TURFWAY PRESIDENT RESIGNS Turfway Park President Mark Simendinger will step down from his position effective May 1. Simendinger, 40, joined Turfway Park as treasurer in 1988 and was promoted to president in 1992. During his tenure, Simendinger oversaw the transformation of Turfway Park from leaky-roofed Latonia and helped institute the track's Kentucky Cup Day of Champions in 1994. Turfway Park officials will begin the search for Simendinger's successor immediately.

Derby Works:

Godolphin Racing Inc.'s Worldly Manner (Riverman) and Aljabr (Storm Cat) put in their final major pre-Derby works Thursday morning over a good Churchill track. Worldly Manner, with Daragh O'Donohue up, worked five furlongs in 1:02. Aljabr, with Brian Procter up, was clocked in 1:02 3/5. Commenting on the unusual two-days-before-the-Derby work, trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "They were just nice works, not very fast. This is what we wanted to do. This is what we do at home." Bin Suroor added that, although O'Donohue is still the named rider on Aljabr, another jockey could ride the colt Saturday.

On the scene yesterday at Churchill Downs to supervise the training of his Kentucky Derby candidates, Sheikh Mohammed al Maktoum said he remains content with Godolphin's unusual preparations for the Derby and will not make any changes in the future. He admitted that his Derby quest is a difficult challenge, but will continue to train his candidates for the American classics in Dubai with Saeed bin Suroor and will not point for any traditional American preps. "We do it this way because we train most of our horses there to get them ready for European racing," he said. "We don't want to split up the team. Next year, we will do it the same way. If after four or five times it doesn't work, then we may do it differently." The only potential change, he said, may be that Godolphin will concentrate on its homegrown talent for future Derbies. "I don't know if we'll be buying many American two-year-olds," Sheikh Mohammed said. "We bought some last year because we want to run them on the dirt in Dubai when they are older. I hope in the future that we have enough of our own horses to come back with next year."

Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy), who won the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and the Gill Golden Rod S. over this track last year, has won six in a row and looms the prohibitive favorite here. She most recently annihilated five others by seven lengths in the GI Ashland at Keeneland and it was only earlier this week the trainer Bob Baffert decided against running her in the Derby. Excellent Meeting (General Meeting) appears more likely to face the boys in the Derby. A decision will be made on the Gill Fantasy S. winner by 8:00 this morning. "Its amazing how she didn't handle this track at all last October (when she ran second in the Juvenile Fillies). Now she seems like she loves the track. I think she's coming up to the best race of her life," said Baffert. Marley Vale (Forty Niner) ran the race of her life in the Ashland, setting a fast pace and hanging on for second. The Happy Hopper (El Prado {Ire}) won the Martha Washington S. at Oaklawn three back before posting runner-up finishes in the Gill Honeybee S. Mar. 6 and the Apr. 2 Fantasy.

Lu Ravi (A.P. Indy) has won her last two starts in fine fashion, taking the Chou Croute H. at the Fair Grounds by 4 1/4 lengths Feb. 27 and most recently scoring a 2 1/2-length victory in the Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland Apr. 14. On paper, she towers over her five rivals and will be a short price. Leo's Gypsy Dancer (Leo Castelli) came off a 4 1/2-month layoff to take a Fair Grounds allowance Mar. 25. The five-year-old mare will come from off the pace. Silent Eskimo (Eskimo) was in over her head in the GI Apple Blossom at Oaklawn Apr. 9, but still managed to finish a respectable third.

Borgia, German Derby heroine and third in the 1997 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, joined Andre Fabre's stable last year after running in the Dubai World Cup. She suffered various training problems which restricted her to just one more 1998 start, a second in G3 Prix de Flore. She was second on her return in the G3 Prix Exbury Mar. 13 and is reported to be working well. Silver Patriarch won the G1 Coronation Cup last June, but did not win again in four starts before taking the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club in Milan on his last appearance Oct. 18. Persian Punch ran third in the G1 Melbourne Cup in Australia Nov. 3 and returned to finish a good fourth in the G3 John Porter S. at Newbury Apr. 17.

Twice a winner at the end of last year, in the Listed Prix Vulcain at Saint-Cloud Oct. 7, and the Listed Prix du Grand Camp at Lyon Parilly Nov. 22, Persian Ruler was unplaced on his only start this year, the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 13. He won this, his first Group race, by stealing a march on his rivals between the two and one-furlong markers under a fine ride from Sylvain Guillot. Mountjoy (Fr) (Bering {GB}), fractious before the start, raced keenly from the gate, opening up eight lengths halfway through the race. But his lead was gone by the three-sixteenths marker, as Persian Ruler was ridden into the lead and made a bid for the line, a move which was to prove decisive, as Olivier Peslier and Arnaqueur were caught flat-footed. Peslier switched around horses and roused Arnaqueur into producing a strong finishing burst, but it was not enough to catch Persian Ruler, who had already got first run on him. Public Purse just got the better of Mountjoy for third.

2000 Attracts 17 Runners:

Seventeen horses are due to race in Saturday's Sagitta 2000 Guineas after the final declarations for the Newmarket classic were finalized yesterday. Henry Cecil's recent Tripleprint S. winner Enrique (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) disputes favoritism with Orpen (Lure), trained in Ireland by Aidan O'Brien. The pair are 4-1 favorites in Ladbroke's odds. Godolphin hopes rest with the Frankie Dettori-ridden Island Sands (Ire) (Turtle Island {GB}) and Easaar (GB) (Machiavellian), with Michael Roberts up. Ladbrokes has them at 9-1 and 33-1, respectively. Commander Collins (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) is second choice at 5-1.

Mario Pino rode the 4,000th winner of his career in yesterday's eighth race at Pimlico. Pino, 37, who was born in Delaware, rode his first winner at Bowie Race Course in 1979. He posted an easy score in yesterday's feature race at the Maryland track aboard Report for Dan.

Kentucky Donates 100 Acres to TRF:

The Commonwealth of Kentucky has donated the use of 100 acres of pastureland, valued at more than $1 million, to the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. Located at the Blackburn Correctional Complex in Lexington, the facility will provide a home for 65 to 70 former racehorses. Inmates at the complex will also participate in a vocational training program. "We in Kentucky believe that all horses deserve no less than humane treatment and the right to a meaningful and productive life, even after their racing careers have crossed the finish line," said Governor Paul Patton.

Sapphire n' Silk broke her maiden by six lengths in her debut at Fair Grounds two back, then came back to win by a nose at Keeneland Apr. 2. Looking for her third win in as many starts, the bay filly sprang to the lead right out of the gate and was alone on the front coming out of the chute. The second choice set all the pace under confident handling and won by 1 3/4 lengths over the fast-closing English Bay. Even-money favorite Tout Charmant (Slewvescent) was three wide early and never reached contention.

SPINNING WORLD

"Of the fifty mares we have had foal this year, two of our best foals are by Breeders' Cup Mile winner Spinning World. I firmly believe he is one of the most important stallions to have retired to stud in recent years."
