easy maiden winner at Mulheim Apr. 3, should not be underestimated.

Patience Game began his career with two second-place finishes versus maiden company at Santa Anita before being transferred from the care of Wally Dollase to the barn of Alex Hassinger, Jr. The bay colt responded beautifully, winning his next start by eight lengths at Santa Anita Mar. 27. Sent off the third choice despite his relative inexperience, Patience Game found himself in traffic early, but was angled outside for clear running about five lengths off the leaders. He made a four-wide move when asked for run on the far turn, took over in upper stretch and wasn't seriously challenged for top honors. Hassinger was literally moved to tears by the victory. "I'm so grateful for the chance that has been giving me (to train The Thoroughbred Corp.'s horses)," he said. "This horse is a special horse. I knew it right from the start with him. When he won that last race, he was impressive. He was even more impressive in his works since then." Hassinger reported that the winner nicked himself on the leg and was bleeding from his right front, but added, "There's some blood, but it doesn't look bad." Patience Game will go next in either the GII Illinois Derby May 8 or the Preakness May 15.

William "Red" Terrill Jr. Retires:

Aqueduct Race Track honored popular New York trainer William "Red" Terrill, Jr. by naming yesterday's fifth race for him after he announced his retirement. The 69-year-old Terrill plans to leave the sport and return with his wife, Dottie, to their home on Saratoga Lake as soon as he finds spots for the remaining horses in his care. Terrill's best horse was the filly Turnback the Alarm, who won the GI Mother Goose and GI Coaching Club American Oaks as a three-year-old, then came back from injury to win the GI Shuvee, GI Hempstead and GI Go For Wand S. as a four-year-old. "I've met a lot of great people along the way and I trained some good horses," said Terrill. "Now it's time to call it a career."

Madison's Charm came into this event with only a maiden victory to her credit, but she had been a strong closing second last time out in the GIII Florida Oaks at Tampa Bay Mar. 21. Let go as the fifth choice, the bay filly raced last down the backstretch behind a good pace, advanced four wide on the turn and responded gamely in the drive to get up for a neck win over last year's GII Demoiselle S. winner Better Than Honor. "The race set up real well; there was quite a bit of pace," said trainer Tom Hauswald. "I think she's an improving filly and that she will get better with more distance. I'm not sure about what race she'll run in next, but it will probably be in New York."

CHRB Reports Results of Del Mar Injury Review:

The California Horse Racing Board has found no determining common denominator among the catastrophic injuries to racehorses during the 1998 Del Mar race meet, but is taking steps to help prevent such a rash of injuries in the future. The CHRB will support Del Mar's expenditure of more than $1 million to enhance track safety. Improvements will include the surveying and grading of the track's sub-base, the installation of a new training track and the strengthening of pre-race veterinary inspection procedures.

Winner of his first two starts as a juvenile, Fantastic Light then ran third behind Mutahaab and Glamis in the Listed Bellway Homes Stardom S. at Goodwood in September. Settled in midfield as Dehoush set the pace and still led halfway up the straight, the winner made his move at the quarter-mile mark. He quickened to take the lead and go a half-length up, but his rider, Darryll Holland, then mistook the finish line and eased up briefly, allowing the pacesetter to close the gap to the minimum margin at the second finish line. Favored Glamis, wearing blinkers for the first time, was settled at the back of the field and was easily held by the first two. Sheikh Maktoum's Racing Manager Joe Mercer said, "A photographer took a shot at the first winning post and Darryl Holland said that Fantastic Light simply stopped. Fortunately he won, though, and I think he could be a very useful mile- and-a-quarter horse. We weren't too confident beforehand, but I knew that the soft ground would suit him. He is not entered in the Vodafone Derby and will not be entered, because he will not get a mile and a half."

After a series of four second places in his last four starts of 1998, Generous Rosi had earned some complimentary comments about his determination for a struggle. But he has answered his critics in style this year, breaking his stakes maiden with ease in the Listed Magnolia S. at Kempton Apr. 5 and now edging home by the minimum margin after a long drawn-out battle with Evening World and Dark Shell throughout the final quarter mile. At the furlong marker 'Rosi' appeared about to call it a day, but jockey Richard Quinn galvanized his mount for one last effort, which stole the honors Evening World. Winning trainer John Dunlop said, "He was always running second, second, second, but he's really a very genuine horse."

With three leading contenders scratched because of the very soft ground, the door was opened for the improving Warningford, who had won on his seasonal debut in a conditions event at Warwick Apr. 5, to win his first stakes race. Always traveling well on conditions he relished, the five-year-old was switched to the stands rail early in the straight while his main rival in the last quarter-mile, Wind Cheetah, raced down the middle of the track. Despite being pressed hard in the closing stages by that rival, Warningford strode home for a comfortable victory. "We will go anywhere, home or abroad, if we can find these conditions," said winning trainer James Fanshawe.

"We were pleased with his win at Warwick, but even more pleased when we saw the rain here. All his sire Warning's progeny love a cut in the ground and this horse also likes to come from off the pace." Winning rider Ray Cochrane added, "They went a good gallop and my horse responded well when the others began to tire. This horse is a real character."
