POST DERBY WRAP-UP Trainer D. Wayne Lukas reported yesterday that his Kentucky Derby winner Charismatic (Summer Squall) and third-place finisher Cat Thief (Storm Cat) came out of the race in good order and will move on to the Preakness a week from Saturday. Prime Timber (Sultry Song), fourth in Saturday's race, will also move on to Baltimore as well and could be accompanied by Kentucky Oaks winner Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy), though she may be cross-entered in the May 14 GII Black-Eyed Susan S. Excellent Meeting (General Meeting) and General Challenge (General Meeting) are likely to be shipped back to California. Worldly Manner (Riverman), who was in contention to the eighth pole in the Derby, is also a Preakness probable. Godolphin racing manager Simon Crisford commented, "He (Worldly Manner) didn't get the trip, but he ran a fantastic race." Stablemate Aljabr (Storm Cat) is on his way back to Europe and will be pointed for the G1 St. James' Palace S. at Royal Ascot in June. Other Derby runners going to the Preakness are: Menifee (Harlan), Kimberlite Pipe (Take Me Out), K One King (Apalachee), Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), Stephen Got Even (A.P. Indy), Adonis (Kris S.), and Vicar (Wild Again). Also probable are Gotham S. winner Badge (Air Forbes Won), Flamingo second Forty One Carats (Tactical Advantage), Derby Trial winner Patience Game (Woodman), Lead Em Home (Mr. Leader) and Torrid Sand (Line In The Sand).

FIRE DAMAGES VINERY STALLION BARN A fire damaged one of four stallion barns at Vinery in Midway, Ky. late Saturday night, but there were no equine or human injuries. With the stallions out of the barn, as is the case every evening, a night watchman spotted a flame in the oldest and only wooden barn at 11:40 p.m. He immediately called 911 and the fire department responded within 20 minutes. The fire, although still under investigation, is believed to be electrical in nature.

Moderately successful last year, Wince made huge progress over the winter to land the G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury Apr. 16 in convincing style. Continuing to progress along the right lines, Wince was bet down from 7-1 to 4-1 favorite and, showing a tremendous burst of acceleration in deep stretch, she took command inside the final 100 yards and held on well from the fast-finishing Wannabe Grand and Valentine Waltz. Jockey Kieren Fallon, said, "It is probably what we expected the way she worked with (Enrique, the 2000 Guineas runner-up) last week. It's a great relief after getting beat yesterday. About a furlong and a half to go it seemed as if [the far side group] had the measure of us, but this filly picked up really good." Winning trainer Henry Cecil added, "I rang the Prince [Khalid Abdullah] the other day and I said I think we've got a great chance of being in the first three. I wasn't going to say we would win the Guineas because that's the worst thing in the world to say. He got slightly excited when I rang him, as he wasn't expecting anything until then."

Three weeks ago, Artax had the daunting task of chasing one of the country's biggest speedballs in the GIII Bold Ruler H. and had to settle for second, 2 1/2 lengths behind Kelly Kip as that one broke his own track record for six furlongs. Artax had shown no ill effects from that taxing effort, as he blazed four furlongs Apr. 26 in :45 3/5 in preparation for this event. The flashy dark bay broke alertly from his outside post to sit just off front-running Wouldn't We All, with GI Vosburgh S. winner Affirmed Success right behind in third. Jockey Jorge Chavez, riding Artax for only the second time (he was Affirmed Success' rider for all of last year), set his mount for the lead leaving the three-eighths pole with Affirmed Success glued off his flank. He was able to get away from his rival inside the final eighth for the eye-catching victory, breaking Dr. Fager's 31-year-old track record in the process. Winning conditioner Louis Albertrani said, "This was impressive. He was training excellent ever since I got him from California. that last race didn't take anything out of him." Albertrani indicated that all systems are go for a run at the GI Metropolitan Mile at Belmont May 29, a race in which he will likely face a rematch with Affirmed Success.

Also ran: Sagamix (Fr), Northern Quest (Fr). Non Runner: Leggera (Ire).

Dark Moondancer, who won the G2 Prix d'Harcourt at Longchamp Apr. 4 with a wire-to-wire performance on his last start, pulled off a surprise victory over hotshots Croco Rouge, dual-Derby winner Dream Well and the previously undefeated G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero Sagamix (Linamix {Fr}). With the slow early pace set by Northern Quest (Rainbow Quest) and Sagamix in front, Dark Moondancer lay in behind the leaders with Croco Rouge on the inside and Dream Well settled in last, two lengths behind the field. On the final turn, Dark Moondancer ranged alongside Sagamix as the field quickened into the stretch and took the lead two furlongs out. The race developed into a three-horse affair as Dream Well, who came with a late burst on the outside, and Croco Rouge, who eventually got a run through on the rail, finished second and third, respectively. This was the fourth success in the race for trainer Alain Royer-Dupre, who said afterwards, "We might go next for the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 4 and then the Grand-Prix de Saint-Cloud July 4." Odds-on favorite Sagamix was a disappointment to his connections, but Roland de Longevialle, racing manager to the horse's owner-breeder Jean-Luc Lagardere, said, "There were a few question marks before the race. This was the first time he had run over such a short trip and on ground that was much firmer than usual. We'll take our time before deciding where he will run next."

Winner of the Listed Dusseldorfer Stutenpreis on this course Apr. 10, Rose Of Zollern confirmed her status as one of last season's leading juvenile fillies by gaining Classic glory. French raider Ronda led most of the way, setting a fast pace, while Rose of Zollern remained toward the rear. In the latter stages, it looked as if Ronda was going to hold on, but Rose Of Zollern came with a strong finishing run to win comfortably in the end.

Bonapartiste was a very consistent sort in 1998, with five wins and four second-place finishes for 10 starts, his only off-the-board finish coming when ninth in the Breeders' Cup Turf last Nov. 7. Making his first start since that effort, the gray saved ground early under Chris McCarron, steadied a bit at the three-eighths, was blocked and still last with a furlong to run, but exploded once loose to be up just in time. Said McCarron, "If he wasn't such a classy, hard-trying dude, he wouldn't have won. He won in spite of my ride today. I wasn't really trying to go inside, I was stuck there." Trainer Ron McAnally singled out the GI Charles Whittingham H. going 1 1/4 miles over the Hollywood Turf May 31 as a possible target for his trainee.

Event Of The Year Injured In Mervyn LeRoy"

The cause for the disappointing fourth-place finish of Event Of The Year (Seattle Slew) in Saturday's GII Mervyn LeRoy H. appears to be a wrenched right ankle, according to assistant trainer Gary Mandella. Preliminary x-rays of the ankle and right knee came back negative, though additional x-rays are in store. "He stumbled leaving the gate and that's probably where it happened. It would seem to make sense because he never picked up the bit," said Mandella.

Reraise broke his maiden at first asking for a $62,500 tag. Sound familiar? His meteoric rise to the top continued with a 12-length powerhouse in the Kentucky Cup Sprint, followed by his front-running triumph in the Breeders' Cup Sprint which earned the gelding Eclipse Award honors. Trainer Craig Dollase chose the Apr. 8 Count Fleet Sprint at Oaklawn for Reraise's return, and he won easily by 2 3/4 lengths. Only three other could be enticed to take on the champ in the spot and Reraise had no problem asserting his dominance cruising through an uncontested five furlongs in :56 3/5 and winning as he pleased. "He's just a special horse. I just try to be a quiet passenger with him. Today was just a little stroll in the park," said winning rider Corey Nakatani, whose brother-in-law, Craig Dollase trains the winner. Dollase said a longer race for Reraise is not out of the question "a little bit farther down the road."

2nd Dam: Prospector's Star, by Mr. Prospector

3rd Dam: Astrious (GISW-USA. $144,330), by Piaster ($8,400 yrl '97 TAOCT). O-Marquise de Moratalla; B-Fares stables Ltd; T-Jean-Claude Rouget; J-T Gillet; $36,544.

2--Hello Soso (Ire), 126, f, 3, Alzao--Silver Echo (Ire), by Caerleon. ($71,524 yrl '97 GOOC1). O-J L Tepper; B-Mrs T V Ryan; $13,289.

3--All Glory (GB), 126, f, 3, Alzao--Dazzling Heights (GB), by Bustino (GB). O-P Pritchard; B-Tarworth Bloodstock Investments Ltd; $6,644.

Margins: 3/4, 1HF, 1HF. Odds: 5-1, 14-1.

Also ran: Louve, Silver Star (GB), Cerulean Sky (Ire), Lever To Heaven (Ire).

Having beaten some smart opposition at Longchamp on her last start Apr. 11, Star Of Akkar took this event in impressive fashion, winning the race after a battle with Hello Soso inside the final furlong. Lever To Heaven led and set a slow early pace, with Hello Soso and Star Of Akkar traveling well in second and third. Hello Soso took control two furlongs out and went clear of the field. Star Of Akkar was shaken up and was asked for an effort at this stage and ran on gamely to get up and collar Hello Soso on the outside inside the final furlong, winning by three-quarters of a length with a little in hand. Winning trainer Jean de Roualle said, "Starr Of Akkar was not at her best in February when the time came to enter her in the Classic races, so she is not entered in the Poule D'Essai des Pouliches [French 1000 Guineas] or the Prix de Diane [French Oaks] and I can't say where she will run next. She has really blossomed in the past month and I think there is room for further improvement." However the filly's owner, the Marquesa de Moratalla, hinted that she may make the decision to pay the supplementary entry fee for the Prix de Diane, run over an extended mile and a quarter at Chantilly June 13.

PRIX BARBEVILLE-G3, $60,465, Longchamp, 4yo/up, 1 15/16mT, 3:23.50, gd.

1--#@KATUN (FR), 121, h, 6, Saumarez (GB)--All Found, by Alleged. O-Antoine Boucher; B-Ecurie Kura; T-Xavier Nakkachdji; J-T Thulliez; $36,544. * 1/2 to All Dancing (Fr) (Fabulous Dancer), GSP-Fr; Strike Oil (Fr) (Fabulous Dancer), GSW-Fr; Roli Abi (Fr) (Bering {GB}), SW & GSP-Fr.

2--Tajoun (Fr), 128, g, 5, General Holme--Taesha (Ire), by Mill Reef. O-H H the Aga Khan; B-H H the Aga Khan's Studs; $13,289.

3--Copeland (GB), 121, c, 4, Generous (Ire)--Whitehaven (GB), by Top Ville (Ire). O/B-Sheikh Mohammed Al Maktoum; $6,644.

Margins: HD, 3/4, HD. Odds: 17-2, 4-10, 16-1. Also ran: Russian Hope (Ire), Antarctique (Ire), Solo Mio (Ire), Seignorial, Sweet Summertime (Ire). Non runner: Irish Holmes (Ire).

Former handicapper Katun justified a big leap in class by winning this in exciting style, getting up to beat Tajoun on the nod at the wire. Katun traveled at the back of the field, tracking the hot favorite Tajoun, while Russian Hope (Rock Hopper {GB}) took them along in front. Russian Hope still had the advantage two furlongs out as Tajoun appeared as the only challenger from the pack, and the two engaged in a battle together while Katun, who took a long time to get going in the home stretch, stayed on from the back and took the race from Tajoun in the last stride.
