CHARISMATIC CLAIMS KENTUCKY

DERBY 125 You could have picked him up for $62,500 out of a claiming race at Santa Anita Feb. 11, but Charismatic (Summer Squall) is worth considerably more after driving to a neck victory in yesterday's 125th running of the GI Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. Overlooked by most in the crowd of 151,051 (second largest in history), the 31-1 longshot drove from just off the pace under resurgent rider Chris Antley to collar stablemate Cat Thief (Storm Cat) (3rd) at midstretch, then held off the fast-closing Menifee (Harlan). The chestnut, purchased for $200,000 as a weanling, broke his maiden for a tag in his fourth start, but failed to find the winner's circle in his next three and found himself up for sale once again. "We had been paying the feed bills on him for a while," said winning owner Bob Lewis, who with his wife Beverly celebrated his first Derby victory with Silver Charm in 1997. "Once in a while in this industry you have to cut the bleeding. You have to say, 'hey, maybe this is one we ought to give up on.'" Luckily for the Lewises, there were no takers. The colt went on to be second by a head in the Mar. 6 Gill El Camino Real Derby and a well-beaten fourth in the Apr. 3 GI Santa Anita Derby, then showed signs of things to come with his win in the Apr. 18 Gill Coolmore Lexington S. "This horse has just had a great 60 days," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas, winning his fourth Kentucky Derby. "I probably misread this horse more than any one I've trained and I've trained a lot of them. He's a big grand-looking horse and he carries his weight. So I started experimenting a little bit. I started sending him fast and long. It was a complete change of strategy for me." As it turns out, Lukas said, "He's a big fat horse that wants to run every two weeks." Charismatic will get what he wants, running back in the GI Preakness at Pimlico May 15. GI Toyota Blue Grass winner Menifee, who just missed at 7-1, will be waiting for him. "He was the widest horse in the first turn and (jockey Pat Day) had to wait for room a little bit before he finally got him moving," said trainer Elliott Walden, who watched his Victory Gallop lose in a photo with Real Quiet last year. "He just got beat, but he ran big." Prime Timber (Sultry Song), a rallying fourth, is pointing for the Preakness and trainer Bob Baffert said he is considering Kentucky Oaks champion Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) for the second leg of the Triple Crown as well.

3--Cat Thief, 126, c, 3, Storm Cat--Train Robbery, by Alydar. O/B-Overbrook Farm (KY); T-D W Lukas; J-M Smith; $85,000.

Margins: NK, NK, 1 1/4. Odds: 31.30, 7.00, 7.40.

Also Ran: Prime Timber, Excellent Meeting, Kimberlite Pipe, Worldly Manner, K One King, Lemon Drop Kid, Answer Lively, General Challenge, Ecton Park, Desert Hero, Stephen Got Even, Valhol, First American, Adonis, Vicar, Three Ring. Scratched: Aljabr.

The third-longest shot in the 19-horse field, Charismatic was given little chance for the upset despite a solid effort in the Gill Coolmore Lexington S. Apr. 18. Jockey Chris Antley, who has struggled through substance abuse problems and battled with his weight, was a longshot, too, after spending most of 1998 out of action. But the two were the perfect team yesterday, sitting just off the pace while wide down the backstretch, rallying from the four path to lead the cavalry charge at the sixteenth pole and hanging on to win it by a diminishing neck. "This was a dream...a new beginning for me," said Antley, who captured the '91 Derby with Strike The Gold. "I was in South Carolina over the last eight months trying to get my weight down and I didn't think I could do it. My Dad told me, 'start a new business, do something else with your life. You've accomplished a lot.' But I told him, 'I have a goal and I'll die trying to get there. I will get back.' The first (Derby) was right time, right place. This has a lot more sentimental value, more than anything I've done in my career by far. I had to find the depths of myself to be able to get back." (The Also-Rans, p2)

DERBY DISAPPOINTMENT The performance of 31-1 Charismatic wasn't the only surprise in yesterday's Kentucky Derby. Trainer Bob Baffert probably suffered the day's biggest disappointment. Bidding for his third straight blanket of roses, Baffert saw Prime Timber (Sultry Song) charge hard to the sixteenth pole, only to flatten out in the shadow of the wire to finish fourth. His filly Excellent Meeting (General Meeting) was also gaining in the stretch and finished just a nose behind her barnmate. But Santa Anita Derby hero General Challenge (General Meeting) was bumped hard at the break and was caught in traffic all the way around, running 11th. "We didn't have any luck," Baffert said. "There were just too many horses and so much traffic. I knew we were dead at the first turn. Excellent Meeting ran the best of all my horses. She was dead last and she was coming at the end. General Challenge was being jerked all over the place. We've just got to regroup." GII Gallery Furniture.com S. winner Stephen Got Even (A.P. Indy), the 5-1 second choice behind the 9-2 Baffert entry, has also banged around early and never got untracked, running 14th. "He was traveling like a horse who wasn't handling the track," jockey Chris McCarron said. "He kept bobbling every few strides. He came back cut up around the coronet bands of both hind legs." The Godolphin experiment looked like it might pan out at the quarter pole, as 11-1 Worldly Manner (Riverman) came through to take a short lead, but the colt, with only a Dubai prep under his girth this year, tired in the stretch and ended up seventh. "In the last two furlongs, he just stopped," said trainer Saeed bin Suroor, adding, "We're happy to be here and we'll be back next year." Vicar (Wild Again), well backed at 8-1, was wide all the way and had nothing left when they got to the lane, leading only the 25-1 filly Three Ring (Notebook) home. "I was hung out the whole race," said Vicar's rider, Shane Sellers. "I knew I was in trouble the first time under the wire. I tried to hold him in and save all the ground I could. It just didn't work out."

 Also ran: Brancaster, Gold Academy (Ire), Bahamian Bandit (GB), Debbie's Warning (GB), Exeat, Desaru, Easaar (GB), Commander Collins (Ire), Red Sea (GB), Compton Admiral (GB), Alrassaam (GB), Orpen, Auction House. Scratched: Triple Dash (GB).

Twice a winner at Salisbury last season and successful in a Nad al Sheba trial in Dubai, Island Sands led practically all the way to remain unbeaten and give the Godolphin/Saeed bin Suroor/Frankie Dettori combination their second 2000 Guineas winner, following in the hoofprints of 1996 winner Mark of Esteem (Ire). After a fairly even break, Dettori allowed Island Sands to pull into the lead from stablemate Easaar (Machiavellian) and Gold Academy (Royal Academy), but the colt was being stalked on all sides entering the final quarter mile. Mujahid briefly took over 1 1/2 furlongs out, but Island Sands responded to regain the lead. Enrique, at the rear until two furlongs out, began to weave his way through the field and was ridden to challenge inside the final furlong, but was found wanting as the winner stayed on in determined fashion. In the absence of all connections, who were at Churchill Downs, a jubilant jockey Frankie Dettori held sway, saying: "You couldn't fancy him on the bare form of what he had done. I was going to follow Easaar or Auction House (Exbourne), but I let him go on and do his own thing...eventually Richard (Hills, on Mujahid) came up and popped his head in front of me for a stride. Then, out of the corner of my eye, I could see the Niarchos Family colors and thought 'oh Jesus, Enrique's got a turn of foot, he might get me.' The two horses ran to the line, but my horse showed tremendous courage and he won."

Wild Event ended 1998 with wins in the Nov. 8 GIII River City H. over this course and the Dec. 19 GII W. L. McKnight H. at Calder, but had been second in his two starts this season. The six-year-old missed by three-quarters of a length in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. Feb. 6, then came home behind Garbu in the GIII Ft. Lauderdale H. Mar. 13. Turning the tables on that rival this time, the bay sat fourth behind horses down the backstretch, came three wide around the turn and never gave it up down the lane, getting up in the final jump to take a three-way photo. "I thought Garbu would be the one to beat and I didn't want to let him out of my sights," said winning jockey Shane Sellers. "We had a real good trip. I waited to make my move... when we got (to the lead), Hawksley Hill came at us and we put him away. This horse ran a great race."

In the biggest field since Quick As Lightning beat 22 rivals in 1980, Moiava (Bering {GB}) will bid to become Criquelette Head's fourth winner of the race. She was successful last year in two of her three starts, most notably when impressing in the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte Oct. 30. The filly missed her intended reappearance in the Listed Prix Imprudence at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 9, but has been working well. Sunspangled (Caerleon) merits respect based on her win in the G1 Meon Vally Stud Fillies Mile at Ascot Sept. 27 and hails from the powerful Aidan O'Brien stable. She has also been impressing on the home gallops. Wannabe Grand (Danehill) progressed from winning the Listed Empress S. at this course June 27 to win the G2 Cherry Hinton S., beating Pescara (Common Grounds {GB}), at the same course July 7. She then finished second to the unfortunate Bint Allayl in the G2 Lowther S. at York Aug. 20 and rounded off her season with victory in the G1 Shadwell Stud Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket Sept. 29, with Imperial Beauty (Imperial Ballet {Ire}) second. Wannabe Grand has the class to figure, but there's a question mark about her stamina.

The five-year-old gelding captured the GI Forego H. and the GI Vosburgh last season, but disappointed when sixth as the 5-2 favorite in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. He is a perfect three-for-three at the Carter distance.

All carry 128 pounds except Leggera (125).

On a Classic weekend both sides of the Atlantic, this race is still a mouthwatering event, with four of last year's leading European three-year-olds returning to the racetrack. Sagamix (Linamix {Fr}), hero of last year's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, lays his unbeaten record on the line. In his Arc trial, the G2 Prix Niel, Sagamix defeated both Croco Rouge (Rainbow Quest) and Dream Well (Sadler's Wells). Croco Rouge, winner of the G1 Prix Lupin and G2 Prix Greffulhe and second in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club (French Derby), was considered unlucky not to finish closer than fourth in the Arc after being given an injudicious ride by Sylvain Guillot. Thierry Jarnet gets the mount in his new role as retained jockey to owner Wafic Said. The colt may just display too much speed for his rivals over a trip 1 1/2 furlongs shorter than the Arc. Dream Well, winner of the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Irish Derby, was eighth in the Arc as his form tailed off slightly towards the end of last season, but is reportedly back to near his very best. Leggera (Sadler's Wells), caught in the dying strides of the Arc after taking the G1 Prix Vermeille, will only run if conditions are soft enough.

Evil Empire, a close relative to champion filly Elle Danzig (Ger), won the Listed Frujahrs-Stuten-Preis in Cologne Apr. 17 by six lengths from Iora on only her second lifetime start and will start favourite here. Toughest opposition to her appear to be Rose Of Zollern and Miss Tobacc, the leading juvenile fillies of '98 and first and second in Listed Dusseldorfer Stutenpreis here Apr. 10. Successful Appeal captured the GII Cowdin S. and was second in the GIII Nashua S. over this track at two, but had been off the board in all three appearances this year, most recently running fifth behind subsequent GI Kentucky Derby hero Charismatic in the GII Coolmore Lexington S. Apr. 18. Dropping back to a one-turn mile, the dark bay dueled for the lead through honest fractions, opened up a clear advantage at the top of the lane and turned back the late bid of favored Best of Luck for the victory.

License Fee spoiled the return of GI Gazelle H. winner Tap To Music with a narrow, pace-pressing tally. The chestnut filly came into the race off three consecutive third-place finishes, including a 2 1/4-length defeat in the one-mile GIII Bed O'Roses Breeders' Cup H. in her last effort Apr. 17. Shortening up one furlong for this, she laid just off Foil for the opening four furlongs, was joined by Tap To Music and outgamed that rival in a ding-dong battle in the final 100 yards, despite jockey Jose Espinoza losing his whip entering the lane.

Coming off a 6 1/2-month layoff and then a powerful win against allowance company on Mar. 26 at Aqueduct, Puncher made it two straight trips to the winner's circle with a game score. Bobbling shortly after the start, the grey stalked the pacesetter closely into the turn and dug in late to prevail in the stretch.

After a private purchase just before the 1998 Kentucky Derby, Rock and Roll was thrown to the wolves contesting the early pace in the 124th Run for the Roses before tiring badly to finish 14th of 15. The colt went on to take the GIII Pennsylvania Derby last year and has made a pair of starts in 1999, running second in the GIII Creme Fraiche H. at Gulfstream Mar. 13 and third in the Fifth Season Breeders' Cup at Oaklawn Park Apr. 7. Dropping back to one turn for this effort, the chestnut, under jockey Pat Day, sat a patient trip while within striking distance behind pacesetters Lil's Lad (Pine Bluff) and Orville N' Wilburs (Out of Place) for the opening half mile. While Lil's Lad began drifting badly at the quarter pole, Rock and Roll angled out for run, collared Orville N' Wilburs at the eighth pole and was all out to hold off a fast-closing Liberty Gold. "He's a hard-trying horse," winning trainer Bill Mott said. "And he's versatile. He comes away with something every time we try him. Just maybe his game is sprinting."

You have heard of "horses for courses." Well, in the case of Zuppardo Ardo, we have a case of "jockeys for horses." Shane Sellers reassumed the mount on the Louisiana-bred having ridden her to three victories in as many rides in the past. Employing her rallying style, the bay mare returned from an eight-week layoff to take the Fair Grounds' Pan Zareta S. Feb. 13, then achieved triple-digit Beyer Speed Figures in a pair of second-place finishes in the Victoria Lass S. in New Orleans and most recently the Apr. 6 Carousel H. at Oaklawn. In last and as many as 12 lengths off the front-runners down the backside, Zuppardo Ardo looked hopelessly beaten, but began advancing stoutly once in the lane, snuck up along the rail and split runners in deep stretch to be up just in time. Sellers commented, "This is a gutsy filly. They had fast fractions and I really felt I was leaving her too much to do. At the three-eighths pole, I felt if she got third, that would be great. At the three-sixteenths, I felt I could get second and then all of a sudden here she comes." Favored and previously undefeated Harpia (Danzig) set the pace, but tired late to finish fifth.

Shires Ende was the Rodney Dangerfield of last year's three-year-old turf filly division--no respect, despite accounting for the Palisades S. last spring and finishing a close-up second in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland last fall. After a victory in the Dec. 19 Pago Hop S. at the Fair Grounds, the bay returned to contest the Apr. 8 GIII Jenny Wiley, but finished a well-beaten seventh. Dismissed at the windows off that effort, Shires Ende was taken back and saved ground off a moderate pace for the opening three-quarters of a mile. As the field turned for home, she still had only one rival beat, but circled eight wide into the lane, came with a powerful burst and took over late to win going away. Winning trainer Richie Scherer pinned the blame on himself for his filly's Jenny Wiley performance. "She wasn't prepared mentally or physically for that last race. But she bounced back real nice from that race," he said.

The winner of the Cal Cup Classic in his final start last season, Budroyale was on the board in his first three tries of '99, but picked up his first victory of the campaign in fine style. Second to Classic Cat in the Mar. 12 Tokyo City H. and Apr. 11 GII San Bernardino H., the bay gelding was a distant third choice but proved much the best, stalking the pace to the stretch before taking command and leaving his rivals in the dust. "I am surprised that he won that easily, but he had been training lights out and he had been facing a tough customer in Classic Cat," winning trainer Ted West, Jr. said. "Actually, to be honest, I thought our horse would have to run the race of his life to finish third today. But he's so steady, he likes this track and I figured he'd show up and run a good race." He goes next in the June 13 Super Diamond H. The 3-10 favorite Event of the Year (Seattle Slew), second in the Mar. 6 GI Santa Anita H., trailed early and was never a threat. "On the first turn, I was on the inside saving all the ground and I could sense that he didn't like to be in there," jockey Laffit Pincay Jr. said. "I eased him out on the backside, but once he got out there he didn't make any move at all...he really didn't want to run. He felt sound, it was just one of those days."

- 3--Cortachy Castle (Ire), 124, g, 4, Pips Pride (GB)--Maricica (GB), by Ahonoora (GB). ($10,811 wnl '95 GONOV; $24,800 yrl '96 TAOCT). O-Mrs E A Lerpiniere; B-M L Ayers; $5,703.

Margins: 1HF, HD, HF. Odds: 16-1, 14-1, 8-1.

Also ran: Almaty (Ire), Yorkies Boy (GB), Afaan (Ire), Night Shot (GB), Caballero (GB), Tedburrow (GB), Mid-night Escape (GB), Henry Hall (Ire), Repertory (GB), Aurigny (GB).

Winning his second Group 3 event, his first since taking the 1996 King George S., and visiting the winner's circle for the first time since scoring on his seasonal debut in a conditions race at Goodwood last year, Rambling Bear produced a stunning late burst to grab victory in the last 50 yards and lower the course record by over a quarter of a second. As anticipated, Repertory (Aragon {GB}) disputed the early running with Afaan (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), albeit on opposite sides of the track. Approaching the final two furlongs, Repertory began to fade, unsurprisingly as he had raced freely to the start beforehand, and Afaan came under strong pressure. Cortachy Castle took over at the furlong marker and looked set for a game success, but Rambling Bear, two lengths down with 100 yards to run, produced a telling late spurt to land the spoils.
