EXCELLENT MEETING EASED IN PREAKNESS

Excellent Meeting (General Meeting), the lone filly in yesterday's Preakness field, was steadied early, never got into the hunt and was pulled up at the three-eighths pole, but was able to walk back to her barn after the race. "By the time I got halfway down the backside, she had just fallen out of the bridle," said jockey Kent Desormeaux. "She was out of the picture, had no hope...that's when I backed off and tried to save her as best I could." Trainer Bob Baffert added, "Kent said he had no horse going down the backstretch, but I think when he snatched her up on the first turn, she might have displaced (her palate). She's fine back here at the barn. Now we'll just have to regroup."

FAN RUNS ONTO TRACK AT PIMLICO

A fan at Pimlico for yesterday's GI Preakness S. ran onto the track during the running of the seventh race on the card, the Gill Maryland Breeders' Cup H. Somehow the riders avoided trampling the man, even after he squared himself and took an awkward swing at Artax (Marquetry), the 4-5 favorite in the race. The patron, who was reportedly 23 years old, apparently climbed the infield fence right in front of a handful of security guards, crossed the turf course and then stood in the middle of the track for about 15 seconds before the field reached him. Yes It's True (Is It True) was on the lead and slipped inside the man without incident, but jockey Jorge Chavez aboard Artax had to swerve to dodge a collision. "He could've been killed, my horse could've broke down, anything could've happened," Chavez said. "Anybody could've been dead. Thank God that didn't happen. The main thing is, it never should have happened. In the future, they need to have more people to be there watching so that no one jumps out like that." Joe DeFrancis, president and CEO of the Maryland Jockey Club, defended his track's security procedures. "We have more than 1,000 security guards at the facility between Baltimore City Police, the National Guard and our own police and private security," DeFrancis said. "We have one guard for every 100 people and that's a high level of security. If someone is crazy and is determined to commit suicide, there's nothing anybody can do about it." Badly bothered by the incident, Artax ran fifth. All bets made on him were refunded, but owner Paraneck Stable still will collect the $6,000 for the fifth-place finish. Security officers apprehended the fan and he was taken into custody. His name was not immediately released.

TRAINERS SUSPENDED FOR COCAINE

POSITIVES The Florida Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering has issued orders to suspend the licenses of trainers David Donk, Mark Hennig and Todd Pletcher because of trace levels of cocaine. But Florida neglected to inform other jurisdictions about the rulings. The trace levels (less than 60 nanograms) of cocaine were found in Added Gold (trained by Donk) Mar. 1 at Gulfstream, Baxters Road (trained by Pletcher) Mar. 17 at Hialeah and King's Mate (trained by Hennig) Apr. 1 at Hialeah. New York Racing Association steward Dave Hicks said his track hadn't been informed of the suspension. Kentucky state steward Bernie Hettel said, "I only know what I've read about the suspension, but we haven't been informed by Florida yet." All three trainers will be allowed use of the grounds until the tracks are notified, and all run horses today. Pletcher saddles four and Donk has one going at Belmont Park. Hennig has one entered at Churchill Downs and four at Belmont.

FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC PREVIEW

WRAP-UP The second session of the Under Tack Show for the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale was held Friday in Maryland. Six two-year-olds zipped an eighth in :10 3/5 to tie for the fastest furlong at the preview. They were Hip #307, Mystical Dawn, a filly by Crafty Ridan; Hip #308, a filly by In Excess (Ire); Hip #367, Aglimmer, a filly by Cherokee Run; Hip #428, Lil Sydney, a gelding by Lil Fappi; Hip #493, Dunhall Lass, a filly by Peteski; and Hip #583, Timothys Way, a colt by Glitterman. The quickest quarter of :21 4/5 was shared by Hip #346, Gracie's Prospect, a filly by Allen's Prospect; Hip #401, a filly by Pembroke; and Hip #430, a colt by Allen's Prospect. Hip #363, a filly by Tactical Advantage, went three furlongs in :35 to top the works at that distance. The two-day Midlantic Sale starts Monday at 10 a.m.

 Also ran: Intikhab, Tomba (GB), Duck Row.

Winner of the G2 Prix du Rond-Point at Longchamp Oct. 4, Fly To The Stars went on to finish a creditable fifth to Da Hoss in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Churchill Downs Nov. 7. With a sense of deja vu, the five-year-old emulated the role of last year's Lockinge winner Cape Cross (Ire), in that he was in the race on merit, but also to ensure a good pace for his more illustrious stablemate, 1998 European Champion Intikhab (Red Ransom). Fly To The Stars set a good pace with 4-7 favorite Intikhab tracking in second, three lengths back, as Jim And Tonic was rated in the rear. Going to the final quarter, the frontrunner still showed the way and he stayed on well all the way to the wire. Jim And Tonic and Almushtarak passed a tiring Intikhab in the final furlong to fill the minor spots. Trainer Saeed bin Suroor had mixed emotions after the race, saying, "It's the same as happened last year with Cape Cross, but Fly To The Stars was not a pacemaker, he ran for himself. I checked the ground before the first race and it was soft. Intikhab is better on good going and he couldn't handle it today. We're disappointed to see him run like that."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

CHARISMATIC: A POWERFUL PRESENCE

IN PREAKNESS Charismatic (Summer Squall), who stunned the crowd with his 31-1 upset of the Kentucky Derby just two weeks ago, made his presence felt at Pimlico yesterday afternoon, powering to the lead as they straightened into the stretch and drawing off to take the $1 million GI Preakness by 1 1/2 lengths at odds of 8-1. The former claimer is the third three-year-old in the past three years to win the first two legs of the Triple Crown, and the 28th who can boast that accomplishment overall. He will give owners Bob and Beverly Lewis their second chance at the Crown in three years; their Silver Charm captured the Derby and Preakness in 1997, but missed by a neck in the Belmont S. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas now has won 11 Triple Crown races, including five Preaknesses, but had never before taken the first two jewels with the same horse. "I told the Lewises in April that I wasn't sure (about the Derby and Preakness), but that I thought we had a Belmont Stakes horse," Lukas said. "Now that we've won the first two, the pressure's on me to prove I was right. The hill gets steeper as you go along, but I think this horse has the style and ability to win it." Trainer Elliott Walden, who saddled Victory Gallop to be second in the first two Triple Crown races last year, watched as Menifee (Harlan), the 2-1 favorite after finishing fast to be second in the Derby, came up short in the drive and had to settle for the runner-up spot once again. "My horse had a good trip throughout. He ran extremely well. Charismatic just handed it to us," he admitted. "I really can't make any excuses. It hurts to be second again, but not as bad as if we had only lost by a head." Walden, who spoiled Real Quiet's Triple attempt when Victory Gallop turned the tables in the final jewel, has not decided if he will go on to the June 5 Belmont S. "I have no immediate plans this time for the Belmont," he said. "We'll go home and regroup. It would look funny if I didn't run in the Belmont, because Real Quiet beat (Victory Gallop) pretty good here last year, but this winner won with a little more authority than I really like to see my horse get beat with." Third-place finisher Badge (Air Forbes Won), who closed to miss second by a head at 58-1, will be back in the 1 1/2-mile Belmont. "I don't care what anyone says," trainer Joe Aquilino, a former New York City firefighter, said. "I know this horse can get the distance and I know he has the Belmont on his schedule."

Proving that his Kentucky Derby triumph was no fluke, Charismatic came right back to post an even handier victory in his second Classic attempt. Rated near the back of the pack while racing between horses around the first turn and down the backstretch as Cat Thief (Storm Cat), Kimberlite Pipe (Take Me Out) and Vicar (Wild Again) duelled on the front end, the chestnut Atlas came with a five-wide sweep around the far turn, drifted out under Chris Antley's left-handed whip, then straightened out and strode home a decisive winner. "He showed greatness winning the Derby and today he showed he's progressed from that race," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "He came out of the Derby more aggressive, cockier, with a strut to his step, like he knew he'd done something pretty special. He's getting to the point where he's figuring this game out." More Preakness News, p2

She could improve in her second start of the season. Valentine Waltz, previous winner of the G3 Nell Gwyn S. in mid-April, finished a close third to Wince in the 1000 Guineas. Venize, never worse than second in four outings, caused an upset when winning the G3 Prix de la Grotte in her stakes debut Apr. 25. Calando, making her first start of the year here, won the G3 May Hill S. at Doncaster in September and was runner-up in the G1 Fillies Mile at Ascot two weeks later.

This is Italy's first Group 1 race of the season and the locally trained horses will do well to keep the prize at home in what is a truly international affair. The foreign challenge is led by the German-trained Elle Danzig, winner of five Group races last year including the G2 Henkel Rennen (German 1000 Guineas) May 3, the G2 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) June 1 and the G1 Grosser Dallmayr Preis Aug. 2. Central Park represents Godolphin, who are challenging for prizes in six different countries over the weekend. He returns to the scene of his G1 Derby Italiano win last June, bidding to plunder another Group 1 success. Central Park also finished third to Daylami in the G1 Coral Eclipse S. July 4 and won the G2 BMW Europachampionat at Aug. 16. The French are represented by Barbola, who won the Listed Prix Ridgway at Chantilly Sept. 2. He started this season in good style by winning the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 13 and the G2 Prix Harcourt at Longchamp Apr. 4. Crisos II Monaco, winner of the G2 Italian 2000 Guineas last year, has had a quiet build-up to this with victories in two minor races and would seem to be the best of the home team.

Baron Georg von Ullmann's unbeaten Sumitas will start a warm favorite following a facile victory in the Listed Preis des Gestuts Wiesenhof Apr. 18, his only previous start this season. His main opposition may come from British challengers Berlioz and Bahamian Bandit. The latter ran well to be sixth in the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 1 on his second start of the year, while the former has not started this year, but was runner-up to Enrique (GB) in the Listed Somerville Tattersall S. at Newmarket in early October.

An allowance winner at Aqueduct in March, Foil was then runner-up in the Apr. 17 Gill Bed o'Roses Breeders' Cup H. and third in an overnight handicap at the Big A May 1. Jumping back into the graded ranks as the fourth choice in the nine-horse field, the gray sprinted to the lead right after breaking from the far outside, set a pressured pace, but saved enough to stave off the late bid of favored Harpia for the score. "She's a gutsy little girl," trainer Allen Jerkens said. "We had to send her early today, because she was too far out with that post (number nine). She was well ridden." The filly could make her next start in the GIII Vagrancy H. at Belmont June 20.

He was most recently third by 2 3/4 over a yielding turf course at Garden State Park Apr. 28. Reserved at the back of the pack for the opening five-eighths, the bay made his way through traffic, challenged for the lead at the furlong marker and was quickly clear to win by 2 1/4 at odds of 10-1. Off at 4-1 following that effort, the bay rated along towards the rear early on, launched a bid on the far turn, came wide into the drive and drew away late to win by 4 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $27,060. O-Klaravich Stables. B-Oak Cliff Thoroughbred Breeders, LLC (KY). T-Gary Sciacca.

2nd-BEL, $40,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 7f, 1:23, ft. + DESTRUCTION (c, 3, Danzig--Homewrecker, by Buckaroo) showed a bullet drill over this dirt Apr. 14 and had trained steadily up to his lifetime debut for a sire who accounts for one first-out winner from every three starters. Middlesex Drive, second in the 1998 Tampa Bay Derby on the main track, signaled himself a turf star of the future when switched to that surface last fall to be third in the Gil Jamaica H. at Belmont Oct. 18. The chestnut went to the sidelines after an impressive 5 1/2-length victory over the Churchill green in November, but returned running, finishing a fast-closing third in a one-mile turf allowance at Keeneland Apr. 22. A bit rank and very keen to go on early, he finally settled under jockey Pat Day while in fourth position down the backstretch. The homebred was momentarily blocked coming into the stretch, but ultimately secured room at the sixteenth pole and ran down Sky Colony to score his first stakes and graded-stakes victory. Winning trainer Phil Hauswald said, "I've always thought this horse had a lot of talent. It has just taken a long time for him to show it." The GI Manhattan S. at Belmont June 5 could mark the next start for Middlesex Drive, according to Hauswald.

Mil Kilates took a Gulfstream allowance event three back, just before a switch to the barn of trainer Bobby Barnett. The chestnut ran a big race to be third in the Mar. 21 Oaklawn Breeders' Cup H. in her first start for Barnett and in so doing earned a shot in the Apr. 9 GI Apple Blossom, but was never in contention in a fifth-place performance that day. A longshot off the effort, she was taken back by jockey Shane Sellers off the early pace while riding the rails down the backstretch in seventh position. Leaving the three-eighths pole, the six-year-old was asked to take up the running and made a steady advance while still along the wood. The tiring frontrunner Merengue drifted just slightly off the rail at the eighth pole and Sellers took full advantage of the opening, shooting his mare through the hole en route to the victory.

Yes It's True survived a racelong speed duel with Texas Glitter to take a thrilling renewal of the GIII Swale S. at Gulfstream three back and followed that up with the easiest kind of victory in the GIII Lafayette S. at Keeneland Apr. 8. In his last start, he once again revealed distance limitations (O-for-four at a mile and beyond) when fourth, beaten 5 1/2 lengths in the GIII Derby Trial Apr. 25. Dropping back to a sprint and facing older rivals this time, the colt broke alertly and was able to secure a narrow lead along the rail into the far turn, while Artax (Marquetry), track-record setting winner of the GI Carter H. last time out raced in fifth after a slow start. As the field reached the top of the stretch, Yes It's True, still on the inside, opened a daylight advantage and was clear at the eighth pole, but behind him Artax and Greenspring Willy (Smarten) were forced to check when a fan managed to get onto the track and stood directly in the path of the oncoming runners. (See News Today, p2). The final time was one fifth off the track record. Of the winner, trainer D. Wayne Lukas said, "This horse is outstanding going six and seven furlongs and I think he can get a mile under the right circumstances." The winner will start next in the seven-furlong GII Riva Ridge S. on the Belmont S. undercard June 5.

Lead Em Home won his first two lifetime starts, including Laurel's Ambernash S. second out, and was on the board in four subsequent stakes before a fifth-of-nine finish in the GIII Derby Trial in his most recent appearance Apr. 25. Looking to rebound, the colt settled in along the inside into the first turn as a three-way speed duel developed. The hot pace took its toll on the three-deep and favored Straight Man (Saint Ballado) (11th) leaving the far turn and as he retreated, Kent Desormeaux drove Lead Em Home between rivals; the 11-1 shot hit the front nearing the eighth pole and inched clear to his second stakes victory. "I could kick myself in the butt," said winning trainer Phil Marino. "I should've run this horse in the Preakness." Lead Em Home was a last-minute defection from the second leg of the Triple Crown. Marino indicated that the June 5 Belmont S. is under consideration for the winner.

Making her first appearance this season, the bay rated near the back of the pack through the opening quarter, moved up from between horses as they headed into the far turn, went after pacesetter Barlee Mist as they wheeled into the stretch and swept past that one to win going away in a time just one tick off the stakes record. "She showed she's a true champion today," said jockey Todd Kabel. "She came through some traffic problems and was strong in the lane and determined to win." Bookkeeper Fined for Hialeah Claiming Violation:

Hialeah stewards yesterday fined horsemen's bookkeeper Betsy Tillman $500 for divulging information about a claim. On Sunday May 9, Sweet Dreams (Trick Me), owned by John Brunetti's Red Oak Farm, Inc., was entered for a tag of $16,000. Hialeah General Manager Rick Sacco, whose brother Greg trains for Brunetti, called Tillman 10 minutes before the race to find out if there was a claim and Tillman told him Brunetti's horse was taken. Shortly after the phone call, jockey Jose Ferrer rode Sweet Dreams over to the track vet, David Nash, and told him the horse had a sore back. Nash scratched the horse. The stewards fined Tillman because the Hialeah house rules read, "...no official of said Association shall give any information as to the filing of claim therein until after the race has been run." State Steward Walter Blum said, "We would have liked to do more, but we couldn't find any other rules violations."

Crafty Oak went on a three-race winning streak last year, beginning with a pair of allowance victories at Hawthorne and culminating with a victory in the Wabash S. at Hoosier Park Oct. 17. Winless in three starts in New Orleans, she was given a break, then returned to be third in Fair Grounds allowance company and most recently tan fourth, 7 1/2 lengths back, in the Apr. 14 Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland. Lines of Beauty set a very ambitious pace, with Highfalutin in close attendance and Crafty Oak saving ground in fifth through three-quarters in 1:10. At the eighth pole, Mark Guidry angled the pacesetter out to engage the closing Highfalutin, but it was Crafty Oak who snuck up along the vacated rail to win going away. "I told anyone who would listen to me that she'd take some beating," said winning trainer Gene Cilio. "She's been feeling good. I thought if she was ever going to have a chance at a big stake this would be her best chance." The Sixty Sails marked the first graded-stakes victory for Cilio.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Mingling Glances overpowered the Bryan Station S. last fall at Keeneland and followed that effort with a neck defeat in the Gill Cardinal H. Nov. 7. A seventh-place finish in the Gill My Charmer H. at Calder sent the bay to the sidelines and she returned to the races with a somewhat troubled second, beaten 1 1/2 lengths in the Gill Jenny Wiley at Keeneland Apr. 9. Reluctant to load, the mare broke relatively well, but appeared rank as she raced in midpack, never far from the early pace-setters. Censored is always a tough customer when entered against fellow Cal-breds, accounting for the Melair S. last June and the Feb. 6 Pro Or Con S. going a mile at Santa Anita. She was most recently fourth at a mile over the Arcadia turf course Apr. 16, beaten only 1 3/4 lengths. Cutting back to a sprint and on the main track for this try, the filly cut out very sharp fractions on the front end while positioned off the rail and was never seriously challenged in this easy victory.

NURSERY S., $92,150, HOL, 5-15, 2yo, f, 4 1/2f, :51 3/5, ft.

3--R Far Out Star, 119, f, 2, Far Out East--Snow Biz, by Snow Chief. ($1,500 yrl '98 BESJAN). O-Capehart & Howard. $11,508.

Margins: 2, 8, HF. Odds: 0.60A, 2.20, 17.10B.

Wired To Fly wired a field of maidens going this trip Apr. 25 and came back for more, blasting three furlongs at Santa Anita May 2 in :33 and breezing a more relaxed half mile May 10 in :49 3/5. Part of the favored entry, the filly was sent after the lead while four wide, pulled one length clear at the eighth pole and came home in front despite drifting out in the latter stages.

2nd-HOL, $58,710, Alw, Opt. Clm. ($62,500), 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:41 4/5, ft.

BARTER TOWN (c, 4, Cox's Ridge--Sunday Bazaar, by Nureyev) produced a pair of wins at three, including a 4 1/2-length Del Mar allowance tally which propelled him into the Gil Pegasus H. at the Meadowlands, where he finished a well-beaten fifth. He had not raced since a similar placing on the turf last Oct. 10, but returned in smashing style, cruising the entire way on the front end and reporting home an easy 2 1/4-length victor as the 5-2 chalk. Lifetime Record: 8-3-3-0, $134,180. O/B-Juddmonte Farms (Ky). T-Robert Frankel.

7th-HOL, $50,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 5 1/2fT, 1:02, fm.

SKIBO CASTLE (c, 4, Kris S.--Truxton Two {MSP}, by Slew o' Gold) won his first-ever try on the grass taking a Santa Anita down-the-hiller by a neck Mar. 4 to break his maiden. He had been off the board in a pair of turf routes since, coming home a well-beaten sixth at Santa Anita Apr. 18. Dropping back to a sprint, the chestnut prompted the pace from the outside early on, came out for the stretch run and caught favored Treasure Hunt (Prospectors Gamble) in the final jumps to win by a neck at 13-1. Lifetime Record: 9-2-0-2, $69,540. O/B-Campbell Alex G Jr. (KY). T-Eduardo Inda.

6th-HOL, $45,000, Msw, 3yo, 6 1/2f, 1:15, ft.
LORD CUNNINGHAM (c, 3, Dayjur--Excellent Spirit, by Damascus) got off to a terrible start, but rallied for fourth in his first-ever appearance going six furlongs Apr. 15 at Santa Anita. In this outing, the colt pressed the pace wide early, made his move at the leader entering the stretch and wore down the competition in a long duel to score by three-quarters of a length at 5-1. The winner is a 1/2 to Spiritual Star (Soviet Star), MSW, $146,000, and was an $80,000 KEESEP yearling. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $29,700.

 3--Undeterred (GB), 128, c, 3, Zafonic--Mint Crisp (Ire), by Green Desert. $3,717.
 Margins: SHD, 2, NK. Odds: 6-5, 7-2, 9-2.

Fragrant Oasis justified favoritism, but only just. Settled in the rear early, she mounted her challenge a furlong and a half out, finding the perfect split and rallying to take the lead, but pacesetter Arctic Char would not give in, battling back resolutely to just lose the nod on the line. Winning trainer Ed Dunlop said, "Fragrant Oasis has some cuts on her legs in front and behind, but hopefully she will recover quickly with some treatment and I hope to send her to Royal Ascot for the [G3] Jersey S. [June 16]."

Perugino Bay to the U.S.:

Perugino Bay (Ire) (Perugino), third, beaten 1 1/4 lengths by Enrique (GB) in the G3 Tripleprint S. at Newbury, England Apr. 17, has been sold to race in America. The three-year-old, who has won two of 12 races for trainer Bryan McMahan, flies across the Atlantic Tuesday. Owner John Fretwell would not reveal who purchased the colt, but said, "I had an offer I couldn't refuse. I turned down the first offer, but they kept coming and their final offer was just too good. All the race conditions are right for him in America." The seven-furlong Tripleprint S. was his longest race of his career.

Off his victory in his last racetrack appearance, the G1-Jpn Arima Kinen over 1 9/16 miles last December, Grass Wonder, the 1997 Japanese two-year-old champion, was made the strong favorite for his return.
 Keiwan Viking set the pace from the gate while the crowd's choice bided his time in midpack. As the field entered the stretch, the American-bred circled wide to take the lead and was able to hold Air Jihad safe for the victory.
