MENIFEE IS "THE MAN" IN 124TH

PREAKNESS Menifee (Harlan), a fast-closing second in the Kentucky Derby, is the morning-line favorite for the today's second jewel in the Triple Crown, the $1 million Preakness at Pimlico. But trainer Bob Baffert, who opted to send Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) for what amounted to an easy workout in yesterday's GII Black-Eyed Susan instead of tossing her into the Triple Crown fray, is high on his filly Excellent Meeting (General Meeting). "If she gets the trip, I feel confident she can win," he said. "She tipped me off (Friday) morning, the same way Real Quiet tipped me off last year. She looks so good." She would become the first filly to take the Preakness since Nellie Morse did it in 1924, and the fifth overall. Kentucky Derby heroine Winning Colors was the last to try her luck in the race, running third in 1988. Patience Game (Woodman) climbs to the top of the class ladder after breaking his maiden by eight lengths Mar. 27 and capturing the Apr. 24 GIII Derby Trial by 2 1/4 lengths last time out, but his connections are also confident. "We realize this is a big step up, but I think he might be able to handle it," trainer Alex Hassinger Jr. said. "He has shown a lot of composure in his last two races. He didn't get away that well in the Derby Trial and was in tight for a while, but he didn't get upset and settled in nicely."

NONE FASTER THAN SPEEDING "BULLET" IN

BLACK-EYED SUSAN Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy), who started the streak in the GII Alcibiades at Keeneland last October and added the GI Kentucky Oaks in her latest attempt, flashed to her eighth consecutive stakes victory at Pimlico yesterday afternoon, taking the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. in yet another romp. The final margin of victory was two lengths over the game but overmatched Dreams Gallore (Silver Ghost), with another 16 1/2 lengths separating the runner-up from third-placed 72-1 shot Vee Vee Star (Norquestor). But the victory did little to make up for the opportunity that was missed after the filly drew the outside post position in the Preakness and was scratched. "Since Wednesday (draw day) I've felt like somebody kicked me in the stomach," jockey Gary Stevens admitted. "I so much wanted to run this filly in the Preakness. I think when her career is over she is going to be rated right up there with the great ones like Ruffian and Personal Ensign." (Black-Eyed Susan chart, p2)

Unbeaten and virtually unchallenged in her four starts this season, 1998 Eclipse Award winner Silverbulletday was much the best while winning the Apr. 30 GI Kentucky Oaks at 1-10 last time out and was off at identical odds to take another. Breaking from the rail over a biased track which had carried speed from gate to wire in seven of the 10 dirt races on the card, the champ cruised along inside The Happy Hopper (El Prado {Ire}) through an easy half, lengthened her stride just a fraction to put 5 1/2 lengths between herself and the field on the far turn and toyed with Kentucky Oaks runner-up Dreams Gallore through the stretch to win her eighth straight stakes. "This is just a great filly," trainer Bob Baffert said. "She's such a pro. She can do anything. Gary (Stevens) let her role out of the gate and she just went with it." As for missing out on a chance to beat the colts in the Preakness, Baffert said, "From the 14 hole she would have had to sustain her run all the way. I don't know if even she could do that. This is like a consolation prize. I know the Black-Eyed Susan is a great race, but we had her ready for the Preakness. But I always put her before me and I always will." As for what's next, the trainer said, "We'll take her to Kentucky now and play it by ear. If Silverbulletday hooks the boys, it'll have to be for a lot of money, like the Haskell at Monmouth for a million."

All carry 126 pounds.

Ladbrokes' Odds: Intikhab, 4-6; Jim And Tonic, 7-2; Almushtarak, 7-1; Fly To The Stars, 8-1; Tomba, 12-1; Duck Row, 25-1.

This race heralds the eagerly awaited return of last year's European champion Intikhab, who put up one of the best performances of last season when he treated his rivals with disdain in winning the G2 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 16 by eight lengths. On his only other appearance last year, he won the G3 Vodafone Diomed S. at Epsom June 6 by five. If he can return with his ability intact, he will be difficult to beat. French challenger Jim And Tonic (Fr) was last seen comfortably winning the G2 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin Apr. 18 and was the model of consistency in 1998.

Middlesex Drive (Pine Bluff) fell off the Triple Crown trail last year after poor efforts in the GII Wood Memorial and GII Illinois Derby, but a switch to turf later in the season rejuvenated the colt, who won two grassy allowances and placed third in the GII Jamaica H. at Belmont in October. Laid off for five months, the chestnut began his four-year-old season with a fast-closing third (he went the last quarter in a brilliant :23 flat) in a one-mile Keeneland allowance Apr. 22.

Harpia (Danzig) was brilliant in winning her first five North American starts, including the GII Shirley Jones H. at Gulfstream Feb. 3. That streak ended last time out in the GII Humana Distaff at Churchill May 2. The filly reportedly did not like the track that day, which was not kind to speed. She came back to work well over this surface and, if she can duel Enjoy the Moment (Slew's Royalty) into submission, should get back on track here. Enjoy the Moment won the GIII Las Flores H. three back and most recently took the Valiant Pete H. over males at Santa Anita Apr. 19. In her only start outside of California, however, she finished last of six in the Victoria Lass H. at the Fair Grounds.

FHBPA DEFENDS HORSEMEN AFTER COCAINE

POSITIVES Trainers Mark Hennig and Todd Pletcher are expected to have their licenses suspended by the Florida Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering after horses they saddled during the Gulfstream meeting tested positive for trace levels of cocaine. But Kent Stirling, executive director of the Florida Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association, blasted the decision, saying, "Debbie Miller (director of the Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering) is conducting a scorched earth policy. Because Florida is a zero tolerance state, she is fining and suspending licenses left and right. She's destroying peoples lives and chasing owners out of the game because of some trace levels of cocaine. The most sophisticated equipment in the world is being used in horse racing. We've got to have some tolerance levels. And we need some people in the industry who can use some common sense." The level of cocaine involved is believed to be less than 60 nanograms. Stirling said, "It's been explained to me that if you took all the time in 32 years, one second would be the equivalent to one nanogram." Hennig and Pletcher were served papers at Belmont on Thursday, and their hearing was held in Tallahassee yesterday. The state was informed of the cocaine positives near the end of March, but gave the trainers only the one-day notice, leaving them a little more than 24 hours to find a lawyer to represent them in Tallahassee. The hearings were conducted over the telephone. Each defendant was allotted one hour for argument, but Pletcher's hearing, the first, ran over by 20 minutes, so Hennig had only 40 minutes as the state had only reserved a court reporter for two hours. During the hearing New York Racing Association President Terry Meyocks and trainer D. Wayne Lukas vouched for the two, also via telephone, but their endorsements apparently didn't help. It's expected Hennig and Pletcher will appeal any penalties, but their lawyer, David Rominick, didn't return calls. Trainer David Donk was also named in the case, but was out of the country and couldn't be served. Tampa-based trainers Cyndi Smith and Mike LaRocco have already been suspended for the same offense. LaRocca, whose positive was 10 nanograms, sent his split sample to Industrial Labs in Colorado and it came back negative. But by the time he got the split sample back he had already been suspended two weeks.

Squall Valley picked up his last victory in the Kentuckiana S. at Ellis Park last August, then was off the board in a pair of stakes on turf and dirt last October and was given a 6 1/2-month vacation. He came back to be a close-up fifth after an awkward break in a Churchill allowance on the Kentucky Derby undercard. On the pace after a clean start this time, the dark bay dueled for the lead for a half, opened up two lengths at the top of the lane and held on to the wire.

8th-CDX, $44,550, Alw, 3yo, 6 1/2f, 1:16 3/5, ft. FORESTRY (c, 3, Storm Cat--Shared Interest {GISW, $667,610}, by Pleasant Colony), a Triple Crown nominee who had not been out since taking the 6 1/2-furlong San Pedro S. Mar. 28 at Santa Anita, was the 1-2 chalk to score in his first start outside the Golden State. The bay vied for the early lead and outgamed 4-1 Sicnee (Rubiana) down the stretch to take it by a head. The runner-up, Group-placed in England at two, was making his U.S. bow after nearly seven months off. Lifetime Record: SW, 5-3-1-1, $119,310. O-Jones Aaron U & Marie. B-R Evans (KY). T-B Baffert.

Valhol Appeal Set For May 24:

Attorneys for the connections of disqualified GII Arkansas Derby winner Valhol (Diazo) will have a chance to appeal the disqualification in a hearing at the State Capitol in Little Rock, Arkansas May 24 at 3:00 p.m., according to the Thoroughbred Times. The Oaklawn Park stewards had disqualified the gelding, redistributed the purse and suspended jockey Billy Patin for the rest of the year based on evidence that Patin had used an electrical device during the race.

Antley Replaces McCarron in Prairie Meadows Challenge:

A stress fracture of his left heel will keep jockey Chris McCarron out of the May 25 Riding Cup II at Prairie Meadows. Taking McCarron's place on the roster will be Kentucky Derby winner Chris Antley. The event raises money for the Don Macbeth Memorial Jockey Fund and the Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, Inc.

Winfama scored a victory in the GIII Suwanee River H. at Gulfstream in her second start of the year in typical front-running fashion, then finished sixth in the GII Orchid H. Mar. 7 and third in the GII Black Helen H. at Hialeah Apr. 10. With the scratches taking out any other speed in the field, top local rider Edgar Prado took Winfama to the lead, was able to set a dawdling pace along the rail and, when they were set down for the drive, had enough left to hold off odds-on favorite Pleasant Temper to get the win.

New Track in Virginia?:

The Harness Tracks of America Newsletter reported yesterday that James J. Wilson is evaluating whether there is enough support for weekend racing at a turf course to be built in Prince William County in Northern Virginia. Five years ago, Wilson lost out on his bid for Virginia's racetrack license when Colonial Downs was given the go-ahead to build near Richmond. That track is now struggling to survive a number of problems, including bankruptcy. "We are prepared to go forward if the industry and the horse community says the concept is something they would support," Wilson told the HTA Newsletter.

A winner of two of her three starts as a juvenile, most recently a handicap at Ascot Oct. 9, Nasheed showed the benefit of wintering in Dubai when coming from last to first on her seasonal debut to defeat the game favorite Samoa. The winner is not entered in the G1 Vodafone Oaks at Epsom June 4 and Angus Gold, Sheikh Hamdan's racing manager, virtually ruled out the possibility of supplementing her for the race. "John Dunlop's immediate reaction after the race was to go for the G1 French Oaks at Chantilly (June 13)," he said. "She's by Riverman, out of a middle-distance winning mare, so it is anybody's guess if she will stay. She has a heart as big as herself which is her biggest asset. Last year, she really battled to win at Ascot. She's very tough and quite talented."

Name Change for Ladbrokes:

The Ladbroke Group Plc officially changed its name to the Hilton Group Plc yesterday in recognition of the fact that 80 percent of the international company's assets are in hotels, with about two-thirds of its profits from that source. However, the Ladbroke name will be retained for the betting and gaming side of the group, which achieved record profits last year. Peter George, the vice chairman and chief executive of the Hilton Group, who made his name on the betting side, yesterday reiterated that, despite rumors to the contrary, the company is planning to keep its betting and gaming division, saying, "There is no present intention to sell off the betting and gaming business."
