Godolphin Duo Work:

Team Godolphin's two Kentucky Derby contenders both worked seven furlongs yesterday at Churchill Downs. Worldly Manner (Riverman) covered the distance in 1:29 4/5. Clockers caught the colt's first quarter in :28 2/5, the half in :54 and out a mile in 1:43 4/5. Jockey Jerry Bailey was aboard for the work. "I thought it was a good work," commented assistant trainer Tom Albertrani. "He started off a bit steady and picked it up well and finished up strong." Stablemate Aljabr (Storm Cat), working in company and with exercise rider Brian Procter up, went the seven furlongs in 1:31. Fractional times were: quarter in :28 2/5, 1:04 3/5 for five-eighths and 1:18 4/5 for six furlongs. No rider has been named on Aljabr, but if Excellent Meeting (General Meeting) runs in Friday's Kentucky Oaks, Kent Desormeaux will likely have the Derby mount on Aljabr.

Menifee Drills:

GI Toyota Blue Grass S. winner Menifee (Harlan) worked five furlongs in 1:00 yesterday at Churchill. "He had running on his mind, which is what you like to see coming into a big race like this," said trainer Elliott Walden after the move.

Derby or Oaks Hopeful Excellent Meeting Works:

Excellent Meeting (General Meeting), who is still possible for the Kentucky Oaks or the Derby, breezed five furlongs yesterday at Churchill :59 1/5. "I liked her work," said trainer Bob Baffert. "I think both fillies (Excellent Meeting and Silverbulletday {Silver Deputy}) will run in the Oaks. But we may cross enter Excellent Meeting in the Derby. Both of them have been so impressive in their works here. The key here at Churchill Downs is the turns and both fillies smoke around the turns. It's more difficult for a big, long-striding horse like General Challenge (General Meeting)."

Tuzla had won five of her last six outings coming into this race, including a pair of Grade II events, the Dahlia H. at Hollywood Park Dec. 13 and Santa Anita's Buena Vista H. at this trip as the overwhelming choice Feb. 27. Tuzla was taken back to run in eighth position for the opening half mile of this effort, some six or seven lengths from pacesetter Commitisize (Explodent). With only three rivals beaten with two furlongs to run, jockey Brice Blanc sent Tuzla into action with a five-wide move, overtook Rob 'n Gin inside the eighth pole and had just enough left to hold off the late charge of Poteen for the victory. "She's a very easy horse to ride," jockey Brice Blanc said of the winner. "I felt like I only had to point her in the right direction. She relaxed nicely and when I asked her to pick it up, she took off and gave me everything she had. I am not that special and I had to do nothing great. I just had the right horse today." About the decision to run Tuzla against the boys, trainer Julio Canani added, "I don't mind facing the boys because I know they're going to give her wight. The Breeders' Cup Mile is a strong consideration. Her best distance is eight furlongs on the grass." Canani said Tuzla will likely aim for the June 6 GI Gamely H. at nine furlongs over the Hollywood turf.

Victory Stripes won a Group 1 event in her native Argentina in only her third lifetime start, and has tasted success in this country in restricted and other non-graded events, including her last start, a pace-pressing, 7 1/2-length decision against overmatched foes in the Santa Lucia H. Mar. 18 at Santa Anita. Magical Allure, most recently second in the GI Santa Margarita, looked to be the speed of the speed, but it was the Argentine-bred just to her inside who showed first from the gate and took the field through a very comfortable :47 2/5 half mile, with Magical Allure positioned just off her flank in second. Leaving the five-sixteenths pole, Magical Allure actually stuck a head in front and maintained a narrow advantage to the eighth pole, but Victory Stripes dug in and gradually wore down her rival for the victory, her first in North American graded-stakes company. Winning rider Chris McCarron, recording his third straight victory in the Hawthorne, said, "My mare was very, very quick away (from the gate) today. She's always possessed good speed, but for a period there we were trying to rate her and she may prefer this style more." The 1998 Kentucky Oaks winner Keeper Hill (Deputy Minister), making her first start since coming home third in the Breeders' Cup Distaff, trailed throughout in a disappointing performance. Said rider David Flores, "She never picked up the bridle and she felt different today. She just never gave an intention to run."

Two Listed race placings last year and a Listed race win in the Premio Pisa at Pisa Mar. 28 provided the form springboard for Alabama Jacks first Group-race win as he just held on from the fast-finishing Timboroa and Sumati. Alabama Jacks showed early speed, racing on the inside. In the final quarter-mile, Sumati emerged from the pack to challenge as Timboroa finished to great effect down the center of the track. In a storming finish, Alabama Jacks just held on by a nose from Timboroa with Sumati a further short head away in third. Hot favorite Strawberry Fields (Ger) (Tenby {GB}) was never in with a chance, but reportedly finished lame.

CIGAR TO KENTUCKY HORSE PARK Two-time Horse of the Year Cigar (Palace Music) will be relocated to the Kentucky Horse Park near Lexington, Ky., according to a report on The Blood Horse on-line. Assicurazioni Generali S. P. A., an Italian insurance company, became owner of the champion after he proved infertile in 1997. Cigar has been at Watercross Farm near Paris, Ky. while Dr. Phil McCarthy attempted to reverse the condition. He is expected to be moved sometime next week. Allen Paulson, who owned Cigar during his racing career, had petitioned the insurance company to allow the horse to return to his Brookside Farm for part of the year.

Remaining unbeaten after three starts, Montjeu confirmed the promise of his two-year-old form with a highly encouraging seasonal debut. A winner on his debut at Chantilly Sept. 18, Montjeu then won the Listed Prix Isonomy at Longchamp Oct. 18 and now has a choice of targets, the Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 6, or the Epsom Derby June 5, for which he was a recent £8,000 ($4,340) entry. Spadoun (Kaldoun {Fr}) raced to a clear six-length lead from the outset with Montjeu, ridden patiently, at the rear. Hitting the two-furlong marker, Sendawar quickened into the lead but, almost immediately, Montjeu appeared on the outside going ominously well, quickened inside the final furlong and ran on strongly to win by a comfortable length. "I can say that I am spoiled to have such a horse in training," said winning conditioner John Hammond. "We will make a decision in time regarding the Epsom Derby, but only after having talks with his owner, Mr. Tabor. If he is to have one more run between now and Epsom or Chantilly, if we go for the French Derby, it will probably be in the (G1) Prix Lupin at Longchamp (May 16)."

Smart Coupons, a winner of two of his previous three starts this year, defeated fellow New York-breds by 1 1/2 lengths in the Apr. 11 Kings Point H. last time out. Dismissed at 15-1, the gelding was never far back, angled to the outside for the stretch run to open a clear lead at midstretch and held off heavily favored Archers Bay for his first graded-stakes score. "He's just been doing super," said winning trainer Deborah Bodner. "He's been training well since he won the Kings Point, so we decided to try him in a graded stake. All we could do was not win." As for future plans for Smart Coupons, Bodner added, "He's a cool-weather horse, so he may get some time off in the summer, and he'll probably run here next winter. The (GII) Iselin (July 4 at Monmouth Park) is a possibility for him this summer."

Stay Sound, winner of last year's Gill Hawthorne Derby, came into this event off a pair of hard-luck losses, the first coming Feb. 26 at the Fair Grounds, where he made all the running to deep stretch, only to be collared nearing the wire in a half-length defeat. In his last start, he stalked the pace in the Gill Maker's Mark Mile at Keeneland, but fell 3/4 of a length short while finishing fourth. Back to catch-me-if-you-can tactics in this spot, the bay held a five-length lead after a moderate half mile and was under only a hand ride late to hold off last year's Gill Louisiana Derby winner Comic Strip for the win.

He went on to win the race well and appeared to be always in control, scoring by an emphatic six lengths. Namid raced in the rear of the field, but when he made his challenge, he was never able to get to the winner, and will get better for the race. Marius Petipa, who had previously been beaten by the winner, was always handily placed but was not good enough to get closer.

The French 1,000 Guineas picture was thrown wide open as outsider Venize, under an inspired ride from Olivier Peslier, got up in the final strides to deny Visionnaire and Juvenia in a blanket finish. After winning on her debut at Maisons-Laffitte Oct. 9, she was runner-up at Saint-Cloud Oct. 27, and was second on her seasonal debut this year at Longchamp Apr. 11. Visionnaire raced in second early with G1 Prix Marcel Bousac winner Juvenia fourth, and Venize restrained at the back of the pack. At the quarter-mile marker, first Visionnaire and then Juvenia made their bids and looked to have the race between them, but at the eighth pole Venize produced an excellent turn of foot to reel in the leaders in the last few yards. The winner will now point to the May 16 G1 Dubai Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1,000 Guineas) at Longchamp where she will again face Juvenia.

Also ran: Iridanos (GB), Way of Light, Pinakara (GB), Prince Powhatan (Fr).

Causing the upset of the day, Indian Danehill was an impressive winner, reeling in Le Roi Chic in the final furlong and booking his ticket for the G1 Dubai Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2,000 Guineas). Le Roi Chic led from Pinakara (GB) (Akarad {Fr}) as the eventual winner raced in third. Turning for home, Le Roi Chic kicked clear in an attempt to slip the field, but at the quarter-mile mark, Peslier sent Indian Danehill in pursuit and he eventually wore down Le Roi Chic 100 yards from the line to win by a neck. Grazalema finished well to take third. Strongly favored French two-year-old champion Way of Light (Woodman) was disappointing in finishing fifth.

Also Ran: Maestoso (Ger), Acambaro (Ger), Silvano (Ger), Draploy (Ger), Friedhelmo (Ger), Porthos (Ger), Gorvin (Ger), Wild Flame (Ger), Tappalugo (Ger).

Gestut Schlenderhan's homebred Imperioso came with a strong late run to just prevail from the fast-finishing Hibiscus and Fastaghano. Imperioso is trained by Peter Schiergen while Andreas Schutz is the conditioner of the second, third and fourth. Imperioso is the last foal bred from the Windwurf mare Ilana, a granddaughter of the dual Classic-winning Nuccio mare Ivresse. Ivresse is also the dam of the German Derby winner Ilix (Ger) and his German Oaks-winning full-sister Ipanema (Ger).

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming.

Peter Schiergen, successful in Frankfurt with Imperioso, also scored here with Bernardon, also owned and bred by Gestut Schlenderhan. Bernardon easily caught leader Nicolaos in the straight with the third-placed Gonlargo obviously preferring a shorter trip. Bernardon was having his first start of the season. His dam is the Königsstuhl mare Bejaria, a daughter of the German 1,000 Guineas heroine Brigida.

Horse Chestnut Takes South African Triple Crown:

South African racing sensation Horse Chestnut (SAf) (Fort Wood {Ire}), trained by Mike de Kock, wrote another chapter in the history books Saturday, cruising home by 10 lengths at odds of 1-6 in the R1 million ($164,258) G1 S A Derby over 2450 meters at Turffontein in Johannesburg. The win not only secured Horse Chestnut the Triple Crown for three-year-olds, but also earned a R1 million bonus for owners Harry and Bridget Oppenheimer. With Weichong Mawing in the irons, Horse Chestnut came into the half-mile straight some five lengths off the leaders, but quickened in brilliant style to grab the lead with a quarter mile to race and strolled away to win eased down at the line. The star's trainer had to sweat out the night before the race, though, as three calls were made to his stable threatening Horse Chestnut. "You always think it's some looney playing a prank, he told the Johannesburg Sunday Times, "but the worry was that the voice on the other end sounded threatening." On the same Turffontein program, the Oppenheimer-owned and De Kock-trained three-year-old colt Fort Defiance (SAf) (Fort Wood {Ire}) beat several high-class older horses, including last year's Horse of the Year Classic Flag (SAf) (Allied Flag), to win the R500,000 ($82,129) G1 Champion S. over 1 1/4 miles.
